

Students Show Lukewarm Interest in Class Officer Elections

Dean Mercier Chosen New President of Eastern States Professional Association

Lionel H. Mercier, Dean of the School of Business Teacher Education at Bryant College, was elected President of the Eastern States Association of Professional Schools for Teachers at their Thirty-fourth Annual Spring Conference in New York City on Saturday, March 21. The Conference was attended by nearly 800 educators and teacher-training students.

Formerly vice-president of this organization, which is an association of about 80 teacher preparatory institutions from 10 eastern states and the District of Columbia, Dean Mercier has also served as treasurer and a member of the Board of Control for six years.

A former president of the Rhode Island Business Teachers Association and more recently a past president of the Barnard Club (Rhode Island organization of male educators), Dean Mercier is a member of the Rhode Island Institute Commission on Teacher Education and Professional Standards.

Receiving his Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration at Bryant College, and his Bachelor of Education Degree at Teacher's College of Connecticut, he earned his Master's Degree at the Rhode Island College of Education. He has also taken special studies at Yale University, Trinity College, and Boston University. Teaching at the Union Junior High, the Farmington High School, and the Moody Business Institute in Connecticut, he was also Managing Editor of "The Connecticut Craftsman," journal, and was associated for a short period with the Providence Visitor. A native of Connecticut, Dean Mercier joined the faculty of Bryant College in 1939. He has contributed articles to several business-education periodicals.

Dean Mercier lives with his wife, the former Gertrude Straight, of Providence, and son, Richard, at 95 Leroy Drive, Riverdale, Rhode Island.

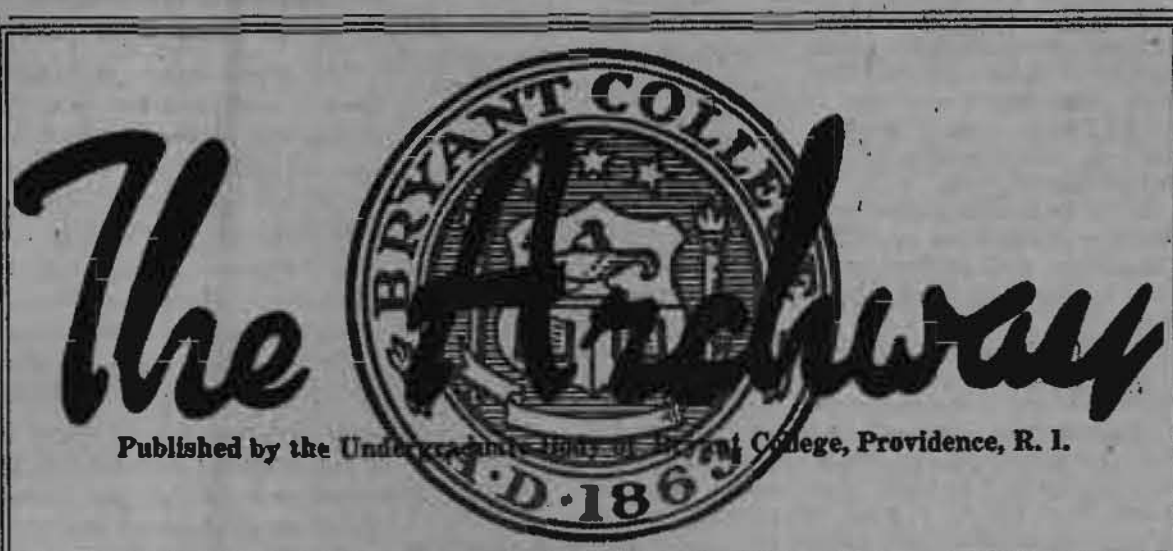

New College Bulletin Attracts Wide Attention; Compiled by Mrs. Hochberg

By Carole Oliner

"Your Career in Business," a bulletin of Bryant College of Business Administration, is the most recent publication of the college compiled by Mrs. Gertrude Meth Hochberg, Director of Public Relations.

Since its completion, "Your Career in Business" has attracted the attention of business firms, colleges, universities, religious organizations, publicity agencies, insurance companies, and Government agencies throughout the United States and Canada. Requests for copies have come from such places as Melbourne, Australia; Thurgau, Switzerland; Paris, France; and Calcutta, India.

