

UNITED STATES ARMY AIR FORCE

Wednesday
2015

My Darling Wife,
Boy I beat. I flew
four ground missions today and all I hear are machine guns and engines
roaring in my ears.

We fired ground gunnery today. I've decided that's a lot harder than aerial, you have to be too careful and exact. I fired for record and scored 44%, 30% being required for qualification,
I made it O.K. Tomorrow
on Friday I should R.F.

aerial.

As to when we're leaving you tell me and we'll both know. LT.

Slaymaker, the C.O. says
Saturday. LT. Fitzgerald,
the Sqdn II C.O. says

Sunday. LT. Britton, Sudan I C.O. says Sunday,
but - LT. Nagle, the Ground School Director says Saturday.
Slaymaker and Nagle are both first LT's Britton's only a shavetail, so I guess we leave Saturday (I don't know.)

This is some field.
Today on my walk after a landing I almost clipped a goat! He was standing right in the middle of the runway. There's nothing like flying out of the wilds. "into #6
the wild....." Don't mind me I finally cracked today, that
goat was too much.
Two more days, God
I hope they hurry.

There's no news
baby, 'cept that I'm nuts about you.

and miss you terribly,
and it's hot as hell!
Otherwise there's nuttin'
doin'.

I did get a sunburn
today, but with the
beard I had I only got burned on the forehead and nose. Tell me, are you attracted to the two-toned type baby?

I guess it's safe to tell you now. I raised a mustache while I've been here, but I shaved it off tonight.
I didn't like it much.
Everybody has started
one though, even Tom.

The only thing is you
can't see his, it's blonde!
There's all shapes and sizes, a couple of the boys have them like Hitler's. Very sharp, anything to break the monotony.

Well honey, that's about all the news for now.

Only one thing worth
repeating, - I love you,

oh honey, so much.

You will have all
of my love always darling.

Hope to see you Saturday night angel. Until then,
I love you -

Your devoted husband
