Dr. Manion Resigns
As Provost Of Bryant

Dr. Thomas A. Manion, Provost and Vice-President for Academic Affairs at Bryant College, Smithfield, Rhode island, will assume the Presidency of the College of Saint Rose, Albany, New York on July 1. It was announced Thursday, the College of Saint Rose is a private co-educational liberal arts college founded in 1928. It has an enrollment of more than 1,500 students, which includes more than 900 undergraduates and over 600 graduate students.

Primarily the outcome of a search for a dean of education education, the college has more than 110 faculty members with a 12 to 1 student-faculty ratio. Forty percent of the students are enrolled in liberal arts, thirty percent in education, and thirty percent in business. The college is a member of the nine-college Hudson-Mohawk Association of Colleges and Universities, which includes Union College, Skidmore, Russell Sage, Siena, Rensselaer Polytechnic, Albany Medical School, Albany Law School, and Albany College of Pharmacy. More than 30,000 students are enrolled in this association of colleges.

Dr. Manion joined the Bryant faculty in 1960 as an economics instructor. He was appointed as an economics professor and former Chairman of the Economics Department at Bryant, he was appointed as an economics professor.

In August of 1969, he was named assistant commissioner for Education of the Economic Department of the Economics Department of Rhode Island and the New England Council for Economic Development. Dr. Manion was invited by President Nixon to be present at the signing of the Revenue Sharing Bill at Independence Hall in Philadelphia on October 20, 1972. He is a long-time advocate of revenue sharing and is the Rhode Island Chairman of the National Citizens' Committee for Revenue Sharing.

A graduate of La Salle Academy, he earned his undergraduate degree at St. Bonaventure University and his Master's Degree (MBA) at Boston College. He received his Doctorate (Ph.D. in Economics) from Clark University.

Dr. Manion, a native Rhode Islander, is 38 years old. He is married to the former Maureen O'Meara. They have six children and reside in Greenville, Rhode Island. Both are active in community affairs and various professional organizations. Mrs. Manion is a member of the faculty of Providence College.

Former Faculty Member Piperopolous
Named Advisor to Greek Official

In a letter to Dr. Thomas Manion, it was announced that Dr. Georgios Piperopolous, former Assistant Professor of Sociology and Anthropology at Bryant College, was named as a special advisor to the Minister of Planning and Governmental Policy in Greece. Dr. Piperopolous left Bryant in November, 1972, to assume a position as the Director for the Greek National Center for Social Research in January, Dr.

New Directions
Turn to Jazz

by Bob Rhault

A jazz group consisting of five musicians gave a concert yesterday in the auditorium. The concert began at 1:00 p.m. and lasted approximately two hours with a short intermission. The band consisted of five well-known local musicians.-- Artie Cahal of the Rhode Island School of Music on drums, Mike Reznik on keyboard, Bill Petroust on bass fiddle and bass guitar, Art Peloso playing tenor saxophone, and George Maso, a professor at the University of Connecticut, on trombone. The bank also featured one of Bryant's professors of English, Dr. Burton Fishman. Dr. Fishman's musical (jazz) background was quite apparent as he stepped up to the deep replacing Mike Reznik on piano. Dr. Fishman revealed to his charges that his experience with jazz combos dates back to his undergraduate days where he used his talents as a source of revenue. The gathering of 500 demanded an encore of the group during their feature of Dr. Fishman. The result was an expressive rendition of a popular Duke Ellington tune "Satin Doll."

The concert was organized by Dr. Fishman in relation to an English course he is now teaching entitled, New Directions in Literature. The concert was to promote the idea of jazz as an art form, but more specifically as an expressionist, free-flowing aspect of poetry.

Secretaries Seminar
Termed Successful

by Dan Aderhold

On April 10, 1976, the secretaries of Bryant had a break from their tedious schedules to attend the Fifth Annual Fine Arts Seminar, headed by Co-Chairmen, Mr. Robert Meek, in the week last in April and to also expose the college to a bit of music.

The seminar consisted of Candelight and music on the upper level of the Rotunda and followed by a presentation in Room 306 entitled Romance in Opera Comique, H.M.S. Pinafore by composer Gilbert and Sullivan, Miss Lucia-Lena Rosique, Lecturer in Music, gave the presentation.