The booklet, which is both interesting and informative, describes in detail the advantages, opportunities,

GLC Planning Open House in College Gym

By Joe Bedard

On Thursday, April 8, the Greek Letter Council will hold open house for the spring semester in the gymnasium from 3 to 5 p.m. Both new and old students who wish to become acquainted with the different sororities and fraternities on the campus will be welcomed. Each sorority and fraternity will have an individual booth located in the gym with such displays as its colors, coat of arms, and various trophies representing different events won in competition with other sororities and fraternities.

From Thursday, April 9 until April 30, individual smokers will be held by each sorority and fraternity for the prospective pledges. Any questions that the prospective pledges have concerning the sororities or fraternities may be asked of the various members of the organizations at these smokers.

After the smokers have been held, there will be an Interview Week from May 1 to May 8. These interviews will be conducted to answer any further questions that the pledges may have and to help everyone to get to know each other better. Following Interview Week, final bids will be sent to the respective pledges who have been accepted.

Help Week is scheduled to be held from Monday, May 11 through Friday, May 15.

Three Bryant Foreign Students to Be Speakers at Church Dinner Meeting

The feelings and attitudes of foreign students towards new nations, and "Impressions and Reactions towards Americans, here and abroad," will be two of several topics presented at a dinner meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service to be held at the Matthews Street Methodist Church, on April 8, at 6:30 P.M.

Among the guests at the dinner meeting will be three members of the Bryant student body, Anne Marie Holmgren, from Sweden; Susan Ting, from Hong Kong, China; and Robert Guerlain from Paris, France. The dinner meeting has been arranged by Professor Lela H. Glidden of the Bryant faculty and also officer of the Women's Society of Christian Service, and Dr. Elizabeth Cooling, vice president of the Society and a Professor of Education at Rhode Island College of Education.

A panel discussion of topics concerning how Christians in America can help the people of different religions throughout the world will be presented after the dinner. A question period will follow the panel discussion.

Lindy's, Scene of APK Pledge Formal

On Friday, January 16 the sisters of Alpha Phi Kappa held their traditional pledge formal at Lindy's Restaurant.

Trophies were given out by APK president, Carol Zinno. These trophies were presented to Ideal Pledge, Ellen Melay; Ideal APK Girl, Lorraine Ether; and Most Athletic, Rusty Rosenberg.

The termination of this enjoyable evening consisted of the installation of the new president of the brothers, Chuck Klein and the introduction of the new officers of Kappa Tau.

Easter Egg Hunt Held by Sigma Lambda, Beta Sig

By Arthur Bienvenue

The great enthusiasm shown by the brothers of Beta Sigma Chi and the sisters of Sigma Lambda Theta, combined with the first beautiful day of spring, made possible one of the largest turnouts for a charitable cause ever sponsored by Beta and Theta.

Saturday, March 21 was the scene of the annual Easter Egg Hunt at St. Aloysius Orphanage in Greenville, R. I. Cars of every description (Continued on Page 4)

The election of class officers held on Friday, March 20, reflected a general lack of interest on the part of the student body. Fewer than 41% of the eligible voters cast ballots for the candidates.

Not only was there a lack of enthusiasm among the voters, but also there was a marked decrease in the number of candidates running for office. All told, there were only 35 candidates seeking 24 offices. Therefore, this situation resulted in two uncontested states, plus one class with no candidates for office at all.

The heaviest turnout was in the sophomore secretarial class which led with a percentage of 54.7% of the students voting. However, even this figure left much to be desired. The next highest was the freshman B. A. class with a vote of 48.5%, followed by the sophomore B. A. class, 40.8%; junior B. A. class, 34.4%; and finally the senior secretarial class with a 25.7% vote.

The Senior B. A. class officers are George Campbell, President; Dave Simpson, Vice-President; and Russell Paonessa, Secretary-Treasurer, all of whom were uncontested. The Junior B. A. class elected Joseph Kulesza, Robert A. D'Amico, and Joseph Mega to the offices of President, Vice-President, and Secretary-Treasurer respectively. Sophomore B. A. victors were Robert Black, George McGonagle, and David Bishop. The Freshman B. A. class chose three darkhorse candidates, Frank Formica, Reno DiMarco, and Richard Santilli to represent their class.

