Dr. Manion Resigns
As Provost Of Bryant

Dr. Thomas A. Manion, Provost and Vice-President for Academic Affairs at Bryant College, Smithfield, Rhode Island, will assume the presidency of the College of Saint Rose, Albany, New York on July 1. He was announced Thursday. The College of Saint Rose is a private coeducational liberal arts college founded in 1928. It has an enrollment of more than 1500 students, which includes more than 900 undergraduates and over 600 graduate students.

Manion is a proponent of teacher education, the college has more than 110 faculty members with a 12 to 1 student-faculty ratio. Forty percent of the students are enrolled in liberal arts, thirty percent in education, and thirty percent in business. The college is a member of the nine college Hudson Mohawk Association of Colleges and Universities, which includes Union College, Skidmore, Russell Sage, Siena, Rensselaer Polytechnic, Albany Medical School, Albany Law School, and Albany College of Pharmacy. More than 30,000 students are enrolled in this association of colleges.

Manion joined the Bryant faculty in 1960 as an economics instructor. A professor of Economics and former Chairman of the Economics Department at Bryant, he was appointed Vice-President for Academic Affairs in March of 1968 and was elected Provost by the Board of Trustees in July of 1970. It was at this time that he initiated and developed Bryant's Graduate School of Business Administration. He also served as Chairman of the College Curriculum Committee.

In August of 1969, he was named to an eleven-member Governor's Council of Economic Advisors to investigate and study the economic situation of the State and the factors affecting it. He is also a member of the Board of Trustees of the Economic Education Council of Rhode Island and the New England Council for Economic Development.

Dr. Manion was invited by President Nixon to be present at the signing of the Revenue Sharing Bill at Independence Hall in Philadelphia on October 30, 1972. He is a long-time advocate of revenue sharing and is the Rhode Island Chairman of the National Citizens' Committee for Revenue Sharing.

A graduate of LaSalle Academy, he earned his undergraduate degree at St. Bonaventure University and his Master's Degree (M.B.A) at Boston College. He received his Doctorate (Ph.D. in Economics) from Clark University.

Dr. Manion, a native Rhode Islander, is 38 years old. He married to the former Maureen O'Meara. They have six children and reside in Greenville, Rhode Island. Both are active in community affairs and various professional organizations. Mrs. Manion is a member of the faculty of Providence College.

Former Faculty Member Piperopoulos
Named Advisor to Greek Official

In a letter to Dr. Thomas Manion, it was announced that Dr. George Piperopoulos, former Assistant Professor of Sociology, and now President of Bryant College, was named as a special advisor to the Minister of Planning and Governmental Policy in Greece. Dr. Piperopoulos left Bryant in November, 1972, to assume a position as the Director for the Greek National Center for Social Research in January, 1973.

New Directions
Turned to Jazz

by Bob Rahn

A jazz group consisting of five musicians gave a concert yesterday in the auditorium. The concert began at 2:00 p.m. and lasted approximately two hours with a short intermission.

The band consisted of five well-known local musicians--Artie Calabrese of the Rhode Island School of Music on drums, Mike Renzi on keyboard, Bob Petursdott on bass fiddle and bass guitar, Art Pehol playing tenor sax and George Masso, a professor at the University of Connecticut, on tenor saxophone. The bank also featured one of Bryant's professors of English, Dr. Turina Fisichiana, whose musical (jazz) background was quite apparent as he stepped up to replace Mike Renzi on piano. Dr. Fisichiana revealed to his class that his experience with jazz combos dates back to his undergraduate days when he used his talents as a source of revenue. The gathering of 600 demanded an encore of the group during their feature of Dr. Fisichiana. The result was an expressive rendition of a popular Duke Ellington tune, "Satin Doll."

The concert was organized by Dr. Fisichiana in relation to an English course entitled, New Directions in Literature. The concert was to promote the idea of jazz as an art form, but more specifically as an expressionistic, free-flowing aspect of poetry.

Secretaries Seminar
Termed Successful

by Dan Adoroth

On Friday, April 6, the secretaries of Bryant had a break from their tedious job situation, to attend the Fifth Annual Fine Arts Seminar, headed by Co-Chairman, Mrs. Rabine Bernstein and Mr. Robert Meek. The main purpose for this fine arts festival is to celebrate Secretaries Week, which is the last week in April, and also to expose the college to a bit of classical music.

