CLASS FLAG

Bryant University gratefully acknowledges the late George J. Kelley '39, '69H, Honorary Trustee Emeritus, for his generosity in providing ongoing financial support for the purchase and display of graduating class flags.

This year's flag was designed by seniors John Francis Bradley III, Nicola Silvestro DiFusco, Nicholas Edward Leitkowski, Elizabeth Reardon Magee, Julia Vladimirovna Pavlichenko, Paige A. Reid, and Tyler Mark Talbot. These students are all leaders of the Student Alumni Association.

"The Class of 2019 flag represents the experiences and opportunities our classmates have had abroad. Bryant has allowed our class to expand our world and develop our global perspective through the Sophomore International Experience, study abroad programs, and limitless opportunities. The quote 'Education is the key to unlocking the world, a passport to freedom,' embodies the ideals that Bryant instills among its students. We hope to see this trend of becoming worldly scholars continue."

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

Laura K. Ipsen

HONORARY DOCTOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The Commencement keynote speaker will be Laura K. Ipsen, President and Chief Executive Officer of Ellucian Company, L.P., a developer of software, cloud applications, and analytics for higher education institutions. Founded in 1968, Ellucian is considered a market leader in higher education technology, collaborating with more than 2,500 institutions in nearly 50 countries to enhance and enrich the experience of more than 20 million students.

Ms. Ipsen joined the company in 2017, building on more than 25 years of success as a technology leader in Silicon Valley, where she worked to drive transformation in the public and private sectors and spurred adoption of comprehensive solutions in high-growth industries. Joining Ellucian, she has said, was something of a homecoming for her as her parents devoted their entire careers to higher education. Her experiences at the crux of reinvention in the cloud have given her unique insights into what matters most in providing the next generation of innovation for college faculty, students, and administrators.

From 2014 until 2017, Ms. Ipsen was Senior Vice President of Oracle's Global Industry Solutions Group and was promoted to General Manager and Senior Vice President of Oracle Corporation's Marketing Cloud business.

She served as Corporate Vice President of Microsoft's worldwide public sector organization from 2012 to 2014. In that capacity, she led a team of more than 2,000 sales, marketing, and technology solutions employees covering government, defense, education, and non-privatized healthcare customers in more than 100 countries.

Prior to her time at Microsoft, Ms. Ipsen spent nearly 17 years at Cisco Systems, where she established the company's global policy and government affairs division and helped to build Cisco's Connected Energy Business Unit. She also held leadership roles at PricewaterhouseCoopers, Acer America, and Hitachi Data Systems.

Ms. Ipsen is a member of Ellucian's board of directors. She previously served as a member of the board of directors of Monsanto from 2010 until 2018, when it was acquired by Bayer. Among many accolades for her work in information and communications technology, sustainability, and gender diversity, she is most proud of having received a Women Making History Award from U.S. Senator Barbara Boxer.

A Senior Fellow of the American Leadership Forum, Silicon Valley Chapter, Ms. Ipsen holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Virginia and studied Arabic at Yarmouk University in Jordan.

Chief Judge William E. Smith

HONORARY DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

Known for innovative ideas about the work of judging and for his focus on fundamental fairness, William E. Smith became the youngest person ever to serve as Chief Judge of the United States District Court for the District of Rhode Island in 2013. He was appointed to the federal court by President George W. Bush in 2002.

As Chief Judge, he created a highly successful Litigation Academy to teach young lawyers practical skills for trying cases in federal court; the HOPE Court, a re-entry program offering an alternative post-conviction supervision model focusing on education, treatment, and job skills training and overseen by a team made up of a judge, prosecutor, defense attorney, and probation officer; and a Deferred Sentencing Program featuring intensive judicial supervision and a creative blend of treatment, supervision, and services to help young offenders stay out of prison and become productive members of society.

In 2014, Judge Smith received the Citizen of the Year Award from the Rhode Island Association for Justice. In June 2019, he will receive the Chief Justice Joseph R. Weisberger Judicial Excellence Award for “exemplifying and encouraging the highest level of competence, integrity, judicial temperament, ethical conduct, and professionalism.”

