AOX's Betty Scenti Crowned Miss BRYANT COLLEGE at Annual Pageant; Will Be Representative of Bryant College in Miss PROVIDENCE Campaign

Bryant Students To Attend N. Y. Conference

By Patricia Payette

The thirty-sixth annual Spring Conference of the Eastern States Association of Professional Schools for Teachers will be held in New York Thursday, March 23 to Saturday, March 25, in the Hotel New Yorker. Bryant College representatives to the Conference include the following students:

Diane Hunt, Jane Burt, Janet Anisewski, Jean Borowski, Carolyn Kurthunki, Elaine deRocher, Geraldine Taylor, Helen McCaffrey, Maryjane Pelkey, Bernice Ward, Gretchen Arnold, Patricia Payette, Margaret Binkock, Keith Broderick, Joanne Zampa, Margaret Ferrera, Mary Ceccarelli, Cecelia Marades.

Doctor Lionel H. Mercier, past president of the Association, and Doctor Leger Morrison will be attending the Conference as faculty delegates.

The theme of this year's Conference is "Frontiers in the Education of Teachers." Many interesting topics will be discussed such as the status of the teacher in today's society and the place of liberal art courses in the curriculum of institutions preparing teachers.

Three Bryant College students will be student leaders at the Conference. Patricia Payette will be the chairman and Janet Anisewski the recorder of discussion Topic I, "Teacher Preparation in the Multi-Purpose Colleges." Gretchen Arnold will be a recorder of the group discussing, "New Implements in Teaching."

In addition to the student discussions to be held on Friday, the Program Committee has planned many interesting events for the delegates. There will be a sight-seeing tour given by students of New York University, a reception at Columbia University, and a banquet featuring a prominent speaker. Bryant students are planning many recreational activities such as attending concerts and plays.

The Eastern States Association of Professional Schools for Teachers is represented by more than twenty teacher-training colleges. The main objectives of the Association are to improve the services of teacher-education institutions, maintain a desire between students and faculties to cooperate in bringing about understanding among student groups, and to bring to the attention of the general public the significance of the work of teacher-training institutions.

The students representing Bryant College hope that they can contribute a great deal to the objectives of the Association and hope that they become enriched by the experience of exchanging ideas concerning educational problems with students from other parts of the country.

NOMA SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship of $300 is given in memory of the late John Logan Allan, former President of the Providence Chapter of the National Office Management Association, and Vice President of Bryant College.

A student is to be selected by NOMA on recommendation of Bryant College after considering financial need, scholastic ability, character, interest, and personality.

Applications for this scholarship may be obtained at the Records Office and must be turned in not later than Thursday, March 30, 1961. Completed applications should be placed in a sealed envelope and left at the switchboard in the Administration building.

Miss Betty Scenti, Alpha Theta Chi's candidate for Miss Bryant in the Miss Bryant College Pageant was crowned as Miss Bryant College at Phi Sigma Nu's annual St. Patrick's Day Dance. The dance was held at the Roger Williams Park Casino in Cranston, Rhode Island. Miss Judy Mallard, Kappa Tau's candidate was runner up.

The entire week's activities began at Delta Sigma Chi's dance, MOON-GLOW, held on Friday, March 10. Here, each candidate was escorted by the president of the sponsoring fraternity and introduced to the students.

On Wednesday, March 15, each candidate was interviewed at a tea held in the lounge of Gardner Hall. Each prospective winner met with the six judges and was also able to meet her respective opponents.

The most important and exciting phase of the pageant was the judging on Friday evening, March 17. The program was patterned after the Miss America Pageant. The judging was composed of four different categories. The first was the modeling of an evening gown; the second was the modeling of a bathing suit; the third was performing; and fourth was the answering of two questions.

The judges for the evening were Miss Mary Lou Kiernan, Miss Providence, 1959, and runner up in the Miss Rhode Island Pageant; Mr. Anthony Paleatta, a member of the school committee at West Warwick and owner of Security Cleaners; Mr. Harold Arcaro, a practicing attorney who is co-chairman of the Miss Providence Pageant; Miss Joan Happer, former Miss West Warwick, who was chosen Miss Congeniality in the Miss Rhode Island Pageant; Mrs. Virginia Balanger, school teacher and Miss Rhode Island, 1955; and Mr. Anthony D. Mastronardi of Providence.

The first contestant was Miss Lynne Lewis, Beta Sigma Chi's candidate. Miss Lewis lives in Providence and participates actively in lacrosse, hockey and was captain of her high school cheerleading squad. She holds the title of Miss Halloween Queen, Outstanding Girl Athlete, and is the reigning Miss Sno' Queen, 1960. Lynne did a song and dance routine to a Frank Sinatra recording.

Candidate number two was Miss Bobbie Gordon, Sigma Lambda Pi's candidate. A dormitory student, Bobbie is active in the Religious and Law clubs on campus and is the holder of the Athletic award. She did a gymnastics routine.

Alpha Theta Chi's hopeful was Miss Betty Scenti. President of Sigma Theta Chi sorority, Miss Scenti has been honored as the Best Supporting Actress in her Church Club. Betty did a delightful and amusing monologue entitled "The College Waitress."

