Chittipeddi Named Rhode Island Professor of the Year

Standing from left to right: President William Trueheart, VP Michael Patterson, Professor Kumar Chittipeddi, and Americo Petrocelli

Katrina Pfannkuch
Archway Staff Writer

Dr. Kumar Chittipeddi has been named "Rhode Island Professor of the Year" by the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE). Acting as both associate professor of Management at Bryant and Interim Director for the International Business and Economic Development (CIBED), Dr. Chittipeddi was one of 400 instructors nominated nationwide for this award.

CASE is an international association of colleges, universities, and independent elementary and secondary schools. These institutions are represented by professionals in communications, philanthropy, and alumni and constituent relations.

Dr. Chittipeddi was recommended on behalf of a letter sent by Elaine Mialhot, 1993 Bryant alumna.

Mialhot's letter stated, "Professor Chittipeddi teaches with a unique style in comparison to any professor I have ever had. He brings cases to every class for the students to solve, and he relays his own experiences to show what the real world is like."

Dr. Chittipeddi was presented with the CASE award at a Rhode Island State House ceremony by Dr. Trueheart and Dr. Americo Petrocelli, commissioner of Higher Education for Rhode Island.

"Professor Chittipeddi is not just one of the most well liked and respected professors on our campus, he is also a nationally recognized leader in his field," commented

President Trueheart.

Dr. Chittipeddi, originally from India, joined the Bryant staff in 1990 after receiving a Ph.D. in business administration from Pennsylvania State University.

He agrees that he expects a lot from his classes. "I like to stimulate a student's curiosity about everything, especially about the intricacies of managing a business. I have a high energy teaching style, and I just don't let the students relax in my class," Dr. Chittipeddi remarked.

Dr. Chittipeddi's other current activities include serving as director of the Eastern Academy of Management, and he was recently elected Vice President of Finance for the Association for Small Business and Entrepreneurship (USABE).

Commencement Ceremonies Under Scrutiny

Sue Martone
Archway Staff Writer

According to tradition, the Commencement Ceremony has been held in the field by the track each year. A new proposal, however, suggests a change in location and this issue is currently being debated. If this new proposal is approved, the ceremony will begin with the Convocation in parking lot C2, followed by the distribution of diplomas in various locations according to majors. These locations include Salmanson and South Dining Halls, the gym, the MAC, Papitto, and Janikies Auditorium.

A debriefing session was held by the Commencement Committee after last year's exercises to identify areas requiring improvement. This discussion prompted the new proposal. While no decisions have been made yet, the Committee is encouraging input and debate from students.

By moving the Commencement site, the Committee hopes to create a more compact line of march and therefore reduce the large gaps between graduates. In addition, the Committee hopes to make the site of the exercises easier to identify, the facilities more accessible to the physically disabled, and arrange for the processional music to be heard by all the graduates.

The Committee also recognizes possible disadvantages with the proposal. One major problem might occur if the weather is especially hot, which will be made worse by the asphalt. They hope the advantages will outweigh the inconveniences.

Another major concern of Bryant students who will be affected by this new proposal is the concept known as "the essence of tradition." The Commencement Committee feels Commencement is the time for the College to honor the graduating class and this new suggestion will make this possible. In addition, more consideration will be given to the relatives and friends of the graduates. The new proposal will not only be more conducive to photo-taking, but will also reduce the length of the ceremony and allow more time for socializing.

According to Commencement Committee Chair Richard Alberg, "Everyone has a part to play. The main objective is to put forth a ceremony which will pay tribute to the graduates," said Alberg. He added, "This will not be possible with an 'I' instead of 'we' attitude."

"So, You Want to be an Entrepreneur?"

Lisa M. Lucchesi
Archway Staff Writer

"Bryant has brought together some of the most accomplished entrepreneurs in Rhode Island, Massachusetts, and Connecticut to share their secrets of success with our students," commented Professor Jack Keigwin at the third annual Entrepreneurship Day.

The theme of this year's Entrepreneurship Day, held on Thursday, October 21 was "So, you want to be an entrepreneur?"

The day consisted of three seminars featuring a panel of business leaders. The different speakers gave an in-depth insight into starting a new business or improving an already existing business.

The days' events were sponsored by the Entrepreneurship Committee and were moderated by Professor Jack Keigwin and Richard Eannarino.

The first Entrepreneurship Day was organized by Keigwin and his wife, Beverly. Keigwin hopes "this will just be the beginning of entrepreneurial programs here at Bryant."

"We wouldn't have had the entrepreneurial thrust here at Bryant without Jack Keigwin," remarked President William E. Trueheart.

Bernard G. Mondor, chairman of the board of the Pawtucket Red Sox Baseball Club Inc., served as the keynote speaker during the luncheon. Mondor is recognized as a community leader who saved baseball for the state of Rhode Island, and a pioneer for investing in his community and his facility.

Mondor commented, "Many things can be accomplished if someone is willing to work for it. I'm a great believer in people. I think people are everything."

Cheryl Watkins of Baneker Industries gave a "woman's perspective" of business. Watkins was the first woman to graduate from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst with a degree in mechanical engineering. She commented, "People kept telling me, you don't want to be an engineer. You should be a teacher or a nurse."

Avoid Pre-reg Stress

It's that time again! Pre-reg time. For many people, Pre-reg can be very stressful, but it doesn't have to be.

In order to avoid a stressful semester, you should carefully consider what classes you are taking. Choose classes that are relevant to your major or classes that you are interested in.

Don't sign up for alternative classes, just because the one you really want to take is at an awkward time. Yes, 8:00 a.m. classes can be a drag, but if you feel that this early class is pertinent to your career or major, then take it anyway.

Broaden your horizons by taking business classes in something different from your major or take advantage of the vast array of liberal arts classes. The curriculum is set up to make you a "well-rounded" individual. So, take advantage of all the opportunities that are available to you.

Also, another factor to consider when signing up for classes is how many to take and on what days. Do you really want to take 5 classes on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, just because you want to sleep late on Tuesday and Thursday? This can be more burdensome than helpful. Consider the time restraints that will be placed upon you, plus the overload of work. Night classes are great alternatives to breaking up your schedule.

Remember, don't Pre-reg for the sake of convenience. If the class you really want to take is filled, don't get discouraged, that's what the add/drop policy is for.

