

BRYANT UNIVERSITY

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY-FIRST

Commencement

SATURDAY, MAY 17, 2014

Welcome

A most cordial welcome is extended to relatives, friends, faculty members, alumni, administrators, and staff who gather here to celebrate the 151ST Commencement of Bryant University.

PROGRAM

ACADEMIC PROCESSION

FLAG BEARERS

Bryant University Army ROTC Color Guard

CLASS FLAG

Bryant University gratefully acknowledges the late George J. Kelley '39, '69H, Honorary Trustee Emeritus, for his generosity in providing ongoing financial support for the purchase and display of graduating class flags.

This year's flag was designed by Student Alumni Association seniors Kristen Carter, Courtney Coelho, Michael Shypski, and Rohan Vakil.

The Class of 2014 is a highly engaged active class. Their participation in campus activities demonstrates their strong link – a link that will continue to serve them as they reach for success in their careers. This class strongly identifies with social media as a means of staying connected, so they chose a visual representation of the class passing through Bryant's iconic Archway as an Instagram post on an iPhone.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

Richard W. Fisher

HONORARY DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

Richard Fisher, president and CEO of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas and a voting member of the Federal Open Market Committee, the nation's principal monetary policymaking body, will deliver the keynote address to graduating seniors and guests.

In the five years since the worst of the global financial crisis, Fisher has been a voice of caution before Congress, in the national media, and at the Federal Reserve regarding the Fed's stimulus program.

His wide-ranging career began in 1975 at the private bank of Brown Brothers Harriman & Co. He then served as assistant to the secretary of the Treasury during the Carter administration, and returned to Brown Brothers to found its Texas operations. In 1987, he created and was managing partner of Fisher Capital Management and a separate hedge fund management firm, Fisher Ewing Partners. In 1997, he was appointed deputy U.S. trade representative with the rank of ambassador. He oversaw the implementation of NAFTA and various agreements with Vietnam, Korea, Japan, Chile, Singapore, Taiwan, and China. Following his service in the Clinton administration and until he joined the Federal Reserve in 2005, Fisher was vice chairman of Kissinger McLarty Associates, a strategic advisory firm chaired by former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger.

An internationalist from an early age, Fisher is a first-generation American who spent his formative years in Mexico before he returned to the United States, attended the U.S. Naval Academy, graduated with honors in economics from Harvard University, read Latin American politics at Oxford University, and received an MBA from Stanford University.

He has served on numerous for-profit, not-for-profit, and university boards. Fisher is presently a member of the Board of Overseers of Harvard University and has lectured at universities ranging from Stanford to St. Andrews and Oxford in the United Kingdom, and from Hanoi University in Vietnam to Tsinghua University in China.

In 2006, the American Assembly presented Fisher with the Service to Democracy Award and Dwight D. Eisenhower Medal for Public Service. He will receive the Woodrow Wilson Award for Public Service this fall.

Joyce M. Roché

HONORARY DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

Throughout her highly successful corporate career, Joyce Roché mentored women, encouraging them to find their voices and to take bold career risks to excel. In 2000, she turned her focus to young women, becoming president and CEO of Girls Inc., a 150-year-old nonprofit organization (formerly known as Girls Clubs of America) whose mission is to inspire all girls to be strong, smart, and bold. Under her leadership for 10 years, the organization increased its corporate and private funding base, expanded its reach into more cities, enhanced its board of directors, and improved its operating efficiency.

Roché was previously president and CEO of Carson Products, Inc., a leading African American personal care company. From 1973 to 1994, she broke new ground at Avon Products, Inc., becoming the first African American female vice president of marketing and first vice president of global marketing. From 1979 to 1981, she was director of marketing at Revlon, Inc.

She is the author of The Empress Has No Clothes: Conquering Self-Doubt to Embrace Success, a personal memoir that offers practical advice and coping strategies to help others embrace their own worth.

Roché holds directorships with AT&T, Inc., Tupperware Brands Corporation, Macy's Inc., and Dr. Pepper Snapple Group, Inc. She is chair of the board of trustees of Dillard University, her undergraduate alma mater. She is a board member of The Association of Governing Boards of Colleges and Universities, Children's Art Guild, Park Place Outreach Youth Emergency Shelter, and Live Oaks Public Libraries Foundation.

The recipient of numerous honors and awards, Roché has been featured on the cover of Fortune and was named one of the "Top Managers to Watch" by BusinessWeek. She was selected one of "21 Women of Power and Influence in Corporate America" and "40 Most Powerful Black Executives" by Black Enterprise Magazine.

She holds an MBA from Columbia University and completed Stanford University's Senior Executive Program. She is the recipient of honorary doctorates from Dillard University and North Adams State College.

DEGREE INFORMATION

Scott C. Donnelly

HONORARY DOCTOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Scott Donnelly is chairman and chief executive officer of Textron Inc., one of the world's best-known, multi-industry companies and a pioneer of the diversified business model. He joined Textron in 2008 as executive vice president and chief operating officer and was named president and chief operating officer in January 2009. He became CEO in December 2009 and was elected chairman of the board in 2010. A $13 billion company with more than 33,000 employees in 25 countries, Textron is known for producing some of the most sophisticated and leading technology products in the world and includes globally recognized brands such as Cessna Aircraft, Bell Helicopter, Beechcraft, and E-Z-GO.

Donnelly was previously president and CEO of General Electric (GE) Aviation, the world's leading producer of large and small jet engines for commercial and military aircraft and a major provider of flight management, actuation, and power management systems. Prior to that, he was senior vice president and director of GE Global Research, the largest and most diversified industrial research organization in the world.