Kappa Delta Kappa's choice was Miss Roxanne Hunter. Also a dormitory student, she is vice-president of Kappa Delta Kappa sorority and is secretary of the sophomore class at Bryant College. Miss Hunter read an original composition entitled "The Age of Youth."

Another dormitory student was Miss Bobby Giese, sponsored by Beta Iota Beta fraternity. Bobby is a member of the swimming team, bowling club, and the musical and service clubs. Miss Giese did a light comedy scene built around Schubert's Serenade.

Candidate number six was Miss Anna Barbieri. A resident of Cranston, Miss Barbara is the recipient of the Rhode Island State Scholarship, a member of the Rhode Island and National Honor Society and holder of the Athletic Award. Anna did a precision routine to the music of "When the Saints Come Marching In." She was sponsored by Chi Gamma Iota.

Lucky number seven was Miss Carol Scarpetti. Residing in Cumberland, Rhode Island, Carol is a sister of Zeta Sigma Omicron sorority and a member of the Newman Club. She did a pantomime and dance act to a medley of songs from the television program "The Roaring Twenties." She was Alpha Omicron's choice.

Kappa Tau's aspirant was Miss Judy Mallard from Comery Hall. Judy is a member of the Newman Club and a sister of Alpha Phi Kappa sorority. She is the recipient of the Teen Council Award and many modeling awards. Miss Mallard did a most delightful pantomime interpretation of "Sweet old Fashioned Girl."

Candidate number nine was Miss Mary Ronon from Cumberland, Rhode Island. A member of Delta Sigma Chi sorority, Miss Ronon is a Dean's List student. Mary sang and danced to "honey-bun" from South Pacific.

Following next, each candidate was asked two questions. The first question was: "If you had three wishes, what would they be?" and "If you opened your front door and saw a baby elephant standing there, what would you do?" The answers ranged from world peace, happiness and health for my parents and personal success and happiness. I live in an apartment and if an elephant could climb three flights of stairs, I would congratulate him.

This is the first time in the history of Bryant College that something of this nature has been attempted. If the success of this pageant is any indication, the Miss Bryant College contest will be one of the most outstanding and most remembered events of the academic year.

Platform of Four Candidates Named Above:

As members of the Senior Class, we are all interested in our activities leading to graduation. These activities, moreover, should be a successful conclusion to our career at Bryant College. Your help as an individual member of the Senior Class is needed to insure this success.

It is our aim to unify the Senior Class into a workable unit so that our activities can be planned and successfully carried out. To do this, a substantial senior treasury must be established. We feel the Senior Class can accomplish this by sponsoring two fund-raising activities—a class picnic and a senior raffle. Our treasury should be adequate to provide for the purchase of a senior class gift of lasting significance.

These fund-raising activities will also enable us to broaden the social activities of our Senior Class. These activities should be placed on a weekend basis. This weekend would include a banquet and dance plus an added social activity such as a cruise. These plans, however, would be subject to your approval. The success of the activities of this Senior Class is based upon the sincere interest, cooperation, and hard work of every member.

The officers will depend on this support to insure the success of their program. We are confident that our program will be successful. Should you feel this way, give us your support on Monday, March 27.

Class Elections to Take Place

By Neal David

On Monday, March 27, class elections will be held. This day will mark the end of a week of active campaigning by many who are seeking class office. Voting will take place in the Bryant Gym from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

All students are urged to make a special effort to vote for the candidate of their choice. Class officers at Bryant are important to each class. It is up to each and every one of us to determine the destiny of our particular class by voting for the people who are best qualified.

This semester for the first time the classes will be divided by semester for more efficient representation of students. Classes are divided according to semester only. This means that all first-semester students regardless of major are in the same class. The same procedure is true for the other semesters.

It is important and imperative that each one of us know what class we are in and the people who are running to represent us. To facilitate the handling of ballots, a designated area of the gym will be assigned for each semester.

Class officers are not figure-heads. With the cooperation of the members of each class, the officers of that class will be able to plan and carry out class functions. Every class besides the Graduating Class should plan to have its own social functions.

Each student must show his or her I.D. card in order to vote. No ballots will be given out before 10 a.m., and no ballots will be accepted after 1 p.m. The ballots will be counted Monday afternoon, and the results of the class elections will be posted in the Student Union at noon on Tuesday, March 28.

DON'T FORGET TO VOTE. It is up to each of us to see that 100% of the students in each class vote. You do your share to see that your class reaches this goal.

OUR REPUBLIC—BULWARK AGAINST THE TYRANNY OF MAJORITIES

By Senator Margaret Chase Smith, Maine

We talk a great deal about our American government being a democracy. It is said that we fought two World Wars within a generation to "make the world safe for democracy."

Yet, do we know what we are talking about?

You may be surprised to know that our government is not a true democracy. It is a republic. If you doubt this, take a look at the Constitution. Try to find the word "democracy" or "democratic." Then take a look at Article IV, Section 4, which says, "The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a Republican Form of Government."

If you read the first ten amendments to the Constitution, these amendments being more popularly recognized as "The Bill of Rights," you will see that they directly flout the theory of democracy.

Now what is the difference between a democracy and a republic—what are we instead of what some of us think we are?

