

John 3:10010000110

JOHN SUPINSKI

Welcome to the kingdom of the Immortal
Where races are run barefoot
And genius is manufactured in a sweatshop

Welcome to the empire of ghosts
Where the Commodore is the new cross
And Lamborghinis are free for downloading

Welcome to the future
Where the past is always changing
And the present does not exist

Welcome to hell on earth
Where everyone is dying to stay
But praying
For simplicity
Praying
For community
Praying
For life as we knew it

Welcome to the religion of distraction.
