Sun AM Jul 29

Dear Folks,

I am CQ at the office this morning and it isn't busy so I am going to take time to write a few letters.

Wasn't it nice that Lawrence really got over here? Ruby must be excited and relieved. I presume you are at Camp by now. Wish I were there too! I hope Dad can go out to Phil's for a day or two or longer as I know they would enjoy it as well as he. The youngsters are so nice right now too bad you both can't see them.

Last night and the night before I stayed in the barracks - washed etc and read. - quite a record for me two nights in a row in the barracks! - Drake has moved out into the squad room to be nearer the girls. (She got too afraid of mice while I was gone!) - I don't mind and only hope I'll not have to have anyone else with me. It's fun to have a room alone again. I have two wall lockers and two foot lockers now so have plenty of room for my clothes.

Mon PM

Did I say it wasn't busy Sunday AM? I didn't have but just the five minutes I used on the above! I slept, read + ironed in the afternoon and went to see "Anchors Aweigh" in the evening. It is long but I enjoyed it very much and hope to see it when it comes to Macon where I can have an upholstered seat so I can really enjoy it even more. —

Tonight I went to library - after all this time they've finally got a bus that runs by there. I shall enjoy it very much believe me,

I met a Bangor Boy - Jimmy Bradbury - there tonight - He has been here about 4 weeks. He's expecting to bring his wife + daughter down as soon as he can find an apartment. She was an Ellsworth girl

I'm going to try this airmail to Hampden

Much love to all

Kay

P.S. Kiss Bobby + good night for me and tell him I'll be home again sometime
