

June 29, 1943
Fort Dix, N.J.

Dear Mom

Happily I received your letter to-day. Well, our post lockers were taken to Post of Embarkation Sunday so I expect it won't be too long before we sail or fly or entrain or whatever to wherever we are going!!

We have been off duty since Sunday just hanging around - waiting for our orders - and the weather is so warm. Yesterday the photographer in Wrights town where we had our photos taken invited four of us to his home in Beavers Mills for dinner. He has a lovely home on the lake - his wife serves a real Italian dinner - wine and 6 courses.
It was a lovely thing to do! We have a standing invitation to visit them at their home in the Beaver after the war for another sumptuous Italian dinner Love to all
Mae