My beloved,
I'm now in bed wearing my new pink bedsocks, & my new blue & white striped flannel pajamas, & I'm going to write you a rather long letter & tell you that I love you!

I received 2 V-mails from you today dated 12/6 & 12/11. I love getting your letters but I'm anxious to get your letters from about 12/14 on — want to hear what you have to say (if you may say) on the new German offensive.

Rec'd a lovely Xmas card from Sam Amet — the dear!
Also, rec'd a cute "rhyme" Xmas card (original) from my former boss, Ruth Bennett. I'll eventually send it on to you.

Heard from Lally — not much news! also, rec'd season's greeting from the Reitzes!

Honeydarling, you keep asking which is faster — V-mail or air mail & honestly, I can't answer that, cause it varies — sometimes I get one before the other & vice versa!

This is some of the stationery we bought me for Xmas! I like it better than anything else I've used

Don't forget that he rec'd the camera & films we sent him on his birthday. We got a letter from Eunice Peabodyman on his birthday.

The gal is "nuts" about him, but Mom doesn't seem to feel the same way!
Ukie & Fred are "madly in love" — it's delicious to just watch them! Darling.
The kid has good taste —
Fred is adorable!

The only one I worry about is Sanford — he doesn't "kitch his wagon to a star" — he seems to be in a "rut" & he acts like such an old man! I swear, sweets, you act younger than he! Also, he definitely is self-conscious & lacks praise. Of course, I do one very wrong thing — I compare him to you & then — get whiz, he's a
"drip"!

Mom & Dad plan to leave for Fla. Germany 3rd Hope they go — & then, again — Oh yes — give Dad "kitt" for reserving 2 Pullmans — told him he needn't be so greedy!
He could sleep with his wife one night & give another
Sent you a bunch of clippings by 3rd mail & a V-mail today. I love you madly, Edith
