Alcohol Awareness Promoted

Angelo L. Corradino
Archway Staff Writer

"This is our best opportunity to get the public involved in alcohol awareness," said Brian Farley, coordinator of the Fourth Annual Alcohol Awareness Road Race.

The race was originally named after Kristen Hatch, a Bryant student who was struck and killed by a drunk driver on route 116 in April 1990. The race consisted of three events; the 5K road race, the two mile alcohol awareness walk, and the one mile fun run.

The 234 participants in the September 26 race had to pay an entry fee ranging from $6 to $12. The money raised will go to the alcohol awareness programs on campus.

"The (Smithfield) Lions are committed to alcohol awareness," said Brian Farley, race coordinator. "The time to adopt sensible drinking is now when you reach the legal age. It is hard to change once you have been doing the same thing for twenty years."

The honorary chair of this year's race was Daria Bruno, a disc jockey from B101.

"It was great to see such a big turn out with the bad weather," Bruno said. "(Alcohol awareness) is a great cause and a lot of attention should be paid to it."

In previous years, the race was five miles; this year it was changed to a 5K or 3.1 miles. Leading the pack of 122 runners was Matt Boyd, who finished with a time of 16:35. The first Bryant student to finish was senior Tom Gaspar who came in right behind him posting a time of 16:53.

Other Bryant runners included senior Chris King, men's cross country and track coach Harry Smith, resident assistant Tim Bovat, faculty member Robert Gibson, alumnus Patrick Treanor, Robert Pures, and employee Loraine Cournoyer.

This race is planned to continue into the future. Farley remarked that he hopes to see good things stem from this program.

"I will never forget the tragedy of Kristen's death," Farley added. "Every student who passes through Bryant College's door should be aware of this tragedy."

According to Farley, this factor alone should get people to come out and support the race.

"People should realize that Kristen could have been anyone. She wasn't in the car. She wasn't driving; she was just an innocent victim," Farley concluded.

This year's Honorary Chairperson, Daria Bruno of B101 FM.

Davis Grant to Benefit Liberal Arts and Business Programs

Julia Arouchon
Archway Staff Writer

A $225,000 grant from the Davis Educational Foundation will enable the building of an electronic classroom, which will reduce instructional costs and increase efficiency in the Accounting and English Programs.

Through the joint efforts of Saeed Roohani, Accounting Professor, Mary Lyons, English Chair and Evelyn Dvorak, a proposal for the electronic classroom was developed this summer and submitted to the Davis Foundation.

According to Dr. Mary Lyons, the electronic classroom will be very beneficial to the College. "It is an opportunity for the liberal arts and business programs to share the same resources," said Lyons.

The classroom will contain 40 computers, half IBM and half Macintosh and will include CD-ROM and multi-media.

According to Dean Michael Patterson, the computers will allow material to be covered faster by creating a "paperless environment." In addition, accounting students will be able to critique software programs.

Patterson is optimistic that in the future, the electronic classroom will become networked with computers from around the world. He commented, "Bryant students will be able to see how students in Europe deal with a similar case."

The Davis Educational Foundation was established by Stanton and Elisabeth Davis. Prior to his retirement, Mr. Davis was the chairman of Shaw's Supermarkets, Inc.

Bryant's Enrollment Increases Despite National Slump

Maureen Murphy
Archway Staff Writer

The recent drop in the average number of high school graduates has caused the enrollment at many institutions of higher learning to decrease. Bryant, however, is the exception to the rule. This year's freshman class contains a total of 632 students, the largest class to enter Bryant in two years.

There are four principal factors that affect enrollment at colleges and universities. They are demographics (or the number of students graduating from high school), interest in academic program offerings, the economy, and competition from other institutions. With the number of high school graduates diminishing, the percentage of students interested in business decreasing, and the economy in the state of uncertainty that it is, it is easy to see why enrollment may be down. Bryant has tried to combat these problems by expanding their national and international reputation.

According to Dr. Walter Roettger, executive vice president at Bryant, "Bryant's Class of 1997 is also a more diverse class, as well as a class of high quality."

Bryant's multicultural enrollments were 12.5% higher than last year. In addition, there are 57 students from 35 different countries who are enrolled as undergraduates here at Bryant.

The Bryant Enrollment Support Team (BEST), along with the Admissions Office, is working to ensure that future enrollment will continue to increase. BEST is a network of Bryant alumni from across the country who attend college nights and open houses, call students and share their Bryant experiences with them, and basically help Bryant spread its reputation throughout the nation and the world. All alumni who are a part of BEST have volunteered their time and effort. The head of the BEST program is Eileen Chekal, Coordinator of Stewardship and Volunteer Admissions Programs at Bryant.

Hopefully, the future interest in Bryant will continue to expand. According to Roy Nelson of the Admissions Office, they are "...trying to diversify the college gradually."

Bryant has already had approximately 22,000 requests for information regarding next fall's freshman class. By continually recruiting perspective students, high enrollment may continue to increase in the years to come.

