Dearest [Signature],

Honey, just got back to the hotel and I miss you so darned much. Why do the hours that we were together go so darned fast and the ones when we're separated go so awfully slow? It just ain't fair.

There's a soldier in the room across the court and he's writing too. Probably to his wife. See, why couldn't we be married now! It is silly to wait and waste all this time. Just think we could be together three more months if we were married at Christmas.

But I just asked me to come over to her house for dinner but I said you'd probably be off by that time.

Well, my darling I love you very much. I'll write more tomorrow morning.
I don't think that the telephone will stretch over to the bed. Oh, heck! I'll have to get up in the
morning at that ungodly
hour and answer the
darned thing.

Hee, hee, I wish that
we were married so much
and that we could be together instead of me being
here & you being in the old caravan. It's disgusting.
That's what it is. Downright disgusting!
have to get up in the
morning at that ungodly
hour and answer the
darned thing.

Bee, honey, I wish that
we were married so much
and that we could be
here & you being in the
old caravan. It's disgusting.
that! What is is - downright disgusting!
Honey. I love you so much.
Please write whenever you can because your letters are so marvelous. I love you so much.

Goodnight now my darling.
I love you forever and always.

Another thing. I refuse to have people calling you William. I absolutely will not stand for it!!!! (just to use up space)
I love you.
Dearest Hudson,

Getting busy, it's getting so late—Woody is lying in bed now sleeping or rather trying to catch up on some sleep.

I hope that you didn't yet lost, him.

I wish that you had a call.

It does seem such a waste of time for you to be so near and yet so far—wonder where you are now honey.

Hope that you're back at Stewart,

what a life we had. Weather, weather!

see, honey, it was so nice to hear your voice this morning even though it was at that ungodly hour. By the way what time were it? I didn't open my eyes and beside it was too dark to see anything then.

After you called I went back to sleep and then a few hours later Moody came and woke me up.

See I love you so much.

With love get back to camp + call.
