

12-7-1943

Letter Written by Katherine Trickey to Her Folks Dated December 7, 1943

Katherine W. Trickey

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/trickey>

---

Recommended Citation

Trickey, Katherine W., "Letter Written by Katherine Trickey to Her Folks Dated December 7, 1943" (1943). Trickey, Katherine W.. Paper 8.
<http://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/trickey/8>

This Personal Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Letters by Women During World War II at DigitalCommons@Bryant University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Trickey, Katherine W. by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Bryant University. For more information, please contact dcommons@bryant.edu.

FORT OGLETHORPE, GEORGIA

Tues. Dec 7.

Pvt Katherine W Truckey
A100,388
Co. 13, 21st Reg Bldg 7-1511
3rd WAC Training Center.
Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia

Dear Folks,

Even this letter is going to be short. As I said on my carb, I had KP Sunday, and consequently had no time to write any letters.

We have been busy all day with classes, evenings with washing clothes, cleaning shoes, cleaning barracks, etc. It certainly keeps one busy every moment to keep up with all that is expected of one. I'm still enjoying it however.

I am sending home my suitcase with my civilian clothes, and Dot's Xmas Present. I hope it arrives before Xmas. Will you please send the suitcase back to me immediately so I can have it if I need it.

I am enclosing a small gift for Mother which I thought she might like. Whether this has to serve as a Xmas present will depend on whether I can get to Chulanooga Brook or not. I'm not sure how passes are given.

As soon as possible I will send you a real letter telling in detail what we're doing. Sorry this has to be such a hurried scribble.

My shots have not really bothered me at all. I've been fortunate. I've been perfectly well so far. In fact I've felt better than I have for months. That spell of indigestion which I had for so long is all over.

Being writing again soon
Loads & loads of love to you all

Kay -