A democracy is a truly representative government in which the supreme power is retained by the people and exercised by them. So is a republic. But a republic, such as ours, is a restricted and limited democracy.

The basic distinction between democracy and republic is in the degree of majority rule. Majority rule is unrestricted in a democracy while it is restricted in a republic.

"The Bill of Rights" part of our Constitution places definite limitations on the power of the representatives of the people. They are denied the power to abridge our freedom of speech, right of assembly, press, trial by jury, against unreasonable searches and seizures, and other individual rights—regardless of how much the majority might be opposed to such individual rights. Under a pure or true democracy, there is no protection of such individual rights against the rule of the majority.

Democracy actually means unrestricted majority rule that our Constitution so carefully prohibits. We are inclined to think of democracy in the social sense rather than the political sense. We think of it as signifying equality among human beings. This ideal we do find expressed in the Declaration of Independence with the statement that "all men are created equal." But the ideal is even more basic than the Declaration of Independence. It is in reality the Christian concept of the Golden Rule.

So that there is good reason to distinguish between democracy and political democracy. By the sheer unrestricted rule of the majority of a political democracy, social democracy could be killed without any protection whatsoever to the minorities.

A republic is a truly representative government. It provides representation for the minority as well as the majority. It places individual freedom and rights above majority rule. If we were really a political democracy, instead of the republic we are, the will of the majority would habitually ride roughshod over the will of the minority. A republic creates and develops tolerance that acts as a bulwark against tyranny by the majority.

The United States Senate, in which I have the honor to serve, is striking proof that our government is not a democracy but a republic. New York with a population of several million people has no more representation in the Senate than my State of Maine which has a population of less than a million people. Both states have two Senators each. This is a check against unlimited majority rule for the protection of the "minority population" states.

In short, a republic rather than a democracy is the American way simply because this country was settled and founded upon the love for liberty and individual freedom. Our republic protects our very rights to our beliefs even though we be in the minority. It protects differences of opinion.

Platform of Four Candidates Named Above:

As the graduating class of 1961, we now stand on the threshold of a new and never-to-be-forgotten era. Our Alma Mater is in the midst of an unprecedented transitional period, presenting a challenge for active leadership. Through a proposed program of planned and well co-ordinated activities, under the direction of willing and capable officers, our class will strive for needed improvement and upon graduation leave Bryant College with a proud feeling of great accomplishment.

As a foundation for our active and well co-ordinated program, we have under consideration the following proposals:

1. Better co-ordination between Secretarial and Business Administration Department.

2. Active representation on behalf of the senior class in the Student Senate.

3. The institution of a workable suggestion system whereby members of the senior class may make recommendations to their officers.

4. An enjoyable moonlight cruise (this year we will get the anchor out of the water).

As our final proposal for the betterment of the senior class, we intend to initiate the first annual "Senior Family Day."

These recommendations are not empty promises. This is the platform upon which we firmly stand. We have laid the planks upon the platform, and it is now up to you to nail them down.

Passover Meals To Be Offered By Hillel

By Reeva G. Curran

Passover meals (lunch and dinner) will be served from April 8 to April 8 for those who desire them. They are 75 cents a meal. If you plan to attend any or all of these meals, please fill in the form you received and return it with your money to the Hillel Office, 154 Angel Street.

At a general meeting held in the Student Union on March 9, Rabbi Nathan N. Rosen, Director of Hillel at Brown University and Bryant College, outlined the Hillel program for the balance of the semester. Maxine Sirkin, President, appointed the following committees and their chairmen: Cantata, "The Seven Golden Buttons," to be presented April 15 in the Rhode Island School of Design Auditorium—Yola Gitter, chairman, Reeva Curran, co-chairman; study groups, Jack Shaicovitch; and Hillel Passover Meals, Al Leas.

The newly organized study groups, "Great Historic and Current Jewish Personalities," will be conducted by Rabbi Rosen every other Thursday afternoon at 8 o'clock in Alumni Hall. Everyone

By Nina A. Lusko

On June 6 the Glee Club will present its spring concert in the auditorium. The theme of the concert will be "Songs From Around the World."

Arrangements are being made to project color-slide pictures of the various countries the singers will "visit" as they "travel around the world."

The presentation will be given in the form of a "Pops" concert. Tables and chairs will be arranged in the auditorium to add informality to the evening.

On May 2 the members of the Glee Club are going to Boston to hear the Boston "Pops" Orchestra. It should be an enjoyable evening for all who go.

On Wednesday, March 8, Leonard Richards was elected Vice-President of the Glee Club. The following also are new members: Lettie Babcock, Maureen Houlihan, Al Lovenheim, Terry Simonelli, Steve Wolfe, Jane Smithson.

Membership is open to all who would like to join—upper classmen as well as freshmen. Rehearsals are held every Wednesday at three o'clock in M7.

is invited to attend these study groups. Consult the bulletin for confirmation of time and place.

Sales and Sales Management Training Program

This Program is designed to develop young, inexperienced men for careers in life insurance sales and sales management. It provides an initial training period of 3 months (including 3 weeks at a Home Office School) before the men move into full sales work.

