Raymond Hartley, Bryant '20 Heads Advertising Agency

by Edward W. Reardon

Mr. Raymond Hartley, president of the Hartley Advertising Agency in Pawtucket, has a high regard of the business education young people receive at Bryant College. Mr. Hartley believes that the curriculum improvements have been tremendous in the past quarter century. He also wholeheartedly approves of the many new extra-curricular activities and the increased school spirit.

Mr. Hartley graduated from Pawtucket Technical High in 1919 and entered Bryant the same year. While he was at Bryant he was manager of the football teams, which won many games under his able guidance.

After graduating from Bryant in 1920, he joined the Morris Loan Plan Company. In 1928 he was appointed manager of the credit department. He was named advertising manager in 1937, before rising to secretary of the firm in 1940. Mr. Hartley won the National Award for Advertising in both 1940 and 1941. When the firm changed to the Morris Loan Bank of Rhode Island, 1944, he was named vice president and secretary. In 1948, Mr. Hartley joined the advertising firm of Charles H. Nolan. He now runs his own advertising agency, although still associated with the Nolan firm.

Mr. Hartley is married to the former Gladys Steere, also a Bryant graduate, and they have two sons, Raymond Jr., 20, and David, 16. He is a member of the Alumni Council of Bryant, The Pawtucket Chamber of Commerce, the Y.M.C.A., and the Town Criers of Rhode Island.

Mr. Hartley believes that Bryant achieves something different from other colleges in the well-rounded business education a young person receives here.

"Showtime, U. S. A." Acclaimed Glee Club Performance Rated Outstanding

By RHEA RENZ

Showtime U. S. A., which was presented in the Bryant College Auditorium by the Bryant College Glee Club on Monday evening, May 27, and Tuesday evening, May 28, was enthusiastically applauded by capacity audiences. It was the opinion of many people that the performances were the best ever put on by the Glee Club.

Mrs. Appleby deserved the highest praise as producer and director of the smashing success. Credit should also be extended to Mr. John Nicholson as assistant to Mrs. Appleby. Others who worked behind the scenes to make the show a hit were Messrs. Fanning, Haran, Butler, Romano, Riccio, and Esmay. Miss Nancy Hakanson, who was in charge of the wardrobe, also did an excellent job.

The Glee Club and individual performers did a wonderful job in presenting the entertainment to the audience. From the first note of "Annie Get Your Gun" to the last note of "Show Biz Finale" the production thoroughly entertained the first- and second-nighters.

The models delighted the audience in presenting fashions from Theresa of Wayland Square, and hats from Bee Jones. Soloists, duets, and the trio rendered beautiful selections. A fine reception was also given to the Starbusters who accompanied the Glee Club and dancers in their performance.

Lloyd Watson Awarded J. L. Allan Scholarship

by Edward W. Reardon

Lloyd R. Watson, sophomore in the Accounting and Finance division, has won the first John Logan Allan Scholarship. The scholarship is given by the Providence Chapter of the National Office Management Association in memory of the late Mr. Allan, its former president. Mr. Allan was also vice-president at Bryant. The award was presented to Lloyd at the annual "Education Night" meeting which was held at Johnson's Hummocks on May 23.

The Education Committee selected Lloyd for the $300 award from among candidates submitted by Bryant officials. The scholarship will be given annually to a second or third semester student to be used in the third or fourth semester. The requirements for the scholarship are worthiness, scholarship, and financial need.

Served in Navy

Upon graduating from South Portland, Maine, High School in 1948, Lloyd served four years in the Navy. He and his wife live at 21 March Street, Providence, with their three children.

Lloyd was on the Dean's List in November, 1956, and again in February, 1957, and he was number 1 in his class at the end of his freshman semester. He is also a member of the general staff of the Archway.

Shorthand Awards For May Presented

Three Secretarial seniors were recently presented awards for superior shorthand achievement.

Frances Almonte, Patricia Kirilla, and Virginia Dube received their awards at a student assembly held in the Cafegymnasium on Thursday, June 6.

The awards were presented to these students for achieving the highest number of points during the month of May in the advanced shorthand class.

Class Officers Push For 800 Quota

By Louise C. Vaillancourt

The Second Annual Bryant College Picnic date is rapidly approaching; in fact, it is exactly five days from today. Have you bought your ticket yet? It's up to you, each individual student, to make the picnic a success; and to be successful, the picnic must be supported by the entire student body. For one reason, if it fails there won't be any next year; for another reason, it means a day off from the worry and work of school. A fact that is of primary importance is that veterans will not be docked for the day off.

