

2-14-1944

Letter Written by Katherine Trickey to Her Folks Dated February 14, 1944

Katherine W. Trickey

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/trickey>

Recommended Citation

Trickey, Katherine W., "Letter Written by Katherine Trickey to Her Folks Dated February 14, 1944" (1944). Trickey, Katherine W.. Paper 18.

<http://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/trickey/18>

This Personal Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Letters by Women During World War II at DigitalCommons@Bryant University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Trickey, Katherine W. by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Bryant University. For more information, please contact dcommons@bryant.edu.

Monday Feb 14
WAC Det 1RTC
Camp Wheeler, Georgia

Dear Folks,

Got your letter of Feb 10 Saturday P.M. (You see mail comes very quickly.) also the papers. I am enclosing the signed Registration Blank - The more I think about going to Camp for vacation, the more it seems as if that might not be the best thing to do. I should of course want to see Aunt Grace + Beverly + also Aunt Ruth + Uncle Walter and I'll have only 7 days at home at the most. Perhaps it would be better to go to Bangor just for a couple of days and stay overnight at the Y or something, just Mother + I maybe or something, or perhaps I could get gas enough so we could drive over. I maybe able to get extra gas for my furlough I don't know. Anyway don't try to plan very much because everything is so uncertain as to when I can come and I'll not know for a while anyway. I don't want you to have to work so hard getting ready for me to come that you'll not enjoy my being there.

I went to Macon Sat. evening and shopped for little things. Didn't stay very late. yesterday I took the day off + stayed in bed + read until 4 o'clock in the afternoon. We had bought rolls + cookies in town so I didn't even go to dinner. Last night we went to a piano concert at the Service Club. + then I went to bed early again. That's all the news since I wrote before.

I'll write again soon.

Love

Kay