Beginning his legal career at Edwards & Angell, LLP, he was elected Partner in 1994. In 2000, he became Staff Director of the Rhode Island Office of U.S. Senator Lincoln D. Chafee. He returned to Edwards & Angell in 2001 before taking the bench in 2002. Prior to that appointment, he concentrated his practice in labor and employment law, representing clients in the private and public sectors, and in higher education law.

He has published hundreds of opinions and handled many cases of substantial public interest. He sat by designation on the First Circuit Court of Appeals and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals for many years. Active in judicial administration at both the local and national levels, Judge Smith was appointed by the Chief Justice of the United States to the United States Judicial Conference Committee on Judicial Resources (2018–present), the Committee on Information Technology (2008–14), and the Committee on Financial Disclosure (2005–08). He was appointed by the Chief Justice to the Federal Judicial Center’s District Judges Education Committee in 2013, and became Chair of the Committee in 2017.

Judge Smith is Chair of the Board of Directors of Roger Williams University Law School, is a member of the Roger Williams University Board of Trustees, and is an adjunct faculty member of the Law School. He serves on the boards of Family Service of Rhode Island, the YMCA of Greater Providence, the Frank Church Institute of Boise State University, and the Rhode Island Burn Foundation. He spent many years on the board and as board chair of the Rhode Island Community Food Bank and is an emeritus member.

Judge Smith earned a Bachelor of Arts from Georgetown University in Washington, D.C., where he was a George F. Baker Scholar. He was awarded a Juris Doctor, cum laude, from Georgetown Law Center, where he was a staff member of the American Criminal Law Review.

Nicole Alexander-Scott, M.D.

HONORARY DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

Admired as a true inspiration to those working in public health, Nicole Alexander-Scott, MD, MPH, brings tremendous experience as a specialist in infectious diseases and in public health practice and policy to her role as Director of the Rhode Island Department of Health (RIDOH). She is the first African-American to serve as Rhode Island's top health official.

Since her appointment as director in 2016, Dr. Alexander-Scott made RIDOH's principal focus to give every state resident equal opportunity to be as healthy as possible. To accomplish this, she has established three major priorities: addressing the socioeconomic and environmental determinants of health; eliminating disparities of health and promoting health equity; and ensuring access to quality health services for all Rhode Islanders, including vulnerable populations.

In 2018, Dr. Alexander-Scott was elected by her peers to serve as President of the Association of State and Territorial Health Officials (ASTHO), the national organization for state health directors. She has also been recognized by numerous local and national organizations, including Grow Smart Rhode Island, the Rhode Island Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics, and The Kresge Foundation.

Her distinguished record includes extensive experience as a specialist in infectious diseases for children and adults, and as an Associate Professor of pediatrics, medicine, and public health—with a focus on health services, policy, and practice—at the Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University. She is board certified in pediatrics, internal medicine, pediatric infectious diseases, and adult infectious diseases.

Dr. Alexander-Scott earned a Bachelor of Science in Human Development and Family Studies at Cornell University. She graduated from the State University of New York (SUNY) Upstate Medical University at Syracuse and completed a combined internal medicine-pediatrics residency at SUNY Stony Brook University Hospital. She completed a four-year combined fellowship in adult and pediatric infectious diseases at the Warren Alpert School of Brown University and earned a Master's Degree in Public Health from Brown in 2011.

GRADUATION HONORS AND HONOR SOCIETIES

Students at Bryant University who have distinguished themselves through academic performance wear gold honor cords with their academic robes.

ACADEMIC HONORS

Special recognition is accorded those who show distinction in academic achievement. Honors may be awarded on the basis of cumulative averages, as follows: Cum Laude (with honors – GPA of 3.45), Magna Cum Laude (with high honors – GPA of 3.65), and Summa Cum Laude (with highest honors – GPA of 3.85). Students must have completed sixty (60) semester hours of coursework at Bryant University to be eligible for honors.

HP HONORS PROGRAM

The Bryant University Honors Program provides highly qualified and motivated students with special opportunities to challenge themselves while developing their intellectual abilities and talents through an interdisciplinary curriculum. In order to be considered Honors Program graduates, students must successfully complete a rigorous curriculum of eight honors-level courses, including an Honors Senior Capstone Project. In addition, each student needs to earn a minimum overall GPA of 3.4 and a minimum Honors GPA of 3.2 in his or her coursework.