Visiting Professor Aims to Link Business and Education

Julia Arouchon and Katrina Pfannkuch
Archway Staff Writers

Visiting Accounting professor from Australia, Dr. Alan Dunk, aims to develop stronger links between education, the accounting profession and businesses during his semester at Bryant. Dr. Dunk is the KPMG Peat Marwick Distinguished Visiting Professor from The University of Western Sydney.

One of Dr. Dunk's projects is an eight seminar program, titled the Rhode Island Research Workshop Series. It will bring five faculty together, including professors from The University of Rhode Island, Trenton State and Bryant to share research on auditing and finance. Information to be used for publication will be taken from the seminars.

"When faculty publish material it provides a signal to the academic market that Bryant conducts research," says Dunk. "It benefits both the college and its students."

Dr. Dunk also plans to focus on

Get Off the Sideline!

Life is like a football game. There are the players, the scorekeepers, and the spectators. If the only thing you want to do in life is stand by and watch the game, then how do you expect to carry the ball?

Where do you personally fit into this game of life? Do you stand by and wait for others to do all the work? Or are you one of those people who puts their heart and soul into everything they do?

The ability to communicate to others and to be able to act on your ideas and opinions deserves great merit and recognition. There are so many ways that you can make a significant difference; not only in other peoples' lives, but also in your own.

If there is an issue or a concern that you strongly believe will impact your life or others, then don't be afraid to bring it to the surface.

Your ideas are just as good as the next person's are. If you want to make a difference, right here and right now, then voice your opinions and suggestions to the various campus organizations.

Your creative input is needed to help develop and implement campus activities and policies.

If there is an issue of great concern or interest to you, feel free to voice your ideas to the Student Programming Board, the Student Senate, The Archway, etc.

Life is only what you make of it. Don't expect anything to get done unless you put forth the effort.

Hurry up. Stop sitting on the sidelines. Get involved in the game of life.

Public Safety Beat

compiled by Adina T. Barnes
Students for a Safer Campus

Vandalism

September 24, 1993 - A Department of Public Safety officer was dispatched to a suite in the dorm village to investigate a reported case of vandalism. Although the suite walls had holes and a table was turned upside down, nothing was reported missing. The students had apparently only left the suite for an hour.

Alcohol Violation

September 24, 1993 - A DPS officer making rounds spotted two females in the rear of dorm 16. One female was carrying two cases of beer and the other was holding a door open. The female holding the door alerted the others to the presence of the DPS officer. The two females fled leaving the two cases behind.

Burglary

September 26, 1993 - The Department of Public Safety was notified when an intruder broke in and stole several compact discs and cassette tapes from dorm 14. Apparently the window had been left open, allowing the intruder easy access.

Safety Tip of the Week:

Here are some helpful hints to help you protect your car:

1. Always try to park in well-lighted areas.
2. Never leave the keys in the car.
3. Always lock the car and put valuables in the trunk.
4. Do not leave the vehicle title, credit cards, or gas cards in the car.

IDs and Locker Rentals

Effective Monday, October 4, 1993, the Department of Public Safety Office hours for ID photos and locker rentals will be as follows:

10:00 am - 12:00 noon and 2:00 PM - 4:00 PM weekdays. If you cannot come in during these new hours, please make an appointment with Virginia Bowry by calling 232-6001.

Boston Offers Discounted Student Entertainment

by Christopher King
Archway Staff Writer

The school year is now underway and if you are looking for somewhere to go to have a good time, then you may be interested in going to Boston for a day. Many people are not aware of the many vast opportunities that are available just one hour North of Bryant College in the city of Boston. In Boston you can view a ballet, take in a show at the theater, witness the fine arts, play billiards and grab a bite to eat. All of these enjoyable activities can be done at a discounted price with the presentation of your college I.D. With your I.D., you can view a lot of the city for less money.

The Boston Ballet is opening their season on October 21 with "Sleeping Beauty." Tickets can be purchased at the Wang Center, 268 Tremont St, an hour before the show time for $12 with your student I.D. At The American Repertory Theater in Cambridge, they feature five theatrical performances a year. Students are able to purchase two tickets per I.D. for $12, 30 minutes before the show.

With a student I.D., students are able to enter the Museum of Fine Arts for a discounted price. The Museum offers films, concerts, lectures and art exhibits.

For people interested in billiards, Jillian's Billiard's offers 59 tables. Students can play for one hour of pool and get the second hour free. The hall also has Ping-Pong tables, darts, shuffle board, a virtual reality game room and a restaurant that serves American meals.

If you are in the North End or at Kenmore Square in Boston, Cafe Paradiso offers Italian food at a twenty percent discount. The menu includes salads, sandwiches and cappuccinos along with other delicious Italian foods.

There are many sights to see, shows to go to, games to play, and so many other fun-filled activities to do in Boston. By simply using your student I.D., you are able to partake in the various functions Boston has to offer at a discount. Take the time to explore all that Boston has to offer and experience some of the rich culture and arts of a thriving city.

Two Lane Entry Onto Campus

by George S. Coronado

The two incoming traffic lanes onto which were erected during the Summer will be reinstated again beginning Monday, September 27, 1993. The purpose of these lanes is to enhance security by monitoring traffic more closely while allowing free flowing access to vehicles bearing current decals and permits.

