Annual Yule Ball at Baltimore on Dec. 3

By ALLAN HILLIS

Another twelve pages of the calendar have been turned, and Christmas is almost here again. The Christmas season brings with it much merry-making and celebration, a time of joy and festivity for families and friends unite in the spirit of the holidays. In keeping with this spirit, the Student Senate proudly announces its famed Annual Yule Ball.

On December 3, 1954, a new setting will be the Baltimore Hotel-Congress Room. We have been fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Teddy Moss and his orchestra, playing from 8:30 to 1:00 a.m. The dance hall will be done by the Campus Florist of Providence. With such potential ability to please, it is to be the best Christmas Formal ever.

The only thing that is needed to make the Christmas Formal complete is your presence, designed by the Student Senate especially for all Bryant College students. Versus wives, day students and their dates, and dormitory students.

History of Bryant — Part II

By ANN HAVENS

Part I and Part II of the history of Bryant have been born, so to speak, having been announced in the last issue. In the next issue I hope to cover such subjects as campus activities and organizations from the year of 1942.

During the period from 1950 to 1955 the college continued to grow both in prestige and in the number of students enrolled. The school was located in the old Hopkins-Homestead Building on Weybosset Street across from the Providence Public Market. By this time the college was being admired for fine work by the businesswomen of the territory. As a result, the majority of the students enrolled were from prominent families who desired that their children obtain a good education in business management.

In 1951, Mr. S. Trouvel, who had been proprietor and principal since 1874, disposed of his interest in the school. Mr. Henry L. Jacobs, the owner of the Rhode Island Commercial School, bought Mr. Trouvel's share in what had been Bryant and Straton, thus leaving the schools and giving the new school the name of Bryant Straton-Rhode Island Commercial School.

Soon after the combining of the schools, it was moved from the Hopkins-Homestead Building to the Butler Exchange Building. It was during this year 1954 that, under an act of the State Legislators of Rhode Island, the school was first permitted to award Bachelor and Masters degrees. At that time the college's four year course were created. The number of master's degrees awarded was limited for the first few years and very few degrees were granted. By 1956 this number had increased.

Religious Counselors

Dine With Students

On Monday, November 15, the Religious Counselors group on campus had dinner with the men students. They extended an invitation to the students to come and see them at anyime, regardless of faith.

The counselors had apparently been looking at some joke books before coming. Father Gregaunas told of a priest who was asked why

New Rules and Regulations

To Govern Bryant Dances

The matter of the way the Saturday night dances are held by the Bryant College Auditorium has been under discussion by members of the Administration, Faculty, and the Board of Trustees on several occasions. Now the committee had made it known that the dances will be handled more strictly.

1. It is suggested that the Auditorium Manager give the dancers a more formal appearance.

2. A social committee must be appointed among the neighborhood sponsoring the dance, and the members of this committee should be at the door to welcome their guests.

3. Safe provisions must be made for chaperons.

4. No dances will be permitted to operate after 12:00 midnight.

5. A policeman must be in attendance at each dance.

6. A license must be secured from the State Police Department giving the organization the right to hold the dance.

7. The sponsoring organization must submit their application to hold the dance to the proper authorities and receive the license in two weeks in advance of the dance.

8. The Administration shall pay for and have in attendance each Saturday night dance a representa- tion of the police and fire departments.

9. We must discharge comments concerning the neighborhood and announce the student body Saturday nights at Bryant are held at the Engineering Hall (SNARE, FIT and COURTS Park).

Thanksgiving, as you can see, is a week different day, for your understanding.

The "abundant life" of '54, is for try days of years.

At home — hotel or public cafe, we'll have a lively and enjoyable day.

To a football game, or a theater first,

... we go up to our cheer before.

... we'll stop on the way,
In our Plymouth or Ford,
And smile the word, "Howdy-do.
" We'll be in dress clothes,
Or Bermuda shorts For the cool weather.

Like to keep the sports.
Our turkeys will come,
From the old turkey and Vegetables, pies, meet, potatoes and other foods galore.

We hope you'll find them, "To offer up thanks.
And not be entirely, "Oh, dear friends.
Spend it as well, This day of slumber, won't be ready for work Right after vacation.

Bryant Alumni in Politics

Now that the discussion of the election results has died down, let’s take a look at the part that the alumni of Bryant played in the election.

Re-elected for a fourth term as General Treasurer for Rhode Island is John M. Scott. The election of Mr. Scott was a foregone conclusion.

It was learned that the following election results were announced by the Providence City Council, Mr. Scott was elected by a majority vote of 306 to 184.