The program consisted of Candidt and music on the upper level of the Rodunda and followed by a presentation in Room 306 entitled Romance in Opera-Comique, H.M.S. PINAFORDO by composer Gilbert and Sullivan. Mss. Lena-Lena Rouppouse, Lecturer in Music, gave the presentation.

Mrs. Bernstein commented that it was a "great success" and that such programs will be planned for the future.

Dr. Louis C. Nanassy
Guest Speaker at Bryant

by Jean Susan LeSage

On Friday, April 6, the Business Education students of Bryant College were treated to a very motivating and captivating audience by Dr. Louis Nanassy, Chairman of Business Education at Montclair State College, Upper Montclair, New Jersey. Our guest speaker was a very well-known author of over 80 manuscripts in professional journals and textbooks. Dr. Nanassy has also been the Editor of the Business Education Index since 1947; virtually every Business Education student has, at one time or another, used this index as a guide to articles on education principles.

The topic of Dr. Nanassy's discourse was "Challenges Faced by Business Teachers," and his talk was very interesting and useful. As Dr. Nanassy gave the students some very helpful hints on what they should expect when they go out in the field as student teachers or as first-year teachers. An important element that he pointed out is that what is gained by practical teaching years is the addition to being a college professor; a ten-year teaching experience as a business teacher in various New Jersey and Pennsylvania high schools. When questioned on the job situation, Dr. Nanassy stressed the fact that teaching positions are available; but teachers must be willing to relocate.

As a service to students who may have unfortunately been unable to attend the lecture, we wish to review the major points of this informative lecture. A good beginning teacher, well-versed in his professional business skills, must be fully aware of his objectives in his classes; and there is no substitute for good teaching-skills and knowledge of the material to be presented. Therefore, all classes should capitalize on the business experience of their students; provide students with varied teaching experiences; and most important of all, a teacher must possess a desire for a varied teaching experience. The lecture was totally enjoyable, informative, and had a very personal touch. It is my sincere opinion that Dr. Nanassy should re-appear on the Bryant campus each year to aid the Business Education professors in quelling their students' fears about the tasks that await them in the future.
A Modest Proposal

With Apologies to Jonathan Swift

Dear Editor,

It is a melancholy sight to those of us who have been through this great school where the doors to the Commuter Lounge crowded with students of both sexes importing every passerby for advice on instructors. These students, instead of being able to work for their honest grades, are forced to employ all their time in conversation about which instructor is best for which course.

I think it is agreed by all parties that this prodigious number of registering students are an additional grievance to college life; the time that we could find on a fair, cheap, and easy method of registering how we would desire for so well of the student body as to have his status set up in the Rolonda.

I therefore hereby humbly propose my own thoughts, which I am not to be liable to the least objection.

Since we, the students, are forced to pay extraneous sums to attend this school, we should not have to go through the agony of registration. My plan is that each faculty member should be given a number to designate the number of courses he wishes to teach at Bryant. As the time of registration draws near, each student will submit a list of courses he wishes to take. A copy of the student's college record will be given to him at the end of the list which will then be sent to the faculty who will be teaching the indicated courses (highest numbers get list first).

As each instructor receives the list, he will make note of which students he wishes to teach, and pass the list on. In the event that no teacher is available, the student will submit a list of indicated courses (highest number to designate the number of courses he wishes to take. A copy of the student's college record will be given to him at the end of the list which will then be sent to the faculty who will be teaching the indicated courses (highest numbers get list first).

I profess in the sincerity of my heart that I have not the least objection. If anyone should find the above crude, I submit that it is no more (or less) ridiculous than anything I have seen about registration or the course in faculty management. Infinitely better, I am sure, than as it is.

Sincerely,
Joan Aycliffe

Is the Bryant Controversy Really Over?

Dear Editor,

As a result of the investigation of President Evans, it has been rumored that Vice President Joseph Hogan, Dean Delmonico, and Thomas Manion are going to leave at the end of this semester. It seems that the remark made on January 31, 1973 by the president of the Student Body, Mr. H. A. Haz, is to be given the attention it deserves.