Mrs. Bernstein commented that it was a "great success" and that such programs will be repeated next year.
A Modest Proposal
With Apologies to Jonathan Swift

Dear Editor,

It is a melancholy sight to the undergraduate eye, to find the doors to the Commuter Lounge crowded with members of both sexes importing every possible ad for advice on instructors. These students, instead of being able to work for their honest grades, are forced to employ all their time in conversation about which instructor is best for which course.

I think it is agreed by all parties that this prodigious number of registering students are an additional grievance to college life. Therefore, why can’t we all agree on the idea that faculty who have proven that they are to have their status up set in the Rosenda?

Secondly, in theory, students who have proven that they have to work for an education (as evidenced by their past record) will be taught only by those teachers who feel that they can impart some knowledge to students who will use it.

Thirdly, few people will fail courses since a failing grade will indicate too much stupidity on the part of the instructor. If he has no choice of students, then it is up to him to choose them. Should students fail, however, they will have to go through the agony of re-registering.

In profusely the sincerity of my heart I have not the least personal interest in endeavoring to promote this idea, having no other motive than the good of the student body. I have no courses which I need to register, my graduation being upon me.

If anyone should find the above proposal, I request that you submit it that no more (or less) ridiculous than anything I have seen registration or the faculty in these past weeks.

Sincerely, Joan Aydelotte

Is the Bryant Controversy Really Over?

Dear Editor,

As a result of the investigation of President Evans, it has been rumored that Vice President Joseph Hagan, Frank Delmonico, and Thomas Manion are going to leave with each of the top four administrative men to become more aware of the student body. It seems that the remark made on January 31, 1973 by President Evans, explaining the resignation of the39 general managers, has been made between President Evans and the three Vice Presidents was never true.

If the three Vice Presidents do leave, what will be the result? Will we lose the collegiate spirit of people who will act just as President Evans wants them to, or will we lose the vice presidents independent thinkers? How much freedom will the students have if the top four administrative men own their jobs to Dr. Evans? These are questions that all of Bryant should be thinking about.

As time goes on, I am becoming more aware of the political play within the Administration of our college. It makes me sick to think that as an end result of the recent controversy, Bryant College may lose three intellectual men who have dedicated their careers to making this college what it is today.

Honesty Does Exist

Dear Editor,

Despite your publications of vandalism and theft printed in the ARCHWAY, "Honesty" does exist on our campus, for which I am very thankful.

Last Monday, when I returned home from a long day at college, I discovered I had lost my wallet at Bryant. The wallet contained fifteen dollars, my registration and license, a spare key to my car, and a few credit cards. To myself I all I could think was that someone was going to have a good time with my possessions.

That evening I checked with Security to see if my wallet had turned up, to no avail. On a hunch, I checked with the bookstore and they did have my wallet. I checked the contents of the wallet and everything was there. To the person who turned in my wallet I am very grateful. It's really a pleasure to know people like you exist.

Very Much Apreciated,

F.H.P., Jr.

To: Faculty, Administration, and Staff

Dear Editor,

It is with mixed emotions that I announce my resignation as Sports Editor, effective July 1, 1973, in order to accept the Presidency of the College. I hope you will accept my resignation. Upon my departure, the BDP and more importantly, the student body aid us by refusing to have Handi-wraps, plastic food wrap and Ziploc bags which are made at the Bay City plant.

If there are individuals or groups on campus who would like to aid us in this humane endeavor, please contact me at the address which is given below.

We request that those individuals above mentioned products which are produced by Dow Chemicals in Bay City and by any other aid or activities which may aid our cause.

Please print this letter in your student newspaper and let me send me a copy.

Thank you,

Martin Schwerin

Bryant Store
A Unique and Exciting Place

A bookstore is usually a place where only books are sold, right? Maybe, but not at Bryant College. The Bryant College Store is an innovative and unique place where one can find his academic and non-academic needs. The Store offers many products from A to Z. It offers everything from Marathon Mugs, Bryant souvenirs, and monogram clothes to sneakers. Yes, sneakers!!

But, there's more. The College Store offers a wide variety of paperbacks along with tape recorders, cameras, radios, stereo systems, TVs, and many more items. It also has quite the selection of greeting cards, film, school supplies, and even health and beauty aids, with a selection ranging from shores to mites to Hai Karate. The Store has even gone so far as to offer TIDE, CHEER, club tested cookies, and other impulse goods that one can purchase in a rush. So, whatever your needs are, the College Store can fill them!!

