Women's Summit to explore workplace challenges

Submitted by College Relations

Work-related stresses disproportionately affect women, many of whom must successfully negotiate a delicate balance between work and family needs. In responding to this concern, Bryant will present a Women's Summit Monday, September 15, focusing on issues of working women. Senator John Chafee, the conference chairman, will deliver the opening address, the summit runs from 8 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

The Women's Summit: Rising to Workplace Challenges in the Next Millennium will offer presentations, workshops, and breakout sessions that examine such topics as mentoring, integrating work and family, and diversity in the workforce.

Among the featured speakers are Hazel Henderson, a futurist and author of six books, including Building a Win-Win World; Sue Henra, anchor of CNBC's Business Tonight; and author of Women on the Street: Making It on Wall Street—The World's Toughest Business; and Joanna Lau '97, president of Lau Technologies.

The summit is free and open to the public. The luncheon fee is $18, though lunch is optional. Students, faculty, and staff are cordially invited to attend the keynote address, which will be given by Sue Henra. It is scheduled from 11:45 to 12:30 p.m. in the MAC.

Summit brochures are available in Career Services. The extended registration deadline is September 5. Advanced registration is required, please call 332-6505 for information or to register.

Federal Trade Commission news

Two Seattle, WA-based companies and their principal officers have agreed to pay an estimated $280,000 into a redress pool from which partial refunds may be made to students who paid $1,500 to $70 for either high-paying summer jobs in the Alaskan fishing industry or on cruise ships, or for scholarships or other college financial aid, the Federal Trade Commission announced today. The FTC had charged the defendants—Progressive Media, Inc. and Collegiate Communications Group, Inc.—with November with misrepresenting that the employment and financial aid directories they sold through telemarketing calls actually were "programs" that guaranteed students jobs with room, board, and transportation, or free financial aid from a "$5 billion pool of unclaimed money". "This FTC case involves a multi-million dollar telemarketing scheme that involved more than 75 actions that many people will be bringing in their PCs the first several days, and there are only so many machines that can be worked on in five hours.

Problems in general, you can contact one of our Resident Computer Technicians, or RCCs. We have set up an RIC trouble-ticketing line for you to report problems. Just dial ext. 6550 and leave a voice message detailing your problem, and an RCC will contact you will a solution or to set up an appointment.

If you have any problems, comments, or concerns regarding the ResNet installations or our support services, please contact Richard Botelho (ext. 6229) or Michael Thompson (ext. 6349) or mikes@bryant.edu.

Six signs that program may be a scam

1) "The scholarship is guaranteed or your money back." No one can guarantee that they will get you a grant or scholarship, since they are based on financial figures and grades.

2) "You can't get this information anywhere else." There are many lists of scholarships. Check with your school or library before you decide to pay someone to do the work for you.

3) "May I have your credit card or bank account number to hold this scholarship?" Don't give out such information on the phone without getting information in writing first. They may set up an unauthorized withdrawal.

4) "We'll do all the work." Don't be fooled. There are no guarantees; you must apply for grants or scholarships yourself.

5) "The scholarship will cost some money." Don't pay anyone who claims to be "holding" a scholarship or grant for you. Free money should not cost a thing.

6) "You've been selected by a "national foundation" to receive a scholarship," or "You're a finalist" in a contest you never entered. Before you send money to apply for a scholarship to check it out. Make sure the program or foundation is legitimate.

The Hodgson Memorial Library: Supporting Bryant's Mission

The Hodgson Memorial Library supports the Bryant College mission of being a student-centered college that prepares its graduates to achieve their personal best in life and business. The library contributes to this mission by striving for quality and comprehensiveness in its collection, by providing instruction for students and faculty in the use of library resources, and lastly, by helping students find and evaluate relevant information. Our staff strives to ensure Bryant students leave the college with the skills they need to function in an information age; i.e., the ability to find, manage, and evaluate information stored in both print and electronic formats.

The library has evolved over the years into a sophisticated repository of information resources. Along with a collection of over 125,000 print books and journals, the library houses thirteen CD-ROM products, a full-text image network for article retrieval, three on-line products (Dialog, LEXIS/NEXIS and Bridge), and a library with the scheduling software as follows:

<td>September 19 How to Research a Company</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>September 26 Using Proquest for Article Retrieval</td>

</tr>
</tbody>

We aim to be student-centered. In keeping with this goal, the reference staff will be holding a Friday morning series of informal instruction lectures on the use of library resources. Our goal is to offer solid instruction in an informal atmosphere while providing an opportunity for the library staff to get to know individual students and their needs. Coffee and doughnuts will be offered to all those attending. The lectures will be held on Friday mornings from 10:00 - 11:00 a.m., with the schedule as follows:

Welcome back and I hope everyone had an enjoyable, relaxing summer. The busiest time for ROTC is the summer months and this past summer was no exception. Early in the summer we awarded scholarships for the upcoming school year, and throughout the summer ROTC cadets attended a variety of training all over the country. Allow me to bring you up to date on what the Cadets from Bryant College did this past summer.