In 1989, he joined GE as manager of Electronics Design Engineering for GE's Ocean Systems Division in Syracuse, NY. He went on to serve in a variety of leadership roles for the company, including engineering management positions with the then-GE division of Martin Marietta in both Australia and the United States. In 1995, he moved to GE's Industrial Control Systems business, where he held various management positions.

Donnelly received a B.S. degree in electrical and computer engineering from the University of Colorado at Boulder, where he serves on the Engineering Advisory Committee. He is also on the board of directors for Medtronic, Inc.

GRADUATION HONORS AND HONOR SOCIETIES

Students at Bryant University who have distinguished themselves through academic performance wear gold honor cords with their academic robes.

ACADEMIC HONORS

Special recognition is accorded those who show distinction in academic achievement. Honors may be awarded on the basis of cumulative averages, as follows: Cum Laude (with honors – GPA of 3.30), Magna Cum Laude (with high honors – GPA of 3.55), and Summa Cum Laude (with highest honors – GPA of 3.80). Students must have completed sixty (60) semester hours of coursework at Bryant University to be eligible for honors.

hp HONORS PROGRAM

The Bryant University Honors Program provides highly qualified and motivated students with special opportunities to challenge themselves while developing their intellectual abilities and talents through an interdisciplinary curriculum. In order to be considered Honors Program graduates, students must successfully complete a rigorous curriculum of eight honors level courses, including an Honors Senior Capstone Project. In addition, each student needs to earn a minimum overall GPA of 3.4 and a minimum Honors GPA of 3.2 in his or her coursework.

THE HARRIET E. JACOBS MEMORIAL MACE

The University Mace is carried at Commencement exercises and at other University celebrations. Crowned in gold, the mace has two dominant emblems: the seal of the State of Rhode Island and the seal of Bryant University.

THE PRESIDENT'S CHAIR

The President's Chair, a gift to the University from Priscilla Angelo and her husband, John Eng-Wong, is used on ceremonial occasions. It is a Victorian-style gent's chair rendered in walnut and copied from an original French design from the period of the University's founding in 1863. The carved crest top includes the Bryant University bronze seal.

BRYANT MEDALLION

The Bryant Medallion is worn by the president during academic ceremonies such as Commencement, Convocation, and the bestowing of honorary degrees. One side of the medallion bears a likeness of the University seal, the other, the names of all Bryant University presidents. The formal installation of a president is marked by the presentation of the medallion to the president by the chair of the Board of Trustees.

THE BRYANT SEAL

The Bryant Seal represents the educational mission of the University and its worldwide implications. The central symbol is an ellipsoid globe with quills on each side to signify the traditional emblem of communication in business. In the center, behind the globe, is a torch symbolizing liberty, the spirit of free inquiry, academic freedom, and learning. The Archway, forming the background for the globe, torch, and quills, is a University landmark affectionately remembered by thousands of alumni. The Latin motto expresses the purpose of the University: "Cognitio. Virtus. Successus." – Knowledge. Character. Success.

ALUMNI CHARGE

Today, as you celebrate your graduation from Bryant University, you find yourself saying goodbye to the classmates, faculty, and staff with whom you have formed close friendships over these last few years. Graduation, however, is not so much an ending as a transition. It's true that you're about to begin a new stage of life, but as a Bryant University alumnus or alumna, you are never far from the community you've come to know as a home away from home.

In fact, one of the reasons you chose Bryant was for its close-knit community. Through the Bryant University Alumni Association, you can always stay in touch with classmates by attending class reunions, Regional Alumni Network (RAN) events, joining the alumni online community, and by engaging with us through social media. And just as Bryant provided you with a solid foundation for a successful career, our alumni networks continue to support your professional goals.

As a Bryant student, you participated in academic, athletic, and civic events that not only helped you develop many skills but also gave you a sense of satisfaction as well. As a Bryant graduate, you can stay involved by serving on University committees, advisory councils, and even the Board of Trustees. You can advance Bryant's reputation by getting involved with admission, career services, educational, and fundraising initiatives. And, throughout the year, Bryant alumni gather together to reach out to their communities through a number of volunteer programs.

Just as the Bryant community shared in the celebration of your accomplishments as a student, we will always be interested to hear about your successes. Let us know when you've moved and what milestones you've reached so we can share this good news with your Bryant classmates and friends.

Congratulations on your graduation, and welcome to the Bryant University Alumni Association!

ACADEMIC HERALDRY

The history of academic dress worn today dates back to the universities of the Middle Ages. A statute in 1321 required the wearing of gowns by all scholars and clerics. Probably, the warm gown and hood were practical in the unheated buildings.

Students at most American universities wore caps and gowns daily while in residence until after the Civil War. These varied in design until they were standardized by the American Intercollegiate Commission in 1895. While the academic costume code has been modified over the years, the general characteristics of the initial requirements still prevail. The uniform system of academic heraldry serves to indicate the level of degree, the field of study in which it was earned, and the institution by which it was granted.

The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves and is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve and can be worn open or closed. The gown for the doctoral degree has bell-shaped sleeves with black velvet facing down the front and three bars of the same across the sleeves. However, these facings and crossbars may be in the color distinctive of the subject to which the degree pertains.

The academic hoods are lined with the color of the university granting the degree. The length of the hood varies slightly for bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees. It is often traditional for the candidates for degrees to wear the mortarboard tassel on the right front side before the degree is conferred and to shift it to the left when the degree is awarded.

At Bryant University, the president, trustees, and honorary degree recipients wear specially-designed gold robes trimmed with black, representative of the University's colors.
