

Prayer read at Centennial Flag-Raising Ceremony
Tuesday, January 29, 1963

O Lord God, Giver of all good things, Author of all truth and knowledge, during this the centennial celebration of our College, we turn to You: first, to give thanks for all the favors You have bestowed upon us -- in particular for the leadership of the College; for the members of its administration and faculty, both of the past and of the present; and for the continued success of this school's graduates and students. Now we ask You for Your continued blessings on this our College, and also for its growing task of preparing young men and women for Your service, to lead a full life and to reap Your blessings.

Amen.

(composed by Interfaith Council;
read by Louis A. Baer, student president of Newman Club)