Why is the Store doing this? Book Sales too low? Not at all, according to Manager Lou Petrucci. Lou is hoping that the unique variety of products can meet the growing demand of the College Community. He hopes that the Store can serve all here on campus, satisfying all tastes and needs. "We are primarily trying to serve, as best we can, the entire community. After all, it's our job," Lou is satisfied with his plans; but wishes the store were a bit larger so that he could offer even more products and a wider variety of goods and services.

The development of the store is enough of a change, but the transition has not finished. In the next few weeks, the College Store will have a few surprises in store for us, including the coming of "Big Boy." The Bryant College Store offers items for every member of the Bryant Community. Why not come in and browse around? You may find just what you're looking for!!!

Route 7: A Dream Come True

by Claude Houle

It was Friday morning; and for a change, a bright, sunny one. I was just coming on Route 7 from 295. As usual, I braced myself for the most dangerous part of my journey to Bryant College—crossing the 116 and 7 "intersection" death pit; and traveling for the next six miles on the worst obstacle course and shock absorber wearer ever. I experienced it many times before, and I knew even now, that the route was at its one of its rare, quiet moments. My optimism grew, but I crossed the pit without problems. This day was different and surprising since the Route 7 that faced me was not a pot-holed, narrow road that went to devour every car; but a wide stretch of grey laid through the beautiful nothingness. Not even a car existed anymore. Today, I made it to Bryant College, safely, all wheels secure, and shakes free.

The State Highway Department had finally repaved Route 7 after several years of complaining by the many Bryant commuters using the road. The State Department finally found the necessary amount of money that was needed to make sure that Route 7 was fit for the drivers and citizens of the area.

So to the State Highway Department, thank you for finally working on something worthwhile. Keep it up, and let's hope that the repaving is the first of many more repavings. We have not seen better traffic conditions in Smithfield, which have been substandard for quite some time. Too many mudholes and fractures have been left to the people.

The Country Comfort Tales

A Humanistic Approach

If your mother never told you anything about ultra-brite or if you've never been to the coffee house here on campus, then I've got something to say to you about that. First of all, is it true? I don't really care what kind of talk you have; or for that matter what type your mother uses either; but I do have a little something to tell you about the coffee house. It's a pretty big old wooden barn over 100 years old and, easy enough, it's looking for some people to come in and take up some space.

The Country Comfort features live entertainment weekly and also has the best cup-of-coffee here on campus. Sorry Dunkin. The Coffee House is open to students for any group function that they might want to hold in there. The coffee house wants to grow and we need your help. If you want to work on the staff, or have any comments, suggestions, or ideas, please consult one of the staff members and chew their ear off for a couple of hours. We know that you are out there but we just can't see you. We are looking for a little help from our friends. We want to grow, as does a tree, from within and upwards, in a positive direction.

Keeley Turns Up First

In a quick turn of events, dark horse candidate Pat Keeley, moonlighting as an English teacher, during the day, extracted the vote needed to win “The Big Screw Contest.”

What was behind this driving force to bring about his victory? Who was responsible for “The Screw” for Keeley movement? This reporter found it difficult to locate anybody to say anything. What he found was somebody saying anything about this whole screwy situation.

In an exclusive, curling interview with the well-rounded victor, I was told not to bring up the “Smackers Award” that he had won three years previous. What else is there left to be said, but “For the victor belongs the Screw.”

The following is Mr. Keeley’s acceptance letter:

“Thank you ladies and gentlemen. On this suspicious occasion I must give special thanks to Professor James Lagrham for his usual suppository remarks. However, I must humbly admit that I cannot accept this award without indicating that many individuals deserve it more than I. I have at times been flat-headed, overly driven, and round-about. Hopefully, I have never lagged behind.

Therefore, to reiterate my thoughts, I must thank all of you for clamping down and giving so generously. You have rotated your voices and fastened upon me. Indeed, you have honored me. I hope this distinct honor will not spiral to my head. Thanks again. I intend to do you all a good turn in the near future.”

Magazine Devoted to Work of Student Authors to be Published This Fall

THE NEW WRITER, a magazine devoted exclusively to quality short stories by student authors and offering a paying market for novels, will be published this fall in New York City.

The magazine, while focusing on fiction, will also include an open forum for reader views, interviews and profiles of teachers and students, and articles by instructors and notables in the literary field.

THE NEW WRITER is being published by Constance Coleman, instructor, journalist, author; and Gladys Gold, journalist and author. "We believe encouraging talented new writers, and developing critical readers of the short story to be the best way to revitalize the whole fiction field," state the publishers.