To justify the granting of the day, the administration has set up a quota—800 tickets must be sold. The quota should be topped by Friday, June 14, so as to assure the administration of the co-operation of the students. Tickets may be purchased from any of the class officers and will also be on sale in the cafeteria every day.

As you can see from the schedule of events, there will be a variety of activities to keep everyone busy and happy. Be sure to bring a bathing suit for the pool will be tempting and a cool swim will be most refreshing. It's a great way to spend a day relaxing with fellow students and friends. To quote a well worn phrase, "Your co-operation will be greatly appreciated." This is one way of saying, "Let's make a go of this affair!" This is an excellent opportunity for everyone to prove that he knows a good thing when he sees it, and knows how to enjoy it.

"Job Clinic" Talks Highlight Current Secretarial Program

The job clinic, a series of lectures, is currently being given to all secretarial seniors to prepare them for the job interview to put their best foot forward and to learn what business expects of them. These lectures are being presented by Bryant College faculty members.

The first two lectures were given on Thursday, June 6. Professor Priscilla M. Moulton, Supervisor of Secretarial Studies, passed along suggestions gained in conversations with a number of personnel directors in the Providence area. Professor Moulton's talk, entitled "A Secretarial Survey", was concerned largely with the personal attributes that a prospective employer looks for in an employee. Chief among these are a well-rounded personality, general appearance and manner, and speech. In addition, Professor Moulton offered several hints that might be developed by the student while still in college.

Mrs. Laurrelle P. Love, Director of the Placement Bureau, spoke on "The Job Interview." Mrs. Love emphasized at the outset that before a person can intelligently apply for a job, he must know himself and his capabilities. Furthermore, it is essential that a person know the most effective methods of seeking a job. Mrs. Love went on to stress the need for proper appearance and grooming. She stressed that a girl who hopes to become an efficient secretary must first look the part. The Placement Director offered a number of helpful tips for the interview and stressed the importance of properly filling out the application blank. Mrs. Love talked of the importance of developing the right attitude. Her speech closed with suggestions for terminating the interview.

The remaining two lectures are to be given on Thursday, June 13. At that time Mr. Lionel H. Mercier, Dean of the School of Business Teacher-Training and the School of Secretarial Science, will speak on the subject, "Do You Deserve a Promotion?" The basis of Dean Mercier's talk will be a self-appraisal sheet on which the student can score himself on questions relating to personal characteristics. It is hoped that through the use of this questionnaire, a student might be able to overcome his deficiencies and reinforce his strong points.

"Dress for Success" will be the title of the lecture to be given by Mrs. Dorothy Whipple Burgess, Instructor in Fashion Promotion. Mrs. Whipple will suggest a five-point plan to dress for success.

1. Plan your purchases in advance.
 2. Set up a clothes budget... and stick to it.
 3. Remember — Appropriate clothes are in good taste.
 4. Choose clothes that are becoming.
 5. Accessories with care.
- The point to be emphasized from Mrs. Whipple's talk is that proper dress is a prerequisite for success.

William E. Connor Outstanding as President of National Alumni Council

William E. Connor, an alumnus of Bryant College, has distinguished himself in the business world many times. Recently he was elected president of the Bryant National Alumni Council. He is an outstanding example of initiative, straightforwardness, and thoroughness. His background is filled with activities that would prove to be an excellent example for any ambitious students for the business world.

Before coming to Bryant College, Bill served in the Army from 1942 to 1946. At Bryant Bill was Editor-in-Chief of the Archway, a member of the Ledger staff, president of the Student Senate, and a member of the Business Administration Society (Delta Omega). He was appointed Student Activities Director as soon as he graduated in 1949 and held that position until 1950 when he was called to serve in the Army a second time as Personnel Specialist in Austria. When he returned in 1951, Bill resumed his position as Student Activities Director and Alumni Director. He organized many new activities and strengthened all organizations. As Alumni Director, he contributed greatly to alumni activities. His special interest was Homecoming Weekend, and he worked tirelessly to develop it into an outstanding annual event.

He left Bryant College in 1953 to become a special agent for the New York Life Insurance Company. In 1955 he was appointed assistant manager of the Providence office and was promoted in 1956 to assistant manager of the Boston office, his current position.

Bill is still active in alumni work and was appointed chairman of the 1956 Homecoming committee. He will always be remembered at Bryant College for his ceaseless efforts to promote a sound student activities program and to guide young people toward a firm, richer life through participation and cooperation in student activities.

Versatility Is a Blessed Virtue

In just two short months another group of Bryant seniors will embark on many and varied business careers—working for large companies, training in smaller business concerns, or starting their own businesses.

