Welcome
A most cordial welcome is extended to relatives, friends, faculty members, alumni, administrators, and staff members who gather here to celebrate the 140th Commencement of Bryan College.

Please Note: Those wishing to photograph graduates crossing the stage should take the photo and return immediately to their seats. This will allow families to have an unobstructed view of the ceremony. Standing in the aisles is not permitted under section 23-28, 19:9 of the R.I. Health and Safety Code.

Class Flag
Bryant College extends its gratitude to the late, Emeritus Honorary Trustee George J. Kelley ’39, ’68 H for his generosity in providing ongoing support for the purchase and display of a graduating class flag. The 2003 Class Flag was designed by seniors from the Student Alumni Association: David Dexter, Erica Gervais, Rebecca Harris, and Brooke Schopp. The class flag is carried today by David Dexter, Rebecca Harris, and Brooke Schopp. “Building our future, one brick at a time,” symbolizes how Bryan has contributed to expanding the knowledge and character of the senior class and has set the foundation for their continued success.

Throughout Our Lives: An Anthem for Bryant College

Bryant College, Black and Gold;
Your arms embrace us, young and old.
Though we be near; Though we be far;
We will remember throughout our lives.

Dear companions, classmates, friends;
Who knows where you and I will end?
Dear for a term, Dear for a year,
Dearest of all loving through our lives.

Composer: Richard Cumming

Honorary Degree Recipients

Governor Donald L. Carcieri
Doctor of Business Administration
Governor Donald L. Carcieri was inaugurated as Rhode Island's 57th governor on January 7, 2003. His election followed a career in business that was crowned by his tenure as chief executive officer of Cookson America and joint managing director of Cookson Group Worldwide. He retired from that position in 1997. Immediately after college, Carcieri taught math at Newport's Rogers High School and then at Concord Carlisle Regional High School in Concord, Mass. He then turned to business, where, over the course of 10 years, he built a career at Old Stone Bank, eventually becoming executive vice president. In 1981 he headed the Catholic Relief Service's West Indies operation in Kingston, Jamaica, returning to Rhode Island in 1983 to join Cookson America. Gov. Carcieri holds a bachelor's degree from Brown University.

Charles W. Costello
Doctor of Business Administration
Charles W. Costello is past president and CEO of c.w. Costello & Associates, a management information systems consulting firm he founded in 1986. He formed a close partnership with Bryant by choosing the college to train his company's new employees. By the time he sold the firm in 1998, the company had expanded to 850 employees. Now retired, he recently purchased two software companies. Prior to founding c.w. Costello & Associates, he worked for New England Systems Engineer, Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Massachusetts, and Keane Associates. In 1999, Costello and his wife, Carolyn, established a “Chair” for the study of colorectal diseases at the USC/Norris Cancer Center. Costello is a member of the President's Leadership Council at Bryant. He holds a bachelor's degree from Northeastern University.
Lulu C. Wang
Doctor of Business Administration

Lulu C. Wang is the chief executive officer of Tupelo Capital Management L.L.C., a New York-based investment firm. A chartered financial analyst, Wang has been engaged in professional money management since 1972. She was director and executive vice president of Jennison Associates Capital Corporation for 10 years before founding Tupelo Capital Management in late 1997. Wang is director of the New York Community Trust, where she chairs the Finance Committee, and is on the boards of the Columbia Business School, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and WNYC Public Radio, among others. She received her bachelor’s degree from Wellesley College, where she is a trustee, and holds an M.B.A. from Columbia Business School.

Yesterday at the Graduate School Commencement, Paul J. Choquette, Jr., chairman and CEO of Gilbane Building Company, received an Honorary Doctor of Business Administration degree.
Graduation Honors and Honor Societies

Academic Honors
Cum Laude (with honors)
Magna Cum Laude (with high honors)
Summa Cum Laude (with highest honors)

Special recognition is accorded those who show distinction in academic achievement. Honors may be awarded on the basis of cumulative averages, as follows: Cum Laude (3.30), Magna Cum Laude (3.55), Summa Cum Laude (3.80). Students must have completed sixty (60) semester hours of course work at Bryant College to be eligible for honors.

Honor Societies
β Beta Gamma Sigma - Beta Gamma Sigma is the highest national recognition a student can receive in an undergraduate program in a business or management program accredited by AACSB International – The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business. To be eligible for membership, a student must have earned a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 and rank in the upper seven percent of the junior class or upper 10 percent of the senior class.

φ Omicron Delta Epsilon - Founded in 1915, Omicron Delta Epsilon is one of the world’s largest international academic honor societies, and there has been a chapter at Bryant College since 1969. It is dedicated to the encouragement of excellence in economics. To be eligible for membership, a student must have completed a minimum of 12 semester hours of economics courses, have earned at least a "B" average in the economics courses, and have an overall scholastic average of "B" or better.

Lambda Pi Eta - Lambda Pi Eta is an accredited member of the Association of College Honor Societies. It is the official communication studies honor society of the National Communication Association. To be eligible for membership, students must have completed at least 12 hours of communication courses, have a grade point average of at least 3.25, and be in the upper 35 percent of the graduating class.

