7.30 PM.

Dear Folks,

I am writing this here in Macon at one of the nice little writing desks. May & I are waiting for 9.30 to go to lecture by Erika Mann. We came in early so that I could check bus & train schedules about going to Charleston S.C. I was hoping that I might be able to go to see Vera Foulson at Stark Hospital this week-end but I find that I'd have to have Monday morning off to make it and I don't know whether I can do it or not. I'd certainly like to see her. She may, of course, be transferred

North by this time, I saw the notice in Friday's Bangor paper which came today. I'll check with the Red Cross before I go anyway.

Yesterday I had Donald Goodness from Brewer up to dinner. He seemed to enjoy it and I was glad to have him.

Saturday night Marij + I went to a College play at Wesleyan Conservatory.
It was a mystery play "Ladies in Waiting", a very good play for an all girl cast.

Tomorrow is glee club again and baseball practice. Can't decide which to go to. The club will stop in about 2 weeks, I hope.

I played 3 sets of tennis yesterday got beaten as usual 7-5, 6-2, 6-1. Drake is certainly much better than I am.

I have on my summer tropical worsted suit tonight and it is plenty warm for it. I hope it stay warm for over Easter.

By the way, our sunrise service from 7.30 to 8.30 Eastern War Time will be broadcast over the Columbia Network

I don't expect to be there but you might care to listen anyway.

May + I had planned to go to Atlanta - had a room and everything then she found out she was going to have to work Sunday. So we gave up our reservation. I've have volunteered to do K.P. Sunday but if I find that I can go to see Vera I'll try to beg off. but probably I won't be able to get Monday morning so won't go away.

you can be pretty sure, I guess, that I'll be doing K.P. Easter is one of the holidays that the officers & 1st 3 graders do the work so the girls may have a real holiday, As I never have to do it now, it is only fair to take it on holiday but it is a purely volunteer proposition.

Well, must stop now as the time is getting on.

Love to all