DPS again requests you use the right lane if you have a current decals or permit. Access to these vehicles should continue to be as easy and convenient as it has been in the past. Vehicles without permits will be asked to use the left lane and stop at the booth. We ask you to advise your guests to use the left lane and stop at the booth.

We will try to keep disruption of traffic to a minimum and hope you experience no inconvenience. We invite your comments, negative or positive.

WJMF Album Review

by Pete Gosselin

() NIRVANA - IN UTERO

It has been two years since we were smelling the latest deodorant from this band. Expect large initial reaction to this album with the release of the single Heart Shaped Box. It recalls the haunting voice of Kurt Cobain on such hits as Come As You Are and Lithium. Tracks such as Dumb and Serve the Servants show that this band might play spoiler to those who say the Seattle scene was a fad.

However, songs like Milk It and tourette's sound more like a bad overdose of amplifier feedback than typical Washington State grunge. Controversy may sell more of this album than the music itself, however. K-Mart and Wal-Mart refuse to carry the CD due to the track Rape Me and the models of human embryos depicted on the back jacket. The music scene is no longer the grunge arena it was when this band hit big with Nevermind. We'll have to wait and see how this affects the album. Expect better things on the latest release from Seattle neighbors Pearl Jam.

What Can A Career Counselor Do For You?

The role of a career counselor has often been likened to that of a career "coach." Although counselors vary in training, philosophy, and services, they usually provide one or more of the following services:

1. Provide individual evaluations and counseling to establish, clarify, and develop career/life goals.
2. Conduct job support groups and career workshops.
3. Administer and interpret tests to evaluate abilities, interests, values, personality, and organizational style.
4. Assign activities and exercises to develop self-knowledge and increase job market awareness.

5. Teach job-hunting strategies and skills.

6. Assist with resume preparation.

7. Use counseling techniques to improve career decision-making skills.

8. Provide support during stressful transitions.

9. Aid clients in developing career plans.

10. Coordinate services with other helping professionals.

Judy Bellante, Judy Clare and Barbara Gregory provide the above services to students, MBA candidates and graduates of Bryant College. Nancy Servoss and Judy Tomaselli assist them in scheduling and preparing for numerous workshops, programs and recruitment. All students are welcome to stop by Career Services, located near Faculty Suite F and the US Post Office in the Unistructure.

Until the End of the World

a 1991 film by Wim Wenders
 starring William Hurt and Solveig Dommartin with Sam Neill, Max Von Sydow, and Jeanne Moreau

Germany's top director brings to the screen a futuristic adventure in which Sam Farber (Hurt) travels the world pursued by a killer and under the threat of nuclear holocaust. The maker of Wings of Desire and Paris, Texas takes us on a journey to eight countries and fifteen cities that expands the definitions of sight and sound in movies. Several sequences were shot in High-Definition Video, and the soundtrack features music by R.E.M., U2, Talking Heads, Lou Reed, Peter Dinklage, and others.

Love, obsession, danger, adventure-a story told boldly by one of contemporary cinema's masters. (Running time: 158 min.)

Amnesty International

by Toby Stapleton

Thanks to everyone who attended our meeting last Monday.

Our next meeting will be held on October 12 at 4:00 in the Bryant Center. Elections will be held for Vice President, Publicity Chairperson, Secretary, and Treasurer. Our newsletter will be mailed out to members next week, anyone interested in getting a copy or joining our group should contact Toby Stapleton at 274-8646, or Prof. Glen Camp at 232-6246. Write a letter, save a life.

BEAC

by Beth Marsland

BEAC stands for the Bryant Environmental Action Club. Watch us closely though because we are presently considering a new name! We have held two meetings so far this semester and Professor Doug Levin, our advisor for the club, spoke at the first meeting. He suggested a more active participation from the club rather than simply an informative one. Which is a main reason for our name change. We decided to take field trips throughout the semester, one being a trip to the Omni Theater in the Boston Museum of Science. The club is also looking into working with the Alliance for Living Oceans (ALO) to adopt a beach.

Our first fund-raiser will be a Halloween flower sale in the Bryant Center on Parent's Weekend. Carnations will be $1, so please come down and send some to your friends! Your support will help us in providing for the environment, as well the Bryant community.

If you are concerned about the environment or you are simply wondering how this club ties into the business world, please come to our meetings!! Our next meeting is October 5, at 5:30 PM in Hall 15 lobby. You can make a difference!!

Beta Sigma Chi

by Bill Bailey

We would like to start off by thanking Delta Zeta for last Saturday Night, Bill Cosby would have been proud. We would also like to thank everyone who made Friday night such a big success at our floor.

Our big football game with the Dawgs got canceled this week, because they couldn't play in the rain. Thursday, we play our season opener against the D-Bags.

This week: Clam and Dingo took a trip to go see the Dead, Fudd got into a fight with his pet tree and lost, Treat had a run in with some green glass, and Dobber almost had a chair thrown at him. Quote of the week: "He tore his Achilles tendon so bad, it rolled up the back of his leg like a Venetian Blind."

