Dear Folks,

just a note before I go to the movies to see James Stewart in "Jimmy Steps Out."

We went on winter hours today 8 to 5.30 - Didn't have to get up until 6.30 instead of 5.30 - seemed good to me.

We had Sat off (all day) - washed + ironed until about 3 o'clock - then went to Macon for supper + the show - We (Mary, Minnie + I) saw Pan American - (which was pretty good).

Yesterday I slept nearly all day and read some - then went to the show last night - "Dangerous Partners" not really worth seeing.

This seems to be my show week! I even went Friday evening ~~also~~! - and plan to go nearly every night this week as there are good shows every night!!!

I'm afraid, Mother, that you'd better not make plans for my early return!! I don't expect to be out for sometime. Nothing yet has changed since the war ended. - I don't think it will for some months

This really is a rush job - I've got to finish now to get this mailed tonight!

Hastily but with love to all

Kay
