Festival of Lights

The Student Alumni Association (SAA) invites you and your family to the sixteenth annual Festival of Lights holiday celebration on December 2 at 9:00 p.m. in the Rotunda. The multi-denominational ceremony will be followed by a sing along led by entertainer Dave Binder.

Annual Holiday Toy Drive

The SAA is collecting unwrapped new or used toys in good condition to donate to the Nickerson House, a local charity which will give the toys to less fortunate families. Alumni, students, faculty, staff, and community members are encouraged to deliver the toys to the Alumni House on weekdays from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. November 30 to December 13.

A Christmas Carol Matinee

On December 13 the RI Alumni Chapter is hosting a buffet at 12 noon, a matinee showing of Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" performed by the Cumberland Company at 2:00 p.m., and a visit with Santa Claus on campus. The buffet is $5 per person, children under 5, free. The performance is $10 per person regardless of age. Please bring donations for the SAA Toy Drive.

Investment Strategies for the '90s

Michael A. Langlois '78, '82MBA, a certified financial planner and president of his own company, will Investment Strategies continued... conduct a continuing education workshop on January 19. Mike's flexible program will touch on asset allocation, financial planning, investments, and portfolio management, tax planning, retirement and estate planning, and college education funding. Mike will tailor the presentation to meet the requirements of the participants.

Jeffrey A. Ferrante '81, a senior financial consultant with Merrill Lynch, will examine the case for equities - should you invest in stocks? What are the rewards, risks, and historical performance records? Then Jeff will discuss how to buy stocks -- including such issues as value, growth, income, top-down, bottom-up, philosophy, and international perspectives. This session will be held on January 26.

Each workshop will run from 6:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. in Rooms 2A&B of the Bryant Center. Light refreshments will be provided. To register, send your check made payable to Bryant College for $35 per person for both seminars or $20 per person for one seminar to Investment Strategies, Bryant College Alumni Office, 1150 Douglas Pike, Smithfield, RI 02917-1284 by December 31, 1992.

BEST in Action

This fall Bryant Enrollment Support Team (BEST) members telephoned over 400 high school students who have expressed interest in Bryant.

Jeff Lake '88 of Middleboro, MA, set the record by making more than 50 calls. Also 31 BEST volunteers represented Bryant at 41 different college nights across the country.

Cynthia Prachar '91 made her mark by covering four college nights in New Jersey. The BEST alumni furthest from campus who covered college nights are Zeke Rodriguez '80 and Norm Tousignant '77 in Fort Lauderdale, FL, and Vivian (Ligas) '85 and David Normandeau '84 in Columbus, OH. Eight BEST volunteers participated in the Open House on campus Sunday, October 25, to welcome students and their families, guide them from building to building, and answer questions.

Yearbooks for Sale

There are still a few yearbooks available, primarily from the years 1965 to present. If you are interested in purchasing one (they make great gifts), send a check payable to Bryant

College Ledger to Box 8, 1150 Douglas Pike, Smithfield, RI 02917 or contact the Ledger office at 401-232-6048. The cost of $25 each includes shipping and handling.

Tax Symposium

The 25th Annual Income Tax Symposium for Practitioners, CPAs, and Tax Attorneys will be held on Saturday, December 12, from 8:00 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. in the Bryant College CENTER for Management Development. The fee of $125 includes registration, luncheon, refreshments, and comprehensive reference materials. Offering you the latest practical information on tax laws and issues, the tax symposium features presentations on all aspects of business formation, collection, valuation, and compensation. For more information, please call Barbara Slater in the CENTER at 401-232-6201.

Alumni House Prints Available

Connecticut artist Wes Robinson has produced an enchanting pen-and-ink drawing of the Mowry Alumni House circa 1708. Size 16x20 black and white photoprints of the original are now available to Bryant alumni at the special price of $20. You may order directly from Wes Robinson at 203-675-7482 or visit the Alumni House to view the artwork.

SAA and RI Chapter Team Up for Success

The RI Chapter and the Student Alumni Association (SAA) drew a record attendance of 101 students at the ethics seminar on October 20 which was presented by Professor Bill Haas and coordinated by Crystal Packer-Pilon '89MBA.

The SAA Mentor program has matched an additional 31 juniors and sophomores with alumni mentors this fall. Special thanks go to Kenneth J. Sousa '87MBA and Jerry Kirkwood '61 for their invaluable service during the interview process.