Those trainees who are interested in and who are found qualified for management responsibility are assured of ample opportunity to move on to such work in either our field offices or in the Home Office after an initial period in sales.

The Connecticut Mutual is a 114-year-old company with 520,000 policyholder-members and over four billion dollars of life insurance in force. Aggressive expansion plans provide unusual opportunities for the limited number of men accepted each year.

My platform for this campaign shall not be one of elaborate promises that I might not be able to keep. Many former presidents have made these promises and shortly thereafter have been forgotten. The president's duty is not one to make promises, but to carry out ideas and suggestions made by you, the freshmen class. The freshmen class, to have successful activities must have organization and that is the one promise that I will make. Class officers are a strong link between the students and their school. Accordingly, you should vote for those whom you feel you can depend on. We, as candidates for officers of the second semester class, will strive to bring about the following:
1. The formation of a booster club with other organizations, including the Greek Letter Council and the Student Senate, for the purpose of supporting our soon to be intercollegiate athletic program.
2. The creation of a stronger tie between the student body, student senate, and faculty.
3. A closer association of dormitory and commuter students through continuous class-sponsored activities.
We cannot, of course, promise that these things will come about. However, with active class cooperation, we will be well on our way to achieving these goals and others. So won't you help your class get a good start by voting for Tom, Gerry and Sue on Election Day!

I will represent my class faithfully at all meetings and act for the best interests of the class.

Robert N. Weiner
Address: West Hartford, Conn.
Semester: First
Office Sought: Vice-President
Platform:
If I am elected to the office of vice-president of my class I would like to see the encouragement by the leaders of the class for participation by all members in the various activities of the school. Thus a better representation by the Freshman Class. Also to voice their opinions to their elected officers and the bringing up of these ideas and suggestions before the proper people.
I feel that if I am elected to this post I will do my level best to carry out the above as well as ideas which I feel are in the best interest of the class.

Dom Maddaloni is ready for anything from an unseen opponent.

FROM WHERE I SIT

By Jerry Langton

Once again we find ourselves in the middle of March, the show-down month for winter sports. On all levels the survivors of regular season play are battling it out for sectional, regional, and national supremacy.

In hockey, our local entry failed to qualify as a post-season contestant; in fact, the Red's had one of their worst seasons in the club's history. Oh well, as the old Dodger fans used to say, "Wait till next year". The playoff spots in the American League go to Springfield, Hershey, and Buffalo with the rest of the teams in the circuit, except Providence, fighting for the last spot. Over in the National League, Toronto and Montreal are having a real dog fight for the top rung of that ladder with the other two tournament posts going to Detroit and Chicago.

In basketball, we have more action than we can shake a stick at. Providence College opened in the National Invitation Tournament for the third straight year on Saturday afternoon. The Friars received a lucky break in the bracket selections but will not have an easy time of it. They are bracketed with two teams that they have already beaten this year and via good play figure to do all right in their bid for the title. Earlier in the week the U. R. I. Rams put up a gallant fight against heavily favored St. Bonaventure in the opening round of the N. C. A. A. regional playoffs. Thirteen point underdogs, Rhody actually was in control most of the way, finally losing out in the final ten minutes. The Bonnies will have trouble getting their second and much wanted crack at undefeated Ohio State.

Closer to home, the coming of varsity basketball to Bryant seems to be more of a reality in light of the teams showing in the Providence College Invitational Tournament. Bryant had by far the best student showing in their two games which would leave the thought that there is definite interest among the students. If it is matched by the administration, we're in business.

As for the ball club, I think we would have to agree that they showed to good advantage despite the score of the final. The Indians played their next-door neighbors almost to a standstill throughout the first seventeen minutes. A defensive lapse in the last three minutes by Bryant opened up what promised to be a very close ball game. Again Bryant stayed even through most of the second session until late in the ball game when Brown's height advantage wore the smaller quintet down. Dave Barber led the Bryant scorers netting thirty-five points in the two games. Grady, Burke, Gerhard, Chadwick, and Pasquale also played some top ball along the way.

Senate News

By Paul Gamache

Initiating another change to make the class elections more workable, the Student Senate voted to have four class offices for the Senior class instead of three. The division of Secretary-Treasurer into two offices will allow more complete representation of each division of the class.

Little discussion was made concerning the poor organization of Freshman Week activities. Attendance at Freshman activities was poor and enforcement of Freshman regulations no better. Webb Goodwin was congratulated for the fine performance of the Starhunters during Freshman week. Their work was the lone bright spot of the Freshman activities program.

The dead line for the Archway to submit its constitution to the Senate passed, and the Archway was dropped from Senate membership. All organizations in the Senate supposedly have filed a copy of their constitution with the Senate. In reality the Archway is one of several organizations which have not done so. It, therefore, appears that this action of the Senate is, to put it mildly, unrealistic. One member even went so far as to suggest that the Archway's funds be cut off until they submitted a constitution. It should be made clear, however, that the majority of the members were not in favor of these moves.

A committee was set up to help distribute the questionnaire on the activities program to the student body. The questionnaire is described elsewhere in this edition of the Archway.

A group of eight senators will attend an April 8 conference at Stonehill College dealing with problems of student government. Four different panel discussions will be held covering various student government functions.