Mr. Scott was associated with the Providence City Council in the campaign for the office of Treasurer for the last four years.

In his acceptance speech, Mr. Scott expressed his gratitude to the voters of Providence for their support.

Bryant's View Continues

The second program of the intramural series of talks by members of the Bryant College Faculty was a short informal discussion on "The Revolution" by James M. Cain, assistant professor of history.

In this talk, Mr. Cain reviewed the political, social, and economic changes that have occurred since the Revolution.

Mr. Cain pointed out that the Revolution was not just a military conflict, but a social and economic struggle as well.

He spoke on the joys of learning about different aspects of the past and the realization that others have had the same feelings of excitement.

He ended by saying that the history of the world is better understood when we take the time to study it.
Cribbing and You

There are several reasons why doing one's own work in college is better than copying someone else's work.

Probably the most important reason is that college is intended to be a source of education. "Trial and error" is one of the best methods of learning, but no benefit comes from copying the work of others.

Honesty is a virtue to be cultivated now so that it will be second-nature throughout life. Copying the work of others and submitting it to the instructor as original is dishonest. Such practice to insure good marks, not only gives an artificial class standing; but also adversely affects the standing of the honest student who does his own work, but who may not be as bright as the person whose work was copied. If one depends on others for help in passing in college, he will be unable to do his own work when he is out in business.

Another even more basic reason for doing one's own work is that homework and tests are the only ways by which an instructor can determine whether or not he has presented his work in good form, they are the only ways by which an instructor can determine whether or not he has presented his material in an understandable manner. Instructors usually are very much interested in the subjects they teach and in their success in presenting those subjects. If students ask few questions and if they complete the tests out of the homework in good form, they give the instructor reason to believe that he has presented the material in an understandable manner.

Several reasons why a student should do his own work in college are, therefore, (1) that his primary objective in coming to college was to acquire an education. (2) that he is the real loser when he copies someone else's work. (3) that copying someone else's work is an even worse offense then missing a good tillle.

A Progressive-Backwards Party

Have you ever been to a Progressive-Backwards Party? If not you’re missing a good time.

On Thursday, November 11, the Brothers of Kappa Tau and the Sisters of Alpha Phi Kappa inaugurated the holiday by having a joint progressive-backwards party. Everyone had to wear some articles of clothing backwards. The boys wore their suits; the girls, their dresses. At the beginning of the laughter that prevailed throughout the afternoon and evening, the first step for the energy of seven cars was the home of Barbie Lowe, the president of Alpha Phi Kappa, where the brothers and sisters had dinner and played charades. The next stop was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burke, advisors to Kappa Tau and, at the Phi Kappas, where the main course of sandwiches and punch was served. After singing some hit backwarms, Mrs. Hackett's birthday cake, the party moved on to Gerri Light's for dancing and games. Miss Jones and Florence Papa cut a rug on a very small chair, and Gerry Sadler and Don Patterson did the bystand ring.

On Monday, December 6, the Star Dusters will appear on television, station WJAR, sometime between the hours of 9 and 10. They have to be at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel for a brief rehearsal before the show.

Community Church Drive Results

At the recent Community Church drive on campus, the students and faculty of Bryant contributed a total of $477.86 to the very worthy cause. The collected money, amounting to $240, will be given to the Rhode Island Red Cross Society. In addition, the collection from the students totals $437.86 to the Student's Board of Governors. The money was collected by the Phi Kappas, where the most effective efforts for their pledgees were made. Miss Harrington and Miss Kahn and their helpers for this cause.

Although Ann is a member of a quite a few organizations, she is not one to sit back and let other people do all the work. She picked up the phone and does her share, if not more.

for Quality or Effectiveness

Isn’t it time you tried the cigarette that is sweeping the country... breaking records... winning more smokers in less time than any cigarette ever did! Why such success for LM? It’s the filter that counts, and LM has the best. You get much more flavor, much less nicotine... a light and mild smoke... because only LM’s Miracle Tip gives you the effective filtration you need.

Enjoy LM’s king size or regular... both at the same low price. Like thousands, you’ll say—‘They’re just what the doctor ordered.’

SIGMA IOTA BETA: The sisters of Sigma Iota Beta presented a very successful dance last Saturday night in the gym called "Under Paris Skies." The decorations were so beautiful that Mr. Falco asked the girls if their house would be up for the dorm supper. So all dorm students now know that it was the SIB girl’s ingenuity efforts for their dance that helped to make the dorm supper so enjoyable. Credit goes to Peggy Hoben, Annette Sapp, and Carol Kahn and their helpers for this job well done. SIB’s pledges received their instructions this week, on Tuesday afternoon, from Pledge mistress Eleanor Fallon. Hell Week and Sue’s Queen Campaign Week are almost upon us. Luck in, you sister Matron!