Bryant Hunger Coalition

by Stacey Yamalis

Thanks to everyone who attended our first meeting. We discussed upcoming events and ideas for fund-raisers - thanks to Eric for a great idea! Our first major event will be Trick-or-Treating for canned goods. Start thinking of a costume, it will be here before you know it. We will also be setting dates for soup kitchens and getting in touch with Meals on Wheels for more details.

There are two upcoming Dress Down Days - October 29th and November 5th. Money raised will be used to purchase turkeys for the Thanksgiving food baskets. Stickers are only $2 and can be purchased in the Unistructure at the Reception desk and at Central Services and in the Bryant Center at the Info Desk. Don't forget to buy your stickers! We'll send out flyers for our next meeting - old and new members are welcome. Hope to see you there.

BRYCOL

by Jeannine Sharkey & Kathy Krasen

Hello, we want to welcome everyone back to school and wish everyone a successful school year! BRYCOL is very excited for this upcoming year. We have a lot of new ideas and we are constantly striving to make all of our enterprises efficient and successful. In order to accomplish this we need your help. We need your inputs and your support. We are here to serve you so please take advantage of us. We always welcome comments, criticisms, and suggestions, either stop up to the BRYCOL house or call 231-1220.

BRYCOL wants to welcome the following to the BRYCOL family: Jennifer Lorenc, Brian Grossman, Damian O'Rourke, Matthew Newman and Jeffrey Dean to the Board of directors; John McPhee as our new marketing coordinator; Steve Fiore as assistant coordinator; and Chris Farwell as our new employee representative. A special congratulations to Pat Ferullo who has just been elected our new Vice President and a big thank you to Chuck Koch for his outstanding service.

Upcoming events for this week scheduled at the Comfort include Mrs. Kelley's Boys hosted by BRYCOL on Thursday. Friday we will be open from 4-7 for the Afternoon Club with Acoustic Beat hosted by Senior Senate. Seniors join us from 9-1 on Saturday for bagels and fun. Once again congratulations to all of our new members. Have a great week and we'll see you at the Comfort!!

Delta Chi

by Miah Burnham

Uncle Freddy died? What? Anyway the week started off well with Levity and Mirth Thursday night on the floor. Friday was great until 12:00 when our friends from the Public Safety department showed up and gave our bathroom a shower in beverages made from grains, oats and hops. At least the toilet got our money's worth and all the five cent returnables. When are you guys going to come clean the place up anyway?

On a slightly less serious note, the Brothers would like to thank all the Alumni who came up this weekend, especially Skidder for breakfast on Saturday. We look forward to beating you all in softball again. Also, the Brothers would like to congratulate King on his engagement to Aimee Ploszay. When is the wedding King, 1997?

Finally, the quote of the week, "Neel!" The tip of the week, "Just rub some dirt on it!"

Field Hockey Club

by Amy Lassiter

Hello everybody! Before I say anything else, the entire field hockey team would like to thank TKE for an enjoyable Thursday night! We all had a great time!

Next, as the 1993 season begins, I would like to announce Jodi Buffam as the new president, Jennifer Nicoll as vice president, Karen Gumpert as treasurer, and Amy Lassiter as secretary. We have a busy week ahead of us with our first three games. Today we have a home game at 4:00 against Dean Junior College. On Saturday, October 2 we travel to Brown University for a 4:00 game and Wednesday October 6 we're back home again for another 4:00 game against Wheaton College. Come on out to the field and show us your support! We would really appreciate it!

Lastly, I just want to say good luck to the entire team. Let's work together and win all three games!

IFC

by Jeff Davis

I hope that everyone is enjoying their first month back at school, it definitely has been eventful. The IFC E-board would like to express thanks to all of the members who attended the Saturday seminar, participated in the Fraternity Forum, and the All Ages Night at the Comfort. We hope that the rush period has been successful for all of the Fraternities so far, and will continue to be so, through the next two weeks.

Men's Rugby Club

by Robert Bettinsky

The Bryant Men's Rugby Team finished off its pre-season Friday afternoon. Some of the ruggers were just too eager to "dive" into the new season. By the way Nas and I are going this weekend!!!

The team opened its Fall Season this last Saturday with a win over WPI. With Schneidy owning every throw-in and Spooner stealing every scrum-down, the A-team was able to win quite decisively by a score of 52 to 0. Big Jim was able to run for a couple of tri's, while Tomcat was finishing off his hat-trick!

The B-team seems to be improving everyday, and Saturday they showed how far they have come with a 14 to 10 win. Matty was able to pick-up a couple of tri's, while Biscuit was busy scoring for the other team.

Phi Kappa Sigma

by Dan Bliss

Wow! What a weekend! I hope all those who went to the show enjoyed themselves. To Axl's dismay, Fogs was in rare form Saturday. Oh, by the way Axl, I heard Beaker wants to be your best man when the blessed day arrives. And finally, how about them Patriots!!

I would now like to take this time to thank Theta for joining us Friday (and I say that with the utmost sarcasm). I guess they had something better to do.

