W. W. I VETERAN Dies in Hometown Paper

ROBERT PRINGLE

Born to his people, Tampico, south Indiana:

attended Easter Egg Hunts and 4-H bake sales;

served in Saturday night Euchre Club, Grange Hall;

retired farmer to only clarinet in Legion band;

preceded by couldn't walk without cane – eyes

without recognition – voiceless under gas mask;

survived by next Friday's donkey basketball, school gym.

In lieu of family, he receives strangers in Hoosier News.