

11-1943

Letter Written by Katherine Trickey to Her Folks Dated November 16, 1943

Katherine W. Trickey

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/trickey>

Recommended Citation

Trickey, Katherine W., "Letter Written by Katherine Trickey to Her Folks Dated November 16, 1943" (1943). Trickey, Katherine W.. Paper 1.

<http://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/trickey/1>

This Personal Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Letters by Women During World War II at DigitalCommons@Bryant University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Trickey, Katherine W. by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Bryant University. For more information, please contact dcommons@bryant.edu.

FALMOUTH

THE FALMOUTH HOTEL

C. L. RIDLON, MANAGER

Middle Street, Portland, Maine

ONE MINUTE FROM MONUMENT SQUARE

HEADQUARTERS
AMERICAN AUTOMOBILE ASSOCIATION
PORTLAND ROTARY CLUB

8.50 PM.
Nov. 16, 1943.

Dear Mother,

I hated to say goodbye, but don't let yourself feel too badly because I shall be doing what I want to do. I'll be seeing new places & doing different things.

The ride down was glorious. In the light from the bus, the trees on the edge of the road ~~shone~~ bright & glistening. The evergreens were loaded with snow and even the deciduous trees were coated on the bare branches. The fields were white and often I could catch a glimpse up a snow covered country road. The lights in the houses shining out on the snow covered lawns made cheerful spots in the dark landscape. There was snow even the Peering Park. There couldn't have been a nicer farewell ride between Lewiston + Portland unless it had been in the summer. I was glad it was snowy before I left.

I have room 104 with 5 other girls none of whom have arrived
yet. --- 2 single beds + 4 cots.

I'm going to try a cot tonight in hopes
I'll like it better than the falmouth beds.

Tell Dad that the Woodworth store near the Lewiston Auburn bridge had a big selection of toys in the window tonight.
I am going to mail this tonight in hopes you will get tomorrow afternoon.

Much, much love

Kay.