I am writing to ask whether the students of this school are going to leave at the end of this semester. If they do, what will be the result?

A book store is usually a place where only books are sold, right? Maybe, but not at Bryant College. The Bryant College Store is an innovative and unique place where one can find his academic and non-academic needs. The Store offers many products from A to Z. It offers everything from Mason Mug, Bryant sweatshirts, and monogram clothes to sneakers. Yes, sneakers!! But wait, there's more. The College Store offers a wide variety of paperbacks along with tape recorders, cameras, radios, stereo systems, TV's, and many more items. It also has quite the collection of greeting cards, film, school supplies, and even health and beauty aids, with a selection ranging from Pilates books to Hal Karale. The Store has even gone so far as to offer TIDE, CHIEF, club, and other impulse items. "So, whatever your needs are, the College Store can fill them!!!" Why is the Store doing this? Book Sales too low? Not at all, according to Manager Lou Petrucci, Lou is hoping that the unique variety of products can meet the growing demand of the College Community. He hopes that the Store can serve all here on campus, satisfying all tastes and needs. "We are primarily trying to serve, as best we can, the entire community. After all, it's our job." Lou is satisfied with his plans; but wishes the store were a bit larger so that he could offer even more products and a wider variety of goods and services. The development of the store is enough of a change, but the transition has not finished. In the next few weeks, the College Store will have a few surprises in store for us, including the coming of "Big Stuff." The Bryant College Store offers items for every member of the Bryant Community. Why not come in and browse around? You may find just what you're looking for!!!

If a steady salary of $400 a month and paid tuition will help you continue your professional training, the scholarships just made possible by the Uniformed Services Health Professions Revitalization Act of 1972, may be of interest to you. If you are interested in completing your education in the health field, but are unable to do so because of financial limitations, you may qualify. We make it easy for you to complete your studies. You're commissioned as an officer so soon as you graduate from the program, but remain in student status until graduation. And, on active duty (with extra pay) for 45 days. Naturally, if your academic schedule requires that you remain on the campus during the months of April and August -- and still receive your active duty pay.

Active duty requirements are fair. Basically, you serve one year as a commissioned officer for each year you've participated in the program, with a two year minimum. You may apply to a scholarship toward either the Army, Navy or Air Force, and know that upon entering active duty you'll have rank and duties in keeping with your professional training.

The life's work you've chosen can be hard, expensive training. Now we are in a position to give you some help. Mail in the coupon at your earliest convenience for more detailed information.

On the Lighter Side:
They Build Houses, Don't They?
by Mark Vincent

It's another Thursday morning like any other one because today it's the day I must make all the classes again. It wasn't my fault though, I couldn't find it. At the Arcade they didn't have a class story on Harry's House. Who the hell is Harry? What is a house a house? Suddenly they realize I am a slightly hungover and probably still sleeping as I do.

Back to Harry. Since I have visions of the poor guy, whoever the hell he is, living on campus in a tent somewhere, I figure I should write about it and get him some press. Anyway the month of April, Forms are available in Dean Albright's Office.

It's a State Highway Department had finally repaved Route 7 after several years of complaining by the many Bryant commuters using the road. The State Department found the road too narrow for any of its many drivers; and for a change, has put the usual wasted highway taxes to good use --which, in Rhode Island, is quite a rare occurrence. The work took about a week, and did not obstruct the flow of traffic for too long a time. It was the first time in quite a while that I saw a traffic department at work.

An interesting selection of greeting cards, film, and needs. Select your greeting cards, film, and needs. We are primarily trying to serve, as best we can, the entire community. The Country Comfort Tales
A Humanistic Approach

If your mother never told you about ultra-brite or if you've never been to the coffee house here on campus, then I've got something to say about that. First of all, I do set things straight, I don't really care what brand of toothpaste you use, or for that matter what type your mother uses, but I do have a little something to tell you about the coffee house. It's a pretty big old wooden barn over 100 years old, and it's looking for some people to come in and take up some space.

Country Comfort features live entertainment weekly and also has the best cup-of-coffee here on campus. Sorry Dunkin. The Coffee House is open to students for any group function that they might want to hold in there. The coffee house wants to grow and we need your help. If you want to work on the staff, or have any comments, suggestions, or ideas, please consult one of the staff members and chew their ear off for a couple of hours. We know that you are out there but we just can't see you. We are looking for a little help from our friends. We want to grow, as does a tree, from within and upwards, in a positive direction.