PHI SIGMA NU: This week the brothers are happy to announce that Phi Sig won both the dancing trophy and the Blood Drive Trophy. The winners of the Fox Trot were Sam Gelsman and Marie Perrin. The Rhumba winners were Anna Selesnow and Robert Sennachio, and Ed Orlando placed second in the Waltz contest and Ted Bostrom third in the Jitterbug. Congratulations to all the other contestants. The Blood Drive was won by Phi Sig followed closely by Kappa Tau. The brothers are looking forward to Hell Week. Look out, Pledgees! That’s all for now from Phi Sigma Nu.

PHI EPSILON: The alumni banquet is going to be held at the Admiral Inn, November 30, 1954. The newly elected officers will be installed at this time. At the last meeting a chaplain was elected. Congratulations to Mary Hoddle. She’ll make a splendid chaplain. A tea was held in honor of the prospective pledges at Miss Gammie’s apartment. All the sisters would like to thank Miss Gammie for her wonderful dance exhibition! Plans are being made to give the orphans a Christmas party. Which one of our brothers is going to play Santa? By the way, Mr. H., don’t you like camelots?

THE BROTHERS OF SIGMA CHI had a joint party with their sisters of Sigma Lambda Theta recently and everyone had a wonderful time—pledges too. Plans are being completed for Beta’s

Basketball First Half Ends

BY CHUCK JORDENAS

The basketball season, in both day and night leagues, is in full swing with plenty of action and competition.

The day league seemed the tighter of the two with the Newman Club on top with a 10 and record. The Newman Club grabbed the last Tuesday when they defeated their nearest competitors, Alpha Theta Theta, by the slim margins of 41 to 38. Before this game both teams had a 9 and 1 record. Leading the Newman Club's victories to Joe Christine, Dave Dillo, Larry Helfman, Tom VanNacht and Art Kelleman. Coaches for Alpha Theta Theta are Ralph Bostemanto, Tony Taylor, and Tony Altomati. This Alpha Theta team has been through all season and should prove trouble for the Newman Club before the season ends.

This is not only a two team game, Ten Sigma, Kappa Tau, and Sigma Lambda Pi have improved strongly and should be right in the thick of the battles for the next round. Last Monday, Kappa Tau gave a scare to the Newman Club when they lost a sputter to them by the score of 20 to 19. The Newman Club pulled it out in the last two minutes and managed to have a man threaten the leader's last week when they lost a game to them by 27 to 17 margins. In the night league, Phi Sigma Nu seemed to have circled the first place with play of their flawless record of 8 and 0. Phi Gamma, who is in second place, is not in the race with a good record, and has been passed by their top scorers, Bill Mccarren, Frank Rees and Hurst Dusign. Phi sig's Joe Treve, Bruner Sherman, and Bill Van Putten have already made it difficult for the other teams to come in third. Their team has a great song in the lineup and has been passed by their top scorers.

The Beta Iota Beta's Alpha Theta Beat Sigma Chi. Alpha Theta has two top men in the lineup with 11 and 11. Lambda Psi, Alpha Theta Theta and Sigma Lambda Pi have shown improvement and should be right in the thick of the battles for the next round. Campus Capers

Brain Teasers...As usual the Beta pledges will not be degraded in front of the students, but will do odd jobs for prospective members. The usual Beta teasers were held at the Newman Club on December 10. Beta has been working hard to promote Joan Todd for their "Sorority Queen." How long will she stay? A new Blue Light uniform? The Homestead basketball team is sporting? Credit is due Jim Diorio and Herb Schalle for their excellent teamwork and continuing spirit. The Beta teasers were held in the Newman Club's basketball game.

The morning was filled with the tension that always accompanies the basketball season. May Alpha Phi's Kappa team have a real shot at the title? Sigma Lambda Pi held an informal get together for prospective brothers on Tuesday, November 16, and the brothers were treated like kings in a large turnout. Plans are now underway to make way for this year's "Sorority Queen" contest that will be remembered by the student body for a long time. Although we got off to a bad start in bowling, the brothers have been practicing and there has been a definite improvement. The basketball team is coming along and Alpha Phi is better at the bowling. It was announced by President M. Bernstein that there will be many social events in the future for all the brothers to participate in. In addition, two affairs in conjunction with our sister sorority, Beta Sigma Gamma, the brothers were invited to congratulate Brother Dave Strasser on the excellent showing he made in the recent dance contest.