The Senior Secretarial class voted into office John Szeredy, President, and Rosalie Digits, Vice-President. There was no nominee for Secretary-Treasurer in this class. Representing the Sophomore Secretarial class are Jennie Pizzo, Brenda DiSaia, and Mary Jean Glass.

The Preparatory class election was uncontested. The officers are John Volpe, President; Thomas J. Bottone, Vice-President; and Richard D. Morrao, Secretary-Treasurer.

Secretarial Assembly Set for April 8

By Irene Bollart

"The Job Interview" by Miss Louise Burrill and "Secretarial Success" by Miss Priscilla Moulton will be given as the next lecture on April 8. Miss Moulton introduced the speakers and commented on their speeches.

A panel of Bryant College graduates discussed secretarial work and qualifications representing the four majors at the Secretarial Lecture Assembly on March 17. Representing the four majors were Miss Lois Wartman, accounting; Miss Vyra Imondi, administrative; Miss Carolyn Durrell, legal; and Miss Barbara Chiaramonte, medical.

Miss Lois Wartman, Assistant Credit Manager of the Davol Rubber Company, explained the duties of the accounting secretary. She stressed the fact that to succeed in this field, one must first like to work with figures.

Secretary on the Executive Staff for Governor Del Seito, Miss Vyra Imondi, discussed the variations of the administrative field. Telling people and the necessary skills of typing, shorthand, filing, etc., were pointed out as being a necessity in this major.

Miss Carolyn Durrell, explained her duties as legal secretary at Edwards and Angell Law Firm. Miss Durrell emphasized the importance of filing in her field and of good shorthand speed.

Medical Major, Miss Barbara Chiaramonte, secretary to Dr. Anthony Migliocot, told of the duties in her job. She went on to say that as a medical secretary one must like people and have a sense of humor.

New Voting System Put in Effect for May Queen Contest

By Lloyd Constantine

Once again the Bryant Campus is beginning to feel the caress of spring and the pressure of one of the most actively sponsored campaigns of the year, the annual May Queen competition. This year, as in others, the competitive spirit of the student body, the imaginative nature of the fraternities, and the excitement of the sororities are all fired and ready to go.

There will be some difference this year, however, in the manner of campaigning and electing the sweetheart of the campus. Politics will play its part, but the chances of a candidate being elected on visible merits alone have been lessened by

BIB Raffle Prize To Be Stereo Unit

By Paul Orsina

Would you like to win an R.C.A. Victor stereophonic victrola? The obvious answers to this is yes. Now the question is, How can this be done?

Between March 23 and May 1, the Brothers of Beta Iota Beta fraternity will be selling tickets for this victrola. Don Stapon, chairman of the raffle committee, has made arrangements to display the victrola in front of the Snack Bar between 11 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. daily.

At this time, one of the B.I.B. Brothers will be there to sell tickets. The object of this raffle is to raise money for the B.I.B. Children's Welfare Fund.

The holder of the lucky ticket will be notified when the drawing is held, May 1.

Masquers Cast "Out of the Frying Pan"

By Mike Merolla

With the laughter produced by last semester's comedy still echoing in their ears, the Bryant College Masquers began try outs for the spring production. On March 24 and 25 many new faces along with veterans of previous college productions ran for parts in Francis Swann's comedy "Out Of The Frying Pan." The following day the cast, was posted:

George Bodell...David Thompson
Nathaniel Keese...John Nicholson
Mrs. Garnet...Janet Anisewski
Tony Denison...Stuart, Martin
Muriel Foster...Kay McCormick
Katie Ault...Winifred Wall
Marge Benson...Phyllis Schabowski
Dottie Coburn...Helvi Karro
Mr. Coburn...Bob Loranger
Mr. Kenny...Michele Merolla
Mac (1st Cop)...Robert Black
Joe (2nd Cop)...Channing Reeves

Under the direction of Mr. David M. Brooks, Jr., this gay and light-hearted comedy will unfold before

The theme of this amusing play centers around the efforts of a group of aspiring young actors and actresses trying to get a notable Broadway producer into their apartment to witness a scene from "Mostly Murder." It is so realistic that police raid the apartment. The misunderstanding becomes hilarious when it is discovered the girl who is playing the corpse has been served a Mickey Finn.

