Diabetes Detection

Week-Nov. 15-21

This week marks the 9th annual Diabetes Detection Week, an event sponsored by the American Diabetes Association. The purpose of this week is to raise awareness about diabetes and encourage people to get tested.

Stowell Hall Holds Halloween Party

Stowell Hall held a spooky Halloween party complete with decorations, costume contests, and a pumpkin carving contest. The theme was "Spooky Sock Hop," and it was a fun way to celebrate the holiday.
British chapter of the Hillel Councilship was very well represented at the Commencement's annual tall dance which was held in Alexander Hall at the Hillel Councilship's "Schwartzback Armpit." The event held earlier this month for members of all of the local chapters of the Councilship. As anticipated by the mass, the ballroom theme was well-

If you're wondering what is all leading up to. One major subject—the Bulletin Board. Yes, Bryant College does have some, even though some of those notices posted.

The Bulletin Board, in my opinion, are the best rendezvous of any of us but the best to gain a few ideas to keep in mind when weighing the pros and cons of coming to your final decision.

You've been to open house, rush parties, smashes, and teas; you've met your sisters and brothers. But that was their philosophy, their dreams, and their future.

So, if and when you do decide to join a sorority or fraternity, make the right decision and start the ball rolling with enthusiasm and determination to get all out for your organization.

No doubt you are wondering what is all leading up to. One major subject—the Bulletin Board. Yes, Bryant College does have some, even though some of those notices posted.

It's a great deal of interest to the bowlers who are getting ready to start the season. A lot of skill has been brought out just in the past two weeks, and I expect to see more of it in the weeks to come. Let's keep up the good work, girls, and dig for these points.

Cribbers Beware! (E.P. Release) The Student House of Kappa Kahn released the following statement regarding uniform policy after four years of operation and experience. "The Honor Board feels that there are no degrees of cheating. You either cheat or don't. There is no twilight zone of cheating, no 'white lie.' The Honor Board also holds that absolute honor is implied in the honor system. This must be realized by the students at Kappa. A grade on a test is not important as an intellectual achievement. It must be fully comprehended by every student. For this reason, policies have been drastically tightened and a uniform policy put into effect. Ignorance either of what constitutes cheating or the consequences thereof will not be considered in deciding a case."

Various types of cheating and the existence of possible punishments are the stealing or possession of any restricted items—such as—smoking materials, cheating in general category of examinations (true, false or multiple choice), cheating papers and grading assignments—restricted status defined to be their fellows' courses, second offenders, regardless of type of offense, face automatic expulsion.

The Inquiring Twosome

By JO and JOE

There has always been much talk, both among groups and private citizens, about the good fellowship toward the coeds on campus and off, and in connection with the general activities of the students. In fact, some brave soul with the initials S.G. ran an editorial on this matter in the last issue of the Acru-

ett. The consensus of one man's (or girl's) opinion, what your inquiring Twosome are trying to do in this issue is to get the general viewpoint of the situation at hand from those actually concerned, the Bryant coeds.

Maybe sometime in the future another brave person will write an editorial about the good fellowship toward the Bryant coeds, but right now we are concerned with the fellows. So, with the help of the girls, we have put together individual opinions of what they themselves think.

QUESTION OF THE HOUR: Is there really something wrong with the attitude of the Bryant fellows?

Providences, Rhode Island

"Why, sometimes they set Bates in front of Brown Men!"

Arline Jacobs, Providence, Rhode Island

"They're O.K. in my books."

Providences, Rhode Island

"They're either too shy or too sophisticated."

Eleanor Fallon, Providence, Rhode Island

"No, but at times they could be more available and less involved in school activities."

Diane Clark, Northport, Long Island

"Yes. They think the girls are God's gift to mankind."

Susan Kennedy, Providence, Rhode Island

Corina Campanella, Providence, Rhode Island

"They are afraid that they will be ridiculed by their fellow boys if they date a girl. They are more interested in being one of the boys than in taking girls."

Marie Perrone, Cranston, Rhode Island

"No. They're nice guys. Of course some are a little shy, but you find them in and out of class. They sort of like a little time."

Rhoda E. Glinski, Woonsocket, Rhode Island

"I feel we are friendly at class dinner and other social activities as they are class when they want to borrow something, the "wrong" would be "stolen."

Wenda Perkowski, Pawtucket, Rhode Island

"Absolutely! "They aren't any teensy weensy."

Connie Caramus, East Greenwich, Rhode Island

"I think they're very nice. There isn't a friendlier group of fellows anywhere else. Of course I do agree with the editorial that was previously written."

Joanne Jaworski, Broad Brook, Connecticut

"I don't think there is anything wrong with the Bryant fellows. They are a wonderful bunch of boys."

Beta Sigma Chi

The brothers of Beta Sig held a party for their pledges earlier this month at the Gloria Drag Club. Several pool tables and card tables were available to the group as well refreshments. "Beta" will send an Alumni Bulletin to its members throughout the country as Christmas this year. Excellent idea!

Questions

This new group is undergoing a slight reorganization producing a smaller, but well rounded groups in the Drama Workshop. The Workshop presented its first theater-one-act, "At the Cost," under the able direction of Bernie Goldenstaed. The cast for the play, "The Florid Shops," included Eddie Adler, Ellis Cohen, Sam Gallerani, and Norm Mowse. All did an excellent job and are to be commended. Two officers were elected at a recent meeting. Jim Bryson was elected Program Chairman to fill the vacancy left by Bob Delio, and yours truly, Robert La Pinta, was elected Treasurer to fill the vacancy left by Ed Rotto.

"The Man Who Came to Dinner" is the play that the Masques will present in the near future for the entire student body. Reading for this production has already started.

Beta Iota Beta

Don Lassouwe has been appointed coach of the SIB basketball team, winners of last year's basketball trophy. This appointment was announced by SIB's Athletic Director, Anne Moore. Lee Sacco, newly named Historian of SIB, has taken over the offices held by Al Amechele, who vacated it to fill the vacancy left by Bob Delio.

"The Man Who Came to Dinner" is the play that the Masques are trying to get the girls to return to the campus. Some of these may be justified; however, I think most of these are just the students' way of blowing off steam. To those who think they have a good "beel" the answer is the Student Senate.

Our Sports Editor tells me that one independent team has signed up for Intramural basketball. That's good for a start, but it still seems to me that more follows than this are interested in playing basketball.

The Tucker-Training School has been fortunate in securing Judge Francis McCauley of the Juvenile Court as a speaker for their next meeting which was held last week. We are concerned with the need to contact the student teaching class who are out to practice teaching this semester. Being old hands by now, they come back for a day or give the rest of us the lowdown on what to expect when we go out to practice teaching.

Are there any fisheries in the crowd? Take it from me the bass are really lishing at Winnesaukee Lake, I know because I caught a five pounder there last week and that's no fish story!"
