Honorary Degree Citations

DOCTOR OF LAWS

ALTON WILLIAM WILEY

Rhode Island Attorney and Civic Leader

Citation:

Alton William Wiley, lawyer, educational administrator, and civic leader, you entered the legal profession with vision and idealism. Educated at the University of Rhode Island and Boston University Law School, you entered private practice and became Assistant United States Attorney for the District of Rhode Island. You labored long and tirelessly, not only to serve the interests of justice, but to enhance the dignity of the individual and enrich the quality of his life. You relinquished a successful practice in 1969 to accept appointment as Vice President for Student Affairs at the University of Rhode Island. Returning to your chosen profession this year, you are continuing your involvement in the community through membership in organizations concerning fair housing, drug abuse, crime and juvenile delinquency, youth development, and employment for minority persons. Bryant College is pleased to include you among its own by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Laws, Honoris Causa, with all its rights and privileges, and to invest you with the hood of the College.

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

SAMUEL LEVITEN

Chairman of the Board, Big G Food Stores

Citation:

Samuel Leviten, businessman and concerned citizen, the story of your life is proof that the American dream is still a reality for the resourceful and ambitious. Educated in the schools of Fall River, Massachusetts, you established a wholesale grocery business and opened your first supermarket in the late 1930's. That modest enterprise has grown to a chain of twenty-two supermarkets operating in Rhode Island, Massachusetts, and Connecticut. Despite a busy life, you have still given of your time to numerous charitable endeavors and fraternal organizations. In honoring you, we honor that breed of rugged individualists who dare to envision great goals and bring them to fruition within our free enterprise system. Bryant College is pleased to recognize your achievements by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, Honoris Causa, with all its rights and privileges, and to invest you with the hood of the College.

DOCTOR OF LAWS

FRED GEORGE BURKE

Rhode Island Commissioner of Education

Citation:

Fred George Burke, we salute you as scholar, teacher, administrator, and political advisor. Educated at Williams College, Oxford University, and Princeton University, you have served your fellow man as a Professor of Political Science, as a Consultant on African Affairs to the United Nations, as a Dean of International Studies, and presently as the Commissioner of Education of the State of Rhode Island. Your intellect, your farsightedness, your sensitivity, and your dedication to the advancement and innovation of education is welcomed and needed in our State. Indeed, to see the future, to envision the needs and requirements of future generations, a man must possess prescience and an unalterable desire to give of himself. You have dedicated your professional life to giving, to caring, to advancing the educational possibilities and aspirations of our young. Rhode Island is indeed fortunate to have you as Commissioner of Education, and Bryant College is honored to confer upon you the degree of Doctor of Laws, Honoris Causa, with all its rights and privileges, and to invest you with the hood of the College.

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
GERHARD RUDOLF ANDLINGER
Chairman of the Board, Esterline Corporation

Citation:

Gerhard Rudolf Andlinger, your career is an inspiration to all young men who desire to excel in American business. Born in Linz, Austria, you received your elementary and secondary education in Linz and Vienna. You were awarded your bachelor's degree by Princeton University and your master's degree at the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration. In 1956, after having served two years in the United States Army, you developed a concept of managerial theory utilized by the American Management Association. These innovative business principles have been translated into sixteen languages, and have inspired and guided business executives throughout the world. At the age of twenty-eight you became Director of Planning for International Telephone and Telegraph, and at thirty-four, the youngest Vice President in the history of ITT. In 1967, because of your exceptional business aptitude, you were elected Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the great Esterline Corporation now listed on the New York Stock Exchange. Bryant College is pleased to recognize your unique achievements by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, Honoris Causa, with all its rights and privileges, and to invest you with the hood of the College.

DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS
HELEN DELICH BENTLEY
Chairman, Federal Maritime Commission

Citation:

Helen Delich Bentley, journalist, syndicated columnist, editor, and government official, your journalistic career has been filled with many outstanding accomplishments. As Maritime Editor of the Baltimore Sun, you were instrumental in the enactment of considerable maritime legislation. These achievements prompted President Richard M. Nixon to appoint you as Chairman of the Federal Maritime Commission, the first woman appointed by any President to serve as Chairman of a Federal regulatory agency. Your name has been cited in "Who's Who of American Women," "Who's Who in the East," "Who's Who in Commerce and Industry," and "Who's Who in America." You have been included as one of the seventy-five most talented and successful women in the United States. Your dedication, your decisiveness, and your exemplary perseverance is an inspiration for all young men and women who truly desire to serve their profession and their country. Bryant College is pleased to acknowledge your achievements by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, Honoris Causa, with all its rights and privileges, and to invest you with the hood of the College.