Flinn Receives VA Citation

Mr. John L. Reavey, Regional Manager of the Veterans Administration, presented a citation given by the Committee for the Handicapped People-to-People Program to Mr. Robert W. Flinn today for his participation in the collection of artificial limbs, from American Veterans, to be distributed to disabled people throughout the world.

Major General Melvin J. Maas, USMCR (Ret.), Chairman of the Committee, in his letter to me said in part:

"As a result of the unselfish and interested endeavor of the Veterans Administration Prosthetic and Sensory Aids Service throughout the nation, thousands of American veterans, handicapped and subsequently aided by the Veterans Administration, have been able to contribute substantially to a dynamic People-to-People effort. Though many of the individuals involved may never know to whom their valuable aid went or what effect may result, we are wholly cognizant of the value of their cooperation.

"The effort made by Dr. Robert E. Stewart, as a member of our Standing Committee on Prosthetic Supply set up for this purpose, has resulted with your cooperation in far greater impact than we could have anticipated.

"Present calculations show not only the 2,000 units delivered to the hospital ship HOPE before it left for Southeast Asia, but additional distribution to selected and most deserving areas through the active support of the World Rehabilitation Fund and its associated organizations to twelve countries around the world. And day by day this picture grows in scope, from the veteran who made the effort to give a part of himself to those who helped expedite that giving."

Guess Who?

Is that a look of quiet confidence? Or is it an uneasy grin caused by something that just happened?

Water-Safety Instructors' Course Offered at Brown

By Keith Yesinowski

Last Tuesday a very interesting course was started at Brown University. It is a water-safety instructor's course taught by twenty-four of Rhode Island's top safety instructors--headed by Mr. Harold Anderson of the American Red Cross.

The object of the course is to stress water safety and to provide potential instructors with the skills and knowledge necessary to teach American Red Cross swimming and life-saving courses.

This course is to be held once a week for ten weeks with a total of thirty hours of classroom and pool work. This course will have a student membership of about fifty students. Movies on boating and swimming will be shown at each class meeting. The fifty students taking the course are eighteen years old or older, and they have passed a senior life-saving test.

Pension Laws Made Clear

No veterans' pension based solely on age is authorized for veterans of World War I, World War II, or the Korean conflict, the Veterans Administration said today.

Pensions may be granted veterans of World War I, World War II, or the Korean conflict who are permanently and totally disabled from nonservice-connected causes. VA considers a veteran totally disabled when he cannot pursue a substantially gainful occupation because of his disabilities. Such veterans must have been discharged under other than dishonorable conditions after at least 90 days active service. However, service of 90 days is not required if the veteran was discharged for disability incurred in line of duty.

Widows of deceased war veterans who get monthly pension payments from the Veterans Administration should be prompt in returning to VA the questionnaires they received from VA concerning their anticipated income for calendar year 1961.

The tabulation-card questionnaire, together with instructions for completing it, was enclosed with the most recent check VA sent them. It should be returned by January 31, as the VA is required to remove from the pension rolls those who have not returned the card by that date.

Death pension is payable to widows of wartime veterans who die of causes not connected with

The students that complete the course will be capable of teaching swimming and granting Red Cross swimming certificates.

While interviewing Mr. Anderson, a very well-known and capable water-safety instructor himself, I became very interested in the work that the Red Cross has done in this field, and what courses would be offered in the future. Mr. Anderson did say that two senior life-saving courses would begin this month--one is to be conducted at the other at the Branch Ave Boys' Club. If anyone is interested in earning a water-safety instructor's certificate, now is the time to take the senior life-saving course. By taking the course at this time, you will be able to receive your instructor's badge in November. It is too bad that more Bryant students don't take advantage of the opportunities offered by the Special Service Division of the Red Cross.

their military service. It differs from death, or dependency and indemnity compensation paid to widows of veterans who die while in service, or following discharge, as a result of a service-connected disability.

Questionnaires were not sent to widows drawing service-connected death benefits, nor to widows of veterans of the Spanish-American war.

Widows of World War I, World War II and Korean Conflict veterans are not eligible for pension if their annual income exceeds certain limitations. For this reason, information concerning the widow's income, also the status of her dependents, if any, must be reviewed at the beginning of each year.

In cases where widows themselves are ineligible (or have died) but minor children remain the guardian or foster parent of the child should return the questionnaire promptly. Under the old pension law, an outside income of more than $1,400 from any source would render a child ineligible for pension. Under the new law, the income limitation has been raised to $1,800 and, in addition, the child's own earnings are not counted as income.

In addition to prompt return, questionnaire recipients are asked by the VA not to bend, tear, staple or otherwise mutilate the cards which are machine-processed for speedy handling.

And be sure the card is signed, the VA emphasized. Unsigned cards must be returned for resubmission.

Providence's intramural league championship game at Alumni Hall, Providence College, found a well-balanced Brown team with a great height advantage defeating a good Bryant team. Bryant College's starting five comprised of Dave Barber, Tom Burke, Neil Gerhard, Art Pasquale and Tom Grady quickly erupted to an early 8-2 lead and controlled the early portion of the ballgame. Midway in the first period behind Chris Mitchell and Gary Bowen, Brown gained a 18-14 lead but fell behind as Dave Barber scored a three point play on a driving layup to send Bryant into the lead.

