CLASS FLAG

Bryant University extends its gratitude to the late George J. Kelley '39, '69H, Honorary Trustee Emeritus, for his generosity in providing ongoing financial support for the purchase and display of each graduating class flag. The 2012 Class Flag was designed by seniors from the Student Alumni Association: Joshua Ballance, Katlyn Joraskie, Tiffany Marino, Sarah Perlman, Courtney Taylor, and Breanna Weaver. Sean Martell also assisted with the artwork for the flag.

The Class of 2012 sought to create a flag that depicts members of their class as loyal and committed citizens of both our campus and the global community. The design prominently features The Archway, Bryant's most beloved symbol, which students do not walk through until Commencement day. Paw prints, which represent the Bulldog, our mascot, lead up to the gate of The Archway. Shoe prints, which begin on the other side, denote graduating seniors as they begin the next chapter of their lives. The flag illustrates the lasting impression that the class has made on campus as Bryant Bulldogs, as well as the significant impact they will make in the world.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

Jeffrey D. Sachs, Ph.D.

Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters

Jeffrey D. Sachs, director of The Earth Institute, Quetelet Professor of Sustainable Development, and Professor of Health Policy and Management at Columbia University, will deliver the keynote address to graduating seniors and guests at the Undergraduate Commencement. Sachs is widely considered to be the leading international economic advisor of his generation. For more than 20 years, he has been at the forefront of the challenges of economic development, poverty alleviation, and enlightened globalization. He is also one of the leading voices for combining economic development with environmental sustainability.

Sachs currently serves as special advisor to United Nations Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon, and was previously director of the United Nations Millennium Project and special advisor to U.N. Secretary-General Kofi Annan on the Millennium Development Goals. He is a research associate of the National Bureau of Economic Research, a member of the Brookings panel of economists and the board of advisors of the Chinese Economists Society, the author of best-selling Common Wealth: Economics for a Crowded Planet and The End of Poverty, and a syndicated columnist published in more than 50 countries.

He is the recipient of numerous awards and honors, including membership in the Institute of Medicine, the American Academic Academy of Arts and Sciences, Harvard Society of Fellows, and the Fellows of the World Econometric Society. In 2007, he received the Cardozo Journal of Conflict Resolution International Advocate for Peace Award, as well as the Padma Bhushan, a high civilian honor bestowed by the Indian government.

Sachs received a B.A. from Harvard College and M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Harvard University.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

Claudio Del Vecchio

Honorary Doctor of Business Administration

International business entrepreneur and industry leader Claudio Del Vecchio is the chairman and chief executive officer of Brooks Brothers Group, Inc., a premier retail and manufacturing group that includes Brooks Brothers, Southwick, and Carolee Designs. He is also executive director of Luxottica Group, the world's largest eyewear manufacturer.

As a young child, Del Vecchio helped his father in the Luxottica eyeglass factory in Agordo, Italy, learning virtually every area of manufacturing.

At the age of 24, he established the company's first direct distribution organization outside of Italy. He came to the United States in 1982 and was instrumental in transforming the company into a premier factory-direct eyewear organization. Through Luxottica's purchase of The United States Shoe Company in 1995, they acquired Lenscrafters and the Casual Corner Group stores, later renamed Retail Brand Alliance, Inc.

Among his many awards and distinctions, Del Vecchio has been recognized for his business acumen as "Man of the Year" by the International Association of Clothing Designers and Executives, and for his extensive philanthropic work including the establishment of The Golden Fleece Foundation, a Brooks Brothers charity that has raised millions on behalf of prominent national charities.

He currently serves on many boards, including Luxottica Group S.p.A., the National Retail Federation, and the International Council of the Preservation Society of Newport County.

Nina Zolt

Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters

Nina Zolt is the co-founder and chief learning officer at ePals Inc., the leading education media company and social media learning network. ePals is currently in use in more than 300,000 schools, nearly 800,000 classrooms, and by many millions of users in all 200 countries and territories. Her work in education has focused on improving learning opportunities for all students in a digital age.

