DOCTOR OF LAWS (LL.D.)

WILLIAM P. ROGERS

Deputy Attorney General of the United States

William P. Rogers was born in Norfolk, New York, attended Colgate University and Cornell Law School where he was editor of the Cornell Law Quarterly and a member of the order of Coif. Upon graduation in 1937 he joined the firm of Cadwalader, Wickersham and Taft in New York and in 1938 Thomas E. Dewey employed him as an Assistant District Attorney, in which position he remained until 1942.

From 1942 to 1946 he served as a reserve officer in the United States Navy with the rank of Lieutenant Commander. After the war, he returned to the New York District Attorney's office until the summer of 1947, when he became Chief Counsel of the Senate War Investigating Committee. Thereafter he became counsel for the Senate Permanent Investigating Committee, which included the investigation of Major General Bennett E. Meyers and Government's Loyalty Program in the William Remington case.

Early in 1950 he resigned from the Committee to become a member of the firm of Dwight, Royall, Harris, Koegel and Caskey of New York and Washington. In November of 1952, President Eisenhower named him for the post of Deputy Attorney General.

He has also been appointed to the President's Committee on Government Contracts, which has the responsibility for improving and making effective the nondiscrimination-in-employment provisions of Government contracts.

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (D.S. in B.A.)

H. E. HUMPHREYS, JR.

President and Chairman of United States Rubber Company

Beginning his career at the age of 17 as a clerk in the offices of the Pennsylvania Railroad, Mr. Humphreys, a native of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, was educated in its elementary and high schools, and attended the evening classes of the Wharton School of Finance for seven years until he earned enough credits to win a certificate of proficiency. Meanwhile he was employed as a stenographer for the Toledo Scale Company and the Alan Wood Iron and Steel Company as auditor for Price, Waterhouse & Co. and in 1927 joined the Christiana Securities Company in Wilmington, Delaware where he eventually became secretary and treasurer. He was elected a vice-president, director and member of the executive committee of the United States Rubber Company in 1938 and in 1942 was appointed to head the finance committee of that company. He became president and chairman of the executive committee in 1949 and chairman of the board in 1951.

Among his directorships, Mr. Humphreys numbers the Great American Insurance Company of New York; Dominion Rubber Company, Ltd., Montreal, Canada; Chemical Corn Exchange Bank of New York; Latex Fiber Industries, Beaver Falls, New York; Terminal Warehouses, Ltd., Toronto, Canada; Rubber Manufacturers Association, and is the immediate past president of the Economic Club of New York. He is a trustee of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York and a member of the National Industrial Conference Board.

He is a member of the University of Pennsylvania Club of New York City, the University Club, Blind Brook, the Undine Barge Club of Philadelphia, the Links Club, the Metropolitan Club of New York and the Pennsylvania Society of which he is honorary past president. He is a trustee of the University of Pennsylvania. In 1953 he was awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws from that university. He is Dickinson Lecturer at Harvard's Graduate School of Business.

A resident of Scarsdale, New York, Mr. Humphreys takes an active interest in the community life. For several years he was a member of the board of trustees of Scarsdale. In 1947 he was appointed mayor upon the death of Samuel E. Darby, Jr., and in March of 1948 he was elected to serve out the term, which expired March 31, 1949.

DOCTOR OF EDUCATION (D.Ed.)

DR. MICHAEL F. WALSH

Commissioner of Education for the State of Rhode Island

Dr. Michael F. Walsh received his elementary and high school education in Newport, Rhode Island. A graduate of Holy Cross College, he did graduate work at Harvard, Columbia, Boston University, University of Illinois, Brown, Rhode Island College of Education and New Hampshire University. The Honorary Degree of Doctor of Education was bestowed upon him by Catholic Teachers College.

Before becoming Superintendent of Schools in Newport, he was Athletic Director, Coach, Teacher, Dean of Boys and Assistant to the Principal at Rogers High School in that town. In 1947 he was made Commissioner of Education for the State.

The United States Navy awarded him one of the highest honors given to a civilian, when he was presented the Meritorious Public Service Citation for an educational program established at the Quonset Point Naval Air Station.

A past president of the Rhode Island Institute of Instruction, the Newport Lions and the Newport Chamber of Commerce, Dr. Walsh is Chairman of the Northeastern Commissioner's Association. He also holds membership in the American Association of School Administrators, the National Education Association, the New England Association of School Administrators, the National Council of Chief State School Officers, the Navy League of the United States, the Armed Forces Advisory Committee. He served as Secretary-Chairman for the Newport Draft Board, World War II, for seven years.

A veteran of World War I, Dr. Walsh is also a member of the American Legion, the Knights of Columbus, and the Elks organizations.

DOCTOR OF SECRETARIAL SCIENCE (D.S.S.)

LOLA MACLEAN

President, Detroit Commercial College, Detroit, Michigan

A native of Wilmington, Delaware, Lola Maclean received her general education in Friends School of that city, followed by studies in the fine arts at The Mather School, Spokane, Washington and the Bonstelle School in Detroit. Her business education was completed at the Detroit Commercial College where she majored in secretarial science and business administration teaching. Miss Maclean received national certification for teaching Gregg Shorthand from the Gregg Publishing Company of New York. Students and student-teams trained by her have won first place for many years in world-wide shorthand contests. She has also trained high-speed shorthand writers and professional court reporters. She is the author of several text books, including Walton-Maclean Typewriting Procedure and Practice and the Walton-Maclean Teachers Manual.

In 1938 Miss Maclean was elected President of the National Education Association, Department of Business Education. Her memberships include active participation in many professional, civic and cultural associations. She has honorary and life memberships in the Michigan Court Reporters Association, and the National Education Association. She is one of the few women appointed to membership in the Detroit Board of Commerce. A member of the Professional and Business Women's Division of the Women's City Club of Detroit, Miss Maclean also holds a similar membership with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.