Stories from students enrolled in any college, university, community writer's workshop or writer's groups within institutions, adult education and continuing education programs will be considered for publication.

Final selections of short stories for each issue will be made by a board of prominent educators and editors directed by Alice S. Morris, former chief literary editor of Harper's Bazaar and instructor of writers at the New School for Social Research in New York.

Information concerning subscriptions and rules for the submission of manuscripts may be obtained by writing to the publishers of THE NEW WRITER at Workshop Publications, 507 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017.

Nassou College failed to get any base hits until the top of the fifth inning. By then, the Indians had scored seven runs, three in the seventh and eight innings.

With the score 0-0 in the top of the eleventh, Nassou put the pressure on by getting a lead off single from pinch-hitter John Stein. But Bryant could not bring anything going and lost the game 2-0.

On the whole, it was a fine showing for the Bryant Indians. There was good, solid hitting throughout the game. Leading the team in hits was Jerry Cole with three hits and freshman Mark Smith also with two hits.

Bryant allowed all eleven innings, but still managed to hold Nassou men. Bryant also showed excellent fielding with not one error.

Bryant was supposed to have a home game last Sunday with St. Francis; but it was called due to snow. There was a game played Monday with Roger Williams at Roger Williams. Bryant won 5-4 with 3 runs in the top of the fifth inning. So let's see you at the next game!

As to the office of Treasurer, Berj feels that more responsibility should be given. With this office came the ability to go ahead, in other words if you spend all of your funds today what will you have tomorrow.

More faculty and administration participation in Student Senate activity is what Berj would like to see, a more personal relationship of the results being more of a one-to-one relationship.

As stated in Berj's running platform, "The communication gap is widening. The International Organization, which Berj is a part of, sponsored Lebanon Night. It featured Lebanese dishes, dances and a movie depicting the beauty of Lebanon. Berj was one of the coordinators of a French Night featuring French food and a movie."

The $5.00 is due by today. If you do not pay, you will be in another way! FYI.

Why Public Relations?

by Thomas Crapienski

Why bother about Public Relations? "Public opinion is the single most powerful force in the world today," claimed Mr. Will Barbeau self-employed P.R. man, as he appeared as a guest lecturer yesterday.

Defining public relations as the evaluation of public attitudes and the creation of policies to change these attitudes, as Mr. Barbeau explained the need for public relations in today's society. Business exists only by the consent of the public in the community. Ideas are very influential forces in getting the message across. Public relations is here to organize these ideas and present them to various segments of society as they are geared. P.R. work is not only concerned with the consumer but the internal operations of an institution, namely the people who function within it.

For those wishing to enter public relations as a career, Mr. Barbeau suggests that one be interested in language. One should be able to use words effectively and write well and an interest in photography is also helpful.

Mr. Barbeau looks upon himself as a parking meter as far as time goes. He finds himself constantly intimidated by what his time is worth which few people are able to form this discipline. This P.R. man cites that public relations is simply "a world of ideas," one who has the ability will succeed.

Topic: Marketing Communications

Mr. Frank McGonagle, Advertising Manager for the Fram Corporation is scheduled to appear Tuesday, April 17 at 12 noon in Room 388.

Mr. McGonagle's presentation will deal with the use of management by objective techniques in the marketing communications field. He will specifically be talking about how Fram sets up definite objectives and goals for its entire marketing communications program and emphasis will be placed on the marketing introduction of Fram's new windshield wiper line.

All are invited to attend.

Indians Take Second In First Meet

by Leon Drury

This past Saturday Bryant College's Track Team hosted a very exciting track and field meet before a crowd of 150 people. Southeastern Massachusetts University dominated most of the track events and finished with a team high of 104 1/2 points. Bryant finished second with 44, Assumption third with 41 1/2 and Bentley fourth with 40 points.

The Indians scored heavily in the field events with sophomore school record holder Brian Ravalli capturing first in the shot put at a mark of 44' 8 1/4. After two years on the sidelines, Bruce Stewart won the high jump with a jump of 6'1. The effort sets a new record that Stewart currently held at 6'. Murray Williams set a mark in the high jump, won the triple jump with only one attempt. Williams was not finished for the day after his 40'10''. Murray narrowly lost to Planning of Assumption's Groen of SMU finishing third. Hall, Bryant long jump record holder, never seemed to get untracked in his specialty. He did not score in the event, but he did manage a second place in the triple jump.