Zolt has extensive experience as an education activist, entertainment lawyer, digital media executive, and designer of digital learning products.

Early in her career she worked at ABC, NBC, Capital Records, and Kaleida (a joint venture between Apple and IBM). She created In2Books, ePals' flagship curriculum-based eMentoring program for low-income student. She is the lead author of the In2Books Genre Guides and a co-author of Getting Children In2Books: Engagement in Authentic Reading, Writing and Thinking (Phi Delta Kappan, 2007).

She served as a member of the Washington, D.C., advisory board of directors for Teach for America and the board of trustees of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. She was also an advisory board member for the International Reading Association. She has an A.B. from the University of Pennsylvania and a J.D. from Boston University School of Law. She received an honorary doctorate from National-Louis University in 2004.

GRADUATION HONORS AND HONOR SOCIETIES

Students at Bryant University who have distinguished themselves through academic performance wear gold honor cords with their academic robes.

ACADEMIC HONORS

Special recognition is accorded those who show distinction in academic achievement. Honors may be awarded on the basis of cumulative averages, as follows: Cum Laude (with honors – GPA of 3.30), Magna Cum Laude (with high honors – GPA of 3.55), and Summa Cum Laude (with highest honors – GPA of 3.80).

Students must have completed sixty (60) semester hours of course work at Bryant University to be eligible for honors.

HONOR SOCIETIES

Δ Alpha Kappa Delta – To be eligible for membership, students must have at least junior-year standing, an overall GPA and a sociology GPA of at least 3.0, be in the top 35 percent of their class, and have completed a minimum of four courses in sociology.

β Beta Gamma Sigma – This is the highest national recognition a student can receive in an undergraduate program in a business or management program accredited by AACSB International – The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business. Members must have earned a cumulative GPA of 3.5 and rank in the upper 10 percent of the second-semester junior class, upper 10 percent of the senior class, or top 20 percent of the graduating master's class.

hp Honors Program – To be recognized as an Honors Program graduate, each member must have successfully completed a minimum of seven honors courses in addition to a capstone senior honors project and must earn a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.4 and an Honors GPA of 3.2.

Λ Lambda Pi Eta – To be eligible for membership, students must have completed at least 12 hours of communication courses, have a GPA of at least 3.25, and be in the upper 35 percent of the graduating class.

μ Mu Sigma Rho – To be eligible for induction in Mu Sigma Rho, a student must be a junior or senior, have completed eight semester hours of statistics courses (of which at least five semester hours must be at the junior level or higher), have a 3.25 GPA in all statistics courses, and be in the top third of the class in all coursework.

O Omicron Delta Epsilon – To be eligible for membership, a student must have chosen economics for his or her major field of concentration, have attained a cumulative average of 3.0 or higher in a minimum of four economics courses, and have received the recommendation of the economics department.

K Omicron Delta Kappa – To be eligible for membership, a student must be a junior or senior recognized for excellence in academics (top 35 percent of the class), athletics, community service, mass media, or the performing arts. All members are nominated by current members of the society.

Φ Phi Alpha Theta – To be eligible for membership, a student must earn a minimum GPA of 3.1 in at least 12 semester hours in History and an overall GPA of 3.0, and must also be in the top 35 percent of their class.

π Pi Sigma Alpha – To be eligible for membership, students must have completed a minimum of 12 semester hours of political science courses with a minimum GPA of 3.3, as well as an overall minimum GPA of 3.3.

Ψ Psi Chi – To be eligible for membership, students must have an overall GPA that is in the top 35 percent of their class, have earned an overall grade point average of at least 3.0 and must have a cumulative average that is at least 3.0 in their Psychology courses. Membership is limited to Applied Psychology majors who are at least juniors and have taken a minimum of nine hours of psychology.

