

8-5-1944

Letter Written by Katherine Trickey to Her Folks Dated August 5, 1944

Katherine W. Trickey

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/trickey>

Recommended Citation

Trickey, Katherine W., "Letter Written by Katherine Trickey to Her Folks Dated August 5, 1944" (1944). Trickey, Katherine W.. Paper 63.

<http://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/trickey/63>

This Personal Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Letters by Women During World War II at DigitalCommons@Bryant University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Trickey, Katherine W. by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Bryant University. For more information, please contact dcommons@bryant.edu.

5 Aug 1944

Dear Folks,

Just a note. It is noon time to go to work.

Not much of news. Marjorie + I went to town Thursday. I got my stripes on and Marjorie got a haircut. Then we ate at the New Yorker + went to a show. "Chip off the Old Block" We found we'd both seen it, but it was clever enough for us both to like it even better a second time. Last night we mowed + cut the lawn around the barracks. It was very natural to be using a lawn mower again and rather good. The lawn is about like ours at camp! for roughness, however.

I got my Date Dress yesterday. an 18 1/2 fits perfectly except for length. It's swell. And going to town tonight with Kerner + Marjorie for dinner + show.

Tomorrow afternoon + evening. our detachment is having a picnic at a country estate about ten miles from Macon. private swimming pool. It sounds fun. I'm looking forward to it

Will write again Monday if possible

Love to all

P.S. Am enclosing a set of the stripes I'm wearing now.
Kay