Townhouse Exchange Closing

To the Bryant Community:

On Sunday October 24 the BRYCOL Board of Directors voted to end operations at the Townhouse Exchange. Since the Exchange's opening in October of 1992 we have unsuccessfully attempted to serve the college community with a convenience store. However, this market we have attempted to serve is much smaller than forecasted. Therefore, The Townhouse Exchange has not been a financially stable division of BRYCOL Student Services Foundation, Inc.

The official closing of the store will take place on Saturday October 30. Until that date an immense savings on grocery items can be had by all. We aspire to locate another service-oriented business without risk to our corporation. Please send any viable ideas to box 9.

The Video Reservation will continue to serve the community with VCR and video rentals out of the Townhouse Utility Room. BRYCOL will continue to serve the community via Tupper's, the Country Comfort, campus vending and publication of the Informant. We will concentrate and focus on these businesses to assure quality service to all.

Regretfully,
James A. Zahansky

Chairman of the Board of Directors
BRYCOL Student Services Foundation, Inc.

Duck, Duck, Poor Goose

To the Bryant Community:

Friday evening a friend and I were walking to dinner and we looked toward the pond and saw a Public Safety officer next to a little purple blanket. As we got closer, we saw that it was a goose under the blanket. We were told that a group of guys had thrown rocks at the geese, apparently hitting one in the neck and severely injuring it. It was so sad to see this poor goose gasping for air as it lay on the grass next to the pond and to see how much pain it was in. I could not believe that anyone could be so cruel to an animal that did nothing to anyone but bring nature a little closer to our campus. Did an animal deserve to die because it dirtied up our sidewalks? Is that a humane way of solving a problem that was so trivial anyway?

Whoever did this crime should ask themselves this: If you were walking around eating, getting a drink, swimming, how would you feel if all of a sudden your life was about to end because some inconsiderate college kid "felt" like hitting you with a rock a few times because he thought it was funny?

And isn't that strange? I thought we were in college, the age of maturity and responsibility. You should care for the environment around you! Once again we have proven ourselves to be a kind, understanding, mature group of "college" students. Yes, we have.

If you feel like you have to hit an innocent animal just for fun, you obviously have no consideration for life at all. Besides isn't life the reason why you are here, to better your life in the future? That does not mean you have the right to ruin anyone or anything else's life along the way.

A concerned student,
Julie Paul

S.P.A.C. Addresses Campus Issues

To the Bryant Community:

The Student President's Advisory Council or S.P.A.C., meets monthly, so that the Student Presidents can meet and discuss the upcoming events and issues concerning the campus.

The Student Presidents Advisory Council met on Monday, October 25, to discuss what's on the agenda for the month of November. In order to give the campus a greater understanding of what's coming in November, here are some issues that were discussed at Monday's meeting.

One of the issues that was discussed concerned the point system in the Bryant Center. The Student Senate is still currently working on the issue. They are looking into a debit card for the Bryant Center. Another issue discussed was the locks in Dorm Village. After weeks of negotiating with Chief Coronado, he finally compromised. Thanks to all students for your support.

The Office of Student Activities is sponsoring a Leadership Development Program. This is a program for advanced leaders and emerging leaders. The next program for advanced leaders is Tuesday, November 2. The topic is team building. The next program for emerging leaders is Wednesday, October 27 and the topic is Gender Differences. All programs take place in room 2A of the Bryant Center from 6pm-7:30pm. If you are interested, please sign up in the Student Senate Office.

As you all know Bryant College sponsors the Rhode Island Special Olympics each spring. If you are interested in becoming Games Director or Assistant Games Director, you can pick up applications in the Senate Office. Applications are due by November 4 in the Senate Office.

The upcoming events for the campus include Midnight Madness on Friday night at 11pm in the Gym. Please show your support for the basketball teams and for the school. Also, the Bryant Hunger Coalition will be Trick or Treating for canned goods Friday, October 30 from 6-8. On November 6th, there will be a Video Dance Party in the Rotunda run by the Student Programming Board. College Bowl sign ups will take place on November 1st-3rd outside the dining halls.

At each S.P.A.C. meeting, the presidents nominate and vote a student leader of the month. This leader is chosen because he/she has done outstanding work for the Bryant Community and/or their organization. This month Robb Martin of the Student Senate was voted student leader of the month. Robb was the Chairperson for Parents' and Family Weekend. The work he did for the weekend was above and beyond the call of duty. Congratulations, Robb!

To all the Presidents and members of the organizations, keep up the good work. Remember, start thinking about fundraising! The next meeting is November 22 @ 6:00.

If any student has any issues or concerns regarding student life at Bryant, come voice your opinion at the Student Senate Meetings, Wednesdays, 4:00 in the Papitto dining room.

Andy Effron
S.P.A.C. President
Senate Vice President

The History of the Citibank Classic Visa card and the Age of Credit Card Security.

In the 67th year of the 20th Century A.D., Citibank introduced a credit card aptly titled the Citibank Classic Visa® card. Established on the premise that a credit card should offer—24 hours a day—warm, personal service, the Citibank Classic Visa card marked the end of the Ice Age. And it ushered in a new era. ¶ With the introduction of the first Photocard, the credit card

This tablet, dated 1358 B.C., was the first known attempt to put one's photo on a credit card—but not without drawbacks. Photography had not yet been invented. It weighed over 50 pounds. And it did not fit easily into a wallet.

bearing one's own photo and signature on the front, it soon became evident that Man was entering the Post Paleolithic Period. First, Man was no longer looking like a Neanderthal, as one often does on more primitive cards such as the Student ID. He or she could now choose his or her own photo. Second, by deterring other anthropoids from using the card, Man was helping to prevent fraud. Surely this was a sign of advanced intelligence. ¶ The subsequent rise of services was nothing less than an American Revolution. So as you might expect, Citibank would be there for you, even if your card was stolen, or perhaps lost. The Lost Wallet™ Service could have a new card in your hands usually within 24 hours. (You can almost hear Paul Revere crying, "The card is coming! The card is coming!") ¶ When the Great Student Depression came along, Citibank introduced New Deals—special student discounts and savings. Hence, today's student can enjoy a $20 Airfare Discount for domestic flights¹ (ushering in the Jet Age); savings on mail order purchases, sports equipment, magazines and music; a low variable interest rate of 15.4%²; and, no annual fee. ¶ Finally, comes the day you enter the Classical Age (i.e. when you charge your purchases on the Citibank Classic card). You receive Citibank Price Protection to assure you of the best prices. Just see the same item advertised in print for less, within 60 days, and Citibank will refund the difference up to $150³. You receive Buyers Security™, to cover