Fresh Bob Charest surprised everyone by winning the javelin at 86' 1/2. Doubles, Bob will be trying to fill the shoes of Walsh and Morgan who dominated the event for Bryant last year. Co. Captain Mark Robbins also chirped in with some valuable points. Robbins finished a second strong in the 140 Intermediate Hurdles with a time of 10.7, and he also took a fourth in the 120 hurdles.

In the mile, Mark Kuchinski of SMU took first place with an excellent time of 4:28.8. Kuchinski also captured the mile three times, as SMU captured all four places in the mile. David Stone finished 4th in the mile, setting a new record of 4:34.9 for the event.

The final event of the day was probably Bryant's high point of the day. Bryant had a narrow 30 to 35 1/2 lead over Assumption for second place going into the mile relay. SMU was favored in the event, but the Indians won the race in surprising fashion. The team of John Dross, David Stone, Mark Robbins and John Macarone finished with a 3:30.6 to edge out Assumption College for second place. The relay's performance was a shade off the school record.

If Bryant students would like to see their team in action, the Indians will be home this Saturday afternoon.

This past Saturday Bryant College's Track Team hosted a very exciting track and field meet before a crowd of 150 people. Southeastern Massachusetts University dominated most of the track events and finished with a team high of 104 1/2 points. Bryant finished second with 44, Assumption third with 41 1/2 and Bentley fourth with 40 points.

The Indians scored heavily in the field events with sophomore school record holder Brian Ravalli capturing first in the shot put at a mark of 44' 8 1/4. After two years on the sidelines, Bruce Stewart won the high jump with a jump of 6'1. The effort sets a new record that Stewart currently held at 6'. Murray Williams set a mark in the high jump, won the triple jump with only one attempt. Williams was not finished for the day after his 40'10''. Murray narrowly lost to Planning of Assumption's Groen of SMU finishing third. Hall, Bryant long jump record holder, never seemed to get untracked in his specialty. He did not score in the event, but he did manage a second place in the triple jump.

Fresh Bob Charest surprised everyone by winning the javelin at 86' 1/2. Doubles, Bob will be trying to fill the shoes of Walsh and Morgan who dominated the event for Bryant last year. Co. Captain Mark Robbins also chirped in with some valuable points. Robbins finished a second strong in the 140 Intermediate Hurdles with a time of 10.7, and he also took a fourth in the 120 hurdles.

In the mile, Mark Kuchinski of SMU took first place with an excellent time of 4:28.8. Kuchinski also captured the mile three times, as SMU captured all four places in the mile. David Stone finished 4th in the mile, setting a new record of 4:34.9 for the event.

The final event of the day was probably Bryant's high point of the day. Bryant had a narrow 30 to 35 1/2 lead over Assumption for second place going into the mile relay. SMU was favored in the event, but the Indians won the race in surprising fashion. The team of John Dross, David Stone, Mark Robbins and John Macarone finished with a 3:30.6 to edge out Assumption College for second place. The relay's performance was a shade off the school record.

If Bryant students would like to see their team in action, the Indians will be home this Saturday afternoon.

From The Grandstand

As of this Tuesday night, the Boston Celtics ended their season with a 6-3 loss to the New York Rangers. The series was a hard fought one, with the Bruins suffering through many misfortunes in the five games. But the Bruins did have their day, however, with a knee injury after the second game. Bobby Orr seemed to be skating with restraint, and other Bruins skated even more with cautionary series. It is funny that now New York fans will be congratulating Coach Emilie Francis, after axing him with "Goodbye Emilie" two weeks ago.

In the NBA playoffs, the same circumstances have presented themselves. The Boston Celtics, after standing and falling through the early part of the year, have put together a great showing of the Baltimore Bullets in their quarter final series. Every member of the New York team contributed to their efforts, and the result has been a 6-3 series, that might be enough to win it all. Once again, the team that is supposed to have thought could had an easy series in the first round, is now in a difficult position to finally win the game.

The Boston Celtics were easily the pre-NBA playoffs favorite, with MVP Dave Cowens, Sam Silas, All Star Jo Jo White and the great Al Green. The Bullets, on the other hand, could be easily dismissed from the beginning. And yet, they evened the first round. The first two games went according to script, as Boston won the opener, and won the second game. Unfortunately, for the Celtics, the Hawks have stopped playing "dead."

