

12-19-1944

Letter Written by Edith Speert to Victor A. Speert Dated December 19, 1944

Edith Speert

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/edith>

Part of the Arts and Humanities Commons

Recommended Citation

Speert, Edith, "Letter Written by Edith Speert to Victor A. Speert Dated December 19, 1944" (1944). Speert, Edith and Victor A.. Paper 137.
<https://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/edith/137>

This Personal Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Letters by Women During World War II at DigitalCommons@Bryant University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Speert, Edith and Victor A. by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Bryant University. For more information, please contact dcommons@bryant.edu.

Tuesday, 12/19/44, 2:00 p.m.
Nap time at the nursery

My dearest

I have checked all my reports & schedules, & am now taking my turn at sitting in the sleep room. I wonder what does & doesn't make a child sleep? — Emotions? Certainly, they've played long & hard outdoors, the sleep room has all "sleep atmosphere" possible. What could have disturbed some of the children today?

Mr. Bryan, Federal adm. was out this a.m. to hire me a new janitor. He seemed rather pleased with how everything is going. Of course, I'm pleased, too, since there is so darn much improvement in everything since we opened.

I only wish this climate was like San Antonio. I hate the snow & cold worse^{2.} than ever! I drove to work today & really had a "hair-raising" experience. My car swerved completely around on Moreland Blvd. after skidding on some ice. Gosh, our ford is definitely not made for the north.

The news from the European front has been rather discouraging the last few days - to say the least. I'm "kind of" anxious about you, but my intuition seems to tell me that everything is "okay" & I hope I can depend on my intuition.
So take care of yourself my darling. I can't live without you, sweetheart!

Xmas is quite an exciting time this year since we all exchanged presents in the family & I don't really

3

know what anyone is getting me. I'm certainly going to be surprised!

Darling, I regret only one thing — that I didn't make you marry me the very first time we talked about it. You know, Vic, you are a wonderful husband! I love you, my precious, with every fibre of my being.

Forever & ever yours,

Fritz

What I like about Fred L — is also one of your best traits! We can't "pull the wool o'er his eyes". I definitely like strong, dominant, & firm men in more ways than one.