Army ROTC awarded over $156,000 dollars of scholarships to six Bryant students over the summer. Scott Gill, Danielle Porter, Patrick Griffin, Colleen Anderson, James Eddy, and Arthur Jones were all awarded 2-Year scholarships worth $12,000 per year. John Calegari and Victor Soto were awarded 3-Year scholarships worth $9,000 per year. These Bryant students competed against other students from colleges nationwide. Each applicant was evaluated on academic excellence, demonstrated leadership potential, physical fitness, extracurricular activities, and oral and written communication skills. In addition to the amount of scholarships awarded, each cadet will receive $450 per year for books and supplies, and $150 per month of school enrollment for living expenses. Each recipient has demonstrated mental and physical fitness, integrity, moral courage, and high leadership potential necessary to receive such an award.

Of the two scholarship winners, Victor Eddy and Patrick Griffin, spent six weeks this summer attending Camp Challenge competing for their scholarships. Camp Challenge is six weeks of rigorous, intense training at Fort Knox, Kentucky. While at Camp Challenge, cadets live the life of an Army Soldier. Cadets go through a series of demanding and stressful leadership challenges, confidence courses, water survival training, first-aid, marksmanship, physical fitness, rappelling, land navigation, and a 3-day tactical training exercise. The training is designed to develop each cadet's leadership ability and instill the traits and values it takes to become an Army Officer. While at camp, the cadets compete against each other for the scholarships that are available. Vladimir and Patrick represented Bryant extremely well this summer. Both individuals excelled in all areas. Congratulations to both of you.

Cadets Jeff Holt and Eric Fontenot attended the Army’s Airborne School at Fort Benning Georgia. Airborne School is a three week course designed to teach new parachute troopers how to jump from an aircraft by parachute. The physically demanding course is broken down into three weeks of intense training. During the first week, “Ground Week,” soldiers are instructed how to execute a parachute landing fall, make individual exits from a mock aircraft door, and begin to exit from a 34-foot tower. During the second week, “Tower Week,” troopers learn about the Swing Landing Trainer and the Deployed Har-

BRYANT ONE CARD

All resident students, other than those residing in a townhouse, must participate in a meal-plan. If you purchased a Meals Plus Plan, you will be entitled to a number of meals, plus there will be a balance of “points” on the card which may be used as discretionary spending money at the following locations: The Bagel Express, Bookstore, Heritage Dining, The Scoop, Subway, Pizza Hut, Images, The Info Desk, Salmanson Dining Hall, and South Dining Hall. Additional points, (minimum of $25.00), may be purchased through the Bursar’s Office.

Your Bryant One Card may also be used for vending, laundry, and — sometime in September — for copies in the Library. Discounts will be given by using the One Card for those services. The above services are activated only when you have deposited funds to your vending stripe or have transferred points to vending. Either of the transactions mentioned above must be done at the CVC machines, located in the Umstructure near the ATM and at the Bryant Center near South Dining Hall.

As in the past, if you should lose your Bryant ID, please report it to the ARAMARK office immediately. ARAMARK will continue to lock out cards for dining hall entry when the card is reported as lost, when we cannot prevent anyone from using the vending stripe.

The magnetic stripe used for vending, is an off-line function. There are no tracking capabilities for deposits or usage of your card. This means that should you lose or damage your card, refunds cannot be issued for any funds remaining on your vending stripe. Having dollars on the vending stripe is like having cash. For this reason, we are restricting the dollar value allowed on the vending stripe to $20.00. You may add cash to the vending stripe at any time, by visiting either CVC unit. Since your ID is now worth money, PLEASE be careful with it.

Please direct any questions, concerns, or thoughts on this system to Eileen McAuliffe in Support Services Assistant, at x6035.

1997-98 INTERNSHIPS

in the City hall of Mayor Vincent A. Cianci, Jr. and other Providence City Departments

Internships for fall 1997 and Spring 1998 are immediately available in the office of Providence Mayor Vincent A. Cianci, Jr. and other City departments. The Mayor’s Office is seeking motivated, industrious, creative students who care about the community and want to be an active part of a Reannaissance city government. These are unpaid internships (mainly for academic credit).

