Dear Mom:

Just a note to tell you I'm alright. Can't write a letter tonight, we have to drill till eleven o'clock! Took my

A-20 today. It was alright.

Have to run now, will write tomorrow hon. I love you. Goodnight sweetheart.

Dear Mom:

I got through that K.P. yesterday alright, but it was plenty tough. We put in 18 hours. We were so tired we could hardly walk. O.S.I.S. came around pretty fast this morning. It was 25° this morning and the first period we went to P.T. and had to strip down to our undershirt in the cold! Boy, did we freeze. The rest of the morning was the same, machine gun drill, judo, etc.

There's only 8 more days of our basic test, then we start our basic advanced basic, which consists of 7 periods of classes and 1 of P.T. pretty soft. We'll be through our basic by next Saturday.

So Joan Palynple is supposed to be engaged to Don, that's a laugh, what bowl is that from? H. P. R. L. H.

Means "Hurry postman, you like hell!"
Haven't you ever heard that, how?

I'm glad that you're sending me a package. I enjoy them an awful lot. Thanks sweetheart. Tonight we have to G.I. the whole barracks for inspection tomorrow. We've restricted tomorrow afternoon because of an inventory of the alert lists
and casualties, and bowl #4, latrine
10. Has it that there are 200 men missing awol. and they want to check on them. We have to stand retreat tomorrow. That was impressive at first, but it soon gets tiresome.
I will always say that it's the prettiest ceremony in the army.

We have to fall out at 1900
tonight for a little extra drill.
So I have to run home, for I've got to eat and we also have that G.I. party tonight.
Give my love to all. I love
you. Good night Sweetheart;

Your loving son