These graduates will be working for retail houses, manufacturing concerns, service organizations and public utilities—all distinct fields of endeavor. What common ground enables today's Bryant students (as well as other college graduates) to adapt to the variety of business opportunities that await them? The answer is versatility—both on the personal level and the academic level.

Fifteen or twenty years ago the average engineering student was adaptable only to a particular phase of engineering; the business student fitted into one segment of business; and the law major flourished or starved in the legal profession. Today, however, engineering majors are working in industrial relations departments; business students are turning out blueprints; and law graduates are serving as labor relation experts. Versatility is paying off for the young college graduate.

The colleges during the past ten years have been concentrating more and more emphasis on well-rounded curricula in order to produce more versatile graduates. Instead of intense concentration on one major field of study, many progressive colleges have been varying their programs with subjects that have practical value to students. Subjects such as taxes, industrial relations, international relations, and other timely and worthwhile topics have been added to many schools' programs. Bryant College offers many of these practical courses in order to give its students the opportunity to know current problems of labor and management, government, and economics of the U. S. and the world.

Coincident with the colleges placing emphasis on well-rounded curricula, today's students, through reading of topical literature and by working in various trades while striving toward their degrees, have become familiar with a variety of fields which broaden their spheres of knowledge and increase their business opportunities.

Many Bryant students are working in stores, business houses, and other professions while they study for degrees in accounting, retailing, and management. The experience that the students are gaining on the jobs will play a very important part in making them more versatile prospects when interviewed for jobs. By working with other people, these students are learning how to get along with all types of persons; by applying themselves on the jobs, they are increasing their practical knowledge; and by working for someone else they are studying methods and procedures of supervision that they can later apply in business.

Through intensive campaigns by colleges to furnish well-rounded, topical programs and through strong application of work experiences by students, today's graduates are prospects for a variety of offers.

Perhaps the new title for the degree that the new-look, well-rounded group of graduates will receive should be "Bachelors of Versatility."

Individuality Is Necessary

Individuality is a characteristic found in few people. Yet it is probably the most sorely needed quality in our society. If everyone allows convention to dictate to him, there can be no advancement or improvement.

To be an individual one must have the strength of mind to think for oneself and then abide by one's decisions. This is important, for what is the use of setting one's own standards if one does not intend to stand by them.

Protect your ideals and respect them. Life is too short to spend all of it catering to the whims of a fair-weather world.

Parade of Opinion

(A.C.P.)—We must understand the world we live in and only knowledge can bring us that understanding. Just as in a course we must know the material or flunk, so it is with our world—the only difference being that we can take a course over while we have trouble stopping wars once they start.

Perhaps if we as citizens took a little more interest in our own government as well as others the world would be a better place to live in.

Perhaps if we don't learn our lesson now our next mistake may be our last one.

Perhaps this is the reason we have to take history, political science or economics. If it isn't the reason maybe it should be.

Senior Graduation Plans Being Formulated

by ARTHUR EDGERLY

Another indication that summer is coming to the Bryant campus is the formulation of graduation plans.

With classes ending for seniors on July 12, and final examinations beginning the week of July 15, many upperclassmen are putting on a last-minute effort to insure that their records are a good recommendation to prospective employers.

Selection of a Class Day speaker will be made by the Bryant faculty on June 18. The honor will go to a notable personality outside Bryant College.

Class Day will be held on campus, Friday, August 1. Graduation will be on August 2.

Notice

To All Student Organizations:

The advance publicity and post news coverage of any event you might have is certainly an opportunity which should not be missed. The Archway reaches the entire student body and thus provides such an opportunity—for you.

In the past, some mistakes have been made about Campus events not appearing "on time" in the Archway. The blame cannot be squarely placed upon our shoulders or yours either. If we work together, we can eliminate almost all of the past blunders concerning new coverage and, at the same time, do each other a big service.

The first and most important step is to get "the dates" straight. Below is a list of Archway publication dates for the rest of this semester and the deadline for each issue.

If you want an article about something that is to happen or has happened write a story about the event and place it in the Archway mailbox in the bookstore. If you have any problems, contact one of the editors, and together we can work out a solution.

"Booster" Pamphlet First Bryant Newspaper

by EDWARD W. REARDON

In March, 1924, when Bryant was known as Bryant-Stratton College, members of the Business Administration and Higher Accounting Department decided to start a school newspaper.

Under the direction of Elphege J. Goulet, Managing Editor, and Warren G. Lane, C.P.A., Faculty Editor, the first issue, a four-page pamphlet was printed at a bookstore on Canal Street. The paper was called the BOOSTER and was started off as a weekly, selling for 5¢ a copy, but later was changed to a monthly, selling for 10¢ a copy.

The BOOSTER printed news, biographies of students, accounting articles, and even short stories.