Had Napoleon carried a Citibank Classic Visa card with its Lost Wallet Service, he would not have been compelled to hold on so obsessively to the wallet inside his jacket.

those purchases against accidental damage, fire or theft, for 90 days from the date of purchase³. And Citibank Lifetime Warranty™, to extend the expected service life of eligible products up to 12 years⁴. Together they give you complete coverage; and with everything else...the Age of Credit Card Security. ¶ It's credit history in the making. With the help of Citibank's services and savings, you earn some of the credentials needed later on to purchase a car or even a house. ¶ So call to apply. Students don't need a job or a cosigner. Call, also, if you'd like your photo added to your regular Citibank Classic Visa card. The number is 1-800-CITIBANK (1-800-248-4226), extension 19. ¶ If after reading this chapter describing the prosperous conditions set forth by a Citibank Classic Visa card, one feels that he or she has left forever the Dark Ages and has entered upon a new age, the Age of Enlightenment, then your time, as they say, has come. Destiny is calling. And so should you.

Not just Visa. Citibank Visa.

Student Criticizes Bryant's Advertising

To the Bryant Community:

HAVE YOU SEEN IT? If you have, I'm sure it made an impression on you. If you haven't, please find a copy of Newsweek and search. In the past couple of months, there have been two advertisements in one of the largest, most widely read weekly magazine in America. Bryant College has taken out full page advertisements in Newsweek and the ad is inferior.

Let me explain. In large print at the center of the page reads a quote to the effect of "Where do Bryant College Students go after Graduation?" Directly below, and I am not making this up, is a picture of Mr. Potato Head. Around Mr. Potato Head in small print it explains that 50 Bryant graduates work for Hasbro. The rest of the white page contains little pictures of Bryant graduates working for other companies such as Walt Disney.

Bryant College has a business program that many would love to be a part of. The Bryant Community is well educated in sales, promotion, and building a reputation. Why can't these principles be used to present our school to all of America? Surely, there is another way to market Bryant's large contribution to Hasbro other than showing a picture of Mr. Potato Head. If you glanced quickly through the Newsweek magazine in the waiting room of any office, like millions of Americans do, and stumbled across the advertisement you would remember two things, Bryant College and Mr. Potato Head.

Bryant, while competing with the best business schools in America, does not need an advertisement making our graduates look juvenile. An advertisement with a sense of tradition, excellence and international importance would better show the integrity of Bryant College.

Administrator Addresses Commencement Plans

To the Editor:

I wish to thank you for devoting your editorial (Thursday, October 21, 1993) to the upcoming discussions on the 1994 Commencement Exercises. By inviting the student body to express opinions to the student members of the committee you have furthered the open communications and debate which I hope to achieve.

To provide your readers with some background, let me comment on a few items. Each year, following the Exercise, a debriefing session is held to identify what features need improvement. This year we identified the following:

- Create a more compact line of march. Because of the length of walk from the Bryant Center to the Track, coupled with a less then energetic group of graduates, large gaps between the line of graduates occurred (In one instance there was sufficient space to play a game of football).

- Make the site of the Exercises more readily identifiable.

- Improve the facilities for the physically disadvantaged.

- Arrange for the processional music to be heard along the entire line of march.

By moving the Commencement site to the parking area outside the main entrance of the gym, we are able to address the aforementioned issues.

As to parking, few if any spaces will be lost, since an area adjacent to the track will be made available as substitute space. The only real disadvantage might occur if the third Saturday morning in May is especially hot and sunny in which case the location on the asphalt could be discomforting.

Your expression—the essence of tradition—is of concern to everyone. Commencement is a time when the College says to its graduates, "We are very proud of your achievements and to honor you we are going to sponsor an event to which your relatives and other friends are invited." The College is especially mindful of the fact that relatives look forward to the moment when you walk across the platform to accept your diploma.

In recent years graduates and relatives have become less tolerant of the length of time it takes to have all graduates process across the stage. The proposal to establish several sites where diplomas are presented by department chairs and faculty will create mini-areas which will seem less tedious and will provide a more intimate situation for photo-taking.

When my sons graduated from URI and B.U., I could not see them from my seat in the convocation, but I was able to sit within a few rows of the platform at the mini-site where the diploma was conferred. As a parent, that is the image that I retain. I wonder which image your relatives would prefer!

Sincerely,

Richard F. Alberg, Chair
Commencement Committee

Thanks, To The Food Drive Participants

To the Bryant Community:

During the last three weeks Residence Life organized a campus wide food drive. It was a great success!! With the help of a few Resident Assistants, who were able to motivate the Bryant community, we were able to collect approximately 700 food items. Contributors included: faculty; staff; students; and, Bryant College parents.

The collections will be divided and delivered to a shelter and a soup kitchen. Many individual items will be brought to The Rhode Island Women's Center, located in Providence, which is a shelter for battered women and their children. The items that were collected in bulk will be dropped off at the St. George's soup kitchen in Providence. Members of the Residence Life staff often volunteer at St. George's soup kitchen.

The food drive served two purposes. The first was to help some deprived individuals in a time when donations are low (shelters struggle during the months prior to the holidays). The second purpose was to show the Bryant community how easy and rewarding it is to help others. Hopefully, Bryant residents will see how they can impact their communities and contribute in their own way.

Thank you all for your contributions. Residence Life will be developing new community programs in the future, (possibly a clothes drive). If you would like to participate, please contact the Office of Residence Life.

Thanks again,
Terry Brennan
Resident Assistant

P.S. Just remember, that it takes so little to make a difference.

Greek Community Sponsors Halloween for Kids

Pam Barry
Archway Staff Writer

This Sunday, October 31, students from all fraternities and sororities on campus will be holding a Halloween event for faculty and administrators' children.

For the past few weeks, the Greek

Community has been busily preparing for this event, which will take place from 2-4 pm on Sunday. The afternoon will consist of a clown and magician show, face painting, games, and lots of goodies.

A costume contest will also be held and the best costume will be awarded. Complimentary trick-or-treating bags will be given to all the children.

All of the Bryant Community children are welcome to attend this event to be held in South Dining Hall.

Beware...goblins, ghosts, and witches may be there.

Watkins disregarded this opposition and purchased a machine tooling company, which was later renamed Banneker Industries. Banneker is the only minority woman-owned machine shop in Rhode Island, and one of a very few in New England.

Watkins remarked, "I like the idea of being able to control my own destiny and making Banneker a success."