Football seems to be going pretty well. We have gotten through the first week with a 1-1 record. We beat up on the RA's Tuesday for a 7-0 win, and we lost a close one 3-0 against somebody on Thursday, but I forget who. I suppose that since I have forgotten already, they must be not that important. And the OFC, our freshman team, are playing well also. Their first game was Monday against TEP's freshman team, but they didn't show up. Lucky for them. They should have done the same thing last spring in the basketball championship. Everybody learns from their mistakes, I guess.

I encourage all freshmen to join us every Monday night to watch the game, or any other events we may have throughout the semester. And if anybody is still interested in joining the football team, just give us a call at 232-4050, or stop up. We are still on the third floor of Dorm 1.

And now for our quote of the week, mentioned Saturday afternoon when we were rearranging Axl's room: "Dude, there are too many things moving in here!" Cheerio!

S.A.M.

by Jennifer Baranowski

Hello. First of all, the S.A.M. board would like to thank Bill Phillips for discussing time management at our last meeting. We had a great turn out. I would also like to thank all of those who attended.

Our next meeting will be on Monday, October 4 at 4:00 in Papitto. Colleen Anderson will be our guest speaker and she will be informing us on how to use the library's resources. All majors are welcome and so are new members! We will also be collecting dues. They are $6 for the whole year. See you on the 4th!

Sigma Phi Epsilon

by Lance Reinold

The Brothers of Sigma Phi Epsilon had an exciting and productive past week.

The weekend kicked off at the football field on Thursday with both the SigEp A and Bulls teams winning. The A team dominated the line of scrimmage in a key game against Phi Kap. A Ken Burr field goal was what they needed to push them over the top in the 3-0 victory. The Bulls were triumphant by forfeit to an unidentified team who apparently had heard of Fusco's little brother. Both teams carry a 2-0 record into this week's play.

On Thursday night, the brothers celebrated the victory with a gathering up on the floor, which was heard all over campus. After the gathering, many of the brothers went to the Phi Sig floor and watched Ken Burr entertain the sisters with his nonstop humor.

Thanks to Delta Zeta for the 70's gathering that was a lot of fun on Friday night. I think Tags is still wearing his costume.

Saturday night brought the brothers and Bulls to the townhouses. The floor corner queen made an appearance and was in rare form.

Toss of the week goes to Dixie. Quote of the week goes to Ray with, "I win!" See ya again next week, unless Rodney decides to do his job.

SPB

by Stacey Parron

Howdy folks!! I hope everyone had a good weekend. I know I did. To those who took the tour of the world with Michelle and I, what country did you get lost in? It just seems like everyone disappeared.

Laura informs me that Patriots tickets are going on sale Oct. 7th at Info. They will be $20. They will be playing the Bills. Laura has also informed me that no one responded to last week's question, "Do you have a preference between Cancun, the Bahamas or any other Spring Break destination?" If no one responds to this question by the end of the week, we may be Cancun bound! To respond, just send your "free on campus mail" to Laura at Box 10. Also, a tour of the Bud brewery in New Hampshire is being planned for Sat., Oct. 23rd. The rest of the day will be spent in Boston. Look for more info - spaces are limited! For those of you who are 21, bring your ID to taste.

Michelle and Lisa are planning a carnival/sports theme for Unhomecoming Weekend. Unhomecoming will be Thurs., Nov. 18th to Sun., Nov. 21st. Bring any ideas you may have to the SPB office on Tuesdays at 4:00pm. If you cannot make the meeting, send your ideas to Michelle and Lisa at Box 10. This is important because you want to make it a weekend you can enjoy.

Jenn is planning a laser light show for Sat., Nov. 20th. Showings will be at 7:00 and 9:00pm in the Roto. More information will be forthcoming - look for posters!!

Joe and Todd, as Bryant Center Attractions, are sponsoring Craig Karges on Oct. 5th at 7:30pm in the auditorium. He is a psychic illusionist and is supposed to be very good. Tickets went on sale at Info yesterday, Sept. 29th and will be sold outside the dining halls from 5:00 to 7:00 today, Sept. 30th and Mon., Oct. 4th. If you buy your tickets ahead of time, student rates are $2 and adults are $4, but if you wait to get them at the door add $1. Also, the Bryant Center Attractions meeting to plan next semester's entertainment will be held at 7:00pm in the SPB office on Tuesdays.

Hope to see everyone at all the above events and at our meetings 4:30 on Mondays in meeting room 2B in the Bryant Center.

Student Senate

by Robb Martin

There was a meet the Prez in the Rotunda Thursday from 10:30 to 1:00 and all went well. Some of the topics discussed were: the possibility of a point system within the Bryant Center and the Simplex lock system in the dorm village. Thanks to all of you who participated.

For those of you who signed up as Upper Class Buddies look for mailings that are being distributed even as I write. Also, coming up on Thursday, October 7th is the Upper Class Buddy picnic.

Also coming up right around the corner is the annual Parents' and Family Weekend in New England from October 15th to the 17th.

The senior class senators are asking the senior class to mail in any suggestions that you may have regarding the senior class gift. Suggestions can be sent to Box #5, attention gift.