The first volume started on March 24, 1924, and continued until the end of the school year. One of the issues, the fifth, contained 16 pages plus pictures which was quite a feat considering the high cost of pictures.

In the next issue of the ARCHWAY highlights of other volumes will be described.

This writer has in his possession quite a few issues of the BOOSTER, loaned by Mr. Goulet, and anyone wishing to read them may do so by leaving his name in the ARCHWAY mailbox in the bookstore.

Approximately 30 veterans each month who apply for Veterans Administration benefits in Rhode Island have lost their discharge or separation papers, Acting Manager Edward D. Graham of the VA Regional Office in Providence estimated today.

Although a veteran may be able to obtain a certificate in lieu of lost discharge or a copy of his separation papers from his branch of service, often this takes considerable time, Graham said.

"Veterans can save themselves both time and trouble by taking proper care of their discharge and separation papers," Graham added.

The best way to assure the safety of your separation papers, Graham pointed out, is to:

- (1) Have photostats made, including one in wallet-size that can be always carried with you.
- (2) Have them recorded at your county courthouse and returned to you; then you'll always be able to get a copy when you need it.
- (3) Keep the original papers in a safe deposit box at a bank or in a strong box at home; and
- (4) Make sure your family knows where the papers are kept, so that in case of emergency they'll be able to find them without delay.

Over 13,500 of the 262,340 vets with service-connected disabilities who have been receiving additional compensation allowances for their wives and children have had their payments increased as a result of a family status survey, Veterans Administration said today.

Additional payments because of dependents are authorized by law for vets whose service-connected disabilities are rated at 50 percent or more, VA said.

Conducted by questionnaire, the survey covered all vets receiving allowances for wives and children based on a dependency status established with VA before September 1, 1955.

Of the 262,340 vets concerned in the survey, 91.5 percent (240,121) had no change in payments, and 5.2 percent (13,576) were found to be entitled to higher allowances for an increased number of dependents, VA said.

A total of 8,642 vets (3.3 percent) had their allowances lowered as a result of the survey. Of these 5,957 (69 percent) were reduced because of the vets failure to supply the requested information. If found eligible VA said, these vets may have their allowances restored to the proper level by furnishing the required data.

There were 2,685 reductions of allowances because of reduced number of dependents.

One case is still pending. The previously announced figure of 205,000 vets to be surveyed included all vets receiving allowances for dependents.

Not sent questionnaires were more than 42,000 vets who were receiving allowances for dependent parents or whose family status was established on or after September 1, 1955.