The second period found Brown completely controlling the backboards and Bryant failing to take advantage of some rather easy layup shots. With 8:18 left in the period Art Pasquale scored a three point play to pull Bryant within 5 points of Brown, but this was as close as they came as Brown scored four straight baskets near the buzzer to give them a 41-27 lead at halftime.

The third period found Bryant playing some good ball in spurts but never able to overcome their disadvantage of 14 points. With 7 minutes left in the game Tom Burke who played a fine game scored on a layup and then followed with a jump shot while Dave Barber added a layup to lower Brown's lead to 61-51 but Brown quickly spurred for three quick baskets to wrap up the game.

Bryant College was led by Dave Barber's 15 points while Tom Burke points respectively while Brown was led by Chris and Jack Crowley who scored 18 and 10 points.

Bryant College playing excellent basketball defeated RISD by a commanding score of 85-61. Richard Barber, Chadwick, and Grady, Bryant stormed to an easy 21-6 lead to leave no questions as to who the eventual winner would be. Bryant's coach (Pie) wisely substituted throughout the game as everyone dented the scoring column.

With Bambford scoring three foul shots and Pasquale scoring two baskets, Bryant lead by 45-24 score at halftime. Barber and Grady led Bryant in scoring at halftime with 8 and 10 points each.

The second half was much of the same with Barber scoring on driving layups and Grady hitting for jump shots from the corner. With their second team playing the fourth quarter Bryant built up their lead as RISD fell behind in their defensive game. Bryant was led by Barber's 20 points with Grady scoring 18 and Pasquale and Chadwick nabbing 10 each.

Lou Gelines led RISD with 11 points. Vinnie Ernst, Providence College's star basketball player did an outstanding "officiating" job.

Nonservice-connected disability pension is payable to single World War I, World War II or a Korean veteran, with an annual income not exceeding $1800, at a monthly rate ranging from $40.00 to $85.00, depending on the amount of other income. Similarly disabled veterans who have dependents can draw from $45.00 to $100 per month, and have a maximum income limitation of $3000. To each of these amounts, $70.00 will be added if the veteran requires constant aid and attendance.

Detailed information regarding the pension law may be obtained from the VA Regional Office, 100 Fountain Street, Providence 8, Rhode Island, the VA Office, 787 Pleasant Street, New Bedford, Massachusetts, or the VA Office, 144 North Main Street, Fall River, Massachusetts.

Summer Study Guides Offered to Students

Time is running out for the summer scholar to make his study-vacation plans.

To help him answer the big questions of "what to study," "where to go" and "how to get there," the Institute of International Education this week released two publications on summer study.

For the first time, the Institute has devoted its educational exchange magazine—the IIE News Bulletin—to a comprehensive report of summer study opportunities. Articles, written by knowledgeable authors, cover such intriguing summer projects as foreign language training in the Soviet Union, Crossroads Africa, a seminar in Florence, Italy, and the Berkshire Music Center. In addition to these depth reports, the IIE News Bulletin includes two bibliographies—one on countries and another on summer programs.

The other Institute publication is a booklet entitled "Summer Study Abroad," a new up-dated listing of summer programs which the Institute publishes annually. The publication lists scholarship opportunities for numerous programs in all fields in 14 European countries, Latin American nations, 2 countries of the Far and Near East, and various award projects in Canada.

Anyone interested in either of these publications should write to the Institute of International Education, 1 E. 67 St., New York 21, N. Y. The cost of the IIE News Bulletin is 25¢. The "Summer Study Abroad" booklet is free.

Zeta Sig Makes Eight Appointments

By Roslyn Pompilio

At a recent meeting of Zeta Sigma Omicron sorority, Betty Wolinski, president, announced the appointments of eight sisters to various positions. Miss Jan Annasewski is Zeta's new vice-president and Miss Jan Mathy is serving as secretary pro tem. Miss Connie Tousignant is the sorority's new chaplain and Judy Yacino is Sergeant-at-Arms.

Sharing the directorship of the Social Committee are Carol Scarpetti and Randy Wronoski; sports directors are Lucy Pelligrino and Joan Mallard. Miss Estelle Aubin and Jackie Dautel are Community Service Directors. Roslyn Pompilio has been appointed as the new Archway reporter.

The sisters are now in the process of planning many community services as well as social activities. Preparations are also being made for freshmen pledging.

Construction Moving Ahead on New Classroom Building

By Raphael Antrop

On January 7, 1961, construction work was begun on the site of the new secretarial classroom facility next to the Administration Building. This is but one more step in Bryant College's development program to provide modern, efficient facilities for its students. Future plans include a larger gym, air conditioning for major campus buildings, and a new dormitory for women.

This secretarial classroom building will consist of one and a half stories. There will be four classrooms on the first floor and a classroom, laboratory, janitorial, and other facilities on the basement floor. Masonary construction and other safeguards will make the building virtually fireproof. Estimated completion cost for it is $170,000.

Mr. Albert Catino, Foreman, said that he expects the basement floor will have been poured and masonry started by March 31.

