

11-1-1945

Letter Written by Katherine Trickey to Her Folks Dated November 1, 1945

Katherine W. Trickey

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/trickey>

Recommended Citation

Trickey, Katherine W., "Letter Written by Katherine Trickey to Her Folks Dated November 1, 1945" (1945). Trickey, Katherine W.. Paper 144.

<https://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/trickey/144>

This Personal Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Letters by Women During World War II at DigitalCommons@Bryant University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Trickey, Katherine W. by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Bryant University. For more information, please contact dcommons@bryant.edu.

1 Nov 1945
WAC Det 12TC
Camp Wheeler, Ga

Dear Folks.

We have had such beautiful weather
the last two weeks. Perfect Indian Summer days.
It has seemed nice.

Dad does have bad luck as to weather at Camp doesn't he! It's a shame -

This is a busy week - Company party tonight - Little Theater play - sat night - Show at Macon
last night - Keeping me on the jump - Busy at the office also - Audrey Lenhart went on furlough today so I've got her filing to do on top of checking back files preparatory to storage. Be glad when I get through, believe me. I'll also be glad when I know whether or not they intend to hold up my discharge

until this place closes! - Still haven't any idea,

I am enclosing a picture I thought you'd like, and 2 patches for my scrap book; the blue one is a 7th Service Command Patch and the square one with the wreath is the Meritorious Service Award Patch we wore on our right sleeve about 4 inches from the bottom.

The Railway Express took my two packages tennis racket & flat iron Wed. P. M. instead of Mon. as I expected.

I had a nice long letter from Bertba today. She had such a nice trip to Massachusetts.

It won't be long now.

Love
Kay