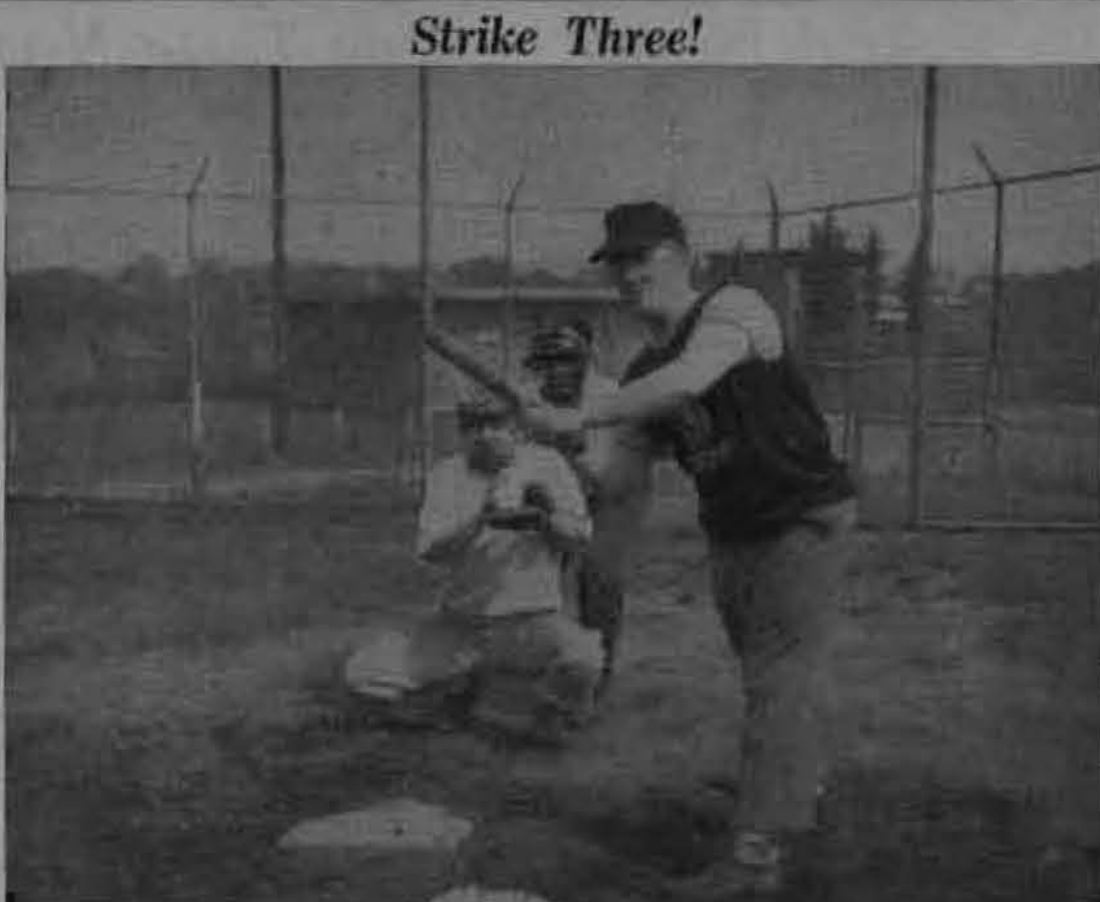

Phi Sigma Nu Athletics

Phi Sig "A" team is currently in a two way tie for second place in the Bryant Intramural softball league with a record of 5 wins and 1 loss. Its only loss came at the hands of Chi Gamma Iota. Phi Sig "A" and Tau Epsilon vie this week in a game which will probably decide the second place standings. Both teams have identical records and both have lost to Chi Gam.

Brilliant fielding by Tony DiNofrio, John Prieck, and Jerry Montasani combined with the heavy bats of Montasani, Dick Dipalo, Richie Gayer, Jim Rogers, Bob Richmond, Pete Veritas and Don Bookless have kept the team in contention throughout the season.

Phi Sig also has a "B" team entered in the league. The "B" team has great potential for next season. This team will most likely be the "A" team next year and will give any team a battle. Some of the standouts on the "B" team are Dick Drubiak, Jack Osher, Tom Heeds, Ron Blasko, D. DiFillipo, Matt Parks, and Bob Armfield.

Phi Sig's "A" team has virtually clinched a playoff berth, while the "B" team has an outside chance of making the playoffs.

Tau Ep Clinches 2nd Place and Playoff Berth

Now that Tau Epsilon has clinched a playoff berth, all the players are anxious for another crack at Chi Gamma. Last week, in the best game of the season to date, Chi Gamma edged Tau Ep 2-1. Both runs scored were unearned, but credit must be given to Bob Blinn, who pitched his way out of some tight spots, and to Chi Gamma's fine defensive play.

Tau Ep's record to date is an impressive 7 to 1. In only two of these games did T. E. fail to reach double figures—the 2-1 loss to Chi Gamma, and a 9-3 victory over Kappa Tau. The pitching of Harry Fiedler has been outstanding. Harry has one no-hitter and two two-hitters to his credit; and he is as good at the plate as he has been at the mound.

Tau Epsilon's first string, backed up by a strong bench, expects to go all the way in the playoffs. The qualifying teams for the playoffs are: Chi Gamma, Tau Epsilon, Phi Sigma "A", and Kappa Tau. Here is Tau Ep's first string line-up: Jack Allen, ss; Marty Haran, cf; Duke Dumaine, c; Harry Fiedler, p; Jim Aiello, 3b; Roger Wardell, 2b; Joe Migliaccio, lf; Jimmy Costa, rf; and Leo Viti, 1b.

BUOY ROOM . .

by HOWIE WATTS

After a year or more of informal discussion, it is pretty well decided that the America's Cup will be sailed for in 1958. This will be the 17th match and the first race since 1937 when Commodore Vanderbilt of the New York Yacht Club successfully defended the Cup in the Ranger, one of the last of the Class J sloops.