News from Alpha Theta Chi

By Harvey Orleck

The brothers of Alpha Theta Chi have selected Bill Worochuck as Chaplain for this semester. Jim Cimino and Harvey Orleck have been appointed as Pledgemasters by Denny Almonte, Sgt. of Arms. They are busily making preparations for the smoker which will be held in the gym on March 28.

By winning the Miss Bryant College Pageant, Betty Scenti has captured another trophy for Alpha Theta Chi. Betty is President of Sigma Theta Chi.

Under the supervision of Coach Charlie Moretti, the baseball team is holding closed drills, and things are looking good for a successful season.

Delta Omega Elects Sophomore Board

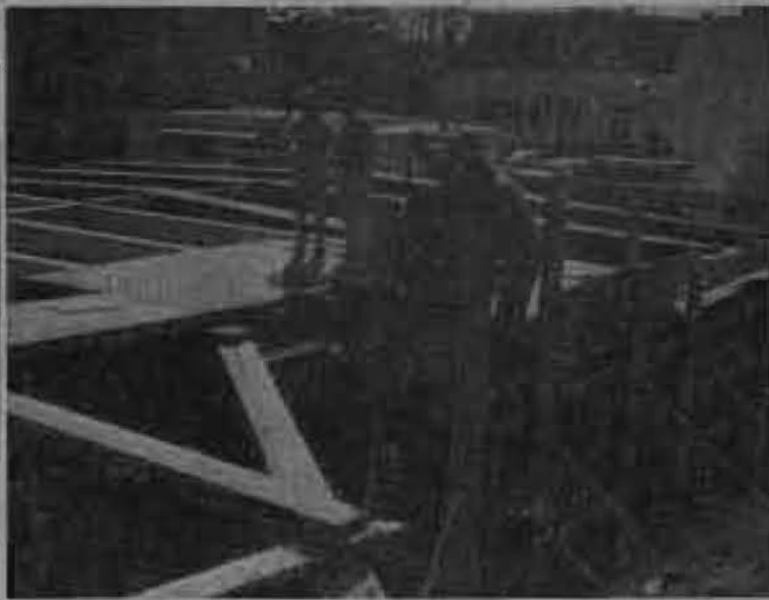

By John Lagunowich

Four members of the Sophomore Class were elected to the Board of Directors of Delta Omega on Monday, March 13. An overflow crowd of members forced the moving of the meeting from Room N to the Gym.

Those elected to the board were Al Baer, Bill Manning, Dick McKee, and Lou Sherman. They attended their first board meeting on March 21.

On Monday, March 20, the members of Delta Omega heard Mr. Paul Dale, District Reporting Manager for Dun & Bradstreet. His topic was "The Gradual Changes in Credit and Financial Analysis."

New Building — Before

View of the new secretarial classroom building. Construction work is progressing once again after being delayed by the series of snowstorms that smothered Rhode Island when excavation on the site was three quarters finished. Completion date for the building is set for some time in September. Soon after, secretarial equipment presently housed in Jacobs Hall will be transferred to the new location.

SIB News

By Carolyn Rucinski

The sisters of SIB have been busy since vacation formulating plans for SIB's annual dance, which will be a week before BIB's May Queen Dance. This year's dance should prove to be something quite different! Look for the advertisements about the dance, and see if you can guess the theme.

SIB's officers for the semester are as follows:

President — Pat Payette
Vice-President — Ellen Lidman
Secretary — Lynne McGough
Treasurer — Janice Kaufman
Historian — Ginger Rindfleisch
Chaplin — Ardeith Reiter
Alumni Secretary — Carolyn Marsia
Archway Reporter — Carolyn Rucinski
Social Chairman — Maryann Marcello
Athletic Director — Maryann Babieliwicz
Orderor — Janet Tedesco
Sergeant-at-

On April 4, SIB is having its smoker in the Student Union. All those interested in attending the smoker are cordially invited.

SIC Supports Brothers in Annual Weekend

Phi Sig held its annual St. Patrick's Day Dance on Saturday, Mar. 18. The dance culminated the campaign for the Miss Bryant Contest. Judging for Miss Bryant was held in the gym on Friday night. The lucky candidate chosen as Miss Bryant will represent her College in the coming Miss Providence pageant.

Ten-pin league bowling has started, and the Sisters of SIC are looking forward to their team's representing them as well as last semester. Greek letter Open house will be held on Tuesday, March 21, to be followed by pledging. SIC will hold its smoker on April 16.

Theta To Visit St. Aloysius Orphanage

By Maxine Sirkin

The sisters of Sigma Lambda Theta cordially invite all students to their smoker on Monday, March 27, in the Student Union.

Theta in conjunction with Beta is planning an Easter party for the children of St. Aloysius' orphanage on Saturday afternoon, March 25. The sisters are baking cookies and cakes and coloring eggs for an egg hunt that the children will participate in.

On Thursday afternoon, Miss Nancy Nelson, a sister of SLT, was informed to her delight that she is Beta Sigma Chi's choice for May Queen, which isn't too far in the future.

Sigma Lambda Theta is going to take part in BIB's "Billboard Contest" with great enthusiasm.

BIB Plans May Queen Dance

By Ken Brochu

Now that plans are under way for the May Queen Dance, BIB feels that the decorations will outdo last year's. The brothers are busy putting new ideas into effect for the dance to be held on May 18.