If you are interested in having a hand in the production of the play, see Mr. Brooks or any of the following officers of the club: President, John Nicholson; Vice-President Mike Merolla; Secretary, Kay McCormick; Treasurer, Bob Loranger.

Watch for the date of this hilarious comedy. You won't want to miss it.

Will Benefit Would-Be Teachers

President Announces Federal Grant

Bryant College of Business Administration will receive $4,502 for the National Defense Student Loan Fund from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. Dr. Henry L. Jacobs, president of the College, was informed.

Under the formula prescribed by the Office of Education, the College will add one ninth of the grant to bring the total to a Loan Fund of $5,003.

The College expects to be ready to begin processing applications by March 1. Under the terms of the National Defense Education Act, preference will be given to students with a superior academic background who express a desire to teach in elementary or secondary schools as provided under this act.

Loans from the Fund may be granted only to students who are in need of the amount of the loan to pursue a full-time course of study and the determination of this need will include consideration of the income and resources of the applicant's family, any income and assets of the applicant and the cost reasonably necessary for the student's attendance at the institution.

According to the provisions of the Act an amount of not more than $1,000 per year or $5,000 aggregate can be borrowed from the Fund by deserving students. Repayment of the loan at 3 percent interest per annum begins one year after termination of a full-time course of study and ends eleven years after. However, if the borrower is a teacher in a public elementary or secondary school up to one-half of the amount of any loan (plus interest) is cancelled at the rate of 10 per cent (plus interest) of the amount of the loan for each complete academic year of service.

Joe Mullaney, Two P.C. Cagers to Talk On NIT Experiences

By Chris Pilar

The Bryant College Newman Club will play host to Joe Mullaney and two of the Providence College Friars on April 6 at 7:00 p.m. in the gym. The players will be on hand to give a brief demonstration and an account of their recent trip to the N.I.T. in New York. Admission will be 25 cents for non-members.

Future activities of the Newman Club will include a talk on April 23 by Father Lennon of P. C. on "Campus Dating" a regional dance to be held in May at Brown, a talk by Father Schmultz on "Mixed Marriages," and the semi-annual picnic to be held at Lincoln Woods on May 30. These are just a few of the many activities that are on the agenda.

On Sunday evening, March 22 the Newman Club was honored to have Mr. Vincent Andrews present his inspiring documentary on "The Life of the Trappist Monks." The film, taken by Mr. Andrews over the past ten years, depicts, primarily, the establishment of a new monastery by the monks in Spencer, Massachusetts.

At the first business meeting of the semester, 80% of the members attended. The new business attended to was the appointing of standing publicity and social committees. Also discussed was the schedule of coming events.

Membership is still open to anyone wishing to join.

Christian Assoc. To Meet April 13

By Gale Frank

At an executive meeting March 18, the next meeting was planned. It will be held Monday, April 13 at the Barn. Since the dormitory students will be allowed out until 10:00 p.m., the meeting has been scheduled for 7:30. Reverend Charles D. Lake from the First Baptist Church in Providence will be the speaker. He will speak on "Jazz and Jesus" in reference to "Man, God, and Modern Music."

James Wright, President, asks all those who are interested in an outing at Newport in the near future, to attend. Tentative plans will be discussed at the business meeting preceding Mr. Lake's talk. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the meeting.

The Bryant Christian Association held its Open House Thursday, March 12, at the Barq. In spite of the stormy weather that necessitated school closing that day, many students turned out to hear the Reverend Richard L. Manzmann, Assistant minister at the Central Congregational Church and counselor to college students of this area. His topic was entitled, "Live, Love, Lent, and Auntie Mame." Following his interesting talk, the students held an informal discussion over coffee and cookies. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cedegren, advisors of the B.C.A., also attended.

Coed 1 to Coed 2: He's real nice to me. Why only last week he took me out to dinner at Johnson-on-the-Hammock.

Athlete 1: I don't think you should take her out tonight. She has a lot of studying to do.

Athlete 2: I'll take her out anytime I want to—that's my provocative.

A minister was accustomed to reading his sermons, which he placed on the pulpit about half an hour before the church service. One young member noted this habit and removed the last page from the manuscript before services one day. The minister read the sermon as usual. The last line on what was now the final page had three words, "So Adam said to Eve..."

