

Bryant University

Bryant Digital Repository

Trickey, Katherine W.

Letters by Women During World War II

8-25-1945

Letter Written by Katherine Trickey to Her Folks Dated August 25, 1945

Katherine W. Trickey

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/trickey>

Recommended Citation

Trickey, Katherine W., "Letter Written by Katherine Trickey to Her Folks Dated August 25, 1945" (1945). Trickey, Katherine W.. Paper 132.

<https://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/trickey/132>

This Personal Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Letters by Women During World War II at Bryant Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Trickey, Katherine W. by an authorized administrator of Bryant Digital Repository. For more information, please contact dcommons@bryant.edu.

25 Aug 45
9.30 A.M. Sat

Dear Folks,

Another quiet day but I have to work all day as I had Tuesday afternoon off. Grande ~~is~~ on pass and Bonnie on furlough so Rush and I are here ~~with~~ alone to do the typing and filing. As there is very little work so fare I guess even so we'll have time on our hands.

Every evening has been busy this week. Wed I went swimming at the YW . Thurs. evening I went swimming at Lakeside. Mary Vryens and Brownie Nolen and I and Mary's Date in Mary's car. It certainly seemed good to go in a car somewhere instead of a bus. It was so restful. Last night, I went to the library and then to see Maenna Durbin in "Lady on a Train" which is a good murder story. She does sing three songs very beautifully but very out of place.

Haven't any plans for tonight and tomorrow yet but hope to get away from camp somewhere.

I'm going to try to get a three-day pass the first of the month and go to the seashore. Thought I'd wait till this hot spell was over.

I've started studying my Chemistry again, Dad, but it certainly is a hard correspondence course. I'd like to finish it so I could take something else. I don't want to quit on it if I can help it. So long as I can spend a few hours each day in the office on it, it shouldn't be too bad, should it!!

Well, there is a little more work, I guess I'd better stop now and do it.

Love to all

Kay