BIB has added to the number of events and trophies that will be given during May Queen week. A trophy will be given to the best division by a fraternity in the May Queen parade. A trophy will also be given to the sorority that decorates the best billboard on Memorial Hall lawn. This contest will give the sororities a chance to participate more actively in May Queen week. In addition to the above, the winner of ceive a trophy and the sponsoring fraternity will receive a trophy.

BIB's ten-pin bowling team is in first place. The team has lost only one point in their winning streak. Spectators will easily identify BIB's bowlers by the new team shirts. The team is sure to be a threat for the championship.

BIB and SIB held a joint meeting last week to coordinate the fraternity and sorority activities for the semester. At the meeting, plans for May Queen were discussed and a party was planned.

BIB is making preparations for their smoker to be held on Tuesday, April 4.

BCA Holds Second Meeting

By Dorothy Nieminen

The Bryant Christian Association held its second meeting of the semester on Thursday, March 16, at 7:30 in Room 14.

The meeting was opened with a prayer by David Stiles, Chaplain. President Bill Buchanan presided over the meeting. He first read two notices from the Student Senate.

The first thing on the agenda was the voting upon three changes in the constitution of the Bryant Christian Association. The following changes were unanimously approved:

1. Officers will be elected semi-annually instead of annually.
2. The Bryant Christian Association will have two faculty advisors instead of four.
3. The President of the Association will appoint the secondary officers and chairmen of committees during his term of office.

It was announced that Gordon Cochrane had been appointed Social Chairman.

It was also announced that the BCA has $54.86 in the treasury. Dues have been set at $1 a semester. All members who have not paid their dues should do so within the next couple of weeks. Dues may be paid either to Bill Buchanan, President, or to Barbara Baker, Treasurer.

GI Term Insurance Paid in Four Ways

A World War II veteran holding National Service Life Insurance (NSLI) may choose from four options the manner in which the payment of his policy's proceeds will be made after his death.

The Veterans Administration listed the four options as:

- Option 1 — Lump sum payment.
- Option 2 — Equal monthly installments for 3 to 20 years, in multiples of 1 year.
- Option 3 — Equal monthly in-

College Men Offered Army Language Training

GOVERNORS ISLAND, N. Y. March 10, 1961 . . . Almost every American, sooner or later, must fulfill a military obligation, and chances are that in the present cold war situation he will find a foreign language a necessity.

Today, the U. S. Army offers an enlistment plan whereby qualified college men, without previous service, in the First Army area (New York, New Jersey and New England) may discharge Universal Military Training and Service obligations by enlistment in Army Language units for training in critical lan-

Czech, Modern Greek, Hungarian, Russian, Turkish and others.

In short, the new training program includes twelve weeks of basic training at Fort Dix, and twelve weeks of Military Occupational Specialty training at the U. S. Army Intelligence School, Fort Holabird, Maryland, both under the Reserve Forces Act of 1955; and specialized language training at the U. S. Army Language School, Presidio of Monterey, California, for the period prescribed for the particular language, but not to exceed 47 weeks.

After completion of Active Duty Training, the Reservist will complete the remainder of his 9-year Reserve obligation with his unit, or, when appropriate, in another Army Intelligence U. S. Army Reserve unit with a need for his foreign language training.

Eligibility requirements, set forth in Army Regulation 140-112, Change 6, include: be a senior in college or have received a bachelor's degree (or reasonable assurance thereof) before enlistment; attain a percentile score of 65 or higher on the Armed Forces Qualification Test; attain a score on the Army Language Aptitude Test of not less than 22; pass the required physical examination; qualify for a security clearance of Secret prior to entry on Active Duty.

Graduates of this training will fill Army Intelligence U. S. Army Reserve vacancies as interpreters, interrogators, translators, and military intelligence specialists.

Allotments of Fiscal Year 1963 quotas will be made by U. S. Continental Army Command at the earliest practical date to permit college seniors to consider the new program.

Reporting dates for the Reserve Forces Act of 1955 basic training phase have been announced as 19 June, for Military Occupational Specialty 966 (Interrogator), and 2 July for Military Occupational Specialty 971 (Military Intelligence Specialist). Enlistments will not be made for training in French, German, Spanish or Italian.

For additional information contact your local USAR Center, or the Intelligence Officer at Headquarters, XIII U. S. Army Corps Headquarters at Fort Devens, Massachusetts, or Headquarters, II U. S. Army Corps at Camp Kilmer, New Jersey.

installments for life of beneficiary, with 120 installments guaranteed.

Option 4 — Equal monthly installments for life of beneficiary, total payments guaranteed to equal face amount of policy.

If the insured chooses Option 1, the beneficiary may elect any of the other options at time of settlement.

Options 3 and 4 are not available if certain types of beneficiaries, such as corporations or estates are named by the policyholder.

Complete information about the optional payment methods is available at the VA Regional Office, 100 Fountain Street, Providence, R. I., the VA Office, 757 Pleasant Street, New Bedford, Massachusetts, the VA Office, 144 North Main Street, Fall River, Massachusetts, or from the VA district office which services the policy.