Lifting the page, there was of course, no following manuscript. He rifled through the other pages, gaining a little time by repeating: "So Adam said to Eve..." and then in a low voice, but one which the amplifying system carried to every part of the church, added, "...there seems to be a leaf missing."

Sibley Says....

By George Sibley

If you were to pass me on the campus you would probably scurry by without even an afterthought. If by some unimaginable quirk of destiny you did look my way, you would no doubt immediately place me in at least one of the following categories: Frustrated truck driver, near-sighted golfer, concentration camp survivor, rhythmless musician, escaped convict. At any rate your mental processes would never react in such a manner as to position me in the Special Abilities stratum or to label me as a chronic user of the thinking-man's filter.

Yet nature has strange ways of taking when atmospheric conditions are favorable and the moon is in the correct orbit, certain psychic factors juxtapose and intermingle. It is then that I become the victim of a rare phenomenon... I actually THINK.

Within the confines of this extremely attractive and meticulously neat column, for the benefit and furtherance of mankind, I intend to share the results of this Thought Miracle in the form of a movie critic's review. Normally, because of the rarity of this thought phenomenon, my reviews will be completely rational. If the motion picture under discussion has a odor of either the pleasant or unpleasant variety, I will spell out my selection in crisp, concise praise or criticism. On the other hand, if a personality such as Brigitte Bardot is under the pen, look for utterly irrational behavior on my part. I say this because Brigitte embraces such an overpowering combination of scope, color, and... ahh... certain other elements, that she cannot be discussed both intelligently and rationally in the same breath. (Oh, that Brigitte!)

So when you have occasion to read my literary contributions, do so with the inner realization that here is something that may rank with the classics. Tell yourself, "This is great. Man, this Cat has really got it." If your protegee happens to share a different opinion and his name happens to be Ambrose, just tell him to keep on walking.

My reveries as a semi-confirmed bachelor have always contained Parisian settings intermixed with very liberal amounts of wine, women, and song. The security I have experienced within these reveries has periodically helped to bolster my conviction that there should be a special presidential citation for every male who emerges from the battle of the sexes victoriously unattached.

Certainly the French must have some such medal that is presented to courageous "tender trap" veterans. One can imagine the pride with which these awards must be worn and the spine chilling tales of narrow escapes that must be told over the evening glass of wine.

I too still bear scars from many near misses, and even today the most frightening word that can be mentioned in my presence is marriage. It is an accepted truism among my contemporaries that any fellow who gets captured in this perpetually waged feminine warfare, does so because he tries to fight with obsolete weapons. This fact is brought home superbly in the MGM production of "Gigi." With a Paris background containing colorful costuming and designing by Cecil Beaton, captivating music with lyrics and tune by Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Loewe of "My Fair Lady" fame, and very adequate casting directed by Vincente Minnelli; Louis Jourdan as Gaston Lachaille (the innocent bachelor) is outmaneuvered, outgunned, outwitted, and outdone by Leslie Caron as Gigi (the guilty female) with the help of her strategist Aunt Alicia (Isabel Jeans).

The situation starts, surprisingly enough, with Gaston expressing his utter boredom with life and the people therein; but of course he suffers these pangs of boredom in classic bachelorhood style. This is accomplished first by being bored in Paris, by having Eva Gabor as a play mate, which I am certain he prefers to a Hula-Hoop, and lastly by possessing wealth so extensive that one of his employees tells him matter-of-factly that the market value of stock in a recently purchased railroad has risen tremendously, to which he retorts, "I thought it would."

To escape the routine of women, night clubs, and hangovers, Gaston frequently visits the home of a family with whom he has been friendly some length of time. It just so happens that Gigi is a member of this household, and her witty conversation and finesse in playing cards keeps Gaston amused. Gaston considers this relationship strictly platonic, and Gigi's schoolgirl appearance does nothing to disturb this misconception. Apparently, Gaston is using the 1918 variety of radar, for he never senses until the point of no return that this put-on is just the build up before the big push.