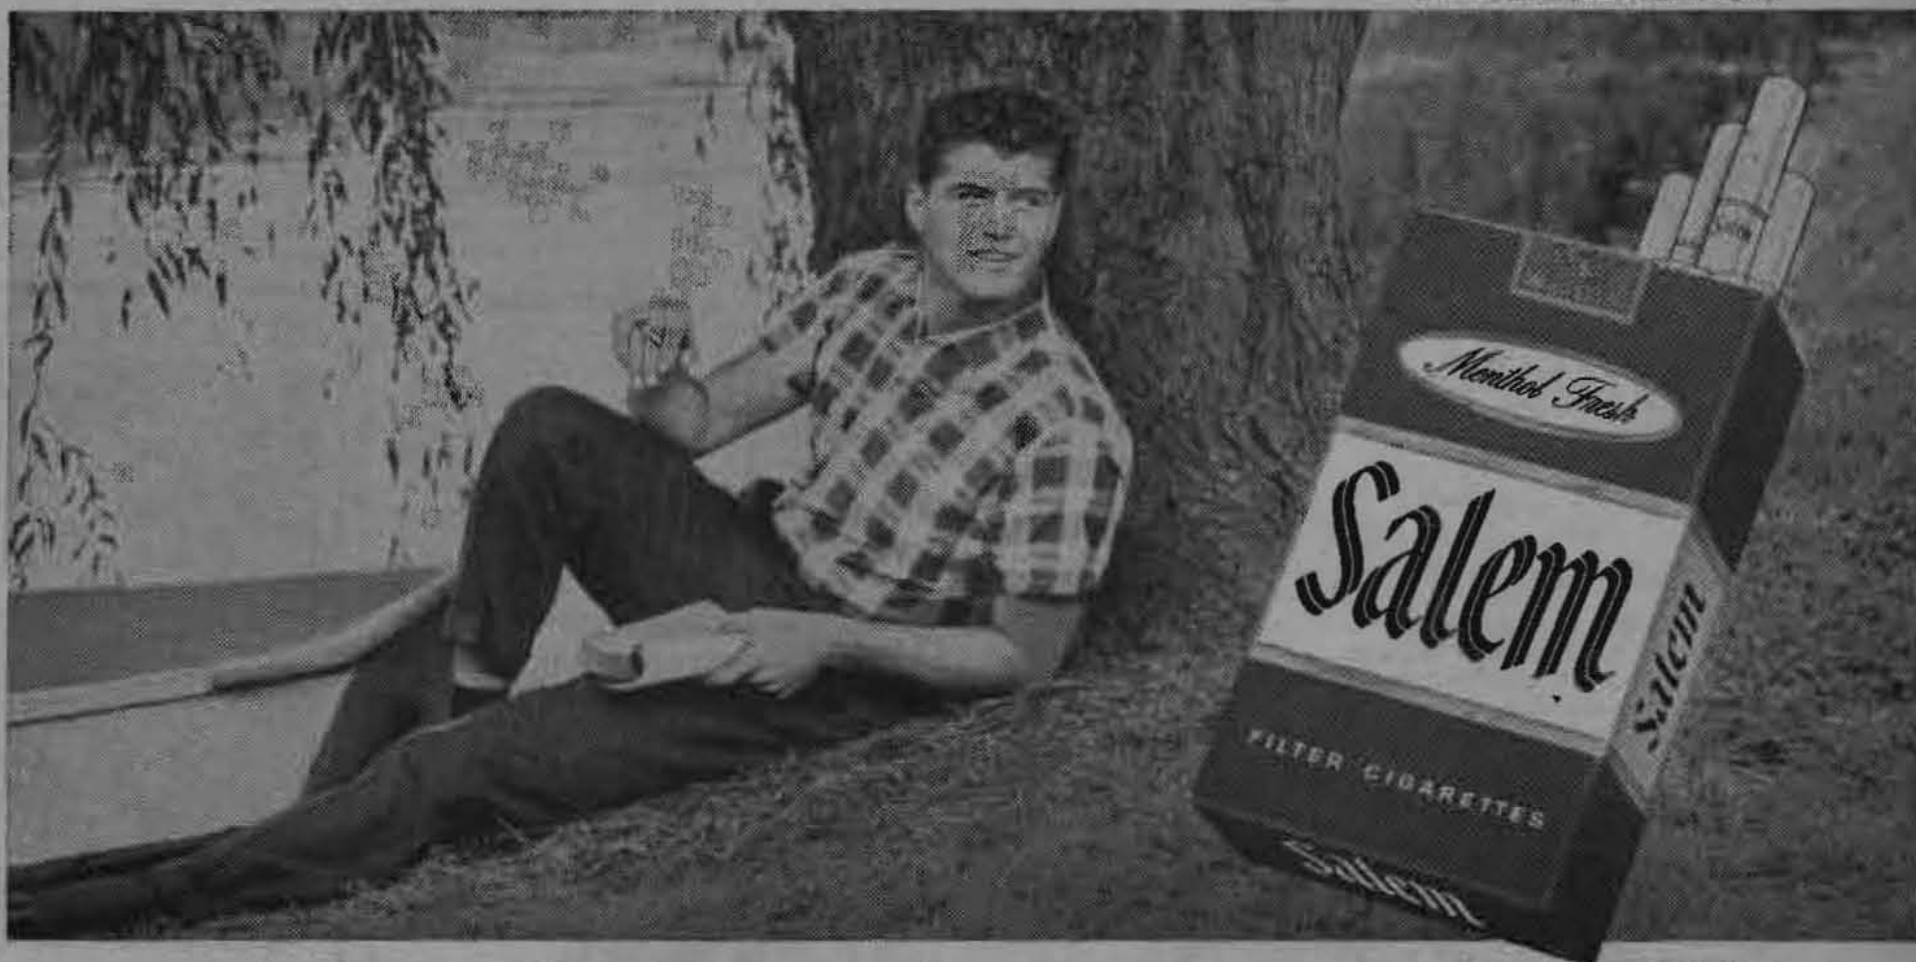

The New York Yacht Club has received and accepted the challenge from the Royal Yacht Club of England. Although still unofficial, the match will probably consist of 4 out of 7 races over a 24 mile course off Newport, R. I. Twelve-Meter sloops will be used, and there will be only one boat representing each club. Since no new 12-Meters have been built either here or in England since War II, there are presently many naval architects, designers, and yacht builders working diligently to create a winner.

The special America's Cup Committee, appointed by Commodore J. Burr Bartram of the N.Y.Y.C., will select the defender. Meanwhile, there will be extensive 12-Meter racing in preparation for the famed event. There is talk of syndicates being formed in Chicago, Boston, and on the west coast to finance the building of the 70-foot sloops which will represent $$$! There will, more than likely, be several 12-Meters moored at the N.Y.Y.C. and raced extensively until 3 weeks before the races when the Cup Committee will officially announce the 17th defender of the America's Cup.

Teacher-Trainees to Practice-Teach In Rhode Island High Schools

by Donna Ricci and Marilyn Stillman

The teacher-trainees who will become seniors next September will receive their first experience in their chosen profession when they enter Rhode Island high schools in the fall to do their practice teaching. This teaching will enable them to get a better understanding of the procedures and problems that they will encounter in future years.

Sigma Lambda Theta News

by Judy Alterio

Alumni Weekend was an enjoyable one for all those who attended the many affairs put on by Theta and Beta. On Friday, May 17, the brothers and sisters had a party at Charlestown Beach. Although it was rather cold to go swimming, everyone had a terrific time. On Saturday the Alumni enjoyed a Homecoming Party at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel. Sunday there was a picnic at Charlestown.

The girls of Theta really showed their generosity in the recent Blood Drive. The large turn-out of girls from Theta was rewarded when the sorority won a trophy for the largest percentage of donors.

Informal initiation for Sigma Lambda Theta was held on May 23 at Lincoln Woods. Formal initiation is scheduled for the first week of June.