Interns work closely with the Mayor’s Staff on timely and compelling projects, with a current focus on urban renewal and environmental action in the neighborhoods. Projects include providing better community facilities and public services and fulfilling new initiatives developed in the city of Providence. Students gain excellent first-hand experience helping an innovative, dynamic mayor serve a burgeoning capital city and its varied mix of programs and people.

These internships are ideal for students majoring in Political science, Urban studies, Business Administration, Communications, Advertising, Public Relations, Marketing, Journalism, Photography, Hospitality, Computer Science, Accounting, Education, Psychology, Social Sciences, Law Enforcement, Engineering, and other related fields. As many as thirty openings are available during each semester.

Applicants should have good communication skills including research, writing, wordprocessing, computer, telephoning, and basic interviewing skills. If so chosen, students can be assigned to areas related to their field of interest. Beyond this work, responsibilities may include assistance in a variety of periodic special events, and clerical functions when needed.

A commitment of 12 hours per week minimum is expected of most interns, whether the student is earning academic credit or not. Students must provide their own transportation and parking. RIPTA bus transportation to Kennedy Plaza and other Providence locations is convenient from most cities and towns throughout the state.

Applicants should call or write to:
DeWolf Fulton - Office of the Mayor - City Hall (401) 421-7740 X222.

Life is difficult, but I'm durable. I'm able to work hard day after day. I can go for weeks without getting any rewards or pleasures.

I know that this is going to sound goofy, but do get a small satisfaction from being able to buy a box of pop-up facial tissues whenever I need to. Too small. Too soft. Too quiet, small, clean, soft, and dry—unexpensive. I use one and then another pops up quietly waiting for me.... simple. Not digital. No instruction manual. My body commits a small foulness but the tissues help me and they ask for nothing....

When I find myself feeling deeply appreciative of my tissue box by the bed, late at night, and dry—unexpensive. I know it must've been a truly rotten week.

The Rules:
* Games are played to 18 pts win (or whoever is leading after 20 minutes).
* Baskets inside the arc are one point and baskets behind are worth two.
* No make-it-take.
* Tournament consists of a round robin format followed by a single elimination playoff.
* Call your own fouls and respect the calls. Any unsportsmanlike conduct will result in immediate disqualification from tournament.
* We reserve the right to verify players' height and weight.
Women's soccer preview:

Head coach Chris Guay is relying on the experience of ten returning starters to propel Bryant to its first winning season since 1987. "I have high expectations after last season. We were very competitive. Hopefully, we'll be able to pull out of some of the one- and two-goal losses we suffered last fall."

A balanced offensive attack is spearheaded by forwards Kim Gregory and Kathy Harrison. The duo accounted for over half of Bryant's goals last season. Harrison became one of the NE-10's top offensive weapons, finishing sixth in the conference in scoring (10-3-23) and recording three multi-goal games. One of the best athletes on the squad, Harrison scored two goals and played in goal in the same game on two separate occasions. Senior forward Alison Farley, the team's assistant leader a year ago, rounds out the front line.

Junior Eileen Flaherty anchors the midfield. Flaherty gives the Bulldogs a reliable scoring punch, chipping in with 4-2-10 in '96. She will be flanked by junior Christina Battista and sophomore Sarah Burkle. Sophomore sweeper Andrea Hurley turned heads as one the conference's best young players. In net for the Bulldogs is Stephanie Smith, who turned in a solid freshman campaign, posting two shutouts despite missing three games due to injury.

Men's soccer preview:

Led by all-American candidate Jared Dewey, the Bulldogs are primed to make their first post-season appearance in three years. After a quiet sophomore campaign, Dewey was nearly dominant last fall. The all-conference selection scored a school record of 16 goals and tied school bests for points (seven) and goals (three) in a game. The explosive senior needs eight goals to become Bryant's all-time leading goal scorer and 32 points to become the college's career scoring leader.

Other key returners for the Bulldogs are senior Scott Mann, a very capable midfielder who tallied 16 points in '95, and senior sweeper Ken Verzella.

THE CLASS OF $2001 CHALLENGE!

If you are a freshman, you are eligible to win $2001! Five freshmen will be randomly selected at halftime of Saturday's men's soccer game against New Haven at 1:00 p.m., for a shot to win $2001! Admission is FREE.