When next the two meet, Gigi is encased in a Dior special, which when worn by her, is the equivalent of a nuclear warhead in a Thor missile. Gaston, hored with the average appearance of an average Eva Gabor, explodes into a mushroom cloud when he witnesses this transformation. His amorous tendencies are so affected that, acting with traditional bachelor behavior, he proceeds to negotiate an "arrangement" to assure himself an exclusive with this merchandise. But alas! Gigi's marginal militancy curve is very low on this type of arrangement, and she turns thumbs down, to the dismay of her Aunt Alicia who was grooming her for this role.

The outcome, along with the film in its entirety, including the contributions of Maurice Chevalier, makes for thoroughly enjoyable screen fare. In fact it has so disrupted my thinking that if I, through some mental failing, were to ever consider surrendering my bachelorhood, I could wish for no better conqueror than "Gigi."

Tau Epsilon Shatters Westerly's Bid For Undefeated Season

By Charlie Regan and Tony Arrighi

A fine point producing T. E. team effort produced the major upset of the season in subduing the Westerly five to the tune of 34 to 45.

In this, the last game of the season for both teams, T. E. was able to nail down second place in the league standings.

From the opening tip it was evident to everyone in the gym that the Commuters were in for an interesting afternoon of basketball. T. E. jumped off to an 8 point lead and as times were up as much as 13 points.

Curt Holmes, who usually hits from around the basket, got half of his 12 points with long one-handed jumps from the corner. Jumping, diving and driving Dick Casciano led all scorers with 8.

Tom Hayes played one of his best games of the season by contributing 10 important points and by clearing the boards as he should. Wes Adams was a pleasant surprise to the T. E. cause as he repeatedly pulled down one rebound after another off both boards. As usual, Fred Grebian played his steady game and helped out in the paint and especially rebound departments.

Westerly's scoring threat was continually hampered by the fine T. E. defense, but Buddy Wright hit for 12 points for the losers.

Westerly walloped the Raiders 42 to 29.

Ray Nolletti again led the Commuters with a fine 22 point performance. Nolletti was helped in the scoring department by Bob McVicar and Yonko Pirich with 12 and 10 points respectively.

The Phi Sigma Nu team 51 to 44. After a slow first half, Tau Ep gradually pulled ahead thanks to the timely scoring of Curt Holmes with 13 point and Lanny Deffeur with 12. Dick Casciano and Freddy Grebian turned in fine floor games for T. E. DiFillippo and Traviano led Phi Sig with 13 and 12 points apiece.

Kappa Tau had little trouble downing Beta Sig 50 to 21. K. T. started off fast and kept the pressure on Beta throughout the entire game. John Morrissey, Chuck Lutz, and Nick Salhani led Kappa Tau in the scoring department with 10 points apiece. Beta Sig was led by De La Roche.

In a real thriller all the way, Chi Gamma downed Phi Sigma Nu 42 to 35 in overtime. Phi Sig jumped off to a 2-point lead at half-time, but Chi Gamma came back and won the game in overtime. Fairbanks of Chi Gamma was a big factor in the exciting win. He scored 22 points and helped his team to the victory in the overtime period. Burke helped the winners with 10 big points. Traviano and DiFillippo scored 13 and 11 points respectively for Phi Sig.

A game Kappa Tau team couldn't down the fast moving Westerly Commuters as they bowed 57 to 45. Ray Nolletti continued to play his usual ball hawking type of game as he dumped in 17 big points. Bob McVicar with 12 points and Buddy Wright with 10 points helped the Westerly cause. The tough Westerly defense came up with many important rebounds which proved the margin of victory. K. T. was led by De Gallo with 14. Donahue with 13, and Lutz with 11 points.

Tau Epsilon continued to move along as they beat the Raiders 39 to 30. Dick Casciano pumped in 14 points to lead all scorers as he threw in shots from all angles. Curt Holmes and Wes Adams pulled in many important rebounds for the winners. Ken Thomas led the Raiders with 10 points.

Chi Gamma squeezed past Alpha Theta 36 to 34. It was nip and tuck all the way and Chi Gamma was just able to nudge the hard fighting losers at the wire. Fairbanks with 11 and Viele with 9 points led the winners in the low scoring game. Campbell and Nolan led AOX with 11 and 8 points respectively.

