my Darling,
When I got home from work tonight, I found two valentines and a letter from you. You're so sweet, honey.

Happy Valentine's Day darling.

This letter certainly isn't progressing very rapidly. Interruptions abound. Let's see where we can go with it.

Oh yes, happy old boy. I said that was nice already. As you can tell, I'm a little confused.

Have you told Sweetie what time we're getting married? What a nice sound that has. Will we be able to get there in time? How far away are you from him?
It's freezing in here. I'm sitting up under a blanket. Wish you were here.

Anyway, Beryl will I be glad to get down there where it's nice and warm. Probably the temperature will hit an all-time low March 9th.

Golly, darling, why does time go so damned slowly when we're apart and pass fast the minute we're together.

Trying to locate my calendar, now to count the days until March 11th. About five times a day, I count and always get the same answers. Now here's one of them again.

Foun... it only 25 more.
dear darling, will you be able to see us at all. i hope that we can be together for a while before we're married - everyone keeps telling me that's the happiest time. fine thing. that's very encouraging. but it certainly has been wonderful, even though we weren't together very much.

in 12 more days i won't be working. that will be so nice. lying in bed all morning. what a lovely dream. really, i won't be able to lie in bed in the morning until after we're married. i'll really miss you.
Remember that street car conductor

That I told you about! He married we got to .

I'd wanted he must have been crazy! He looked like such a wonderful nice old man. That just goes to prove you never can tell about men!

Oh honey, I finally found a

Valentine that was halfway what

I wanted. You probably wait got it until after Valentine's day. Anyway,

the thought was there.

The best to day. We got out early today again. Thank goodness.

I'm sorry that I didn't write last night. At least, I think I did. At this point I'm not sure about anything. Honestly, what a day! I'm glad to get back to last night. I want to see "The King is Dead" at least once.

Boy, it was cute. Have you seen it?

It reminded me so much of you. In a woodsy sort. Almost any picture lately reminds me of you, though.

You wrote me again. I got your letter last Friday that you missed me that night more than usual. Isn't that strange?

But I missed you more than that night and loved you more than usual. It isn't that strange.

That Jack Carson show is on again, but I'm in a plane sitting in a boot-bag, or on it in whatever you do. It was a blast.
bay door. Anyways, Jack wanted to ask what to do if the bay doors opened. Treacher said pick out a nice Germany family and don't forget to go home when you feel

It -

See, darling, I love you so much. I wish we were together tonight and every night.

See, honey, I hope you get that right flying over with som. You'll be so tired if you climb try to get as much

rest as you can before we came down.

When do you start on your daylight cross countries? How many do you have? On those cross countries, honey do you fly more than four lanes?
I love the way you tell me that you're going to try to call me and then you never call when you plan to. Besides, I always get the letters days after you've called.

I'm so glad that you're going to get the ring. Honey, I wasn't looking forward to picking them out at all. Oh, just forget I wear 3 1/2. I had the engagement ring 3 1/4 but it's too big and slides all around. 3 1/2 was what he wanted me to have but I never took advice. I have to find out for myself.

We want some wedding invitations, honey, but we will have announcements.

So if you'll be a good little angel and sit down and make out a list of all your friends that you'd like to tell you're married, it will help no end. That's a pretty big order, I know, but about how many people would you like to send them to? Give me a rough idea. Not too rough but a good guess. Overestimate rather than underestimate. They'll probably be millions because I can think of millions of hands.

Dear Darling, I wish you were still at Stewart Field. That stationery brings back memories. Wasn't it wonderful when you were getting home every weekend?

We were so lucky, Lassie, to have so much time together. You cost us no end of money lately with all this writing. Because at this point I'm all out of it.
envelopes again. Don't have any sides of ham.

At F.B. mail this...

Yes, exactly the way I figured
it into Texas just leased a horse and started very logical. Remember the Rodeo? I hope that we can find some horses because I love
riding so. We'll have to go together.
Every weekend it gets colder and colder
dear. I wish I could get a suntan before the wedding without a white dress.

How many hours do you have
Now, honey?

Charlotte's definitely coming down as you probably know by now - I'm so glad because I wanted someone I knew to be there - what did you do about the rooms?

Honey? Did you change the reservations? What did you get?

They're going to get mighty tired of your changing their reservations all the times. We'd all like to be together if possible. If they have a double bed or a single, in one room that would be all right. Charlotte and I could sleep on a window sill.
Honestly, honey, you and weather.

It's really pittyful I do wish you'd carry a thermometer around with you for a few hours and

find out what the temperature

is.

Do you think the nights will stay mast cool? My fur coat I haven't worn it since you left.

Beck has recently had a fine bride

by temprature. Honestly, what a wedding? Betty, nothing normal on would ever happen to us.

If you go over from the West coast, darling, can I be with you in California until you go.

Be even in about 24 weeks will end of some days in England. I wish to arrange things as much as possible.

Shall we be home soon? I need to make a plan for how to handle things in California for a while. I wish to do something else while we are here. It wouldn't have done anything for me.
August of the beginning of September and you were the one who gave me the idea that you'd be in contact before October. Honey, I'm said so in one of your letters. There is nothing honey, don't try to keep anything from me for fear that I'll worry or anything like that. Maybe I will to a certain extent but I'd be too busy being happy in the knee that we have to worry about what you are going on. But, as you said, that's a long way off, honey, and we'll think about that later.

See honey in the movies they always think of so many wary to tell each other how much they love each other but I never can quite to change my writing get new ideas. But I do love you so darling. Saturday maybe you'll know how much.

Every once in a while I
just can't believe that it's happening
to us. You're so wonderful to me and it just seems too wonderful to believe. Golly Maude it will certainly be some day for the
you. Getting your wings and married in the same day. When a few hours tour

But we got the friends great
I have to keep writing because I don't have any envelope. I don't think so this will go on indefinitely on second thought. I'd better not have a few need tiny envelopes.

Golly dangley, imagine us getting married. I still can't believe it. It's marvelous to be in love with you. You're so wonderful and sweet.

Did you get the wires yet honey? Don't forget to tell me when you do.

Oh, honey, please tell me about Scotch. I've got to know soon, or it will be too late to get any.
I received writing good at school. I may go to the movies with Daddy tomorrow night but I'll write no matter what.

I love you more than any thing in the world. I'll love you, with all my heart.

Always,

Dottie
