HEBREW CO-ED CLUB
FORMED AT BRYANT

Roger Williams Lodge of B’nai B’rith to Sponsor New Organization

Having received the official approval from the Student Council and from Vice-President E. Gardner Jacobs, and having been promised the support of the Roger Williams Lodge of B’nai B’rith, one hundred Bryant students have banded together and, governed by a Steering Committee headed by Meyer Lindeman, chairman; Jack Wilkes, vice chairman; and Selma Warriner, secretary, have formed the first Hebrew Co-Ed Club at the college.

Membership is open to both day and night school students.

The aims of the new organization are to fulfill the extra curricular interests and needs of all students who identify themselves with Judaism and to promote friendship among the students of the Hebrew faith. A program will be instituted which will be cultural, educational, and social in essence. Forums and socials will be held in the club rooms, to which our non-Hebrew friends will be invited; and, in so doing, a better inter-faith relationship and understanding will be fostered.

The first meeting of the Hebrew Co-Ed Club was held at the Jewish Community Center, 65 Benefit Street.

Among the guest speakers of the evening were Mr. Max Weiss, president of the Roger Williams Lodge; Mr. Max Finke, liaison officer of the Lodge and the Co-Ed Club, the person who has been instrumental to the club’s organization; Rabbi Nathan N. Rosen, newly appointed director of the Hillel Foundation at Brown University.

Refreshments and dancing after the meeting were provided by Ladies’ Auxiliary of the B’nai B’rith and the Center.

COUNCIL HOLDS ELECTIONS

At a special election called by President Charles J. Wiegus, the Student Activity Council installed Arnold Cleveland as president for the ensuing semester. Other officers elected were: Kenneth Buenigino, vice president; Lorraine LeMay, secretary; Dorothy Hill, Recording Secretary; Terrence Reilly, treasurer.

The following are the retiring officers, who did outstanding work: Dorothy Hill, vice president; Eileen Kingsley, secretary; Henry Zimno, treasurer.

Arnold Cleveland, a student of Business Administration, is president of Tau Epsilon and co-editor of the ARCHWAY.

WINDY HOP TO BE HELD

Music Will Be Furnished By the Stardusters

Beta Sigma Gamma is to sponsor its first dance of the year, the Windy Hop will be held on March 29 in the Gym. Music for the gala occasion will be that of Johnny Glaze and his Stardusters. Highlighting the evening will be the selection of “The most appealing couple.” The selection will be made by the members of the orchestra.

Marjory Silverman and Rusty Goldenberg are in charge of tickets. The poster committee is headed by Hummy Soorkin and the decorating will be supervised by Bitty Haberman.

The Gammas will be sporting their new sorority pins for the first time.

STUDENTS ATTEND CONFERENCE

President Barbara Niemiec of Beta Chi Tau and Ruth Carty have recently returned from the conference of the New England Association of Professional Schools for Teachers. The conference was held in the Hotel Commodore, New York.

Beta Chi Tau observed St. Patrick’s Day at a party in the Bryant Gym. The evening’s program included Irish jigs, refreshments, and entertainment.

President Jacobs Announces New Appointments

Miss Adele Younis who has had many years of experience in teaching English and educational courses, has been appointed instructor in English and Education in the school of Secretarial Science. Miss Younis graduated from the Rhode Island College of Education, where she was awarded the degree of Bachelor of Science in Education and also received the degree of Master of Arts by the Boston University Graduate School, where she specialized in English and History.

Mr. Henry J. Lee has returned to Bryant College and will teach accounting courses during this semester and next year. Mr. Lee entered the U. S. Army in 1942 attaining the rank of Colonel. He was placed in charge of the War Bond Division and after leaving the Army at the conclusion of the war, was appointed comptroller of U.N.R.R.A. for the European theatre. Mr. Lee graduated from Holy Cross and holds an A.B. degree as well as a Master’s Degree in Business Administration. He is now budget director of the State of Rhode Island under the administration of Governor Robert E. Quinn and is now practicing C.P.A. with the firm of Lee & Taylor.

Mr. Frank Monti, member of the law firm, Monti & Monti, of Providence, has been appointed special instructor in law for the current semester. Mr. Monti received his Ph.B. from Providence College and was awarded an L.L.B. degree from Harvard Law School. Prior to joining the faculty, Mr. Monti was instructor at Rhode Island State College, and was an instructor at the Providence Institute of Engineering and Finance.

Added Attraction

The Archway will add color, humor, life, and action to its editorial page by subscription to a college cartoon service. The cartoons featured will be those of "Bihler," a noted and experienced campus artist whose cartoons appear in many leading college papers.

To the Staff of “The Archway”:

My heartfelt congratulations are offered to the editor, reporters, and everyone connected with the writing, editing, printing and the distribution of “The Archway.” The paper has made great strides during the past year and a half, and should be an improvement over the last one. I particularly like the human interest items and stories of the various student groups. It is interesting to think that the “Archway” will continue to be a progressive but clean paper that it has been in the past.

It is an old adage that “only the good endure,” and if everyone­ connected with the publication of this college paper will continue to bear this in mind, not only in getting “ready” The Archway, but in every other endeavor in life, I shall have no fear for the success of our Bryant graduates.

Sincerely yours,

(s) Henry L. Jacobs

HIJ: "COMMERCIALIZING DEMOCRACY"

Charges frequently have been made that the American radio has fallen into representing ideas of democracy to millions of radio listeners. The critics explain that the intent is there but the methods chosen are, too often, not the correct ones.