Honors Program - The Honors Program is Bryant’s academically enriched educational experience for talented students. To be recognized as an Honors Program graduate, a student must have successfully completed six challenging courses enhanced with a specially designed honors component.
Degree Information

The 2003 Bryant College Commencement honors certified graduates and degree candidates who are scheduled to complete coursework by July 31, 2003. Honors are tentatively calculated as of the completion of the 2002 fall semester.

Code Key

B  Beta Gamma Sigma graduates wear blue and gold cords with their academic robes.
Hp Honors Program graduates wear gold sashes with their academic robes.
A Omicron Delta Epsilon graduates wear green and white cords with their academic robes.
A Lambda Pi Eta graduates wear red and white cords with their academic robes.

The Harriet C. Jacobs Memorial Mace
The College Mace is carried at Commencement exercises and at other college celebrations. Crowned in gold, the mace has two dominant emblems: the seal of the State of Rhode Island and the seal of Bryant College.

The President’s Chair
The President’s Chair, a gift to the college from Priscilla Angelo and her husband, John Eng-Wong, is used on ceremonial occasions. It is a walnut, Victorian-style gent’s chair copied from an original French design from the period of the college’s founding in 1863. The carved crest top includes the Bryant College bronze seal.

Bryant Medallion
The Bryant Medallion is worn by the president during academic ceremonies such as Commencement, Convocation, and the bestowing of honorary degrees. One side of the medallion bears a likeness of the college seal, the other, the names of all Bryant College presidents. The formal installation of a president is marked by the presentation of the medallion to the president by the chairman of the Board of Trustees.

The Bryant Seal
The Bryant Seal represents the educational mission of the college and its worldwide implications. The central symbol is an ellipsoidal globe with quills on each side to signify the traditional emblem of communication in business. In the center, behind the globe, is a torch symbolizing liberty, the spirit of free inquiry, academic freedom, and learning. The Archway, forming the background for the globe, torch, and quills, is a college landmark affectionately remembered by thousands of alumni. The Latin motto expresses the purpose of the college: “Educatando Dirigere Mercaturam” – Education for Business Leadership.
Alumni Charge

Today, as you celebrate your graduation from Bryant College, you find yourself saying goodbye to the classmates, faculty, and staff with whom you have formed close friendships over these last few years. Graduation, however, is not so much an ending as a transition. It’s true that you’re about to begin a new stage of life, but as a Bryant College alumna/us, you are never far from the community you’ve come to know as your home away from home.

In fact, one of the reasons you chose Bryant was for its close-knit community. Through the Bryant College Alumni Association, you will always be a member of this community. You can stay in touch with friends by attending class reunions and local alumni network events. And just as Bryant provided you with a solid foundation for a successful career, our alumni networks continue to support your professional goals as well.

As a Bryant student, you participated in academic, athletic, and civic events that not only provided you with many skills but also gave you a sense of satisfaction as well. As a Bryant graduate, you can stay involved by serving on college committees, advisory councils, and even the Board of Trustees. You can advance Bryant’s reputation by working on behalf of admission, career services, educational, and fund-raising initiatives. And throughout the year, Bryant alumni gather together to reach out to their communities through a number of volunteer programs.

Just as the Bryant community shared in celebration of your accomplishments as a student, we will always be interested to hear of your successes. Let us know when you’ve moved, and what milestones you’ve reached so we can share your good news with your Bryant classmates and friends.

Congratulations on your graduation and welcome to the Bryant College Alumni Association.
Academic Heraldry

The history of academic dress worn today dates back to the universities of the Middle Ages. A statute in 1321 required the wearing of gowns by all scholars and clerics. Probably the warm gown and hood were practical in the unheated buildings.

Students at most American universities wore caps and gowns daily while in residence until after the Civil War. These varied in design until they were standardized by the American Intercollegiate Commission in 1895. While the academic costume code has been modified over the years, the general characteristics of the initial requirements still prevail. The uniform system of academic heraldry serves to indicate the level of degree, the field of study in which it was earned, and the institution by which it was granted. The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves and is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve and can be worn open or closed. The gown for the doctoral degree has bell-shaped sleeves with black velvet facing down the front and three bars of the same across the sleeves. However, these facings and crossbars may be in the color distinctive of the subject to which the degree pertains. At Bryant College, the president and the honorary degree recipients wear gowns especially designed and trimmed in the college color of gold.

The academic hoods are lined with the color of the university granting the degree. The border of the hood is in the color of the discipline in which the degree was earned. For example, colors associated with different subjects include: light brown (or sapphire blue) for commerce, accountancy, business; copper for economics; light blue for education; peacock blue for public administration; purple for law; and white for arts, letters, and humanities.

The length of the hood varies slightly for bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees. Today, the hood for those receiving a bachelor's degree has been replaced by the mortarboard or cap, with a long tassel in black or in the color appropriate to the subject. It is often the tradition of the candidates for degrees to wear the tassel on the right front side before the degree is conferred and to shift it to the left when the degree is awarded.
