Over 2000 Students at Bryant College

ALL-COLLEGE DANCE

Friday evening, September 20, has been designated as Anoquaint-Eve. New students will have the opportunity to meet the upper-classmen of the entire college at the traditional All-College Dance. Tommy Mann and his orchestra have been engaged to fill the Bryant Auditorium with sweet music. A spokesman of the Administration has announced that in addition to dancing and refreshments in the Auditorium, there will be dancing and refreshments in all dormitories. Identification tags will be available for everyone attending, and a reception committee composed chiefly of senior Student Council members is being formed.

A prediction has been made that this year's All-College Dance will break all attendance records.

Student Council Officers installed

The Student Council, an organization representing the student body, elected its officers at the September election in South Hall. President Charles J. Wiegus of Thompsonville, Mass., was re-elected as President. Birt who is now a member of the faculty. Dorothy Hill was elected Vice-president. Other officers elected were: Secretary, Eileen Kingsley; Treasurer, Henry Zinno; Recording Secretary, Jerome Goldberg.

COUNCIL REVIEWS

APPLICATIONS

The Editor and Co-Editor of the Archway made the following appointments at a recent reorganizational meeting: Editorial Staff, Lorraine Describee, Barbara Brunelle, Barbara Niesmack, Lorraine Lemay; Advertising Staff, Lorraine Lemay, Barbara Niesmack; Circulation, Mary Kouns; Typewriting, Dorothy Hill and Blanche Arozovan; Cartoonist, Mike Dwyer; Executive Editor, Breverly Breverly.

The names of those appointed have been submitted to the Student Council for approval. Each appointee's character, ability, and scholastic record has been reviewed and from all indications the Archway's high standards are to be maintained.

The Editor has announced that there are still a few openings. Freshmen who have had newspaper or literary experience are requested to apply.

CLAUDE MESSINGER

Claude Messinger was re-elected president of Delta Sigma Iota Chi. Victorene Healy, past secretary, was elected vice-president to replace Dorothy Oter. The new executive office was held by Gloria DeAnnis and the treasurer's office by Mary Torricci.

The long awaited "Mother and Daughter" cotillion on Willow Hill at which time a garden cersage was given to each mother. An impressive ritual, dedicated to the deities of the older boys, in accounts of the school administration did not originate with Plato, since there are references to the "Irenes," or pupil companies under the direction of the older boys of Spartan boarding schools, but at least our first definite descriptions date from this brilliant Athenian conception.

Through the ages Student Councils in schools throughout the world have proved to be valuable assets not only to the students but also to the school administrations.

Here at Bryant, the Student Council has been an influential or- ganization, and its present role will be respected by both the Adminis- tration and the students it has represented. But, here is a reminder to the old students of the existence of the new. A Student Council that receives no suggestions from the student body is as worthless as the proverbial ship without a sail.

Student Council meetings, as you know, are held monthly. Attendance is non-mandatory to the members of the Council alone. The doors of the meeting chambers are open to each and every student of Bryant College. It is a known fact that extracurricular activities do not ordinarily "just grow up," untended, unencouraged, unguided, unsupervised, or even controlled by an institution's Administration or its student body. If you have any suggestions pertaining to "activities," don't hesitate to tell them. If your suggested activity is a desirable one, a practicable one, if it will be interesting to the student body, if it is within the comprehension of the group concerned, if it will encourage initiative and originality, enlarge the student's horizon, and lead to further interests, then certainly it is the kind of an idea the Council is eternally in search of.

Aim your dusty camera at South Hall's Archway, click, develop, and submit the picture to the editor of the Archway. If your picture is submitted will be examined by the Archway Staff and if yours is selected for use on the Archway's nameplate, the ring is yours.

SMILE AWHILE

"Are you positive that the defendant was drunk," asked the judge.

"No doubt," growled the officer.

"Why are you so certain?"

"Well," replied the officer, "I saw him put a penny in the patrol box on Fourth street, then look up at the clock on the church and shout: 'Good heavens, I've lost 14 pounds!'"

A woman got on a Madison Avenue bus in New York and, after a search through her purse, came out with a $10 bill.

"That's all right, lady," said the driver, "you'll have 199 of them in a minute."
