

Bryant University

Bryant Digital Repository

Trickey, Katherine W.

Letters by Women During World War II

12-5-1944

Letter Written by Katherine Trickey to Her Folks Dated December 5, 1944

Katherine W. Trickey

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/trickey>

Recommended Citation

Trickey, Katherine W., "Letter Written by Katherine Trickey to Her Folks Dated December 5, 1944" (1944). Trickey, Katherine W.. Paper 90.

<https://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/trickey/90>

This Personal Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Letters by Women During World War II at Bryant Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Trickey, Katherine W. by an authorized administrator of Bryant Digital Repository. For more information, please contact dcommons@bryant.edu.

Tuesday Dec 5

[1944]

Dear Folks,

It must seem like a dream to Aunt Grace and to the rest of you to have all the boys home again. I can scarcely wait to get there myself. Of course, I want the boys to use the car if they wish. They can get extra gas on the leave papers if they have the registration of the car too I believe.

I will be leaving here Midnight next Wed. Arriving in New Jersey early Friday Morning and getting to Lewiston sometime Sat P.M. I thought it better to stop at Phil's on the way home as I would have to leave on Xmas to have time enough to stop going back.

This is just a hasty note during the after oon break. Don't be surprised if my letter are sort of scetchy between now and when I get home as I have much to do. I'll try to catch you up on all the news here when I see you. Only 8 days before I start!

Olga left night before last for her furlough so I am alone in my room for the next two weeks.

Give my love to the boys and tell tham I'm eagerly looking forward to seeing them.

Love to all

Kay