“Prefer Slick, Feverish Grooves Over Funky Backbeats”

– MusicChoice TV advertisement

ACE BOGESS

blessed rock’n’roll R & B funk folk acid jazz blessed Beatles carnival barker calling the modern era blessed Doors Who Grateful Dead immortal noodling licks on vinyl persistent as the low note in my college neighbor’s busy buzzing radiator blessed Sam playing along “there’s a B-flat in my head board” blessed Joshua Redman saxophone a second tongue whispering sweetest words in bed blessed Rusted Root rhythmic re-animation of jam-band jam blessing the crowd with dance shake mystery vibe blessed locals Jeff Roy Tyler Kat Mike Speedy John Shawn Annie leaving to return savor diverse notes catchy refrains heavy metal blaring moaning blues frayed like an old man’s movement into night tonight a Celtic quintet whistling bullets through silk armor of a woman’s voice blessed Shenanigans classic Irish sweetness melancholia groove & bounce blessed Van Morrison soulful tone suffering slings & arrows blessed techno Moby reggae Marley ska la la da da de da de blessed Freddie Mercury coy erotic reaching “March of the Black Queen” blessed sultry Shirley Manson “happy when it rains” & sad to be in song blessed blessed blessed pipers in the summer heat center stage at Calamity Cafe vanished-bar nostalgia welcome as the word ‘welcome’ blessed release in chords chorus teasing cadence tribal as a movie about the white man’s dream of Africa blessed background score to my climax falling action end blessed end that hasn’t found me yet Sartre’s silence punctuates a symphony defines as much as first chords solos arpeggios harmony blue notes blessed blue notes & vigilance in the interlude anticipating quiet for the blessed listener’s blessed blessed ear