DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

JAYNE BAKER SPAIN

Vice Chairman, United States Civil Service Commission

Citation:

Jayne Baker Spain, industrialist, humanitarian, and public servant, your career is eloquent proof that women can and must play a vital role in business, social service, and government. For twenty years, you headed your own company, Alvey-Ferguson of Cincinnati, Ohio, an internationally known manufacturer of conveyor and unit handling equipment. Four years after its merger with Litton Industries, you became a director of the parent corporation, a tribute to your business acumen and your value as an advisor in the high councils of American industry. Your deep concern for the rehabilitation, training, and employment of the physically handicapped, and your splendid record of placing these individuals in worthwhile occupations, caused President Johnson to name you to the President's Committee on the Employment of the Handicapped in 1966 and President Nixon to reappoint you in 1969. You are presently serving as Vice Chairman of that Committee, having demonstrated in your own business and in others that handicapped persons properly trained and properly placed are not occupationally handicapped, and if given an equal opportunity will prove to be successful, and often superior, employees. On June 14, 1971, after nomination by the President and confirmation by the Senate, you became a member of the United States Civil Service Commission, the sixth woman in the Commission's eighty-eight year history, and you were also designated as Vice Chairman by the President. Bryant College is delighted to confer upon you the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa, with all its rights and privileges, and to invest you with the hood of the College.

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

ALVIN W. COHN

Chairman of the Board, Continental Coffee Company

Citation:

Alvin W. Cohn, businessman and civic leader, you began your career at an early age in the corporation of which you are now chief executive officer. While still a student, you joined the Continental Coffee Company as a summer employee, a fortuitous circumstance which aided you in gaining a thorough knowledge of various aspects of the company. Upon completion of your studies at DePaul University, you entered full-time management in 1940. These thirty-two years have been interrupted by service in World War II, during which you were on active duty in the Philippines, rising from the rank of private to first lieutenant. After having served as Vice President, President, and Vice Chairman of the Board, you succeeded your late father, Jacob Cohn, the founder of Continental Coffee, as Chairman of the Board. An outstanding success in business, you have not neglected the charitable and civic needs of your community, serving on the Boards of the Better Government Association of Chicago, the Chicago Convention and Tourism Bureau, the Michael Reese Hospital, and the Jewish Welfare Fund. For your many accomplishments and distinguished service, Bryant College is pleased to confer upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa, with all its rights and privileges, and to invest you with the hood of the College.

FREDERICK CLINTON WILLIAMSON

Director, Department of Community Affairs, State of Rhode Island

Citation:

Frederick Clinton Williamson, public official, spokesman for human decency, and leader in the service of the underprivileged, long before the movement for civil rights and racial equality became fashionable in political and social circles, you were in the vanguard, pointing the way, goading the conscience of your fellow citizens, and proving by your life and works that minority group persons could attain distinction in their chosen fields of endeavor. For twenty-seven years you were employed in positions of civilian management with the Department of the Navy. You were a member of the Grievance Advisory Board of the Quonset Naval Air Station and, for a time, Chairman of the Executive Board of the American Federation of Government Employees, AFL-CIO. In 1954 you received the second highest civilian award, the Navy's Meritorious Civilian Service Award, plus several other awards of merit during your Navy civilian career. You are a past President of the Urban League of Rhode Island, a former member of the Board of Directors of the Providence Branch of the NAACP, former Chairman of the Rhode Island Committee on Discrimination in Housing, and former Vice Chairman of Citizens United for Fair Housing. In 1968, you received the Bronze Brotherhood Award of the Southern New England Conference of Christians and Jews. Many of the projects for which you labored so long have come to fruition, but you have never given up the fight for what remains to be done. As Director of the Rhode Island Department of Community Affairs, you are continuing your efforts in an even broader scope of activity for the benefit of all the people of the State. Bryant College is pleased to recognize your accomplishments by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa, with all its rights and privileges, and to invest you with the hood of the College.

LEONARD I. SALMANSON
President, Adams Drug Company

Citation:

Leonard I. Salmanson, despite an eminently successful career in business, you are an extraordinarily humble man. You treat your many achievements in a matter-of-fact way as if everything was merely part of a day's work, and yet your accomplishments represent the work of a lifetime, both by yourself and your family. As President of the Adams Drug Company and various other enterprises, you are the symbol of what a resourceful and hard-working individual can still hope to realize in our American free enterprise system. Your drug chain operates two hundred and eighty stores in fourteen states. Its very name is synonymous with high quality merchandise at reasonable prices, a philosophy which has been an important ingredient in your success. Born in Providence and educated in the public schools, you are a splendid example to the graduates of this college of business administration of the importance of perseverance, diligent effort, and sound management. Bryant College is proud to confer upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa, with all its rights and privileges, and to invest you with the hood of the College.

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
NELSON JOSEPH GULSKI
Dean of the College, Bryant College

Citation:

Nelson Joseph Gulski, educator, certified public accountant, son of Bryant College, for forty-eight years you have served your Alma Mater with great distinction in a variety of positions. As teacher, Dean of the School of Business Administration, Dean of the College, and as Acting President from 1969 to 1970, the excellence of your work has been exceeded only by your devotion to duty and your willingness to place the welfare of the College and its students above your own personal interests. Time and time again, you have generously given the full measure of loyalty and dedication to Bryant College and its mission of educating young men and women for successful careers in business. Despite the many demands on your time, you have still been able to contribute to the betterment of your profession and community. You are a past President of the Rhode Island Society of Certified Public Accountants, a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the National Association of Accountants, a director of Swank, Inc., and a trustee of the Attleborough Savings Bank. The Town of North Attleboro has benefited from your service on the Town Finance Committee, the School Committee, School Building Committees, and By-law Revision Committees. You are currently a member of the Town's Long-Range Planning Committee, a position recognizing your talent for efficiency and organization. You have also been active in Junior Achievement of Rhode Island and the North Attleboro Scholarship Fund. Even with all your many accomplishments, both academic and civic, your true measure as a man is the love and esteem in which you are held by your colleagues, family, and friends. If one word could suffice to describe the type of person you are, that word would be integrity — integrity in your work, in your personal life, and in your dealings with your fellow men. It is for this quality and for your many attributes of mind, heart, and spirit that we hold you in reverence and esteem. Although you will soon retire from the active ranks of the administration, we shall always feel the presence of your fatherly kindness and concern and will cherish the warmth of your friendship. Bryant College is privileged to confer upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa, with all its rights and privileges, and to invest you with the hood of the College.