THE HARRIET E. JACOBS MEMORIAL MACE

The University Mace is carried at Commencement exercises and at other University celebrations. Crowned in gold, the mace has two dominant emblems: the seal of the State of Rhode Island and the seal of Bryant University.

THE PRESIDENT'S CHAIR

The President's Chair, a gift to the University from Priscilla Angelo and her husband, John Eng-Wong, is used on ceremonial occasions. It is a Victorian-style gent's chair rendered in walnut and copied from an original French design from the period of the University's founding in 1863. The carved crest top includes the Bryant University bronze seal.

BRYANT MEDALLION

The Bryant Medallion is worn by the president during academic ceremonies such as Commencement, Convocation, and the bestowing of honorary degrees. One side of the medallion bears a likeness of the University seal, the other, the names of all Bryant University presidents. The formal installation of a president is marked by the presentation of the medallion to the president by the chair of the Board of Trustees.

THE BRYANT SEAL

The Bryant Seal represents the educational mission of the University and its worldwide implications. The central symbol is an ellipsoid globe with quills on each side to signify the traditional emblem of communication in business. In the center, behind the globe, is a torch symbolizing liberty, the spirit of free inquiry, academic freedom, and learning. The Archway, forming the background for the globe, torch, and quills, is a University landmark affectionately remembered by thousands of alumni. The Latin motto expresses the purpose of the University: "Cognitio. Virtus. Successus." – Knowledge. Character. Success.

ALUMNI CHARGE

Today, as you celebrate your graduation from Bryant University, you find yourself saying goodbye to the classmates, faculty, and staff with whom you have formed close friendships over these last few years. Graduation, however, is not so much an ending as a transition. It's true that you're about to begin a new stage of life, but as a Bryant University alumnus or alumna, you are never far from the community you've come to know as a home away from home.

In fact, one of the reasons you chose Bryant was for its close-knit community. Through the Bryant University Alumni Association, you can always stay in touch with classmates by attending class and affinity reunions, networking at regional events, and by engaging with us through social media channels. Just as Bryant provided you with a solid foundation for a successful career, our worldwide alumni network is there to support your professional goals.

As a Bryant student, you participated in academic, athletic, and civic events that not only helped you develop many skills but also gave you a sense of satisfaction as well. As a Bryant graduate, you can stay involved by serving on University committees, advisory councils, and even the Board of Trustees. You can advance Bryant's reputation by getting involved with admission, career services, educational, and fundraising initiatives. And, throughout the year, Bryant alumni gather together to reach out to their communities through a number of volunteer programs.

Just as the Bryant community shared in the celebration of your accomplishments as a student, we will always be interested to hear of your successes. Let us know when you've moved and what milestones you've reached so we can share your good news with your Bryant classmates and friends.

Congratulations on your graduation, and welcome to the Bryant University Alumni Association!

ACADEMIC HERALDRY

The history of academic dress worn today dates back to the universities of the Middle Ages. A statute in 1321 required the wearing of gowns by all scholars and clerics. Probably, the warm gown and hood were practical in the unheated buildings.

Students at most American universities wore caps and gowns daily while in residence until after the Civil War. These varied in design until they were standardized by the American Intercollegiate Commission in 1895. While the academic costume code has been modified over the years, the general characteristics of the initial requirements still prevail. The uniform system of academic heraldry serves to indicate the level of degree, the field of study in which it was earned, and the institution by which it was granted.

The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves and is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve and can be worn open or closed. The gown for the doctoral degree has bell-shaped sleeves with black velvet facing down the front and three bars of the same across the sleeves. However, these facings and crossbars may be in the color distinctive to the subject to which the degree pertains.

The academic hoods are lined with the color of the university granting the degree. The length of the hood varies slightly for bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees. It is often traditional for the candidates for degrees to wear the mortarboard tassel on the right front side before the degree is conferred and to shift it to the left when the degree is awarded.

At Bryant University, the president, trustees, and honorary degree recipients wear specially-designed gold robes trimmed with black, representative of the University's colors.