Westerly didn't give T. E. a chance to get moving as they whipped them 56 to 43. Showing a well balanced scoring attack and putting up their tight ball hawking defense, Westerly had T. E. well in hand. McVicar and Buddy Wright led all the Commuters on offense while Nolletti hauled in the rebounds. Curt Holmes played a great game for T. E. as he led all scorers with 21 points and contributed many important rebounds. Len Deffeur also helped the losers with 12 points.

Kappa Tau continued to roll along, handing Beta Sig a loss. The winners spread their scoring attack out and had little trouble winning the game. DeGallo and Saliani led K. T. in scoring, while De Marcio of Beta Sig led all scorers with 17 points.

The league continues to roll along smoothly thanks to the fine work of gallant referees Slim Jim Terry, Lonesome Pie Pimental, and Jim McMudd, who spent a few games in Madison Square Garden. Last but not least are the efficient score readers Ace Aiello and John Muldon.

Aero Club to Have Open House in Barn

The Bryant Aero Club will conduct an Open House for all Bryant students on April 8 at the Barn Studio.

A prominent businessman, Mr. Robert A. Lambert, has been invited to speak at the meeting. Mr. Lambert will speak on "The Airplane as a Practical Business Tool."

Mr. Lambert is vice-president of Eastair Corporation, the Rhode Island dealer for Cessna Aircraft Corporation. Graduated from Springfield Technical High School, Mr. Lambert attended Northeastern University and Sanson Technical School in Hartford. He worked as a civilian specialist for the U. S. Chi Gamma Keglers Ousted From Playoff

By Walt Whittingdow

The Chi Gamma Iowa bowling team defeated BIB last week and took over third place in the standings, but on Wednesday, March 25 lost to Tau Epsilon and were eliminated from the playoffs.

The team came along fast at the end of the season and fine performances were given by Jim Walsh, Ray Bush, Bob Fairbanks, Tony Williams, and the Braid brothers. Jim Walsh took the high average honors with 112, and Ray Bush took the high single honors with 161.

The immaculately groomed woman called for her car at the garage, paid the repair bill and drove off. She could no more than have circled the block before she was back again, demanding the manager. "What can I do for you, madam?" he asked. The woman held up her hands for his inspection revealing what had been, a few minutes before, spotless white gloves, but spotless no longer. "Tell me," she said with cloying sweetness, "what do your mechanics use for towels when they run out of steering wheels?" (Readers Digest)

Don't settle for one without the other!

"L&M is kindest to your taste because L&M combines the two essentials of modern smoking," says TV's Jack Lescoulie.
LOW TAR: L&M's patented filtering process adds extra filter fibers electrostatically, crosswise to the stream of smoke... makes L&M truly low in tar.
MORE TASTE: L&M's rich mixture of slow burning tobaccos brings you more exciting taste than any other cigarette.

Delta Sig Visits Children's Center

By Elaine Peters

The sisters of Delta Sigma Chi visited their cottage at the Mount Pleasant Children Center on March 19. It is hoped that more time can be spent at the home so that they can add to their Community Service points. Also, pictures for the composite are now being taken at Shepards.

At a meeting held on March 5, the girls expressed their hopes that they could purchase new sorority pins that would become standard year after year. Sweaters will be ordered soon by those sisters who do not already have them.

The spring dance to be sponsored by the sisters of Delta Sigma Chi will be held in May. It should be a big success.

Library to Be Open Four Evenings a Week

By Russ Paonessa

Mr. R. Lucien Appleby, Secretary of Bryant College, has recently announced that the Henry L. Jacobs Library will be open from 6 to 9 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday evenings.

Mr. Edmund Viele will be librarian during the evening hours.

The library will be open evenings because of the many requests by the students. The continuation of this policy depends largely upon the number of students using the library during the evening hours.

EGG HUNT

assembled in front of South Hall at 12:15 p.m. for the merry convoy.

Upon reaching St. Aloysius, the brothers and sisters of Beta and Theta played host to approximately 75 children between the ages of six and twelve years. Everyone was a child that day as Beta and Theta mingled with the children to play baseball, fly kites, and romp around from swing to merry-go-round.

Later, when John Szeredy, chairman of the Community Service Committee, sounded the signal, the children raced to the nearby wooded area to hunt the eggs that had been hidden there in the morning. Concluding the egg hunt was a party with ice cream, soda, and assorted Easter candies carefully wrapped by the sisters of Theta.