I would like to thank the executive board for a fabulous retreat and leave the rest of the Senate with a piece of advice. Always take time to smell the flowers and always reach for the stars.

Till next week, have a fun and safe weekend!

Tau Epsilon Phi

by Mark McKenney

First and foremost, thanks go out to Tri Sigma for an outstanding weekend. The tie-dye and Purple parties were a huge success, even for Mo who seemed a little lost Thursday night. Thanks again ladies.

In sports, TEP has been doing great. TEP A football scored a 14-0 victory over Rolling Tide, which was a big victory for rookie quarterback Fast Eddie Andersen. TEP B scored a 7-7 tie against Fire and Ice. A solid passing attack and a hard hitting defense kept the squad in it till the end. Keep up the good work guys.

Hey Stretch, you need facial hair before you have to shave. In spades news, the office has fallen to mediocre status and is having trouble regaining the prowess they claim to have possessed. I'm outta here, but stop up this weekend as Tau Epsilon Phi goes South of the Border. Dorm 2, third floor.

WJMF

by Chris Hinckley

Hey, what's up? We hope everyone had a productive weekend! Well, we have more tickets to give away for the CYPRESS HILL and HOUSE OF PAIN concert at the Rocky Point Palladium. Listen in to "Tuesday Nite on the Edge" between 8 and 10PM to win a pair. The date of the concert has been changed to Monday, October 11, for those of you who may have already won tickets.

Hope everyone tuned in this past weekend to the Beastie Boys spotlight show hosted by Jason Knell. We will have a Sunday Nite Spotlight every week. Some of the shows lined up so far include: U2, coming up this Sunday, October 3, hosted by training director extraordinaire, John Gordon; Fugazi on October 17, hosted by the Boy from 'Bama, Hoang "Pronounced Wong" Nguyen; Pearl Jam, on October 24, hosted by Chris Hinckley; Soul Asylum on Halloween Night, hosted by Tom Boardman; Metallica on November 7, hosted by F-Sharp; the Violent Femmes on November 14, hosted by Chris Hinckley; New Edition, BBD, and Bobby Brown on November 21, hosted by J.D. Love; and Aerosmith hosted by DJ Slick on December 5. Each of these shows will have unreleased tracks, live tracks, trivia, and giveaways about the bands being spotlighted.

At this time I would just like to announce the WJMF "DJ OF THE MONTH." This month honor goes to "Pete in the Morning" host, superstar, and all around good guy, Pete Gosselin. Congratulations Pete, it is well deserved.

If anyone is interested in getting involved with 'JMF stop by the studio or our weekly meeting in Room 2B of the Bryant Center. If you are or want to be a DJ come by soon because there are only two slots open. Well, until next week, keep tuning in to 88.7, WJMF, The Brave New World of Rock and remember, "if Music Did Not Exist, Life Would Be a Mistake" - Nietzsche.

Women's Rugby Club

by Shirley Branco

Hello Ruggers!!! Good game last Saturday; we should have killed MIT!! Maybe, next year. Congratulations to all the new players for sticking with it!! You made it to the first game. Hopefully, next game Jen will survive with no injuries! Way to Jen and Oates for scoring our first two tries this season.

We have a game this Saturday against Brandeis. The exact location is not definite, we'll know by Friday. So fans, please talk to Shaune, the blonde one! Special thanks goes out to Subway for providing us with the door prizes. We really appreciate it! Thanks again!

See you all at practice! Bye for now!

Men's Tennis Back to Business Women's Golf Looking to Return to Glory

Jeff Bullett

Men's Tennis Coach

After a successful spring season and a relaxing summer, it's back to the courts for the men's tennis team.

Returning players from last year's NE-10 championship squad include the top 4 singles players: Roman Pavlik, Jason Wall, Andy Lipsky, and Alex Barnabo.

Also returning are powerful veterans Brian Fries, Steve Zinck, Bryan Cote, and Tom Wall. Promising newcomers include freshman Mike Gisler, and junior transfer Mike Trask.

Also, 13 other freshmen are competing to earn a place among the last few precious positions.

Two weekends ago, Roman Pavlik and Jason Wall traveled to Bloomsburg University in Pennsylvania to play in the Regional Rolex Tournament.

Pavlik was seeded 7th and upset the 4th seed (who was also ranked 37th in the nation) from Hampton University in the quarterfinals, before losing to the 2nd seed (also from Hampton) in the semi-finals.

Jason Wall defeated Sven Anderson from arch-rival Bentley in the first round, before falling to the first seed from Hampton.

In doubles, Pavlik and Wall upset the 3rd seeds in the opening round before losing in the next round.

The team hopes to travel to Albany, NY, to play in the ECAC tournament on October 9 and 10. Also, Quinnipiac, Bentley, and Babson have expressed interest in playing Bryant this fall.

With more hard work and dedication on the courts, Bryant will have a good chance for a second consecutive NE-10 championship when they hit the courts this spring.

Freshman Tere Rivera of the women's golf team placed seventh out of 60 in the two-day Dartmouth Invitational Tournament. On the first day she finished in fourth place. Rain was a critical factor in Rivera's second day finish, according to Coach Dr. Kristin Kennedy.