Keeley Turns Up First

In a quick turn of events, dark-horse candidate Pat Keeley, moonlighting as an English teacher during the day, extracted the vote needed to win "The Big Screw Contest." When was this driving force to bring about his victory? Who was responsible for "The Screw" for Keeley movement? This reporter found it difficult to really get a sense of what is going on in this whole screwy situation. In an exclusive, curtailing interview with the well-rounded victor, I was told not to bring up the "Smackers Award" that he had won three years previously. What else is there left to be said, but "To the victor belongs the Screw."

The following is Mr. Keeley's acceptance letter.

"Thank you, ladies and gentlemen. On this suspicious occasion I must give special thanks to Professor James Ingraham for his usual supportive remarks. However, I must humbly admit that I cannot accept this award without indicating that many individuals deserve it more than I. I have at times been flat-headed, overly driven, and round-about. Hopefully, I have never lagged behind. Therefore, to rephrase my thoughts, I must thank all of you for clamping down and giving so generously. You have rotated your voices and fastened upon me. Indeed, you have honored me. I hope this distinct honor will not spiral to my head. Thanks again. I intend to do you all a good turn in the near future."

The Black Studies Department at the University of Rhode Island will present its third speaker of the 1972-1973 lecture series this week. Dr. Basil Matthews, a professor at the Howard University School of Social Work, will speak on Thursday, April 12, at 2:30 p.m. in Room 239 of the Rhode Island Memorial Union. The lecture, entitled "Cognition: Black and White," will begin at 7:30 p.m. Admission is free and the public is welcome.

Dr. Matthews is a man of many parts: a philosopher, psychologist and historian. He has been spending the last few years doing a clean analysis of black cognition. He teaches full time at Howard University and occasionally lectures at Boston University. Dr. Matthews is the former Director of Black Studies at Talladega College in Alabama.

The Black Studies Series at URI will continue on May 3, when Dr. James Matthews will give a lecture titled "Village and Urban: A Humanistic Approach to Education." For information about the series, please contact Franklin Department of Black Studies, Room 239.

Movie Review

"Slither"

by David T. Pandoni

Explosions, highway chases, and a little blood shot are the high points in this film that just seems to slide along like a snake with no place to go. James Cannon takes up the starring role as the rambling ex-con who almost immediately gets involved in some new caper. After losing a dear prison-mate in a rather explosive situation, he travels on the highway, en route to somewhere they strike up a friendly relationship with each other, and catch fort winks in a quiet theater where only occasional laughter.

His destination is the home of Mr. Cann arrives at just in time to catch a Greyhound Bus bound for glory and the large sum of money to find and James Cannon and Mary Fenaka enter and recognize Dick and Bear on the outcome. Except for a rather funny and action-packed bingo game, the film slides right into a hole. The only other scene that helps it climb out again is one in which the sad situation of two bumpy Mack wags and a bright red car and camper takes place. It would have been a lot smarter and cheaper to destroy the film and protect the reputation of some otherwise fine actors. Nevertheless, a busy student can pay the $2 admission fee at the Apple Valley Mall Cinema and catch forty winks in a quiet theater where only occasional laughter.

The Black Studies Series at URI will continue on May 3, when Dr. James Matthews will give a lecture titled "Village and Urban: A Humanistic Approach to Education." For information about the series, please contact Franklin Department of Black Studies, Room 239.

You Can't See Nothin’ Yet

Within the past few weeks, Bryant students may have noticed signs in the Koller Rotunda to the effect that this year's LEDGER, the book which is published solely for and by the students of Bryant College, is going to be far different than anything ever seen in the past. Under the direction of Brian Meritt and Mark Krisaky, the LEDGER has taken on an entirely new look; from the new color pictures to the exciting design, and informative, club, organizational, and faculty write-ups, the LEDGER promises to be an exciting and possibly even heart-tendering summary of the events and happenings for those students who will finish their college careers this coming June.

Part of the exciting change can be attributed to the contributions of many talented individuals. The book, the largest ever published at Bryant, covers every conceivable facet of college life; but it does it in such a manner that the true profile of Bryant College, pressure, and all, emerges.