Warren Alpert of Warren Equities commented, "Those of you that have ambition, and luck, can go on to make something that you feel is worthwhile."

He added his key ingredient to creating a successful business, "Don't just sit there, do something! There are great opportunities out there, but you have to find an edge. You have to find a way to do it better."

Students for a Safer Campus

Theft and Possession of an Illegal Substance

Department of Public Safety responded to an alarm in dorm village, October 22, 1993. The dorm was checked and the alarm was ruled as accidental. As the DPS officers were leaving, a student was seen stealing fire equipment belonging to Smithfield Fire Department. The equipment taken was a fire ax and a halogen tool. The Smithfield Fire Department did not press charges. As a result of the fire alarm, the suites were checked to see if everyone was out. A bong and an amount of marijuana was confiscated from one of the suite rooms checked.

Disorderly Conduct

Department of Public Safety responded to a disturbance in dorm 15 on October 22, 1993. The incident involved a Resident Assistant and an intoxicated student. The student was involved in a fight, in which the RA tried to stop. The student then went after the RA. DPS was called, but they were not able to calm them down. The student and a friend were taken into custody by the Smithfield Police Department. The students reportedly were drinking excessively.

Excessive Alcohol Violation

A car was seen entering through the Entry Control Station with a large amount of alcohol in the back seat. DPS officers spotted the car parked in the new town house lot. Both parties were stopped walking away from the car. The back seat contained 12 cases of beer which were confiscated. Both students were under 21 years of age. The fake license the student used to purchase the alcohol was confiscated.

$1,000 REWARD

Malicious fire alarms were set off in dorm 15 and 16 within the last week. There is a $1,000 reward offered by the Department of Public Safety for information leading to the apprehension and conviction of any person causing malicious fire alarms. Any information regarding false fire alarms should be forwarded to the Department of Public Safety at 232-6001.

Fall Open House a Success

by Nick Senecal
Associate Director of Admissions
The third annual Open House was held on the Bryant campus on Sunday, October 24. The purpose of the event was to introduce interested high school seniors and potential transfer students to the campus facilities and various constituents of the community.

Over 1,300 people from nine states came to campus that afternoon, including nearly 450 prospective students representing more than 250 high schools. "The Admissions Office was very pleased with the outstanding number of visitors who came to campus," said Roy Nelson, Director of Admissions. "The gathering of faculty, students, and staff personnel in the Multipurpose Activity Center provided an accessibility that is a trademark of the Bryant experience."

Tours of the campus were given by students throughout the day. Groups were kept small in order to preserve the friendly and informative feeling of the campus tours offered daily by the Admissions Office. Traditionally, a very high percentage of students who visit the Bryant campus submit an application for admission.

Admission and financial aid staffs gave general presentations several times to large groups of interested students and parents.

Faculty members from all departments answered questions and told students and parents about opportunities at the College. A number of the faculty gave presentations in classrooms concerning the field of study and related career opportunities.

Representatives of 25 student organizations were also available to answer questions.

Walter Roettger, Executive Vice President, welcomed all visitors at 1 p.m. in the MAC to initiate the activities. Staff from student affairs, residence life, multicultural student affairs, career services, counseling, public safety, ROTC, athletics, honors program, internship office, study abroad, and health services talked to students and parents about activities and opportunities at Bryant.

"The people responded very well to the opportunities of the day. I was pleased with the quality of the personal interaction that I observed all afternoon. People got a good sense of what Bryant is all about," said President William E. Truehart.

Virus Warning in Koffler Center

by Michael Thompson
User Support Manager

Due to a virus recently found in Koffler Center, all students are being asked to have their disks scanned before use.

All public computers have a program called IronClad that protects the machine's hard disk by preventing system files from being modified or deleted. IronClad is run routinely on a daily basis. Because no user has access rights to save or alter information on network drives, all software loaded on Koffler networks is safe. This includes every program in the Word Processing Lab, Unistrukture classrooms, and Koffler PC labs.

The JOSHI virus is a memory-resident boot-sector program that infects disks and hard drive partition tables. It activates on January 5 and displays the message "Type Happy Birthday Joshi." JOSHI does not corrupt or destroy data files! Because this virus stays active in memory, IronClad is unable to completely remove it from memory. The only way to destroy the virus on a hard drive is to cold boot the machine (physically turn it off and on) with a clean, write-protected DOS disk and issue the command FDISK /MBR.

Unfortunately, this type of virus is easily spread from one user's disk to another, which is why students are encouraged to have their diskettes scanned for viruses before using them in the public computer rooms. No commercial anti-virus product provides total immunity from infection.

Koffler workers urge everyone to have their disks scanned before using them in the labs. The disks can be brought to the Print Booth on the lower level of Koffler. Assistance is available from the student consultants. Without everyone's cooperation, it will be impossible to eradicate the virus completely.

More information on the JOSHI virus, and viruses in general, will be presented in The Archway next week.

Apply Now for a ROTC Scholarship

by Amy Church

The Army ROTC (Reserve Officers' Training Corps) two and three year scholarships are among the most generous offered at Bryant College. The Army will pay for 80% of tuition, which is approximately $9,700 per year, and $450 per school year for books and school supplies. In addition, you will receive a $100 per school month allowance for each year the scholarship is in effect and the cadet is enrolled in ROTC. Bryant College will pay a $5,000 grant, in addition to the scholarship, for each year. There's also a six-week paid Advanced Camp that the student must complete successfully during the summer, usually between the junior and senior year of college.

Upon graduation and commissioning as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army, the former student may serve on active duty throughout the United States, in Europe, or in selected areas of Asia at a starting salary of over $25,500, increasing to over $35,500 in less than three years and approximately $41,000 in four years of active military service.

Bryant freshmen and sophomores who want to apply for Army ROTC scholarships should ask for the application packets now. Applying for the scholarship does not constitute obligation unless you accept the scholarship. The application packets are available from Captain Fred Roitz, Assistant Professor of Military Science, or Sergeant First Class Garcia, in room 371 of the Unistructure or call 232-6275 if you have any questions.

Bryant to Compete in College Bowl

by Christina Cestari

Bryant College will be competing in College Bowl, "The Varsity Sport of the Mind." The event is being sponsored by The Student Programming Board.

College Bowl is a game of academic knowledge and quick recall. Now in its 18th year, the College Bowl campus program is a popular tradition on America's campuses. Bryant is among over 300 institutions of higher education playing in College Bowl '93.