The softball team has been showing some promising results in the three games they've played. The first game was a close loss to SIC by 13 to 12. In the second game Theta defeated Delta Sigma Chi. The third game of the season was a very exciting one and ended in a tie with Kappa Delta Kappa.

Theta is planning a weekend in Hyannis for June 14 to June 16. All of the sisters are anxiously awaiting the weekend. For many it will be the last get-together with their sorority sisters.

The Pledge Formal for Theta and Beta is being planned for June 29 and will be held at a local country club.

Last weekend marked another beach party for the sorority and fraternity. Most every one didn't go swimming, but a few brave souls "beat the heat" by a cold dip in the ocean. And those who didn't want to go in went anyway—with a small amount of persuasion, of course!!

The sisters of Theta and the brothers of Beta are planning an original skit for Stunt Night. Diane DelFavero and Don Potter are taking care of the arrangements and are both doing a very good job.

Sigma Iota Chi News

SIC is proud to announce that Marcia Kapinos has been chosen as Newman Club candidate for the Roslyn Knowpaw Award, given each year to the person most active in his or her religious organization. As a past president and this semester's vice-president of the Newman Club, Marcia has worked long and hard in religious activities on campus. Marcia is the type of person who follows every day the Christian principles which make her the sweet, sincere person that she is. Hats off to "Marsh" and lots of luck!

The softball team swept on to another victory — winning from SIB. SIC is still undefeated.

The sisters of Sigma gave a picnic at Lincoln Woods on Saturday, June 8, for the new sisters who joined in September and February. It proved to be a big success.

Phi Sigma Nu fraternity had a picnic last Sunday, June 9, which everyone enjoyed tremendously.

Another plan being undertaken together with the Brothers is the Stunt Night Program. The sisters and brothers are working long and tediously to produce another winning performance for this year's Stunt Night.

Wednesday, June 5, SIC did it again defeating APK by the score of 22-1.

Beta Makes Big Plans

The brothers of Beta Sigma Chi have been making big near-future plans for the fraternity. The officers and several committees having been scouting around getting those little details straightened out about many things.

