

W. W. I V E T E R A N
Dies in Hometown Paper

ROBERT PRINGLE

Born to his people,
Tampico, south Indiana:

attended Easter Egg Hunts
and 4-H bake sales;

served in Saturday night Euchre Club, Grange Hall;

retired farmer to only
clarinet in Legion band;

preceded by couldn't walk
without cane – eyes

without recognition –
voiceless under gas mask;

survived by next Friday's donkey basketball, school gym.

In lieu of family, he receives strangers in Hoosier News.