It is similar to the popular radio and television series of the 50's, 60's and 70's, and features two teams of four players each competing to score points to Toss-Up and Bonus questions.

The questions cover every conceivable topic from literature, science, history, geography, religion, social sciences and the arts, to popular culture, sports and current events.

Competition at Bryant begins with the preliminary Campus Tournament to select the Campus Champion Team, scheduled for Wednesday, November 17th in the MRC Lecture Hall. Finals will be held Thursday, November 18th in the Papitto Dining Room. Games will begin at 6:30. Prizes will be given to winning teams.

Our Varsity Squad will advance to the Regional Tournament in the Spring. The National Championship Tournament will feature the 15 Regional Champions and a 16th Wild Card Team.

Sign-ups start this Monday, November 1st. They will be held during dinner Monday and Wednesday outside of the South Dining Hall, and Tuesday, November 2nd outside of Salmanson, or at the Info Desk anytime until Monday, November 8th. Only one member of the team is necessary to sign up. There is an $8.00 registration fee per team, due at the time of sign-ups. Any questions, please contact Christina Cestari 232-4391.

Come challenge your mind and cheer the teams on!

Catch a Rising Star

by Stephanie Ruark

Bored of the same old thing on Friday nights? Is the Townhouse scene getting old? Take a break and check out one of Hollywood's newest comedienne. This 25 year old Mexican-American, Jackie Guerra is the only female comedienne to come to Bryant in SPB's Extravaganza Series.

Guerra spawned her career when she entered Yale's Latino Studies program and found that she was the program. From that point on, her life was all humor. Her unique style of stand-up touches upon overcoming stereotypes and discrimination - two hot items in the world today. In her act, she states that she doesn't understand why only French actors play snotty waiters in expensive restaurants? Why not have a Mexican actor play a snotty waiter in a fancy

Mexican restaurant. As she gets into character, "Senor, if you cannot pronounce enchilada with the proper accent, please do not butcher the Spanish language."

This young and up-and-coming comedienne will be making her first appearance at Bryant on November 5th at 8 p.m. in the South Dining Hall. Admission will be $1 and will help SPB finance Spring Weekend.

Do You Know the "Beer" Facts About Alcohol?

Health Services

by Jayna Fontaine
Health Services Intern

Some students know exactly what happens to their bodies when they drink large amounts of alcohol, while others drink with a certain lack of knowledge. Here is a chance to see just how much you actually know about alcohol and its effects.

Alcohol:

•Suppresses your immune system, making you more susceptible to viruses and infection.

•Can cause chronic fatigue and contribute to sleep disorders.

•Increases anxiety and depression and also decreases your ability to concentrate for 72-96 hours after ingesting.

•Suppresses the anti-diuretic hormone increasing loss of body fluids, vitamins, and minerals. The results can be muscle cramping, brittle bones, pellagra, anemia, constipation, diarrhea, dull skin and hair, dandruff and aggravated acne.

•Causes an inflammation of the stomach lining leading to gastritis.

•Has been indicated in more than 50% of accidents on campus, including, but not limited to sprains, strains, and broken bones.

•Kills liver and brain cells. If you stop drinking, liver cells can regenerate if not too damaged, but brain cells can not.

•Reaches your brain in one minute. It needs no digestion. It is absorbed through the stomach and intestines and filtered out of the body by the liver.

With all these consequences in mind, it is important to know exactly what to do when someone has had too much to drink. Contrary to popular belief, there is no quick way to sober up. Only time can help someone who has had one too many, but in the mean time a good friend must be sure to:

•Never leave them alone.

•Roll them on their side in case they vomit.

•Monitor their breathing.

•Call an EMT if you're not sure (232-6001).

Strength & Courage Help Us Cope

Chaplain's Corner

Rev. Philip Devens
Protestant Chaplain

Living in a world of fears—imagined and realized—we need the strength and courage to face them. We do not face them alone. Having a personal relationship with God provides a way to let others see and hear about God through our thoughts, words, and deeds. We can passionately emerge into living and not fear, life.

Making correct ethical choices takes a tremendous amount of time and energy that comes to us in faith. Many people share our lives, but God takes these relationships and fashions our bodies like a potter molds clay. "But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extra ordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us." (Romans 4:7 N.R.S.V.) One way to let others understand this power is to do more than what is asked of you.

By making hard decisions, we take responsibility for our actions. You can do your homework and help your classmates who need help; participate in a food drive and then help at a soup kitchen. These are some suggestions. Be safe, take care, and God bless.

The Canned Food Drive proved to be very successful in collecting approximately 700 food items. The goods will be given to the RI Women's Center and St. George's soup kitchen.

WJMF Album Review

Ric Ocasek - Quick Change World(* 1/2): Many artists gone solo from their former groups have attained success in their new careers. The members of the Cars have failed, however, on their attempts. Ben Orr, Elliot Easton and Ric Ocasek have put out a succession of albums to limited success over the past decade. Once again, it appears to be no challenge to the good time rock'n'roll this band out of Boston was once famous for.

Ocasek questions today's fast paced society with Quick Change World making a failed attempt with the first track, The Big Picture. He follows it up with the first single off the album, Don't Let Go, which sounds like a stolen guitar riff from the title track, Rockaway, off Ocasek's last album. Quick Change World lacks assembly as Ocasek tries to incorporate too wide a variety of today's music.

He straddles the extremes with the heavy tone of Come Alive to the quirky sounding She's On Left Side. The former lead singer of the Cars finishes the album with the highly reverberated Help Me Find America. Ric, how about titling it Help Me Find Some Better Music?

"The Rocky Horror Show"

"The Rocky Horror Show" London Cast.

submitted by The Providence
Performing Arts Center

The Rocky Horror Show is a mix of classic horror, science fiction and outrageous fantasy set a rock and roll musical score. The show tells the tale of Brad and Janet, an ordinary couple who become guests at the castle of a mad scientist from Transylvania, Dr. Frank-N-Furter. Brad and Janet arrive on the night when Dr. Furter's creature, Rocky, is to be born.

Brad and Janet find the castle after their car gives them trouble in the middle of a thunder storm. The couple ask for the use of a telephone and Dr. Furter welcomes them by insisting that they take advantage of unique hospi-talities. Brad and Janet spend the evening stumbling through a series of Transylvanian parties celebrating the birthday of the adonis humanoid, Rocky.

