

8-25-1944

Letter Written by Katherine Trickey to Her Folks Dated August 25, 1944

Katherine W. Trickey

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/trickey>

---

Recommended Citation

Trickey, Katherine W., "Letter Written by Katherine Trickey to Her Folks Dated August 25, 1944" (1944). Trickey, Katherine W.. Paper 68.

<http://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/trickey/68>

This Personal Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Letters by Women During World War II at DigitalCommons@Bryant University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Trickey, Katherine W. by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Bryant University. For more information, please contact dcommons@bryant.edu.

[Aug 25, 1944]

Fri A.M.

Dear Folks,

The week is almost over again. They certainly do go by quickly.

Monday <sup>evening</sup> I went to the library for the walk,

Tuesday evening I went to the dentist (I had lost a filling) and then in town and had a very nice waffle with syrup at a small waffle shop.

Wednesday evening I went to the movies to see Katherine Hepburn in "Dragon Seed". It is one of the great movies I believe. She played her finest role. but even so was eclipsed by the acting of Walter Houston + Aline Mahon who played the father + mother.

It is, of course, a war picture and is not pleasant but it is full of Chinese life + reactions which seem to be very true.

The photography is exceptionally fine.

Last night we had our company meeting then I washed + ironed + sewed until 10.30.

We have moved our file unit out into the back room with the 201 files. I don't know how we will like it but it seems all right so far.

I am snatching a moment to write this first thing at the office but do know whether
I can find an envelope so as to mail it before noon or not.

Hastily

Kay.