The recently formed golf team has three members. The other golfers are Kim Kelly and Brenda Milley. Coach Kennedy is looking for more players and is trying to get women's golf up to the varsity level.

"I was very pleased with the play of Rivera this weekend," said Coach Kennedy, "she is a very talented golfer."

The team is looking forward to their upcoming tournaments at Yale this weekend and Mt. Holyoke next weekend.

Anyone interested should contact Coach Kennedy in Faculty Suite A. "Golf is a great sport for women in business to get involved in," Kennedy said.

Women's Soccer Shows Determination and Desire

Jennifer Quail

Archway Sports Writer

In their second conference game, the women's soccer team tied against Bentley this past Saturday.

The Lady Indians played well against a worthy NE-10 opponent.

Bentley opened the scoring midway through the first half. Bryant later tied the game when Megan Juhase scored her first goal of the season from a rebound shot by Lori Antico.

In the second half, neither team scored, leaving the game in a tie at the final whistle.

The game continued into overtime, but no goals were scored, leaving the final result at 1-1.

Captain and senior Karen Ruscetta said the team pulled together after a hard loss last week against nationally ranked Keene.

"We showed pride and determination in the game with Bentley," Ruscetta said.

Both Jennifer Dutch and Brittany Van Patten played "excellent" defense for Bryant.

On Monday, Bryant played University of New Haven to a 4-1 loss. New Haven scored the first goal, but Bryant rallied back to tie the game.

Beth Guay scored the goal from an assist by Amy LaPlante. In the second half, New Haven pulled ahead by scoring three more goals.

Women's soccer now stands with a record of 2-4-1, with the next scheduled game on Saturday against Springfield at 1:00 on the soccer field. They will also be home Monday at 3:30 to face Stonehill.

Pam Barry

Archway Sports Writer

This past weekend the women's cross country team finished second, only three points behind MIT, in the Rhode Island College Invitational.

This week Mandy Lapierre was the top runner for Bryant, finishing fifth out of 127 runners. Heather Crouce finished right behind her in seventh place.

The big surprise for the team was freshman Carrie Stygar who finished third for Bryant. "I was really impressed by her running," said Coach Charlie Mandeville, "her finish kept us in the race and in second place."

Bryant finished only one point ahead of the Coast Guard, with Stygar's run keeping Bryant ahead.

The team continues to be strong, but will have a battle this weekend in the Tri-States, when they will again compete against the Coast Guard.

The lady Indians feel they will need to run a good race, this Saturday, to remain competitive.

Men's Soccer Prepares for NE-10 Competition

The men's soccer team won two games and dropped one last week to bring their record to 3-3-1 overall, and 0-1-1 in the NE-10.

On Tuesday, the team faced Division III opponent Rhode Island College and came away with an easy win 7-0.

Randy Leete opened the scoring off a Mike Masson pass just 2:58 into the game.

Masson, who had two other assists on the day, added the second goal just three minutes later off a Gaeton Jerome pass.

Other scorers from Bryant included Damon Del Monte, Matt Liepins, Dave McCabe, and Ryan McQueen, who added two goals during the second half.

"Since the first week we have definitely seen progress," coach Len Mercurio remarked.

"We had a set back at Bentley, but we played well against a very good team."

In the Bentley game, Bryant was defeated 1-4. The only highlight came on the lone goal when Bryant's Matt Liepins hit a line drive off the upper corner of the goal from 25 yards away.

"Our play is coming along," Mercurio said. "We just have to step-up our intensity on the field to win the big games."

Last Thursday, the team traveled to UMass Lowell and were victorious 2-0.

The team continues to get solid play in the back field from freshman Chris Anderson.

"Chris (Anderson) has been playing better and better every game, he has been a big key to the defense. Defense is the most important part of the game," Mercurio added.

The team's goal this year is to compete in the NE-10. Six of their last seven games are against NE-10 opponents and they are focusing on that part of the season.

"This Saturday we have a big conference game at Springfield. They knocked us out of the playoffs last year," Mercurio said. "We need a win to boost our confidence."

Caesar Jeha (14) dribbles a ball downfield during their game against RIC on Tuesday.

"The players attitudes need to be confident that we can win. If we step-up our intensity we will step-up our confidence," Mercurio added.

The team will travel to Springfield on Saturday and Franklin Pierce on Tuesday.

Men's Golf Looking to Defend Title

The golf team has competed in three tournaments so far this season and is looking forward to the New England.

In the NE-10's, rain overshadowed the match which will be rescheduled for October. At the rain-delay, Bryant was leading over its opponents.

In the UConn tournament, Bryant finished in eighth place, competing against Division I schools.

In the Yale Invitational, Bryant placed 19 out of 34 teams where again Bryant was only one of two non-Division I schools.

Coach Boulet says he is pleased with the play of his team. So far, according to Boulet, the best individual performance from a team member has come from freshman Ray Issler.

In the UConn tournament, Issler tied for eighth place. Boulet also said Brian Baker has started out well this season.