The Rocky Horror Show features a live rock band set above a sci-fi stage crawling with monsters, aliens and a fishnet Frankenstein who perform songs such as "The Time War," "Dammit Janet," and "Whatever Happened to Saturday Night?"

The Rocky Horror Show is the only live musical that dares the audience to talk back. Members of the audience participate in the show throughout the presentation and this involvement is a key element that contributes to the enjoyment and success of this musical.

Hi everyone. I hope everyone had a good week. Our 24 hour Swing for Heart was a huge success. Thanks to everyone who made donations and also those who volunteered their time to swing with us. Although we'd rather the fraternity pledges had given money.

This weekend is our Alumni Weekend. We are all looking forward to seeing our alumni we haven't seen in a while. Goodbye until next week. I hope everyone has a safe and happy Halloween.

BEAC

by Beth Marsland

First of all, we would like to thank everyone who came up to our first Comfort Night of the semester on Monday. It was a good time had by all! Our next Comfort Night will be held on Tuesday, November 30th. Please mark it on your calendar! We also wish to thank those of you who ordered flowers from our Halloween flower sale. We will be delivering the flowers on Friday, October 29th.

At our past two meetings we have discussed our day trip to the Omni theater in the Boston Museum of Science. The trip will be open to the entire campus with a bus providing transportation. Watch for posted information. If you think you might be interested in BEAC, feel free to come to our meetings and see what we are all about. Meetings are held every Tuesday, at 5:30 pm in the lobby of Hall 15.

Did you know, the recycling bins on campus are not only for paper and aluminum, but for glass and plastic bottles as well? This includes: shampoo bottles, laundry detergent bottles and anything else that can be recycled. Please make the extra effort to recycle, it can really make a difference!!

closer to the playoffs. The Boot and Info Desk were later named the co-mvp's of the game.

This week: Our alumni came up in huge numbers, Finch had to make the tie-breaking decision, Rosko wanted to climb some tree after he killed the spider, Dobber turned the clock off, Mack's desk toppled over, Syd got really mad, and Burgis opened up his new exercise center.

Quotes of the week: "Thank you sir, can I have another...insult?" and "Can I get a new nickname when I finally finish?"

Bryant Karate

by Nicole Cairns

As a freshman and a new member of the club, starting this semester, I'm here to give you the low-down. Bryant Karate is the best organization I've ever been involved in. And no, I'm not just saying that to boost the club's image. I really mean it!

First of all, Tae Kwon Do not only teaches you how to defend yourself against an attacker, but also how to work the offense and retaliate. The importance of self-control and mental awareness is also taught. Finally, it's a great stress reliever, especially around test time.

But, what I've come to realize is that the people make the club. Sifu Renaud is a great instructor. He works you hard and teaches you a lot, but he never pushes you too far. As for the advanced class, they are very friendly and always willing to help. A special thanks to Julie, Eric, and Chris who are constantly pushing us harder and taking time out after classes to give us white belts extra help. Also, thanks to Sensei Doherty for putting his time into some great night classes.

Everybody keep up the hard work! Good luck to all my fellow white belts testing for their yellow belt in a couple of weeks. Remember, Think positive!

The Bryant Players

by Tracy Banasieski

Hi! There isn't a lot happening this week for the Bryant Players, other than deciding on which plays to perform for up coming shows. We've decided on our show for the spring musical, and as a reminder, we will need everyone to help out with the ad book if we want it to be successful.

Plans for the dessert theater are still in the works. The scheduled date for the performances is at the end of November. The Bryant Players would like to invite everyone, over 21, to come to the Comfort on November 4th. We will be sponsoring a Comfort Night and we would like to see everyone there. Lastly, I want to wish everyone a happy and safe Halloween! Have a great weekend.

Bryant Sailing Club

by Allen Morrison

This weekend was a major trip for the club. With strong finishes by Allen and Mark in "A" division, and Mike and Sean in "B" division, Bryant was able to clinch its first ever regatta, over Stonehill and Wheaton!!!

Hey Mike, didn't they ever teach you that a boat is supposed to stay upright? Special thanks to Carrie and Allison for their support and hot chocolate. Mark, I got that girl's number if ya want it. Sean it's your turn to wake Mike up next week. Hope to see everybody at the meeting this week.

Delta Zeta

by Amy Charlonne & Wendy Smith

Hi everyone, we've finally made the Greek news, after our big move to dorm 1, 4th floor. It's been great so far, thanks for making it interesting guys.

First of all congratulations to our five fabulous pledges Eden, Rigley, Soleil, Violet, and Jetson. Hang in there—only ten weeks to go. Also good luck to all the other fraternity and sorority pledges.

I'd like to announce that the turtle of the century goes to Chaves (no surprise there). Nominations for turtle of the week go to our two favorite TKE pledges, MacGuyver and Scammer, and also to John Riley (who is giving Chaves a run for his title) and Cutie.

Quote of the week is from Venus "Why be mad - it takes too much energy out of ya!" Well until next week.....

Finance Association

by Beth Barton

The Finance Association had its second meeting last Tuesday. Our guest speaker was David Miller, a team manager at Fleet Bank. Working in the private banking environment, he had a lot to tell us about the typical day he experienced, advising his clients on their financial investments. His lecture was very informative; and he is very eager to help anyone who would like to know more about working in the banking environment. For further information on this subject, he can be reached at 278-3302.

Our next meeting is scheduled for Monday, November 1 in conjunction with Career Services on careers in Finance including commercial lending, financial consulting, claims adjusting, and the financial management training program. Companies represented will be Fleet, Merrill Lynch, Liberty Mutual, and Lockheed Sanders. It will be held in Papitto at 3:30. We hope

Men's Rugby Club

by Robert Belinski

First of all, I just want to say "Ooouch" to Shorts, because your leg was all kinds of screwed up on Thursday!!! Anyway, I hope it's feeling better, it was nothing a few screws and some major surgery can't fix. I think everybody finally learned why some people never want to scrimmage on Thursdays!

A-team, you guys played a great game on Saturday! It was a little sloppy at first, but with a great block by Abe and a little hustle by Tomcat, you guys were able to pull it together in the end. And in case anybody didn't know yet, our 7-0 win over Brandeis on Saturday put us in the tournament.

The B-team also played a great game on Saturday. However, due to a penalty late in the game, Brandeis was able to pick-up the 3-0 victory. This may have been the final game of the season for the "Killer B's," unless Pigtail starts making some phone calls (P.S.: we want another home game).

