One Hundred and Forty-First Commencement Ceremony

SATURDAY, MAY 22, 2004
Welcome

A most cordial welcome is extended to relatives, friends, faculty members, alumni, administrators, and staff members who gather here to celebrate the 141st Commencement of Bryant College.

Program

Academic Procession

Flag Bearers
Bryant College Army ROTC Color Guard

Class Flag
Bryant College extends its gratitude to the late, Emeritus Honorary Trustee George J. Kelley ’39, ’69H for his generosity in providing ongoing support for the purchase and display of a graduating class flag. The 2004 Class Flag was designed by seniors from the Student Alumni Association — Andrea Barbosa, Christina Gleeson, Jesus Gonzalez, and Rachel Harper. The class flag is carried today by Andrea Barbosa and Jesus Gonzalez. “Remember the past ... welcome the future” symbolizes for the Class of 2004 that every new beginning comes from some other beginning’s end.

Throughout Our Lives: An Anthem for Bryant College

Bryant College, Black and Gold;
Your arms embrace us, young and old.
Though we be near; Though we be far;
We will remember throughout our lives.

Dear companions, classmates, friends;
Who knows where you and I will end?
Dear for a term, Dear for a year,
Darkest of all lasting through our lives.

Composer: Richard Cumming

Benediction

The Reverend Philip Devens

Honorary Degree Recipients

Nicola Bulgari
Doctor of Humane Letters
Nicola Bulgari joined the family silversmith business in the 1960s with his brother, Paolo, and has been vice chairman of the Bulgari Group since 1984. The Bulgari family descends from an ancient family of Greek silversmiths who emigrated to Italy in 1884 and opened a shop on via Condotti in 1905. This is still Bulgari's flagship store. In the 1970s Bulgari Group expanded internationally in Paris, Geneva, and Monte Carlo, and New York. Early in his career, Bulgari contributed substantially to one of the most successful aesthetic trends — the creation of jewels that included distinctive coins. The company, known for its high quality, contemporary designs, has diversified into perfumes, silk scarves, leather bags, and eyewear, and most recently table and giftware.

Susan L. Farmer
Doctor of Humane Letters
Susan L. Farmer has served as president and chief executive officer of WSBE-TV Rhode Island PBS since 1987, and is also president of the Rhode Island PBS Foundation. She was the first woman elected to a statewide office in Rhode Island, serving as Secretary of State from 1983 to 1987. Farmer is very active in the community and the industry, serving on the Governor's Telecommunications Task Force and, until recently, on the Council (Board of Directors) of the National Forum of Public Television Executives. She received the 2004 National Advocacy Award from the National Association of Public Television Stations. Farmer attended California State University and Corporation for Public Broadcasting in 1987 and participated in the Advanced Strategic Management Program at the University of California at Berkeley in 1993.
Millard Dean Fuller

Doctor of Humane Letters

Millard Dean Fuller is founder and president of Habitat for Humanity International, the worldwide Christian housing ministry. From humble beginnings in Alabama, Fuller became a self-made millionaire by age 29. But while his marketing business prospered, his health, integrity, and personal life suffered. After some soul searching, he and his wife decided to sell all of their possessions, gave the money to the poor, and find a new focus in their lives. This led them to Koinonia Farm, a Christian community where the Fullers became involved in a housing ministry. They built modest houses for low-income families, and those families were expected to invest their own labor into the building of their homes and the homes of other families. Money for building was placed in a revolving fund, enabling the building of even more homes. This concept evolved into the creation of Habitat for Humanity International in 1976. Fuller is a graduate of Auburn University in Auburn, Alabama, and the University of Alabama Law School at Tuscaloosa.

Thursday at the Graduate School Commencement, Frank J. Williams '86MST, Chief Justice of the Rhode Island Supreme Court, was awarded a Doctor of Humane Letters.
Graduation Honors and Honor Societies

Academic Honors

Cum Laude (with honors)

Magna Cum Laude (with high honors)

Summa Cum Laude (with highest honors)

Special recognition is accorded those who show distinction in academic achievement. Honors may be awarded on the basis of cumulative averages, as follows: Cum Laude (3.30), Magna Cum Laude (3.55), Summa Cum Laude (3.80). Students must have completed sixty (60) semester hours of course work at Bryant College to be eligible for honors.

Honor Societies

Beta Gamma Sigma - Beta Gamma Sigma is the highest national recognition a student can receive in an undergraduate program in a business or management program accredited by AACSB International – The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business. To be eligible for membership, a student must have earned a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 and rank in the upper seven percent of the junior class or upper 10 percent of the senior class.

Omicron Delta Epsilon - Founded in 1915, Omicron Delta Epsilon is one of the world’s largest international academic honor societies, and there has been a chapter at Bryant College since 1969. It is dedicated to the encouragement of excellence in economics. To be eligible for membership, a student must have completed a minimum of 12 semester hours of economics courses, have earned at least a “B” average in the economics courses, and have an overall scholastic average of “B” or better.

