Dear friends,

Many thanks for your holiday package. Rest assured it was enjoyed by many including yours truly.

Since you are open for suggestions, may I submit all the output of your alumni publication. And one and once a month, we all long to know what has befallen of our Bryant classmates. Food is fine. Moral good. Superfine, you see. From Home is what we crave.

Again, many thanks, God.

Bless you all.

Sincerely,

Maurice G. Tallio-

P.S. I shared your last letter with Paul Flagg, also of the class of ’42. He has since left Camp Ritchie for the Pacific Theater. He enjoyed it to the utmost degree.