And the fun didn't stop at the field. I just want to thank Brandeis and the Bryant girls team for a great time Saturday afternoon. I would also like to thank all of the people who showed up on Saturday to support our team. Your support really counts! And to anybody who missed the game, sorry but you may have to wait until next semester for another home game.

MSU will now be selling candy at the movies shown on campus in the Janikies Auditorium.

Friday night a large number of our members attended the Wave Conference at Providence College. The night was filled with various workshops, a keynote speaker, Peter Hocking, and panel discussion which was based on opinions on why we do community service. The night ended with a round table discussion were the MSU members spoke with other students about the importance of multicultural awareness, and activities used to help get the campus together. We shared a lot of different ideas and learned a lot from these other colleges. Thanks to those who gave up there Friday night.

Thanks to everyone that helped out at the Open House. It went well. We had a fun time speaking with students that are interested in learning more about MSU and the Bryant College student body.

MSU will be sponsoring a Halloween party this weekend. The time and place is to be announced. Please look for flyers posted around campus for further details about the party.

For those members who have not yet paid their dues, please do so.

Hello, everyone. Look, I remembered this week. Happy, Grogan. Anyway, on a more serious note, we have been enjoying this semester immensely. We believe that we made the right decision not to pledge this semester, and that the freshmen we associate with appreciate this fact. We encourage all freshmen to join us in the remaining festivities and events this semester. There is more than enough things to do, but less and less time to do them in.

Football is going well. We cleared through the division with a 4-1-1 record. But we all know what the real score is. The OFC played well this year. Their record does them no justice. Hey, Ryan and Chris. See, you guys made the article.

Well, I hope everyone joins us this weekend. You know where we are. Until next time (if I remember), Cheerio.

Volleyball Takes Fourth

Angelo L. Corradino
Archway Sports Writer

The women's volleyball team improved their record to 24-7 overall, 5-2 in the NE-10 by winning four games and losing two last week.

On Tuesday, the team traveled to Merrimack and came away with a victory 3-0.

"We have been doing a pretty good job," Kim Potrzebowski said.

"We have suffered all season with injuries, but it has helped us pull together as a team. We realized we could play through the injury."

The lady Indians injury problems continued when sophomore Victoria Crudo went down with an injury in the Merrimack match.

Over the weekend, the Lady Indians competed in the Bentley Invitational and faced some tough competition. The team's only loss of the tournament came Friday night as they were defeated by New Haven three straight.

Bryant then bounced back on Saturday and was able to overcome New York colleges Southampton and Mercy.

In the match against Mercy, the two team split the first four games setting up a fifth game tie breaker using the rally point system.

In the rally point system, one doesn't have to be serving, but every rally ends with a point.

Mercy jumped out to a 6-0 lead and seemed in control of the match. The lady Indians then rallied back and won the game and the match.

After defeating Mercy, the team was also victorious over Franklin Pierce. The team finished fourth overall and co-captain Maria Bras was selected to the all-tourney team.

New Haven also handed Bryant a loss on Thursday and they defeated the lady Indians 3-0 in a regular season match.

The lady Indians continue to get solid play from the entire team. Potrzebowski and Bras are amongst the leaders in the NE-10 in dig per game.

Bras is also one of the top outside hitters in the conference.

Co-captain Karen Michalski has also been providing a leadership role and has come up with the big plays when needed.

The team will host the second annual Halloween Classic this Saturday, teams scheduled to appear include Southern Connecticut, Franklin Pierce, Merrimack, AIC, and Quinnipiac. The tournament is scheduled to begin at 9:00 am.

Men's Cross County Peaks at Stonehill

Pam Barry
Archway Sports Writer

Tom Gaspar of the men's cross country team was named the Northeast-10 Runner of the Week for his repeat performance as individual champion at the Stonehill Invitational this past weekend.

Gaspar outdistanced the other runners and raced to the finish line with a time of 26:36. He also won the race last year where the team finished in first place overall.

"We were unable to repeat the overall win," said Gaspar.

"There was a lot more competition this year with fourteen teams participating."

Mike Walsh was next in for Bryant, finishing fifth overall (27:25). He was named an Honorable Mention for Runner of the Week. Andy DeRose, Pete Gosselin, and Tim Crawford rounded out the top five finishers for Bryant.

"We had a great race this week. The team really came on strong at the end. We beat Merrimack College and Wheaton College for the first time this year," said Coach Harry Smith. "The team is peaking just at the right time with the NCAA's in two weeks."

The Toronto Blue Jay's won the sixth game of the World Series over the Philadelphia Phillies 8 to 6 to capture the championship.

The sixth game was in Toronto and they clinched it for the home town fans for the second year in a row.

In the bottom of the ninth inning, Joe Carter hit a three run homerun to propel the defending champs to a tough fought series victory.

Most valuable player, Paul Molitor, hit a five hundred batting average. Toronto is the first team to win back-to-back World Championships since the Yankees achieved that feat in 1977 and 1978.

The Phillies played very commendably in the National League Playoffs and displayed tremendous heart in the World Series.

Baseball fans will have to wait till next year for America's national pastime once again.

The volleyball team will host the second annual Halloween Classic on Saturday. Teams scheduled to appear are Southern Connecticut, Franklin Pierce, Merrimack, AIC, and Quinnipiac. Games begin at 9:00 am, Come out and support the Lady Indians.

Midnight Madness Set For Friday

Angelo L. Corradino
Archway Sports Writer

The Bryant basketball teams will kick off their 1993-94 season this Friday night by hosting Midnight Madness in the main gym. The event which is being sponsored by SPB, The Sixth Man Society, and Bryant Athletics is a pep rally for the students to show their support for the basketball team, as well as other varsity sports.

"I am looking forward to it [Midnight Madness] to create school spirit for not only the basketball team, but for all varsity sports," softball coach Bob Reall said. "The students should realize that it's part of the winning tradition to get all of the student body involved."

The doors will be open at 10:30 pm and the first 100 students in attendance will receive a free poster with schedules for both the men's and women's team. In addition, they will also receive a coupon for a free Frostie, compliments of Wendy's.

"I am really encouraged by the support of Wendy's," said Dr. Linda Hackett, Athletic Director. "We are trying to get the outside community involved and this will only help."

The first major event of the night will be a three point contest starting at 11:00. Students can sign up in the gym the night of the event, however the contest is limited to 20 people.

During the three point contest there will be three stations with one ball each. The players with the most points at the end of each round will advance until there are only four players left.