In addition to the special write-ups, an expanded photography staff has provided some of the most moving photographs ever to be published in a college yearbook. The book, the largest ever published at Bryant, covers every conceivable facet of college life; but it does it in such a manner that the true profile of Bryant College, pressure, and all, emerges. Historically speaking, this year's LEDGER is going to be one hell of a book; and for those students who are not seniors, it holds a great meaning.

For those who are leaving Bryant, the book will serve as a lasting memory of the heartbreaks, the successes, and the trials of life at a small business college by the name of Bryant.

A Bryant student who wearied of hiking
Decided he'd rather go biking
His friends did disclose

"Where he'd find the bike most to
His heart, he'd ride it through the town,
He'd ride it through the town,
He'd ride it through the town,
He'd ride it through the town.

With the warm weather setting in, we find ourselves more involved in a large variety of activities. In every sport one should be protected to prevent injury. Today, one of the protective devices is THE PILL. Question: Do you believe in the pill?

Bryant Baseball
Loses Opener
by Richard Kirt

The Bryant College Baseball Team opened up its season last Saturday with the Nasson College Lions from Springvale, Maine. Bryant's team, coached by Steve Thorson and Matt Bernardo, showed a lot of promise and a good year to come. The game began with Jackie Balme striking out the first two Nasson players, with their third batter grounding out to short. Bryant led off with base hit by Tom McDonald who then proceeded to steal second base. His efforts proved to no avail with Brian Abrams flying out deep to center, Bob Banta flying out to left, and Norm Trahan flying out to right. Bryant was supposed to have a home game last Sunday with St. Francis, but it was called due to snow. There was a game played the previous day with Roger Williams. Bryant won 5-4 with 3 runs in the top of the ninth inning. So let's see you at the next game!

Indians Take Second In First Meet

by Leon Drury

This past Saturday Bryant College's Track Team hosted a very exciting track and field meet before a crowd of 150 people. Southeastern Massachusetts University dominated most of the track events and finished with a team high of 94 1/2 points. Bryant finished second with 44, Assumption third with 41 1/2 and Bentley fourth with 1 points.

The Indians scored heavily in the field events from Beck school record holder Blake Ravalli capturing first in the shot put at a distance of 44' 10.4. After two years on the sidelines, Bruce Stewart won the high jump with a jump of 6'. The effort sets a new record that Stewart currently holds at 6'. Murray Whitaker finished third in the triple jump. Fresh Bob Clair and survived everyone by winning the javelin at 186' 1/2. Doubles, Bob will be trying to hit the shoes of Walsh and Morgan who dominated the event for Bryant last year. Co. Captain Mark Robbins also chipped in with some valuable points. Robbins finished a second strong in the 140 Intermediate Hurdles with a time of 10.7, and he also took a fourth in the 120 hurdles.

In the mile, Mark Kuchinski of SMU took first place with an excellent time of 4:28.5. Kuchinski also captured the two mile race, as SMU captured all four places in the event. David Stone finished 4th in the mile, setting a new record of 4:34.9 for the event.

The final event of the day was probably Bryant's high point of the day. Bryant had a narrow 39 to 38 1/2 lead over Assumption for second place going into the mile relay. SMU was favored in the event, but the Indians won the race in stunning fashion. The team of John Droux, David Stone, Mark Robbins and John Maceo won with a 3:30.6 to cut edge out Assumption College for second place. The relay's performance was a shade off the school record.

If Bryant students would like to see their team in action, the Indians will be home this Saturday afternoon.

Complete Track Notes

by Thomas Czapienski

Why bother about Public Relations? “Public opinion is the single most powerful force in the world today,” claimed Mr. Will Barbeau, a self-employed P.R. man, as he appeared as a guest lecturer yesterday.

Defining public relations as the evaluation of public attitudes and the creation of policies to change these attitudes, Mr. Barbeau explained the need for public relations in today’s society. Business exists only by the consent of the public in the community. Ideas are very influential forces in getting the message across. Public relations is here to organize these ideas and present them to various segments of society as they are geared. P.R. work is not only concerned with the consumer but the internal operations of an institution, namely, the people who function within it.

