Dear Mom,

It's really getting warm now. It must have been almost 100° today. We had a rifle inspection in ranks today. It took about an hour, boy that was hell.

Then I went to P.T. only to come back just in time for a parade. Boy I'm burned to a crisp. Tonight our squadron had "rec" privileges and we went swimming in the pool that was just opened. It's swell, but very warm. I didn't

I stay in Louisiana, I've got to watch my sinus too! (I print that so it's not so obvious.) I finish classes Tuesday, and am going to ship on the 27th either to Florida, Georgia, Tenn.
So. Carolina, or Ark.
I wish I knew where

Say honey, how are those old "Grapes" of yours? You take care of yourself, they don't seem to good to me. If ever you need me honey, contact me through the Red Cross, it will save a great deal of time in my servicing a foolough.
Well, darling, I've got some birds coming up. Thank Bob & Nan for the letters. I love you both