These four players will then advance to the finals to determine the winner. President William E. Trueheart will also be competing in this event and will be a guest finalist.

"I am absolutely tickled that President Trueheart is going to be a guest finalist," commented Dr. Hackett.

Following the three-point contest, the cheerleaders will then present a brief dance exhibition to keep the crowd entertained.

They will be followed by the sisters of Zeta Phi Beta who will perform a step show.

Finally at 12:00 midnight the basketball teams will be introduced and will do a few drills and other stunts to thank the crowd for attending.

"During an interview with The Archway last spring, I became aware of SPB co-sponsoring an event to promote the basketball season," Hackett said. "Even if it has not been successful in the past, it is still a good idea to get the community involved."

"We have been trying to make the students aware of the programs and the efforts of the players involved," Hackett added. "This will be a good way to introduce the sports season and get our message across."

Music for all the events will be provided by WJMF DJ's Wayne Stepalavich and Scott Calabrese.

Dr. Hackett would also like to thank Erin Dawn O'Connell, The Sixth Man Society, and SPB for their help. Hackett concluded, "These people donated a lot of time and effort to make this program a success and should be rewarded."

Men's Soccer Ready For NE-10

Angelo L. Corradino
Archway Sports Writer

The men's soccer dropped a crucial game to Stonehill as they prepared for the NE-10 playoffs.

"It came down to a must win for Stonehill to make for the playoffs," said coach Len Mercurio. "We still have two more games left to play and, Stonehill showed more determination on earning a win to make the playoffs."

Coach Mercurio hopes this loss will be a "wake up call" to the team. "In order to win big games their determination, intensity, and confidence levels all have to rise. That's what wins big games."

The Indians only goal came from Dave McCabe off a Matt Liepins crossing pass.

"McCabe, Liepins, and (Steve) Bigler played excellent," Mercurio said. "They were the only ones who showed the determination that is needed to win."

The team has two games remaining on the schedule and they feel they can come away with their much needed wins.

"We had an excellent practice, probably the best all season, after the Stonehill loss," Mercurio stated. "I keep telling the team they have the potential, but they need a winning attitude."

The team needs a win against St. Anselm's and Assumption in order to make the playoffs. However, if they lose on Wednesday they will have an outside chance at making the playoffs.

"I feel we need to get experience in winning big games," Mercurio said. "Once you get in the playoffs it is one big game after another. As you keep on winning the big games, your confidence builds and your momentum shifts. We need this for the playoffs."

Coach Mercurio is optimistic about the playoffs and hopes Bryant can pull together to win a few games.

"The past two years we played great all season and were eliminated in the first round," Mercurio added. "This year if we can win a big game I think it will give us the confidence to win the NE-10 Tournament."

The team traveled to St. Anselm's yesterday, but results were too late for publication. They will be on the road once again this Saturday as they travel to Assumption.

Two Great Weekends for Women's Tennis

Pam Barry
Archway Sports Writer

Last week, the Bryant Women's tennis team finished a fourth place in the North East-10 Tournament at Stonehill College.

Tabitha Kent and Colleen Shepard were crowned the conference champions for first doubles after defeating the team from St. Anselm's in the finals by a score of 7-6 (7-4), 6-4. Kent also won the consolation round championship for the first singles slot after defeating a player from Merrimack 6-3, 6-2 in the finals.

Dana Tessier reached the finals for second singles, but lost to Springfield in one of the most competitive matches of the tournament. The score was 7-6 (14-12), 6-2. Tessier and Amy Polatsek played in the finals for second doubles, but were defeated by a team from Springfield in yet another competitive match scoring 6-4, 7-6. Pam Bowman also reached the finals, but lost to Quinnipiac 6-1, 6-2.

Shepard won extra points for the team in a singles match; Polatsek scored in the consolation championship for third singles, and Katie Coates scored in a singles match.

This past weekend, the team placed a second place win in the New England held at Springfield College. All other teams were defeated as Bryant and Springfield headed to the finals on the second day. Bryant members played in 8 out of the 9 championship matches, but were edged by Springfield 43 to 37.

Sophomores Amy Becker and Pam Bowman won their finals match for third doubles. The duo dazzled the courts with Becker's steady play and Bowman's winning smash at match point for a final score of 5-7, 6-0, 6-4.

In the first doubles final, Kent and Shepard beat their opponents 6-1, 6-2. This win was the first time a Bryant doubles team swept both the NE-10 and New England at the first doubles position from an unseeded spot.

The team finished up the season in second place in the conference. Tessier had a successful season finishing with a record of 15-2 in singles. The whole team should be returning next year except for Shepard, who will be graduating in May.

There will be a mandatory
Indoor Track Meeting on November 3 at 5:30 PM in Meeting Room 2A
of the Bryant Center

Women's Cross Country Misses Win By One Point

Pam Barry
Archway Sports Writer

One point kept the women's cross-country team from winning the Stonehill College Alumni Invitational Meet this past weekend. Stonehill College won the race with a score of 36, while Bryant came in second with a score of 37.

"It was pretty disappointing for us," said Coach Charlie Mandeville. "However, it's a big incentive for us to run hard against them in the NCAA's in two weeks."

Mandy Lapierre was the first runner in for Bryant and finished in third place overall (20:48). Karen Palczynski followed in fourth place overall (21:04).

Next in for Bryant was Heather Cronce (21:19), Molly Mulligan (21:49), Jackie Erath (21:54), Karen Calderoni (22:10) and Jody Russo (23:11).

Carrie Stygar and Jessica Duval didn't run in this race for Bryant, but will be back for the New England this weekend.

The top seven finishers for Bryant at the New England will be the seven participants in the NCAA. The team vowed that those who run in the NCAA will take revenge on Stonehill for the one point and finish above them. Coach Mandeville hopes that this incentive will help Bryant reach their goal of a top ten finish in the NCAA.

ATHLETE of the WEEK

Beth Guay

This week's Athlete of the Week is Beth Guay of the women's soccer team. In the game against Bridgeport last Tuesday, Guay had two goals to help the lady Indians snap their losing streak by defeating Bridgeport 4-2.

Help kick off the 1993-94 basketball season by coming out to Midnight Madness on Friday. Doors will open at 10:30 with a three-point contest featuring President William E. Trueheart at 11:00. WJMF's DJ Alex (Wayne Stepalavich) and Scott Calabrese will supply the music as we meet the teams and show our support. Don't miss the opportunity to help start the basketball season on the right foot. Bring your friends and have a good time.