Along with Issler and Baker the team consists of Mike Marco, Mike Walsh, Chris Carter, Brian Bein, Wil Hatchler, Joe Nagle, Jim Pucci, Jeff Waber, and Greg Fedrico.

The team is very excited for the upcoming ECAC Qualifying tournament which Bryant College is hosting at the Norton Country Club in Norton, MA.

They are also looking towards the New England in late October which Bryant won last year. "We are hoping to repeat as New England Champs," said Coach Boulet, "but we will have strong opposition from Hartford, URI, Providence College, U-Conn, Central Connecticut, and Boston College. We need the whole team to be on track for those tournaments."

Women's Tennis Still Successful

The women's tennis team upped their record to 5-1 last week by beating Merrimack College 7-2 overall.

However, against Salve Regina, Bryant lost a close match 5-4.

Third singles Amy Polatsek was plagued by an injury in the third set, causing her match to be forfeited. Pam Bowman suffered an injury in her split set match and lost in the third set.

Tabitha Kent at first singles, Dana Tessier at second singles, Colleen Shepard at fourth singles and Kent and Shepard at first doubles were all victorious.

On Saturday, Bryant participated in a grass court tournament in Newport at the International Tennis Hall of Fame.

Bryant finished fourth out of eight teams in this tournament.

Monday, the girls played Assumption for an easy win 6-2 overall. Tessier, Polatsek, Shepard, Katie Coates, and Bowman were all victorious in singles play. Kent and Shepard and Amy Becker and Bowman were victorious in doubles.

The team will be at UMass Lowell on Thursday, and Springfield on Saturday. They will then return home to face St. Anselm's at 3:00 on Tuesday.

Volleyball Continues To Roll

The women's volleyball team went 2-1 this week to improve their record to 10-2 on the season.

On Tuesday, as co-captain Maria Bras was sidelined with a shoulder injury, the lady Indians were defeated by Bentley 9-15, 15-17, 10-15. Bryant showed some signs of being able to beat Bentley without their big outside hitter but, the lady Falcons prevailed in the end.

"Obviously it made a big difference not having Maria," coach Tamara Sutton said.

"We just couldn't allow her to play, if she were to swing wrong it could cause a career ending injury."

The rest of the team stepped up their play to try and compensate for the loss. "Everyone played hard. Our defense was very good, but had a few mental lapses," Sutton said. "On offense our setters Dottie (Beattie) and Meribah (Dean) played well and really hustled to get to the ball."

Kim Potrzebowski and Karen Michalski also provided some leadership when needed by pulling the team together after set-backs.

The lady Indians traveled to Rhode Island College on Monday and came away with a win.

Even though the match only went three games, RIC was never too far behind and provided some excitement.

Last Thursday, Bryant defeated St. Anselm's College in three out of four matches by scores of 15-7, 15-9, 7-15, 15-11. The team out played their NE-10 rivals and got some surprising play in unexpected places.

Keisha Gaillard came off the bench in game four and provided some big kills to give Bryant the win.

Sharon Pacheco also came off the bench and gave our setters a much needed rest.

The team will host East Nazarene today at 7:00.

They will then be on the road at the Springfield Invitational on Saturday and return home to face Springfield at 7:00 on Tuesday.

Men's Cross Country Improving

Look Toward the Tri-Sates

The men's cross country team took sixth place in the Rhode Island College Invitational last Saturday.

Leading the way for the Indians once again was Tom Gaspar who placed second overall with a time of 27:57 for the five mile course.

Gaspar then ran in the Smithfield Lions Alcohol Awareness race the next day and finished third.

Second, on Saturday, was Mike Walsh, finishing 17th overall with a time of 28:50; Pete Gosselin was the next Bryant finisher; 35th with a time 29:33.

Rounding out the top five were Darryl Cook, 30:07, 45th overall; and Tim Crawford, 30:45, 57th overall. Other scorers for the Indians were Ron Cloutier, 30:48, 60th overall and Paul Dailey, 31:42, 71st overall.

Other runners were Andy DeRose, 33:51, 87th overall; Mike Noon, 31:44, 72nd overall; and Mark Livingston, 33:40, 89th overall.

"The team is coming along," Gaspar said. "We had a rough beginning, but Saturday showed that we are working to improve."

"As for my race I just took advantage of a flat fast course."

The team is focusing on their upcoming meet, the Tri-States which will be their biggest meet so far this season.

"It's a home meet and we know the course," Gaspar added.

The Indians feel they could use this meet as a stepping stone for the remainder of the season.

"It is one of the toughest courses around but, we have the know it well. (The meet) should be a good indicator for the rest of the season," Gaspar concluded.

The team is optimistic about this weeks meet: the Tri-States which will be held here, at Bryant, on Saturday at 11:00 am.

Athlete OF THE WEEK

This week's Athlete of the Week is Tom Gaspar of the men's cross country team. Gaspar finished second in the Rhode Island College Invitational on Saturday, posting a time of 27:58 for the five mile course.

The next day Gaspar ran in the Smithfield Lions Alcohol Awareness Road Race and finished third with a time of 16:53 for the 3.1 mile course.
