

Monday
1700

Dear Mom,

I just finished my 180° side stage. I got 6 out of 6 O.K. Flying
has been called off for the day, however. a storm came up, so we get a little sac-time.

There's absolutely no news honey. I went out with hois this weekend, went to the Paramount Club, the local hot-spot, and danced and had a few drinks.

She's a nice girl,
but kinda dull.

Yesterday I went to Radion Springs for a swim, but it was too cold. The water was freezing. It's <sup>fed by</sup> a spring that bubbles from the bottom of the pool, and it's really cold. It's a sweet set-up out there.

The pool is surrounded by these trees with Louisiana moss on them.
It's like a movie set.

After that we saw
"Sensations of 1915" which stunk, by the way. Eleanor Eleanor Powell is a boot ready to hang up her brassiere, I think.

Well honey, I'm going to eat right now. I love you honey, with all my heart. Give my love to Bob.

Your devoted So
Jude