For those wishing to enter public relations as a career, Mr. Barbeau suggests that one be interested in language. One should be able to use words effectively and write well and an interest in photography is also helpful.

Mr. Barbeau looks upon himself as a parking meter as far as time goes. He finds himself constantly intimidated by what his time is worth for which few people are able to form this discipline. This P.R. man cites that public relations is simply “a world of ideas,” one who has the ability will succeed.
Celtics On Their Way: Red Sox Over Yankees

by Buddy Trinkle

Playoff time is here and with the Boston Celtics winning the Championship series against the Los Angeles Lakers, they seem headed to the sporting public almost all attention is centered toward winter games' grand finals.

As of this writing, three of the four quarter final series in the National Basketball Association and the Conn Smythe playoff are left undecided. Only the Knicks-Bulls and the Nuggets-Clippers have been settled in the first round, and the second two games of the series will be played this week in Boston.

The Celtics have staked out a six game lead over the Lakers in their quarterfinal series, and the result has been a virtual shutting down of the Boston and ABA playoffs. New York has a definite "money hungry" team, and when cash is at stake the Knicks always seem to be there, but the incentive of money alone will not life New York over the Boston Celtics.

Barring an upset the Knicks-Celtics series will prove to be one of the best of this year's playoffs. The Celtics who jumped into the Atlantic series much too soon are over-confident and are counting the Lakers only minutes of basketball, but the Lakers are in the second game. The Knicks-Bulls series is over-confident but they have won forty-eight minutes of basketball, and they've won New York all along. Not many people forget last year's series, and the Celtics want a title and only the Knicks can stand in their way. Thus far the season the Boston Celtics should dominate basketball.

Looking back to the Knicks-Bulls series to figure out who has a better team is a mistake. The Bulls have an advantage in talent, but the Knicks have an advantage in team work. When the Knicks pull this series out, it will be the Bulls' determined play that will be remembered.

As the past quarter final series have also been a big surprise, The two favorites, Los Angeles and Milwaukee, find themselves in a battle similar to Celtics. The Bulls are finding the going tough this season, and the Knicks have won two games, and anything could happen in the last three games. Golden State's "Road Runner" is not going to stand in the way of getting back to the playoffs, (Rocks and the ABA New York Mets to the end of the ABA playoffs last season) and he might be the spark Golden State is in need of this season.

Through my own misfortune, I was able to see the end of the L.A. - Chicago Bulls playoff game. At the time I picked up the ball, the Bulls had already scored twice in a more of his thirty-six points, and the Bulls had 204, 325 points and a time of 2:00:48.

Rangers Down Bruins: High Low

by Peter Lockstahl

The high-low game was played last night in Boston, and the Rangers came through with a convincing 4-1 victory over the Bruins. The game was a good one for both teams, and the Rangers emerged as the winners.

The Rangers were led by center Mike Bossy, who had a goal and an assist, and left wing Mike Bossy, who had two goals and an assist. The Bruins were led by right wing Mike Bossy, who had a goal and an assist, and center Mike Bossy, who had two goals and an assist.

Bryant Exceeds In Providence Open

The tournament was represented by Howie Dornfeld, and he was the top finisher in each classification of the tournament. Bryant's Table Tennis Tournament was well attended, and the money was topped by Howie Dornfeld, Howie Schreiber, and Larry Levin.

In Saturday's action in the Novice Class, the tournament was held at 2:00:48. Larry Levin highlighted the tournament by advancing to the semi-finals of the tournament. Levin is well known for his skills on the field, and he has been successful in the past.

Depelteau Named Honorable Mention All-American

by Michael Kata

Despite the fact that the basketball season ended over a month ago, junior Gary Depelteau is still coming in for Bryant's senior year. Depelteau, who is probably Bryant's greatest all around player ever, received the best recognition he has ever gotten by being named a N.A.I.A. Honorable Mention All-American.

Depelteau, a senior guard, is the first Bryant basketball player to be named an All-American. Depelteau, who is a senior guard, is the first Bryant basketball player to be named an All-American.

Next season, Coach Follard will have close to an impossible task in trying to replace Bryant's greatest all around player. A player who has worked hard to refine his basketball skills to become the best player in the East, Bryant Basketball will miss Depelteau's determination and leadership.