A survey of radio stations will agree that a 30-second singing commercial is better than a 15-minute sales talk, since it can be repeated on the air, leaving the important point of tolerance and being granted by nation-wide dial twirling. A sound remedy for this inadequacy was roused recently in the New Repub­lic. It was suggested that radio should “get Fred Allen to blacken the KKK with his satire, the Lone Ranger to sell tolerance a

Tramp: “Yes Ma'am, I seen it.”

Lady: “You should mind your grammar; you say you saw it.”

Tramp: “Lady, you say me see it, but you ain't see me saw it.”

Krupa: “What are those holes in the wood?”

Corrao: “They’re knot holes.”

Krupa: “Then what are they?”

WHISPERINGS

It has been rumored that Marilyn R. could not have a devastating time in New York, especially when it came time to order sandwiches and ginger ale (room service). Congrats to Camille for turning out such a hit at 125 Power Street. Why does Velvet Eyes become such a popular name at Bryant? We hear that Tom Maher hit 200 in bowling. Am, we hate to tell you, but he does steady with another miss. What happened to Sigma Lambda Pi's basketball team? They have undisputed possession of last place. Is it true that Bryant has a new Jumble King in the form and person of one Archie St. Clair? Why doesn't H. W. consent to go to some of the social activities? John Sadowski gives an informal invitation to all Bryant students to attend Weddings in Jewel City. If interested call MANNING 5088. Who's beautiful ring is Eddie wearing nowadays? Why do so many students want their classes changed? Is it because Post Time is at 2:15 p.m. Since when can a veteran with $65 a month afford to ride around in a 1942 Cadillac Club Coupe, John W.? What was the recent operation you underwent, Gill? Please tell us all about it. What former team did you coach, Ruby, before coming to the Bruins? I wish Ted Kramptits well the name of the girl that keeps him up until 5:30 a.m. Hank, it only cost 3 cents for a postage stamp to mail that picture back to Blanche. Elaine Wippero and Charles Allane seem to have an escort in Dan Roper. Some fun, eh kids? A little thing like a mouse can keep a girl up nights. Do you believe us, just ask Jean Murley, Susan Stamford, and Ritter MacIntyre. Why had their fortunes told. How does the future look, girl? Eddie and Tom, a new couple around campus, seem to be enjoying themselves much. Here's to more of those good times. Selma Warner has a car to do her homework in—night—Jack Wilkes. What's the fascination in Boston, Gloria and Minnie? Have you heard about that good tireAPPER?

upper Joan Fastiggi is? We've heard that since Dottie Dilley left Bryant, she's enjoying a relaxing period at home. It's rumored about that Ida Coche has been giving Stella and her roommates a hard time lately. Why don't you kiss and make up, girls? This is not rumored—it's the real thing. Ed Hannon and "Kip" Marilyn LaFrance are officially engaged. Lots of happiness to you, kids. Some dormitory girls take books to breakfast and to supper as well. Those new study hours, ta ta! Salisbury Hall Seniors of 46 and 47 had a gala reunion on February 2nd at the Sheraton. It sure was good seeing the girls back again. We aren't seeing Phil Thompson using his super tactics in basketball any more. He's left school. Lots of luck, Phil. Bea Rolf and Ed Willis have been taking driving lessons—Doing well? I guess we know Mary Davaiu had a nice birthday. She got a new car as one of her gifts. Happy mothers, Mary, Jane and Lora go well together; and have been since the 1st of October. Joanne and Bud are great ones for roochock cakes. Just ask Frank Merola and Gene Stevens if you don't believe us. Lorraine Quagliaro and George Laplace have made a steady two some lately, but they haven't anything over on Neva and Larry. We didn't know you appreciated music so, Neva? Could it be the McConnell Street influence that prompts Fran Devine to say "I'm not long for this world." Jerome Albert is passing out cigarettes but don't accept, they're Soggis. Barlow, where'd you get that hat? . . . Adeline Lienbon by blushing so shy, has captured the eye of many a guy.

REV. FAY SPEAKS

The first Newman Club meeting of the new semester proved to be one of the most interesting and successful. Following the usual business meeting, the guest speaker, Rev. John Fay of St. Mary's, Cranston, gave a talk on mixed marriages. Rev. Fay discussed a serious subject, yet relieved it a little with a few well-chosen and well-placed bits of humor.

In order to emphasize the sacredness of marriage, Rev. Fay said that only during this ceremony does the Church permit laymen to humbly enter the sanctuary where the bride and groom are elevated spiritually to a position in which God descends, forming a sacred, blessed triangle. How can a marriage, product of such unity with God, help but be strong enough to withstand the oppressions of the world?

Tentative plans have been formulated to have a retreat, in the form of a mission, at St. Joseph's Church, closing with the annual Communion Breakfast. More will be made known about this retreat at a later date.

Patient (coming out from under the other): "Why are all the blinds drawn, doctor?"

Doc: "Well, there's fire across the street, and I didn't want you to think the operation was a failure."

you get that hat? . . . Adeline Lienbon by blushing so shy, has captured the eye of many a guy.

APRIL SHOWERS BALL

If you attended the Spring Fever Festival last year, you will certainly want to come to the APRIL SHOWERS BALL which is also being sponsored by Sigma-Iota Chi. This semi-formal will be held in the auditorium on April 28. Preparations to ensure you of a gala evening, are already underway. Stan Moore's orchestra has been engaged and the committee announces that the decorations will be super-colossal.

The year was 1900. Diogenes was still looking for an honest man and met Mr. Average Veteran. "What," he asked, "were you in the Great War?"

"A private," replied Mr. Average Vet.

Diogenes blew out his lamp and went home.