Although the afternoon was a tiring one, it was enjoyable, and the Bryant students taking part look forward to another trip to St. Aloysius in the near future.

The Beta Sig dance is to be held on April 11. It is going to be different.

Sorry . .

Yes, we're sorry we couldn't present the pictures of Dave Simpson, Vice-President-elect of the Senior Class; George McGonagle, Vice-President-elect of the Sophomore B. A. Class; and Frank Formica, President-elect, Rino Di Marco, Vice-President-elect and Richard Santilli, Secretary-elect of the Freshman B. A. Class; but as the paper went to press, the pictures of these successful candidates had not been received by The Archway.

The dark horse candidates from the Freshman B. A. Class were not formally in the running for an office; therefore, their pictures were not on file in our office.

Campus Capers

By Roni Graveson

Hi Gang,

How are you doing after a vacation of good food, fun, and relaxation? I'm sure everyone used this extra free time for studying in order to "smash" this first round of tests. Come on you Seniors, let's show them all how to do it! This is our final lap around the track. I sincerely hope that everyone comes in a winner.

Delta Omega holds its first banquet April 18 at Admiral Inn under the direction of its new President, Lane Hayden. Best of everything, Lane!

Have you heard a mumble of voices and finally a whisper saying "FEVER?" What is it? Spring? possibly. Come to the auditorium April 18 for the unveiling of "FEVER." It will be an evening of fun and enjoyment for all.

KDK is presenting their semester dance Saturday night. I am sure it will be enjoyable for everyone. Let's have all Bryant students out backing up the various fraternities and sororities.

The other day as I happened to be passing the auditorium, I saw paint, brushes, canvases, and painters! Heavenly days! what does this mean?

The Glee Club and Masquers are running a terrific campaign in preparation for their spring presentations. Many are looking forward to the finished product of their hard work. Put your shoulders to the wheel, and keep working, kids.

What's this new fad that is specifically dominating a certain group of machines (oops, I mean students)? All I see is one book bag, or more correctly "Valesh?", after another coming in. Don't tell me we have a few Mr. I. V. Leagues here! Must be heavy machine work. (I mean books).

MAY QUEEN VOTING

the new popular vote-judging system.

In the popular vote, the number of candidates running will determine the base figure to be used in computing the candidate's standing; therefore, if there are four candidates running, the base figure will be four, and the candidate with the largest plurality will receive four, the next candidate, three, etc.

In the judging portion of the contest, the same base figure will be used. Judging will be done on the basis of poise, looks, personality, and figure. After the judges have indicated their numerical rating of each of the attributes being judged, a total will be taken for each candidate. The candidate with the highest total will be given four points. Should there be a tie in the popular vote, the girl whom the judges pick as number one will be the winner.

The candidates for the title of May Queen will be announced at the Beta Sigma Gamma dance in the gym on April 25. Elections will be held on May 1 in the classroom.

On May 2 the winner will be announced at BIB dance. Rumor has it that BIB is trying to outdo the other fraternities on campus by making this dance the biggest thing Bryant has ever seen. A little bird has been spreading the rumor that the brothers of HJH have spent all their spare time figuring out a set of decorations designed to amaze, amuse, startle, stun, enthrall, enchant, titillate, and tease the student body.

FEVER

What Spring Dance

When April 18

Where Bryant Auditorium

How Casual

Why For fun and enjoyment

Who Come one, come all

The sisters of Zeta Sigma Omicron present their first dance, FEVER, April 18, from 8-12 p.m. in the Bryant Auditorium. Music will be provided by a great swing artist, Tommy Rotondo and his orchestra. The atmosphere will be bohemian in nature and everyone can plan for an evening of casual fun.

A special added attraction will appear at approximately 10 p.m. Don't miss it.

Gail Nor is chairlady of the dance, assisted by Nancy Vechinsky. Decorations; Glenice Gagnon, Tickets; Betty Montyrm, Publicity; James Anisewski, Refreshments.

Don't miss Zeta's first dance! Come and see what Bryant's newest sorority will do with a new idea.

Remember:
Dancing, plus good music, plus fun, plus enjoyment, plus special attraction, equals Zeta's dance, FEVER.