Beta's Pledge Banquet, at which twenty-three young men will be formally initiated into the fraternity, will be held at the Admiral Inn on June 26. Dean Golski, and Messrs. Appleby, Lee, Paul, McLaughlin, and Espey will be present to speak to the brothers.

The long-awaited Beta-Theta Pledge Formal will be at the Wannamoisett Country Club on Saturday, June 29. The Formal committee guarantees a wonderful time for all the brothers, sisters, and their dates.

Election of officers for next semester will take place at a special fraternity meeting on Tuesday night, June 18.

Alpha Theta Chi and Delta Sigma Chi Initiate Pledges

Friday, May 17, Alpha Theta Chi and Delta Sigma Chi initiated their new brothers and sisters.

After the initiation, AOX and DEX got together and had a big party at Ann Almonte's summer home on Longmeadow Beach.

The party was such a success that they decided to have another one very shortly.

The brothers of Alpha Theta Chi held their "Hells-a-Popping" dance Friday, May 24, at the Churchill house.

The dreamy dance music was provided by Flory Lee and his orchestra. Everyone present had a good time and are all looking forward to the next dance given by AOX.

Campus Capers

By Doris King and Terry Fusco

We are now in the midst of a whirl of social get-togethers. At this time of year, picnics, beach parties, cook-outs and banquets play an important part in sorority and fraternity life; and we no doubt pass aside the textbooks for this pleasure. Some important dates and events to remember: . . . On Wednesday, June 19, Bryant students will once again leave their books for a day to enjoy a school picnic. The scene for this event—as last year—will be Rocky Point Amusement Park, in Warwick, Rhode Island. Tickets are on sale now and are only $1. A shore dinner consisting of clam chowder, clam cakes, and the usual shore-dinner trimmings will give everyone the strength to enjoy all the amusements that will be made available. The salt water swimming pool will be open for everyone's enjoyment and relaxation. Remember, buy your tickets now so that you will be sure to get in on this day of fun and frolic. It's a treat not to miss . . . Bryant's Spring Formal, sponsored by the Greek Letter Council, will be held on Saturday evening, June 22, 1957, at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel. Dress will be formal, and the dance will be nonfloral . . . Kappa Delta Kappa sorority is planning an after-school picnic, which will be held at Joan St. Godard's summer home in Taunton, Massachusetts . . . Joyce Etchell's summer home at Point Judith, Rhode Island, will be the scene of a Sunday afternoon teacher-trainee picnic, June 16 . . . KDK's annual Mother-Daughter Banquet has been set for Sunday, June 30, 1957. It will be held at the Admiral Inn in Cumberland, Rhode Island; and as last year will be a combination Installation and Awards Banquet, as well as its original purpose, a banquet for sorority sisters and their mothers . . . On August 1, Class Day Exercises will be held on Bryant Campus. Joyce Blinckhorn and Joyce Corp, junior teacher-trainees have been chosen as Marshalls and will lead the August graduates at Class Day and Graduation exercises . . . Ten teacher-trainees will make up the Ivy Chain. They are June Knight, Joan St. Godard, Anne Gibbons, Ann Marie Nunes, Joyce Etchells, Doris King and Terry Fusco, all juniors, and Barbara Kaszinski, Frances Savastano and Carole Sorenson, sophomores.

Sassy for The Thirsty . . .

Newest effort to tank-up the American public is a product "having all the characteristics of beer, except taste and 'beer breath'" to quote Advertising Age.

It's for people who have no liking for beer or liquor but still want to get a snootful.

The product is SASSY, a creation of Wahl-Henius Institute in Chicago.

Sassy foams like beer, has four to six per cent alcohol, comes in collins, cola, and punch flavors. Advertising features low-cut gowns on sassy girls.

Quotable Quote

Young people who trim themselves to suit everybody will soon find themselves whittled away.

Quotable?

Sweet Young Thing: "Does this lipstick come off easily?"

Cosmetic Clerk: "Not if you put up a good fight."

Chi Gam Holds Picnic For R. I. Children Center

Chi Gamma Iota, ably assisted by its sister sorority, Phi Upsilon, held its annual picnic for 120 underprivileged children from the RHODE ISLAND CHILDREN'S CENTER on May 25.

Lincoln Woods was the scene where hot dogs, ice cream, candy, potato chips and watermelon were devoured by the eager children.

Highlights of the day were the races and prizes presented to the children. A good time was had by all.

On the arrangement committee were Edwin Taylor, Chairman, James Mahon, Donald Haggerty, Richard Newton, Donald Thomas, James Kressin, Henry Gaudet, Joseph Colonbu, and Robert West.
