DOCTOR OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
THE HONORABLE LUTHER H. HODGES
President of Rotary International

Few distinguished Americans can point to long years of dedicated service and accomplishment in both government and business such as yours. You have served as Governor of the State of North Carolina and as U. S. Secretary of Commerce under Presidents Kennedy and Johnson, and you have held other high government posts in numerous agencies in this country and abroad. Before retirement from business in 1950 you were recognized for your management abilities and leadership in the textile industry. Since 1923 you have been actively serving Rotary International in numerous offices and you are now President of this service organization. Honoring your many accomplishments, the University of North Carolina, your Alma Mater, and twelve other colleges and universities have awarded you honorary degrees. Bryant College is proud to add to these honors by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa.

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
FRANK G. WANGEMAN
Senior Vice President, Hilton Hotels Corporation

Great hotels are symbols of a sophisticated and cultivated society. Undoubtedly the key to their success is talented management. Today we honor such a manager, one who has raised the profession of innkeeping to a fine art. Frank George Wangeman, as a second generation hotel man, you have achieved an international reputation in this highly specialized field. Born in Germany, you were educated at the Sorbonne in Paris, the University of Zaragoza in Spain and the Hotel School in Lausanne, Switzerland. In this country you did advance work at the Graduate Schools of Business at Columbia, New York University, Harvard and the Aspen Institute for Humanistic Studies. Presently you are the Senior Vice President of the Hilton Hotels Corporation and Vice President and General Manager of the Waldorf Astoria where you were appointed to the position of Assistant Manager at the early age of twenty-three. A founding member of Hilton Hotels International, you have also directed such famous hotels as the Plaza, the Roosevelt and New Yorker in New York City, the Town House in Los Angeles, and the Caribe Hilton in Puerto Rico. A Director and Trustee of many famous institutions, you also serve as Director of the Fifth Avenue Association, the New York Board of Trade and other civic associations. You are already the recipient of an award for "Distinguished Achievement in International Management Education and Advancing the Profession of Innkeeping." Bryant College echoes these sentiments and confers upon you its highest honors with the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa.

WALTER BEINECKE, JR.
Director and President, Osceola Operating Corporation

You have given brilliant leadership to many organizations renowned in the realm of business. Your leadership and direction have enlarged the scope and the productivity of these organizations. At the same time you have devoted your energies to the encouragement and support of education. Altogether yours has been a career of distinction. A graduate of St. George's School in Newport, you entered the business world early in life. As Vice President of Sperry and Hutchinson Company you helped to develop this great corporation with noteworthy success. Your leadership of the Osceola Corporation as President and Director has increased the vast holdings of this company to include radio stations, cattle ranches, real estate and tourist facilities in Florida. You have also achieved eminence as Chairman of the Christmas Club Corporation. Kirkland College for Women, which opens its doors this Fall, is honored to have you as Chairman of the Board. Bryant College is proud to honor you today as one of the significant business leaders of our country, by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa.

WILLIAM S. FISHMAN

President, Automatic Retailers of America, Inc.

Yours has been an extraordinary career in business management and development. A graduate of the University of Illinois with high honors, you had hoped to pursue a career as college professor, but the sudden death of your father left you responsible for a wholesale candy and tobacco distributorship which, over the years, you have built into the largest corporation in the country managing food and refreshment services for industrial, institutional, recreational and government clients in forty-four states, the District of Columbia, Canada, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. President of Automatic Retailers of America, you also find time to serve in the management of numerous merchandising, educational, musical and civic organizations. Bryant College is pleased to recognize your accomplishments by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa.

WILLIAM JOHN MARTIN

Chairman of the Board, South Shore National Bank

Yours has been a notable career, not only in banking and business, but also in service to humanity. Rising from messenger you have become President and now Chairman of the Board of the South Shore National Bank, and you have held high offices in other banks, businesses and banking associations. But you have also become renowned for your untiring work in the fight against tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases for which you have been awarded a certificate of outstanding leadership by the National Tuberculosis Association, and you have been cited by the Quincy B'nai B'rith for devoted and dedicated work on behalf of victims of respiratory diseases, regardless of race or religion. Bryant College is pleased to recognize your accomplishments in banking and your services on behalf of humanity by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa.

EARL S. TUPPER

Inventor and Industrialist

Self-educated business leader and scientist, and descendant of one of the oldest families in the American Colonies, you have become the peer of plastic research and development in this country. The discoveries, processes, specialized machinery, manufacturing plants developed by you and the distributive organizations growing out of your pioneering in plastics have become an empire which is a monument to your accomplishments. Now retired, you are devoting your energies to research and development of still other industries, including new home concepts. Your gift of your homestead to Bryant College as the future campus of this institution has become a highlight of your numerous philanthropies. Bryant College is honored to recognize all your accomplishments by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa.

DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

ENID A. HAUPT

Editor-in-Chief, "Seventeen" Magazine

Distinguished journalist, author, patron of the arts, horticulturist and philanthropist, your name, Enid A. Haupt, means "Mother, Advisor, and Consultant" to millions of young women under twenty who find direction from Seventeen Magazine, of which you are Editor-in-Chief. For your work with young people you have received numerous awards from the French Republic, the Government of the Netherlands, the 4H Clubs of America, the Pan American Union, the United States Committee for UNICEF, and others. Your philanthropic activities have been extensive, including scholarship gifts to Lincoln Center, "Please DO Touch The Merchandise" fashion shows for blind teen-age girls, and grants to colleges and universities represented in television's "College Bowl." Your interest in art is manifested by your collection of paintings and drawings which has won international renown. For your distinguished service to young women throughout the world, Bryant College is pleased to confer upon you the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

PERCY HODGSON

President, Parkin Yarn Mill, Inc.

Civic and Christian leader, businessman, author, lecturer and ambassador of good will throughout the free world, yours has been an extraordinary career of service to your fellow man. Your messages of human relationships, carried by you in several trips around the world, have won you decorations by eight nations, and for your services you have been named outstanding citizen by numerous cities and states in this country and abroad. Your book, Service Is My Business, written in collaboration with Rotary International, of which you were President, broadcasts your thesis of fellowship among mankind, and it has been translated into eight foreign languages. Yet, you have found time also to direct the affairs of many civic, educational and humanitarian organizations at home. Universities throughout the country have honored you with doctorates in Law, the Humanities and Oratory for your world-wide services on behalf of international good will. Bryant College is proud to add to this recognition by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa.

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE IN COMMERCE

GEORGE J. KELLEY

Senior Vice President, Swank, Inc.

Your career in business, finance and education has been one of outstanding accomplishment. A graduate of Bryant College with a Bachelor's Degree, you have risen to become Senior Vice President of the largest manufacturer of men's jewelry in the world. But more than this, you have given your services to a number of professional organizations, you have helped raise substantial sums for colleges and universities because of your interest in higher education and business education; and you have become one of the country's leading authorities on electronic data processing, credit and financial management, and you have written numerous articles on these subjects. Your accomplishments have been recognized by Piedmont College which awarded you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration; by Elon College, with the degree of Doctor of Laws; and by Bryant College which awarded you the Outstanding Alumni Award in 1961. Bryant is pleased to add to these honors by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Commerce, honoris causa.