In the last two games, it has been all Atlanta Pete "Pistol Pete" Maravich, who has made the difference. He has scored and played the game of partly glory. "The Pistol," who has a tendency of over-reaching, settled down somewhat and the result has been a better all money game. Even if the Celts pull this series out, it will be the Hawks' determined play that will be remembered.

Celtics in the semi-finals, there have also been a big surprise. The two favorites, Los Angeles and Milwaukee, find themselves in a battle similar to Celts. The Bullets are finding the Celtics are far from the best they have ever been. They have won two games, and anything could happen in the last three games. Golden State's Rick Barry, who has been forced to follow back, has shown off of his greatest talents, and the ABA New York Mets to the end of the ABA playoffs last season, and he might be the spark golden State needs down the stretch.

Through my own misfortune, I was able to see the end of the L.A. - Chicago Bulls playoff game. At the time I picked up the game, the Bulls were leading by two points, and I drove away in a few of his thirty-six points, and the Bulls had knocked the team at two games apiece. Will Chamberlain change his attitude fast, or will it be a cold day early evacuation.

These results seem to bear out one important fact. "Anything goes in the playoffs," and it is true. The results in the Celts series against the Bullets have been much more than one might expect, and such circumstances can alter a series outcome considerably. That is why the playoffs are considered a "second season" and that is why they are a "must" for any sports fan.

Collard Preparares For Boston Marathon

By Peter Lockstahl

At last Richard Collard has come to the moment that he has trained so hard for. This Monday is his big day. He is competing in the famous Boston Marathon for the second time. As a matter of fact, no one was surprised everyone (including former Approachable Baseball Player, George "Lepidus", singing a hit song, "Bosco, Olandus, Olandus"). As the 2:00 mark approaches, he must be there, but the incentive of running a Boston marathon, the supposed "Hardest Marathon in the World." Bostonians are after the race. The blisters, headaches, stomach cramps and muscle pains drive me up a wall and it may be as long as a week to ten days before I'm near normal again.

Ronald Chamblerlain is a factor of the race that might rub Collard in the eye of a sporting public almost all attention is centered toward winter games' grand finals.

As of this writing, three of the four quarter final series in the National Basketball Association are all decided. Only the Knicks series with the Bullets remains to be decided with a few games left.

The Chicago Bulls are a team that are starting to show the signs of a really good team. They have scored a ton of points, and the result has been a better all money game. Even if the Celts pull this series out, it will be the Hawks' determined play that will be remembered.

Bryant Excels In Providence Open

This past weekend the 1973 Providence Open was held in the Rhode Island Tennis Center. The first-round draw was held Sunday and was attended by several thousand fans. The winner was $1,000 awarded to the winner and runner-up. Trophies were bestowed upon the top finishers in each classification of the tournament. Bryant's Tennis Team was well represented by Howie Dornfeld, Nick Cast, howie Schirwell and Larry Sevin.

In Saturday's action in the Novice class, the team's overall performance was no surprise. Larry Sevin highlighted the team by advancing to the semi-finals of the doubles tournament. Keepers of the four (out of a field of 64), Larry possessed the "Levegan" and was a member of the top flight field. Also making Bryant's name well-known was Howie Dornfeld. A true player, he was one of the top finishers before losing to the second round. Bryant was the one who faced the misfortune of facing the eventual winner of this event.

The Men's Singles class was played in two divisions. The doubles division was won by Howie Dornfeld and Larry Sevin.

Rangers Down Bruins: High Low

by Buddy Trinkle

Playoff time is here and what better way to start than Chamblerlains? You can't take a Boston guy like Jerry West, it is easy to see that he doesn't, pennies the same thing. Jerry West did his best, and with an NBA Championship finally realized, West has become compliment which is indicative of the way the players have worked all season long.

In the game, the Bruins will have nothing less than a super effort.

In the series, the Rangers and the Boston Bruins will have a tough but successful. The Rangers are as a Boston tough duo but are their counterparts, Kurt and Allen. On sheer ability the Bulls are the favorites but Oscar Robertson is quickly fading and so are the Hawks. Wham is the supposed dynamism of a few years ago? Dynasty seems to be a thing of the past. Big salt—no action.

Semifinal contestants will probably mean a return to the Providence Open. The Rangers has alread lost the quarter final series of the series. With a knee injury after the second game, Bobby Orr seemed to be skating with restraint, and other Bruins skated even more with cautionary series. It is funny that now New York fans will be congratulating Coach Emilie Francis, after axing him with "Goodbye Emilie" two weeks ago.