Lambda Pi Eta - Lambda Pi Eta is an accredited member of the Association of College Honor Societies. It is the official communication studies honor society of the National Communication Association. To be eligible for membership, students must have completed at least 12 hours of communication courses, have a grade point average of at least 3.25, and be in the upper 35 percent of the graduating class.

HP Honors Program - The Honors Program is Bryant’s academically enriched educational experience for talented students. To be recognized as an Honors Program graduate, a student must have successfully completed six challenging courses enhanced with a specially designed honors component.
Degree Information

The 2004 Bryant College Commencement honors certified graduates and degree candidates who are scheduled to complete course work by July 31, 2004. Honors are tentatively calculated as of the completion of the 2003 fall semester.

Code Key

The Harriet C. Jacobs Memorial Mace
The College Mace is carried at Commencement exercises and at other college celebrations. Crowned in gold, the mace has two dominant emblems: the seal of the State of Rhode Island and the seal of Bryant College.

The President's Chair
The President's Chair, a gift to the college from Priscilla Angelo and her husband, John Eng-Wong, is used on ceremonial occasions. It is a walnut, Victorian-style gent's chair copied from an original French design from the period of the college's founding in 1863. The carved crest top includes the Bryant College bronze seal.

Bryant Medallion
The Bryant Medallion is worn by the president during academic ceremonies such as Commencement, Convocation, and the bestowing of honorary degrees. One side of the medallion bears a likeness of the college seal, the other, the names of all Bryant College presidents. The formal installation of a president is marked by the presentation of the medallion to the president by the chairman of the Board of Trustees.

The Bryant Seal
The Bryant Seal represents the educational mission of the college and its worldwide implications. The central symbol is an ellipsoid globe with quills on each side to signify the traditional emblem of communication in business. In the center, behind the globe, is a torch symbolizing liberty, the spirit of free inquiry, academic freedom, and learning. The Archway, forming the background for the globe, torch, and quills, is a college landmark affectionately remembered by thousands of alumni. The Latin motto expresses the purpose of the college: "Educando Dirigere Mercaturam" – Education for Business Leadership.
Alumni Charge

Today, as you celebrate your graduation from Bryant College, you find yourself saying goodbye to the classmates, faculty, and staff with whom you have formed close friendships over these last few years. Graduation, however, is not so much an ending as a transition. It’s true that you’re about to begin a new stage of life, but as a Bryant College alumnus/us, you are never far from the community you’ve come to know as your home away from home.

In fact, one of the reasons you chose Bryant was for its close-knit community. Through the Bryant College Alumni Association, you will always be a member of this community. You can stay in touch with friends by attending class reunions and local alumni network events. And just as Bryant provided you with a solid foundation for a successful career, our alumni networks continue to support your professional goals as well.

As a Bryant student, you participated in academic, athletic, and civic events that not only provided you with many skills but also gave you a sense of satisfaction as well. As a Bryant graduate, you can stay involved by serving on college committees, advisory councils, and even the Board of Trustees. You can advance Bryant’s reputation by working on behalf of admission, career services, educational, and fund-raising initiatives. And throughout the year, Bryant alumni gather together to reach out to their communities through a number of volunteer programs.

Just as the Bryant community shared in celebration of your accomplishments as a student, we will always be interested to hear of your successes. Let us know when you’ve moved, and what milestones you’ve reached so we can share your good news with your Bryant classmates and friends.

Congratulations on your graduation and welcome to the Bryant College Alumni Association.
Academic Heraldry

The history of academic dress worn today dates back to the universities of the Middle Ages. A statute in 1321 required the wearing of gowns by all scholars and clerics. Probably the warm gown and hood were practical in the unheated buildings. Students at most American universities wore caps and gowns daily while in residence until after the Civil War. These varied in design until they were standardized by the American Intercollegiate Commission in 1895. While the academic costume code has been modified over the years, the general characteristics of the initial requirements still prevail. The uniform system of academic heraldry serves to indicate the level of degree, the field of study in which it was earned, and the institution by which it was granted. The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves and is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve and can be worn open or closed. The gown for the doctoral degree has bell-shaped sleeves with black velvet facing down the front and three bars of the same across the sleeves. However, these facings and crossbars may be in the color distinctive of the subject to which the degree pertains. At Bryant College, the president and the honorary degree recipients wear gowns especially designed and trimmed in the college color of gold.

The academic hoods are lined with the color of the university granting the degree. The border of the hood is in the color of the discipline in which the degree was earned. For example, colors associated with different subjects include: light brown (or sapphire blue) for commerce, accountancy, business; copper for economics; light blue for education; peacock blue for public administration; purple for law; and white for arts, letters, and humanities.

The length of the hood varies slightly for bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees. Today, the hood for those receiving a bachelor's degree has been replaced by the mortarboard or cap, with a long tassel in black or in the color appropriate to the subject. It is often the tradition of the candidates for degrees to wear the tassel on the right front side before the degree is conferred and to shift it to the left when the degree is awarded.
