Dear Folks,

What a change in the weather!
We have showered all day + all last night.
It is just 68 in the barracks this minute
and we've all got sweaters on, and love it!

Marjorie + I went to the movies
Friday night and saw "Janie" Don't miss it for light entertainment. Dot +
Beverly especially will enjoy it..

Yesterday we both had the afternoon off. It was raining but we thought we'd go in town about 3:30 + shop + have supper. So we decided to rest a while after lunch. We crawled into bed and when it quieted down after the gang went back to work, we both went sound asleep and never woke up until 4.30 - Were we surprised! So we ate early chow here and then went to town. I bought boxes of candy for the boys for Xmas. I thought it would be better than trying to find small items to fill boxes. I bought four of one kind (Pecan patties) + one for Phil Cheeseman of assorted candies so that Phil's Roger's would not be the same. That will take care of Craig, Tex + Bob also.

after we shopped we went to a show "Meet the People" - not bad but nothing to rave about.

I didn't get up until noon today. after dinner Margorie + I took an hour's walk in the woods then went back and had a nap before supper. So you see it has been a quiet week-end.

We are going to have a tennis court right out back of the barracks. It ought to be done in about a week. ~~I think I'll buy a new racket~~ No! Will you send mine to me immediately. Seems if it could be sent by parcel post O.K. I believe the case + press are already on it. If I find after I try it that it still doesn't suit me, then I'll see about buying a new one and I'll have the case + press here.

I'm trying to finish this as I sit in the barracks day room. There are only 7 of us here with the radio going and Tommie Wasserman is reading all the letters we've written to her sister who is a WAC in Italy. It's hard to concentrate! We just heard a broadcast from Paris. It makes one feel queer to think how wonderful they must feel in Paris tonight.

I bought some pears last night. The first of the season. My but they certainly tasted swell.

Just think Labor Day is a week from tomorrow. Does it seem possible that the summer is practically over? Thank goodness, the heat hasn't been as bad as we expected. I believe I could get used to living down here, OK. but I certainly don't want to have to get used to it.

Must stop now,

Love

Ray
