Dear Mom,

are you thinking that I crawled in a hole and died or something? Well, honey, I'm slowly going bats. Today we had a test in Maps + charts and N.I. I got 100 in both, with plenty of hard study.

I saw Charlie yesterday. he looks fine, but has terrible scars on the left side of his face, and his leg has a severed muscle, he won't even walk right again. He almost lost his left eye also.

He has to wear sunglasses now, and the eye has 20/40 vision. He will be eliminated from the Cadets, and will probably get a C.P.D. Otherwise he's fine! We talked for a long while exchanging dirt and tales. It was swell seeing him.

He sent his best to you, angel.

That other ^{test} mark that you asked me about was 100 in Math.

Today I went to processing to have my records checked as is always the case on arrival here. Man I don't know where I live or who I belong to, what with

Bilt. apts, Chauncey Ave, Clark, Andrews, Hallett, and Misar, Whew! It will take me a day to get it all straightened out.

Saturday night in town I saw "Gas Light" with Ch. Boyer and Ingrid Bergman. Mom, it's simply marvelous you've got to see. You'd blow a gut, I can just see you waving over it now, it's right up your alley.
That gal Bergman it's tops!

I had flight line guard Saturday night.
I watched over a lot of oil tanks while the other fellows were guarding beautiful B-24's. Was I bored.

Well, now, I've got to get to work. I love you with all my heart. Give my love to all, goodnight sweetheart.

Your son