THE HARRIET E. JACOBS MEMORIAL MACE

The University Mace is carried at Commencement exercises and at other University celebrations. Crowned in gold, the mace has two dominant emblems: the seal of the State of Rhode Island and the seal of Bryant University.

THE PRESIDENT'S CHAIR

The President's Chair, a gift to the University from Priscilla Angelo and her husband, John Eng-Wong, is used on ceremonial occasions. It is a Victorian-style gent's chair rendered in walnut and copied from an original French design from the period of the University's founding in 1863. The carved crest top includes the Bryant University bronze seal.

BRYANT MEDALLION

The Bryant Medallion is worn by the president during academic ceremonies such as Commencement, Convocation, and the bestowing of honorary degrees. One side of the medallion bears a likeness of the University seal, the other, the names of all Bryant University presidents. The formal installation of a president is marked by the presentation of the medallion to the president by the chair of the Board of Trustees.

THE BRYANT SEAL

The Bryant Seal represents the educational mission of the University and its worldwide implications. The central symbol is an ellipsoid globe with quills on each side to signify the traditional emblem of communication in business. In the center, behind the globe, is a torch symbolizing liberty, the spirit of free inquiry, academic freedom, and learning. The Archway, forming the background for the globe, torch, and quills, is a University landmark affectionately remembered by thousands of alumni. The Latin motto expresses the purpose of the University: "Cognitio. Virtus. Successus." – Knowledge. Character. Success.

ALUMNI CHARGE

Today, as you celebrate your graduation from Bryant University, you find yourself saying goodbye to the classmates, faculty, and staff with whom you have formed close friendships over these last few years. Graduation, however, is not so much an ending as a transition. It's true that you're about to begin a new stage of life, but, as a Bryant University alumnus or alumna, you will always be part of the community you've come to know as a home away from home.

In fact, one of the reasons you chose Bryant was because of its close-knit community. Through the Bryant University Alumni Association, you can stay in touch with classmates by attending class reunions, regional alumni network events, and by joining the alumni online community. And, just as Bryant provided you with a solid foundation for a successful career, our alumni networks will continue to support your professional goals.

As a Bryant student, you participated in academic, athletic, and civic events that not only provided you with many skills but also gave you a sense of satisfaction. As a Bryant graduate, you can stay involved by serving on University committees, advisory councils, and even the Board of Trustees. You can advance Bryant's reputation by getting involved with admission, career services, educational, and fundraising initiatives. And, throughout the year, Bryant alumni gather together to reach out to their communities through a number of volunteer programs.

Just as the Bryant community celebrated your accomplishments as a student, we will be eager to learn about your successes. Let us know when you've moved and what milestones you've reached so we can share the good news with your Bryant classmates and friends.

Congratulations on your graduation, and welcome to the Bryant University Alumni Association!

ACADEMIC HERALDRY

The history of academic dress worn today dates back to the universities of the Middle Ages. A statute in 1321 required the wearing of gowns by all scholars and clerics. Probably, the warm gown and hood were practical in the unheated buildings.

Students at most American universities wore caps and gowns daily while in residence until after the Civil War. These varied in design until they were standardized by the American Intercollegiate Commission in 1895. While the academic costume code has been modified over the years, the general characteristics of the initial requirements still prevail. The uniform system of academic heraldry serves to indicate the level of degree, the field of study in which it was earned, and the institution by which it was granted.

The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves and is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve and can be worn open or closed. The gown for the doctoral degree has bell-shaped sleeves with black velvet facing down the front and three bars of the same across the sleeves. However, these facings and crossbars may be in the color distinctive of the subject to which the degree pertains.

The academic hoods are lined with the color of the university granting the degree. The length of the hood varies slightly for bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees. It is often traditional for the candidates for degrees to wear the mortarboard tassel on the right front side before the degree is conferred and to shift it to the left when the degree is awarded.

At Bryant University, the president, trustees, and honorary degree recipients wear specially-designed gold robes trimmed with black, representative of the University's colors.
